Warroad wants to be the county seat—and will build courthouse to prove it

Warroad — The city of Warroad has offered to build a courthouse for Roseau county, but there is a catch. The catch is that the courthouse must be constructed within the city limits of Warroad and that the county seat be moved to Warroad and remain there. If the county seat were to be changed back to Roseau or another city in the future, Warroad would expect reimbursement from the county for all expenses. County Auditor Anne Granitz said state law spells out that to move the county seat the measure must win by at least 55 per cent of the vote in a special election.

Snowmobile accident

Hallock — Dean David Cory, 25, of Moorhead, was injured December 30 when his 1995 Ski-Doo hit a frozen lump of ice on a snowmobile trail in Kittson county and the snowmobile was thrown into the air. The vehicle hit the ground sideways and threw Cory from the sled, breaking his left leg below the knee. He was transported to Kittson Memorial Hospital in Hallock and treated for the fracture. According to the Kittson County Sheriff's Department, no alcohol was involved in the accident and the snowmobile was not damaged.

New name for Warren hospital is North Valley Health Center

Warren — The Warren Community Hospital has been renamed North Valley Health Center. The name was chosen over more than 200 suggestions in a contest to choose a new name for the hospital that would be "more inclusive of all the health services provided by the institution." The new name was suggested by Deb Erickson, office employee of Marshall County Nursing Service.

Propane blast at Goodridge school causes damage

Propane exploded in a boiler room Tuesday evening at Goodridge school causing about $50,000 damage and the school to be called off on Wednesday, January 4.

Dale Hanson, Goodridge fire department chief, said that they believe propane apparently leaked from a pipe serving two propane water heaters in the boiler room and built up to the point where under the right conditions it flashed. The explosion blew open the doors to the boiler room and a plexiglass window. There was a small fire, which was contained to the boiler room, but a lot of smoke throughout the three-story building.

Hanson said the explosion was heard by a neighbor who had called the fire department at about 11:30 p.m. Hanson said the Thief River Falls fire department was placed on standby as a precaution.

Hanson believes one of the reasons the fire was so small was because the explosion damaged a soldered joint on a water pipe and water sprayed into the boiler room. He said the fire department did cut a hole into the wall by the chimney on the second floor to make sure there wasn't any fire in the insulation. There was considerable damage to the boiler room and utilities at the school.

Hanson said there was concern for the building because of the severe cold that night. Before the heating system could be repaired, the heating plant in the new gym was used to help keep the building from freezing.

No one was injured in the explosion and fire, although there had been people in the building attending a game in the gym just prior to the explosion.

Fire department, janitors, school officials and the Assistant State's fire marshal were at the building most of the night.

Sal Hoffert, school superintendent, said Wednesday that school had been cancelled Wednesday, but he was hoping that the school could be reopened for Thursday. Heat to the building was restored Wednesday morning. He added that repair crews have been very helpful and he appreciated their dropping what they were doing to tackle the problems at the school.

Students were back in their classrooms Thursday.

4-H communications contest January 20 for Pennington Co.

Pennington county 4-H communications contest will be held Monday, January 20, beginning at 7 p.m. in the courthouse meeting room in Thief River Falls. Contestants may compete in the areas of public speaking, interpretive reading, creative writing or photo story.

Categories will be for Cloverbuds in first, second and third grades; Beginners in fourth, fifth and sixth grades; Intermediates in seventh, eighth and ninth grades; and Seniors in 10th, 11th and 12 grades.

Contestants are asked to call the county extension office with the name, age and category in which the contestant wishes to participate. County winners will advance to the cluster contest to be held April 18 in Newfolden.

Topics of the contest are the following:

"Minds are like parachutes—they only function when they are open."
—Lord Thomas Dewar

"Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves." —Abraham Lincoln

"Let your actions be led by yourself, not by events."
—Bhagavad Gita

In the public speaking area, Cloverbuds will have a time limit of one to three minutes, Beginners two to four minutes, Intermediates four to five minutes and Seniors seven to eight minutes. Only 3x5 note card may be used for reference in Intermediate and Senior divisions.

In the interpretive reading area, time limits are the same as for public speaking. Reading is done from a script and sources can be published prose, poetry, fiction, comedy, humor, children's literature, news articles, speeches, letters, journals or other materials. Sources can be put together with brief bridging statements.

Creative writing requires one or two pages for Beginners, two or three pages for Intermediates and four pages plus a cover page for seniors.

Photo story involves two photos for Beginners; one 5x7 photo or a series of up to five 3 1/2x5 or 4x6 photos on a 22x28 black poster or mat board with short captions plus a 250-word essay for Intermediates; and one 8x10 or series of up to five 3 1/2x5 or 4x6 photos mounted on mat board with captions plus a 500-word supporting essay for Seniors.

Stamp demand doesn't stump TRF post office

26,000 three-cent stamps are sold on hectic Tuesday

"It was definitely busier than any day before Christmas!" Thief River Falls postmaster Dick McCloskey said about the number of people coming to the post office Tuesday, January 3, to purchase stamps following the new rate change.

In greatest demand was the "make-up" stamp, a not-denominated stamp with the postage value of three cents. Coupled with the previously used 29-cent first class stamp—or 29-cent stamped envelope—it makes up the 32 cents in postage now required to mail a first class letter.

McCloskey said he has been in the postal business long enough to anticipate the public response, and so the local office had plenty of not-denominated and regular issue three-cent stamps on hand to meet the demand Tuesday. Just the same, it was a hectic day for postal workers.

All three windows at the local post office were kept open all day Tuesday, but lines still extended from the service area out into the general post office lobby. At times the people who had transacted their business at the windows had difficulty making their way back out of the service area to leave the building.

"For a while I thought we would have to route them out the back door to avoid the crowd of people waiting," McCloskey said.

In total, about 26,000 three-cent stamps or their not-denominated counterparts were sold on Tuesday alone. This compared with only a couple of thousand during the entire previous week, although the rate change had been announced well in advance and the post office had been selling three-cent stamps for several weeks.

Demand for the new first class stamp—also not-denominated and carrying simply a G designation—has been about normal from general customers for regular first class postage. There may have been a slightly higher demand by some businesses and others who regularly purchase first class stamps in coils, McCloskey said.

The new first class stamp was printed as a G issue because it was necessary for the U. S. Post Office to begin printing the increased rate stamps before it was known for sure what the increase would be. The same situation applies to the G rate make-up stamp which had been assigned a three-cent value after the rate of increase was determined.

McCloskey said he didn't know when the post office here will receive its first stamps with a denomination of 32 cents printed on them. The U.S. Post Office will feature actress Marilyn Monroe on its first 32-cent stamp issue with an initial printing of 400 million. Envelopes with 32-cent postage printed on them will also be received later.

Postage stamps have been of considerable area and community interest of late due to a change in postal rates this week. People waited in long lines in the Thief River Falls post office Tuesday to purchase three-cent stamps or the "G" rate make-up stamp valued at three cents. Added to the previous 29-cent first class postage, the three-cent stamps make up the difference between that rate and the new 32-cent rate. In the photo above are (left to right) one of the former 29-cent stamps, the new "G" issue first class stamp valued at 32 cents, the "G" rate make-up stamp valued at three cents and a standard three-cent stamp.

Woman racer enters TRF Ironman

Valerie Schaleben of Detroit Lakes holds her own in ISOC Women's and Class I Men's Division

Valerie Schaleben of Detroit Lakes had a successful career in motorcycle motocross racing before switching her emphasis to snowmobile racing. She has a record of winning most of the women's events she enters and has placed well in men's divisions as well.

by Murvin Lundin
Northern Watch Editor

"I guess I've always been kind of a risk taker," snowmobile racer Valerie Schaleben says. "I like the speed, the competition, the thrill and attention you get from winning. Growing up in a competitive atmosphere probably had a lot to do with it."

For Valerie, snowmobile racing is sort of a tame way to spend a weekend—especially after a career of motocross motorcycle racing. She hasn't had any serious injuries on snowmobiles, after suffering three broken legs, a fractured collarbone and broken and dislocated fingers in motocross racing.

Not that she holds back on the snow machines. She rides an Arctic Cat ZR 440 in the Women's classes and a Z440 in the Men's Class I as a member of the Team Arctic racing program, winning most of her women's races and normally placing well up among the men in Class I. She will participate in both events during the Ironman ISOC races in Thief River Falls January 14 and 15.

Valerie To Race Grand 500

She will also be back in Thief River Falls on January 24 where the first leg of the four-day Grand 500 race from Winnipeg to Hinckley will end. She is entered in the women's class of that race and believes she should be considered a favorite to win it.

"I'm going all out to win it," she said, "and I will win if my sled holds together."

The Grand 500 race starts January 24 in Winnipeg and has overnight stops in Thief River Falls, Bemidji and Garrison before ending January 27 at Hinckley.

Mechanical problems plagued her last weekend at Brainerd where she won her qualifying heat in Class I on Saturday and was leading the Sunday race with a lap to go when her snowmobile developed chain case failure and forced her out of the race. The week before at Detroit Lakes she won the Women's division and placed fifth overall in Class I.

She won the Women's class at the Duluth Spirit National at Spirit Mountain near Duluth and was seventh in Class I. In the races at Pine Lake several weeks ago she ran well but was disqualified for length of studs. Her father, Joe Schaleben, serves as her crew chief and helps her set up her machines.

Father Encourages Competition

Joe has encouraged his children to compete. He used to race sprint cars in the 1950s and 1960s and his two sons also raced. In her high school years Valerie was ferried around the country by her dad to compete in slalom and giant slalom ski races. She also played high school tennis and made three trips to the state girls' tennis tournament. By the time she was 16 she had qualified for her private pilot's license.

Motocross in Minnesota was almost exclusively a men's sport when Valerie took on that challenge and a lot of the male racers weren't eager to race against her. At the

An enthusiastic snowmobile racer for the past four years, Valerie Schaleben of Detroit Lakes has been highly successful in the Men's Semi-Pro I class where she finished second overall last season. She will be competing in Thief River Falls next weekend

Baudette men face cherges in series of burglerles

Baudette — Two Baudette area men face felony charges on possession of a controlled substance and burglary as the result of a raid on their home by Lake of the Woods law enforcement. Darren Barnes, 28, and Nicholas Dahl, 21, face charges in a series of burglaries of Baudette area homes and seasonal residences and hunting cabins over the past few months.

Whet do you think — Senta or e "greedy old man"?

Alexandria — Several letters to the editor in the December 30 Echo-Press addressed problems with Santa at the Viking Plaza in Alexandria. Santa asked that parents not bring their own cameras to the visit but, instead, purchase a studio shot taken by his helper for $4.50. One mother, Melanie Hanson of Alexandria, writing a letter to the editor, took exception to the fact that she could not take her own pictures and stated, in her letter, that this Santa was "just a greedy old man making money off of dear Santa's name and reputation." The Viking Plaza Santa wrote a letter defending himself and the Plaza manager also wrote a letter to the editor in support of "Santa Bob."

Red Lake Falls — Toys donated through the Toys For Tots program in the Twin Cities were late arriving in Red Lake Falls for Christmas distribution so many of them will be held for next year's Christmas. Willard Brunelle, Rural Life Outreach worker, said that several people were ready and willing to help get the toys from the Cities to Red Lake Falls, but, despite their best efforts, the toys did not arrive in Red Lake Falls until December 28. Brunelle, who is the coordinator of the toys now that they have reached Red Lake Falls, plans to hold most of the toys for next year, and distribute some to the county nursing service and the WIC program. The toys are intended for low income families in a 22 county area of northwest Minnesota.

EGF is fined for wastewater violation

East Grand Forks — The Minnesota Pollution Control Agency has penalized the city of East Grand Forks $2,000 for violating the city's wastewater permit. According to the city's superintendent of public works, the incident occurred in August when an East Grand Forks private contractor accidentally punctured the city force main, which released raw sewage into the Red river for several days. The agency alleged the city waited more than two days to notify the agency of the spill instead of notifying them within 24 hours as required by the city's permit. The city will also be fined an additional $2,000 if it does not take measures to prevent future incidents. The city treasurer said the city will not pay the additional fine because it will be replacing the equipment and has complied with the measures to prevent future incidents.

Costly witness

Red Lake Falls — Red Lake County Sheriff Al Morken recently tried to explain why the county has been billed $3,790.70 for ambulance services. The bill was incurred for transporting a witness in a court case from a Twin Cities hospital to Red Lake Falls. The court ordered the witness back to Red Lake Falls, and the Red Lake Falls Ambulance service did the transporting. According to Sheriff Morken, medical assistance will not pay the bill because the transportation was court ordered. County attorney Dan Geller stated it would have been cheaper to record the person's testimony in the hospital in the Cities, but the sheriff claims it would have cost more because it would have been necessary to bring other witnesses, court reporters and attorneys to the Twin Cities. It was decided that the sheriff will resubmit the bill to medical assistance in hopes that they will pay it.

Rehearsals for NCC Masterworks chorale to begin

Northland Masterworks Chorale begins rehearsals 7 p.m. Monday, January 9 in room D100 at Northland Community College. Practices will be held Monday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m. in preparation for this season's performance February 27.

"Our headline masterwork is 'The Magnificat' by John Rutter," said Northland Community College Music Director Les Torgerson.

Masterworks Chorale is a regionally based choir operating with funds from the Minnesota Community College system. Masterworks Chorale provides an opportunity for talented singers throughout northwest Minnesota to join together in the performance of major works which may be beyond the resources or scope of other choral groups in the area. Past projects include "The Messiah", "Elijah", "Rejoice in the Lamb", and others. Each year several music instructors as well as select outstanding high school students participate. Auditions are not held, but music reading ability is a must. College credit is available, or one can register for continuing education.

Torgerson is pleased to announced that the chorale will have new choir robes for this year's performance. The choir robes were funded partially by a McKnight Grant through the Northwest Regional Development Commission.

For more information on the Northland Masterworks Chorale, please contact Les Torgerson at (218) 681-2181 or 1-800-628-9918.

Prichard won the television set just for bringing in his Buick Value Days game piece, mailed out by Buick Division of General Motors, Inc., Denny Gasher, sales manager (right), presented a display representing the television set to Prichard.

NCC will offer CPR recertification course

Northland Community College will be offering a one-night CPR recertification course on Monday, January 30, at 6 p.m.

This review course provides people with a CPR certificate the opportunity to update their certification without having to complete an entire course.

To be eligible for the course, the participant must possess one of the following: a current American Red Cross Adult CPR certificate; a current American Red Cross Community CPR certificate; an equivalent American Hearth Association CPR certificate (issued within one year).

Participants must bring their current certificate with them to class. Each participant will take a written exam and will be expected to demonstrate adult, child, and infant obstructed airway, rescue breathing, and CPR technique. Adult only CPR recertification will also be available.

Cost for the recertification class is $15. The instructor for this course will be Kathy Huschle.

For more information or to register, contact Katy Henke at (218) 681-2181 or 1-800-628-9918. The deadline to register is Friday, January 27, 1995.

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere

This week we will try to clean up some letters and requests that I have been unable to take care of before, as well as give you a new recipe or two.

Helga Tramby of McIntosh sent this recipe in response to the request for meatless soup by a reader. She said it is an old recipe and very good:

BEEF BOUILLON CUBE SOUP

Use 2 cubes of beef bouillon to 1 quart water and add any kind of vegetables.

Judy Dziengel of Route 1, Box 13A, Kennedy, MN 56733, would like dessert recipes that use raspberries. She had a good crop of berries that she froze and now would like some ideas on what to do with them.

I had a request for the chocolate covered cherry recipe that was printed a few months ago and I can't seem to locate it anywhere. If anyone has the recipe, would they send it to me at the Northern Watch, P.O. Box 100, so that I could print it again.

We still haven't gotten very many crock pot recipes for the lady who requested them, so if anyone has any, please send me a copy.

This dessert looks like fun and tastes like a banana split:

BANANA SPLIT
BROWNIE PIZZA

1 package brownie mix
2 (8 ounce) packages cream cheese, softened
2/3 cup sugar
1 (8 ounce) can crushed pineapple, drained
Banana slices
Lemon juice
Strawberry slices
1/2 cup chopped nuts
1 ounce semi-sweet chocolate
1 tablespoon butter

Preheat oven to 375 degrees.

Prepare brownie mix according to package directions. Place waxed paper on large pizza pan and pour brownie mixture on pan. Spread into large circle.

Bake 15-20 minutes until set. Turn upside down to remove waxed paper and place back on pizza pan. Let cool completely.

Mix cream cheese and sugar until smooth. Spread over crust.

Top with crushed pineapple, then bananas (dip each slice in lemon juice) and strawberries. Sprinkle with nuts.

Melt chocolate and butter together, stirring until smooth. Drizzle over pizza. Chill and then cut like a pizza, if desired, or in small squares.

How about some bars that taste like candy — made with crackers:

TWIX CANDY BARS

1/2 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup margarine
1 cup graham cracker crumbs
1/2 cup white sugar
1/4 cup milk
1/2 cup chocolate chips
2/3 cup peanut butter
1/2 cup butterscotch chips
Club crackers

Boil brown sugar, white sugar, margarine and milk for five minutes. Add graham cracker crumbs.

Line a 9x13 inch pan with Club crackers and pour above mixture over. Top with another layer of club crackers.

Melt both kinds of chips and peanut butter together and pour over top of bars. Spread.

Let cool and cut into squares.

LETTERS

To The Editor:

While growing up in Thief River Falls the big issue was to shop local, to help the community. And from what my family says, the community still tries to push the saying. Why?

While at my parents' house in Thief River Falls for my wedding reception, I looked all over town for a dress or skirt to wear that evening. I should have turned around when I realized, an hour from my house, that we forgot my dress. It would have been a lot easier. After looking in every store in town, I finally settled for a summer type dress from a store that was going out of business.

Another item was that my mother had put an announcement in the paper announcing the reception. In one of the papers (Sat., Nov. 5) I was "Polly Jo Bjerke, and I found out that my father-in-law has the same name as my husband's, not Robert as I had thought.

Then the good ones hit in the November 9th issue. My name was correct by my father-in-law was still named John, and to our surprise the event was now located at the Legion club rooms. I could have dismissed the announcement that said "Wedding reception for J. Forsbergs will be November 12," but with everything else wrong that could not be accepted.

I have only been gone from Thief River Falls for five years, what happened? You want people to stay in this town, but what kind of service do you provide? My husband had been to TRF a few times before so he knew a little about the town and its people, but I was surprised and found it hard to explain the poor service to my in-laws. I hope ours was an isolated case.

Sincerely,
Patty Jo (Forsberg) Bjerke

P.S. My mother did talk to the editor and received an apology. Thank you.

For Once We Agree With Paul Wellstone

It took a long time from the date of his election to U.S. Senatorship, but we have finally found something on which we can agree with Sen. Paul Wellstone. The senator has come out strongly in favor of continuation of the Conservation Reserve Program (CRP).

Sen. Wellstone expressed his opinion in a letter sent to Minnesota newspapers. "The CRP is a proven program that works efficiently and effectively," he wrote. "While saving money in both the short-term and the long-term, it also helps ensure that we leave our children with the same productive farmland, pure streams and abundant wildlife that we inherited."

An announcement by the incoming chairman of the Senate Agriculture Committee that he was opposed to extension of the CRP triggered Sen. Wellstone's letter, so there is at least a hint of politics being played. Sen. Wellstone said that "the announcement is unfortunate because the CRP is a central component in our efforts to protect the safety of drinking water, prevent soil erosion, revitalize wildlife habitat and ease the pressure on farmers to plant 'fencepost to fencepost.'"

The common term is "fencerow to fencerow," which means one field to the next, but for a college professor "fencepost to fencepost" is close enough. It's the idea that counts.

Outgoing (as in leaving office, not in personality) Secretary of Agriculture Mike Espy made the announcement a couple of weeks ago that the CRP would be continued—pending funding by the Congress. Wellstone wrote that as federal priorities and government programs are debated, a program such as the CRP should be used as a model because "it is efficient, it is cost-effective and it improves people's lives."

CRP is cost-effective as it compares with payment of subsidies for over-production of grain crops. It does provide protective cover for a good deal of fragile land and there is no question it has been of value in providing extensive habitat for many species of wildlife. It has not been without its problems, one of which is the harboring of noxious weeds on improperly managed acreage.

A new farm bill should carry provision for at least some extension of the Conservation Reserve Program. It has been too successful and is too well established to be abandoned at this time. This time we think Sen. Wellstone is right.

Weapons In Schools

Federal law—the Gun-Free Schools Act of 1994—mandates that states have a law requiring schools to expel for at least one calendar year students who bring firearms to school and to report such offenses to a law enforcement agency. To receive federal funding, schools must ensure that such policies are being followed.

What is a firearm? Section 921 of Title 18 of the United States Code gives the definition as "...any weapon (including a starter gun) which will or is designed to or may readily be converted to expel a projectile by the action of an explosive: the frame or receiver of any such weapon; any firearm muffler or firearm silencer; or any destructive device...."

A separate Minnesota statute requires school districts to report weapons violations to the State Department of Education. In Minnesota Statute 609.02, the word "weapon" refers not only to a firearm but to any instrument or object that could cause death, be used to commit a violent act or threatens or raises fear of injury.

A weapon (under this statute) can include a shotgun, rifle, machine gun, electronic dart gun, air gun, spring gun, BB gun, switchblade knife, billy club, slingshot, dagger, stiletto or dangerous knife straight razor, among others. The definition also includes everyday items which have been modified to threaten or injure, including belts, combs, nail files, scissors, combustible liquids and other items.

In many school districts, this must seem to be a real case of legislation to excess. In others, however, the requirements are probably greeted with appreciation because they define the action which school staff and administrators can follow.

It can be argued, and logically so, that students have no legitimate reason to have any of these items in their possession in school. We can remember back in our days in rural school when every boy from third or fourth grade on up carried a folding pocket knife of one type or another to school. A favorite and common activity at recess or lunch time was playing a game which required flipping a knife from various positions on your body to stick in the ground. Such innocent activity would certainly be viewed with alarm in today's tense society.

Restrictiveness of the federal and state laws is perhaps necessary to provide those in education with a course of action and serve notice to students that weapons in schools are not to be tolerated. The sad thing is that such a message needs to be given at all.

Super College Needs To Deal With Reality

Countdown has started in the final six months before all of Minnesota's community and technical colleges and state universities are amalgamated into one huge unwieldy superstructure of educational chaos. The July 1 merger date will be in the news frequently as the legislature deals with the astronomical budget request.

One can only hope that in the turbulence and turmoil to follow merger day that the powers that be will somehow establish a fingernail hold on reality. It is essential that they recognize the needs of the world of work and direct appropriate energies and funding in the technical and industrial areas of education. The information is out there if administrators will recognize and react to it.

"Only 20 per cent of all jobs by 1995 will require a four-year college degree," states the Career College Association.

"The skill required for 14 of the Bureau of Labor Statistics' fastest growing occupations can be acquired through vocational or community college training," points out the Bureau of Labor Statistics.

"Evidence suggests there may be a skill mismatch between educational supply and occupational demand. For example, there may be too many students opting for certain four-year degrees instead of technical training," adds the Minnesota Department of Jobs and Training in its "MN Employment Outlook to 1996."

"Projections show that by the year 2000, approximately 75 per cent of jobs will not require a four-year college degree but will require more education than high school," concludes the North Dakota Career Outlook for 1992-93.

The messages have been sent. Now it is up to the Super College crowd to listen and respond.

Commercial Sewing Ironman 250 will run as scheduled

Organizers of the Commercial Sewing Ironman 250 snowmobile race in Thief River Falls, who are concerned about the lack of snow, are saying that the race course could be changed but the race will go on as planned the weekend of January 13-15. About 40 volunteers from various snowmobile clubs, law enforcement, and other met Wednesday night to discuss plans for the race.

The race will go on, but not necessarily as planned if the region doesn't receive more snow. The 250 cross country race might become a 52-mile on the river, but the oval races will go on as planned.

Volunteers plan to ride the course Sunday or Monday and then organizers will decide on Wednesday whether to shorten the race and put it on the river. If they shorten the course because of a lack of snow, the course will begin at the Neptune bridge. If the race begins at the Neptune bridge, it will start at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, January 14, instead of 9:30 a.m.

Other concerns include open water reported at a few spots on the Clearwater river and south of the dam in Thief River Falls. Volunteers plan to check the course for open water next week, but since the weather provided this latest cold snap, they don't expect to find open water.

Much of the meeting Wednesday evening was spent working out the final details to communications, posters, signs, parking, fencing, track preparation, staging and timing.

Race organizers are asking the owners of fish houses on the river to please move them by Wednesday of the race week, and if they have questions to contact the Thief River Falls Chamber of Commerce at 681-3720.

Registrations are about where they were last year at this time, so organizers aren't concerned about not having racers. And they aren't worried about sponsors. They have more sponsors this year than they have ever had.

Organizers released the schedule of events Wednesday night, but the schedule could change before the race. Watch for further details in The Times.

Friday, January 13

Events and activities on Friday, January 13, include: 4-6 p.m. reception at Arctco for media, sponsors and Make-A-Wish celebrities; 4:30 to 7:30 p.m. registration at the Best Western; and from 7:30 to 8:30 p.m. a drivers meeting at the Best Western.

Saturday, January 14

Events and activities on Saturday, January 14, include: 6-9 a.m. drivers complimentary breakfast at the Best Western; 8-8:30 a.m. drivers meeting at the Best Western; 9:30 a.m. starting time for the race if it begins outside of the Best Western along Highway 59 and 10:30 a.m. if it starts at the Neptune bridge.

Radar Run. One of the events open to the public is a radar run on the Red Lake River. The course begins near the oval course and finishes near the Third Street bridge. The event begins at 11:30 a.m.

Oval Race. Oval racing begins at noon on the Red Lake river and will feature top riders from throughout the country. Following the oval racing, at 1:30 p.m. the Pabst Dash for Cash begins.

Make-A-Wish. One of the weekend events is the Make-A-Wish celebrity auction and race reception at the Best Western, which is open to the public. Several sports celebrities are expected to attend the event and sign autographs.

Sunday, January 15

Events and activities on Sunday include: 6-8 a.m. registration at the Best Western; 8-8:30 a.m. drivers meeting; 8:30 to 9 a.m. technical inspection; 9 a.m. cross country race begins; 11 a.m. Radar Run on the Red Lake river, which is open to the public; 11:30 a.m. oval racing begins.

Kitty Cat racing. Registration for Kitty Cat races begin at the race track near the Eighth Street boat landing from 10 to 11 a.m. Qualifying races for Kitty Cat KCPRO will be held from 11:30 to 1 p.m. Kitty Cat and junior novice class finals will begin at 1:30 p.m.

Make-A-Wish. The Make-A-Wish celebrity race including sports athletes and local celebrities will be held beginning at 1 p.m.

Other events on Sunday include the Dayco Race of Champions at 2:30 p.m., and the Pabst Dash for Cash at 3:30 p.m.

The awards ceremony will be held 7 p.m. at the Best Western Motel.

Mixed Blood theater performs Jan. 10 at NCC

Mixed Blood Theater will perform "Daughters of Africa", a 45-minute history of African American women, at Northland Community College beginning at 12:15 p.m. Tuesday, January 10.

"Daughters of Africa" was written in commemoration of the triumph of courage, determination and pride of African American women. It celebrates the lives of Harriet Tubman, conductor on the underground railroad leading slaves to their freedom, Elizabeth Freeman, whose legal struggle abolished slavery in Massachusetts, and Madame C.J. Walker, America's first black millionniress. It also features music made famous by women from Ma Rainey and Bessie Smith to Janet Jackson.

Written by Syl Jones, the play features Thomasina Taylor in a variety of roles, and pianist Roland Wilson. The production is directed by Warren C. Bowles.

Mixed Blood offers "Daughters of Africa" as part of its education program that includes biographical plays on Dr. Martin Luther King, Jackie Robinson, and Paul Robeson, "Eastern Parade: The Asian American Journey", and "According to Coyote", a collection of American Indian stories and legends.

ASK YOUR LOCKSMITH
Questions And Answers

Q I locked my keys in my car. Can you "break" into it?

A Yes. However, professional locksmiths do not break into cars since bruising or undue damage is done. Most locksmiths have 24 hour mobile emergency service just for this type of problem. They have the proper tools and, more importantly, the knowledge to open your car without damage. Consumers should be aware that attempts to open a locked car by anyone other than a locksmith could result in severe damage to the lock mechanism. A locksmith can also replace lost car keys by [illegible] the key code number or by hand fitting the key to the locks.

Three speech and language teachers at Challenger Elementary and Pre-School in Thief River Falls have been awarded a grant from the Agassiz Environmental Education Committee to help teach their students about the environment while working on speech and language skills. Shelly Steve (left) of the committee presents the grant to (left to right) Diedra Nordin, Kathy Olson and Joyce Kopari. Each of the teachers will use a third of the $300 grant. Kopari will set up an aquarium in her speech resource room. Her fourth and fifth grade students will help take care of the fish and plants in the tank and discuss what they have learned with fellow students. Second and third graders in Nordin's speech and language class will be learning about ants in an ant farm and butterflies in a special garden. Olson's kindergarten and first graders will have both ants and roots to study, and will take pictures of the roots through a special window as they're growing. The grants are offered as an incentive for teachers to help their students learn about the environment while working on speech and language skills.

Moose in TRF take back seat to Anchorage

Former area resident Winnie Treitline writes from Alaska that they have had over six feet of snow this winter in Anchorage and sends along a newspaper article from the December 28 Anchorage Daily News that recounts incidents involving moose in that city.

"Every so often I see a moose story in The Times," Winnie writes, "and when I saw this one yesterday I thought you might enjoy reading about it."

An almost snowless winter so far in this part of Minnesota has probably helped to keep area moose in the wild instead of in Thief River Falls. Local law enforcement and department of natural resources personnel had difficulty dealing with several moose which came to the city to dine in prior years.

State fish and game department personnel estimate that some 300 moose call Anchorage home year around, and with the moose coming down from the hills this winter, there are now about 1,000 of the animals wandering around the city.

Resident Roger Pickering heard a noise outside and found a moose standing on the roof of his house, browsing on a tree. It had gained access to the low roof from a tall snowbank. Fish and Game personnel chased it off unhurt, but in an hour or so it was back up there again. Pickering chased it off with Roman candles.

Kary Erickson was walking her dogs in morning darkness when they passed a cow and calf moose in a neighbor's yard. The cow attacked and pummeled Erickson with its front hooves, causing broken ribs, a dozen bruises and a lacerated kidney. Soft snow into which Erickson had dived may have saved her life.

Linda Weiford and a friend were crossing a bridge on skis when a bull moose started across the bridge from the other side. They struggled to turn their skis around on the narrow path and scrambled to a nearby house under construction as the moose followed.

"I was laughing hard, but at the same time I was scared," she said. "Is this guy going to come in here and chase us around in the house?" He did not.

Reports of people feeding moose and children petting them have wildlife officials and others worried. So far about 70 moose have been killed by cars in Anchorage this winter—about twice the normal number. Nurseries as well as home owners have suffered severe damage to trees, but people are divided on what to do.

"I think that most Alaskans would rather see a moose than some rare tree," one reader wrote. "The majority of us enjoy having wild Alaska in our back yard," added another. One who suggested an archery moose season insisted that "we could do with a lot fewer of them."

Warroad ends Gators win streak

Nine-game season-opening win streak for the Badger/Greenbush-Middle River girls ended Thursday with a 44-37 North Border Conference high school basketball loss at Warroad.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River handled Warroad 60-33 in a Dec. 1 match-up at Badger, but never got untracked offensively in the rematch, netting just 15 second half points. The Gators led 9-6 at the end of the first quarter and had a 22-18 halftime edge before falling behind 31-30 in the third quarter.

Krissi Super netted 17 points grabbed 11 rebounds, but was the only Badger/Greenbush-Middle double figure producer in either category. Tammy Knudson and Kendra Cornelhusen led Warroad with 15 and 13 points, respectively, and the winners benefited by the return to full-time status of Kari Carlson, who missed most of the first part of the season with a hand injury.

"We got beat," acknowledged Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Tom Neibauer. "When we played them earlier, they used a 1-3-1 zone. They played us man-to-man this time and just smothered us. They exposed some weaknesses, and we'll have to correct them."

The Gators' efforts were hampered when point guard Ali Hietala re-injured an ankle in the first quarter and front-line player Jessica Borgen was hit with her fourth foul in the third quarter. When she left, a six point Badger/Greenbush-Middle River lead evaporated. Hietala returned to the line-up, but was slowed by the injury.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River shot only 30 percent from the field (14/47) while making 8 of 12 free throws. Warroad went 9-for-17 at the line.

A similar scoreboard situation developed in the series last season when Badger/ Greenbush-Middle River won a 71-47 first game meeting and Warroad won the regular season rematch 39-38. The Gators then won 17 in a row en route to the Section 8A Sub-Section 4 title. Neibauer said at this point, he wouldn't mind seeing history repeat itself.

Scoring

	1	2	3	4	T
B/G-Middle River	9	13	8	7	37
Warroad	6	12	13	13	44

B/G-MR - Krissi Super 17, Jessica Borgen 9, Heather Anderson 3, Ali Hietala 4, Nikki Wahl 4.

Warroad - Tammy Knudson 15, Kari Carlson 6, Kari Keller 7, Heather Arntzen 3, Kendra Cornelhusen 13.

Dave Stangrim, a senior from Thief River Falls, is a member of the 1994-95 Bemidji State University hockey team under coach Bob Peters. The Beavers have won 11 national titles and are the defending NCAA Division II national champions.

Grygla-Gatzke boys basketball...

Eagles struggle in loss to Tri-County

Grygla-Gatzke struggled on both offensive and defense Tuesday in a 63-47 boys high school basketball loss to Tri-County at Karlstad.

"I was disappointed in our play," said Eagles coach Vern Johnson. "We didn't show any patience on offense, and they just killed us on defense inside. We were a step behind from start to finish."

Tri-County turned a 15-11 first quarter edge into a 35-18 halftime spread and maintained a 47-28 third quarter advantage.

Brent Hanson of Tri-County led all scorers with 24 points. Brion Nelson and Jeremy Larson added 14 and 11 points, respectively, to the Wildcats' total. Scott Hoganson scored 19 points and Jamie Lunsetter had 14 for the Eagles.

Grygla-Gatzke was 18-for-57 from the field (32 percent) and 7-for-14 at the free throw line. Tri-County went 26-for-53 from the floor (49 percent), hitting 25 of 43 two-point attempts (58 percent). The Wildcats were 10-for-20 at line, out-rebounded the Eagles 32-23 and topped the turnover charts 18-15.

The loss dropped the Eagles to 2-4. It was their first outing since a 58-51 win over Warroad in the Dec. 17 third place game of the Northland Community College Invitational.

Scoring

Roseau Section 8A hockey winner over Thief River Falls...

Rams start strong, win 8-3

Roseau scored four times in the first 7:48 Tuesday en route to an 8-3 Section 8A high school hockey win over Thief River Falls.

The first period Roseau scoring assault included goals by Aaron Lundbohm at 1:56, Rob Moser at 5:27, Chad Degerness at 6:45 and Andy Lundbohm at 7:48.

It was the third time the Prowlers have lost to a No. 1-rated team in the Associated Press Class A poll this winter. Thief River Falls fell to Warroad 7-5 and Hibbing 5-0 when those two teams held the top spot that currently belongs to the unbeaten Rams. The loss also ended a three-game win streak for the 4-6-1 Prowlers.

Thief River Falls did come back to within 5-3 on second period goals by Adam Fulton, Keith Anderson and Tim Barry, but the rally came to an abrupt end in the third period when Brian Lundbohm, who scored the Rams' lone second period goal, made it 6-3 at the 35-second mark.

Goals by the Rams' Trevor Hammer and Aaron Larsen closed it out.

"We waited too long to get started," said Thief River Falls coach Pat Cullen. "We didn't play bad; we just started about eight minutes later than they did. We out-played them in the second period and made a game of it. But we expended so much energy coming back that we had no gas left at the end."

Thief River Falls will be back in action Tuesday at home against Grand Forks Red River.

Scoring

First period - Roseau, Aaron Lundbohm (Chad Degerness-Aaron Stromlund), 1:56. Roseau, Rob Moser (Brian Lundbohm-Jared Gustafson), 5:27. Roseau, Degerness (Trevor Hammer-Aaron Lundbohm), 6:45. Roseau, Andy Lundbohm (Chris Hess), 7:48.

Goodridge wins 65-62 in rematch

Huskies knock off Mustangs

Goodridge, after closing out the 1994 portion of its 1994-95 boys high school basketball schedule with a 63-52 loss to Red Lake County Central in the Dec. 17 finals of the Northland Community College Invitational, kicked off the new year Tuesday by gaining a measure of revenge – a 65-62 victory over the visiting Mustangs.

Results left Goodridge at 5-2 and Red Lake County Central 6-3.

Todd Anderson and Mitch Smsky led a balanced Goodridge attack with 12 points each, while Brady Wiseth scored 10 and two others (Ryan Kriel, Martin Dahlen) were just a basket away from joining their teammates in double figures. The Red Lake County Central offense featured Aaron Chaput with 21 points, Aaron Rosten 20 and Scott Lorenson 13.

Anderson, a high-jumping 6-4 senior, complemented his 12 points with a dozen rebounds and five blocked shots. Dahlen joined him in double figures on the boards with 11 as the Huskies out-rebounded the Mustangs 45-27.

"Todd really played well," said Goodridge coach John Rahn. "It was without a doubt his best game ever. He dominated the inside."

Goodridge led at the quarter stops 16-12, 31-25 and 47-45. The Huskies, who once led by as many as 13 points, clinched it when Smsky and Wiseth both made two free throws in bonus situations down the stretch.

A nine-point first half by Kriel forced Red Lake County Central to alter its defense, and that opened the door for Wiseth, who scored all ten of his points in the second half.

"It was a great game," said Rahn.

Goodridge was 29-for-65 from the field (45 percent) and 5-for-12 at the free throw line. Red Lake County Central went 25-for-70 from the floor (36 percent) and 7-for-11 at the line.

RLCC girls facing tough opponents

Red Lake County Central girls high school basketball team is starting the new year with a challenge – back-to-back outings against Fertile-Beltrami and East Grand Forks. Tuesday the Falcons took it to the Mustangs 90-35. Next Tuesday will find the 2-4 Oklee/Plummer cooperative on the road against the Green Wave.

Fertile-Beltrami jumped out to a 30-8 first quarter lead and was never challenged as the Plummer scoreboard read 49-17 at halftime and 74-24 after three quarters.

"It was a snowball effect," said Red Lake County Central coach Rick Koivisto. "They couldn't miss in the first quarter. They were hot and we didn't have anything to put it out."

A rash of turnovers figured into the scoring spread and limited the Mustangs to 13-for-34 shooting from the field (38 percent). They were 8-for-12 at the free throw line. The Falcons were 42-for-72 from the floor (58 percent) and 6-for-16 at the line while building a 36-27 rebound advantage.

Danelle Leier and Jami Petry led the Falcons with 22 and 21 points, respectively. Meckenzie Malwitz scored 10 points for the Mustangs.

MCC girls beat Tigers second time

Marshall County Central girls have won just two games this season – both against Stephen. The Nordics beat the Tigers 45-40 in the third place game of the Tri-County Invitational in mid-December, and repeated that feat in a regularly-scheduled Tuesday encounter at Newfolden, 62-49.

A 22-point game by Tricia Pederson helped stake the Nordics to quarter leads of 10-5, 26-17 and 38-32. The Tigers were within three points in the fourth quarter, but couldn't overcome 12-for-15 Marshall County Central free throw shooting down the stretch.

"Overall, I was pretty pleased with the way we played – until the fourth quarter," said Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde. "We turned the ball over too many times at the end."

Part of the Nordics' turnover problems surfaced when sophomore guard Lacey Hirst, the team's top ball-handler, fouled out.

Jenny Smith led Stephen with 16 points, while Sarah Grabowski scored 13 and Andi Noel had 12.

Marshall County Central has struggled with shooting this winter, but the Nordics were 23-for-47 from the field against the Tigers (49 percent). "We're doing a better job running the offense and taking more high percentage shots," explained Mjelde.

Stephen was 22-for-53 from the field (42 percent) and went just 2-for-10 at the free throw line, where Marshall County Central was 16-for-21. The Tigers had a 28-24 rebound edge. The Nordics had more turnovers, 21-11.

Nordics lose another close one

■ Warroad stops MCC boys 59-57

Another close loss was tagged on to what has turned into a frustrating season for the Marshall County Central boys high school basketball team Tuesday when the Nordics dropped a 59-57 North Border Conference game at Warroad.

It was the fourth straight loss for the 2-5 Nordics, with the last three by margins of 4, 1 and 2 points.

After falling behind 10-2 at the start, Marshall County Central went ahead 29-22 at halftime and led by as many as 14 points in the third quarter while impressing head coach Ron Ueland. "That was by far the best basketball we've played all year," he said.

However, the Marshall County Central comeback was erased by a run of 20 unanswered Warroad points that made it a 45-36 game at the end of the third quarter and led to a 23-12 final period score book spread.

A turnover on a last-minute Marshall County Central possession sealed the outcome.

"The good thing to come out of it was that we did have a stretch where we played the way we thought we were capable of playing," noted Ueland. "But 20 minutes is a far cry from a full game."

Six-foot junior Micah Ranum had a 31-point night for the Nordics, but he was their only double figure scorer. Todd Morin led a balanced Warroad offense with 17 points, while Mike Keller netted 13 and Tony Jensen had 11.

Marshall County Central shot 44 percent from the field (21/48) and made 12 of 18 free throws. Warroad shot 40 percent from the floor (26/65) and sank 3 of 9 free throws. The winners finished with a 36-28 rebound edge. The Nordics had more turnovers, 21-13.

Strong finish keys B/G-MR win vs. Rams

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River used a 31-point fourth quarter Tuesday to turn back Roseau 69-54 in a North Border Conference boys high school basketball game played at Greenbush.

The upset-minded Rams led the 6-1 Gators 17-15 at the end of the first quarter, trailed only 25-24 at halftime and were still within 38-37 through three quarters.

"They (Rams) played well early in the game, and we didn't have much intensity," explained Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Eldon Sparby. "We had more intensity in the fourth quarter and we played well."

The Gators' stretch run found them scoring on 14 consecutive possessions to break open what had been a close game.

Matt Kuznia scored 21 points and Sheldon Ruud added 10 for the Gators. Scott Lunos led the Rams with 14 points. Greg Pladson netted 12.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River went 25-for-52 from the field (48 percent), but made only 2 of 10 shots from 3-point range. Roseau was just 17-for-69 from the floor (25 percent). The two teams had an identical 17-for-25 night at the free throw line. The Gators finished with a 29-21 rebound advantage, but also had twice as many turnovers, 16-8.

Nelson is named to Minnesota ice arena task force

Rick Nelson of Thief River Falls is among a group of individuals named to the Minnesota Ice Arena Task Force, also known as the "Mighty Ducks Task Force". This statewide board will investigate the need for additional ice arenas in Minnesota.

The 1994 Legislature mandated that the Minnesota Amateur Sports Commission (MASC) to form a task force to study statewide ice arena usage. Specifically, the task force will be asked to analyze the trends in both boys' and girls' ice usage to determine the need for new arenas. The Might Ducks Task Force will also make a formal recommendation to the 1995 Minnesota Legislature regarding the best plan for Minnesota to meet the growing demand for indoor ice time.

The Mighty Ducks Task Force will meet throughout the fall of 1994 and spring of 1995. The group will be preparing an initial report to the legislature by February 1995.

License Dates

Hold on to those 1994 hunting and fishing licenses. They haven't expired yet, according to the Department of Natural Resources.

Each year, some Minnesota hunters and anglers are left stumped over when the new fish and wildlife year actually begins, according to Karen Beckman, DNR License Bureau assistant administrator.

"The new licenses are available for purchase early in the year, but they do not become effective until March 1," Beckman explained. "People make a very natural assumption that a 1995 license purchased in January or February of 1995 is a valid license. The fact is, 1994 licenses are required through the end of February 1995."

Minnesota's fish and wildlife license year runs from March 1 of any given year through the last day of February in the following year. New licenses are put on sale before March 1 as a convenience for hunters and anglers who may want to prepare for the upcoming season.

Although the actual valid dates have always been printed on licenses, a number of hunters and anglers mistakenly destroy still valid licenses at the end of each calendar year, Beckman noted.

Unemployment rates increase slightly between Oct.-Nov.

Between October and November of 1994, unemployment in Pennington county and the region climbed slightly. Minnesota's seasonally adjusted unemployment rate, however, dropped to 3.5 per cent in November from 3.7 per cent in October, down from 4.9 per cent a year ago, according to the Minnesota department of economic security. The national unemployment rate also fell in November to 5.6 per cent, down from 5.8 per cent in October and 6.5 per cent a year ago.

The unadjusted rate of 3.1 per cent is the lowest November unemployment rate since 1978 when it was 3.0 per cent. The comparable national rate was 5.3 per cent. Corresponding rates in October and a year ago were 3.2 per cent and 4.4 per cent for Minnesota and 5.4 per cent and 6.1 per cent for the United States.

The seven-county metropolitan region had the lowest average unemployment rate in November at 2.5 per cent, down from 2.8 per cent in October. The two regions encompassing the counties around Bemidji and Brainerd had average unemployment rates of 5.8 per cent, the highest average rates. County rates ranged from a low of 1.6 per cent for Houston county in the southeast corner of the state to 9.4 per cent for Clearwater county in the northwest.

In Region 1, which includes the counties of Kittson, Marshall, Norman, Pennington, Polk, Red Lake and Roseau, the unemployment rate for October increased from 3.1 in October to 3.8 in November, but is a significant decline from 6.0 reported in November of 1993.

Pennington county's rate of unemployment increased from 3.2 per cent in October to 3.8 per cent in November. A year ago, the rate of unemployment was 5.0 per cent.

In the region, Marshall and Red Lake counties had the highest rates of unemployment for November of 1994 at 6.9 per cent. For Marshall county, it was an increase from 5.8 per cent in October. A year ago, Marshall county had a rate of unemployment of 10 per cent. Red Lake county's rate of unemployment also increased from 5.8 per cent in October to 6.9 per cent in November. Its rate of unemployment in November of 1993, however, was 8.4 per cent.

Roseau county continues to record the lowest rate of unemployment in the region. It too, however, recorded an increase in its rate of unemployment. Its rate of unemployment increased from 2.4 per cent in October 1994 to 2.6 per cent in November of 1994. In November of 1993, it had a rate of unemployment at 6.0 per cent.

For the other counties in the region, Kittson recorded an increase in its rate of unemployment from 3.4 per cent in October to 3.8 per cent in November 1994.

Norman county recorded an increase in its rate of unemployment from 3.0 per cent to 3.7 per cent. In November of 1993 it had a rate of unemployment of 5.3 per cent.

Polk county's rate of unemployment increased from 2.5 per cent in October to 3.2 per cent in November. In November of 1993, it had a rate of unemployment of 5.1 per cent.

According to the Minnesota department of economic security, Minnesota gained 60,000 jobs since last November, a 2.6 per cent increase over the year. Services added 25,000 jobs, with personnel supply services accounting for 5,100 new jobs and amusement and recreation services 3,500 jobs. Trade and manufacturing added 15,800 jobs and 13,200 jobs respectively, over the year.

Kittson cities to receive shared grant

Kittson county cities of Hallock, Karlstad, Kennedy, Lake Bronson and Lancaster have received a service sharing grant of $23,929 from the Minnesota Board of Government Innovation and Cooperation.

The funds are to allow the cities to provide fully integrated countywide community and economic development program services, according to the office of State Auditor Mark Dayton.

Kittson's cities grant was part of approximately $2.4 million in grants awarded by the board to help local governments provide public services more effectively. The grants were awarded for a variety of projects, but a majority focused on the implementation of cooperative efforts among communities.

The grants were awarded in three categories: The Service Budget Management Model grants, which help local governments develop models for alternative, more effective methods of delivering public services; Cooperation Planning Grants, which assist local governments to develop plans for services to their citizens through cooperative joint ventures; and Service Sharing Grants, which help fund the start up costs associated with the actual implementation of a cooperative service delivery plan.

The Board of Government Innovation and Cooperation was created during the 1993 legislative session to serve as a catalyst to assist local governments develop and implement innovative ideas for the delivery of essential public services. It is comprised of 11 members including the State Auditor, Commissioners of Administration and Finance, two administrative law judges and six legislators.

Artist/mentor applications are available

Applications are now available for the 1995 artist/mentor program in performing and visual arts through the arts council of the Northwest Regional Development Commission.

TRF post office handles demand for new stamps

Although he said he continues to be amazed at the urgency people seemed to feel for acquiring the new stamps, the postmaster complimented the postal patrons who flocked to the post office to make their stamp purchases Tuesday. "It seemed like they were in quite good humor," he said, "and they were certainly patient and orderly."

It is still entirely acceptable to add three one-cent stamps or a two-cent and one-cent stamp to a 29-cent stamped letter to achieve the necessary 32-cent first class postage, but those options didn't seem to appeal to most postal patrons.

"People get pretty frantic when you tell them to lick more than one stamp," McCloskey chuckled.

Initiative Fund and Minn. Technology form partnership

Northwest Minnesota Initiative Fund and Minnesota Technology, Inc., have formed a partnership program to help in developing new product and technologies.

The new partnership is intended to facilitate the creation and retention of jobs and businesses. The Facilitating Innovation and New Development (FIND) fund will provide loans for eligible activities necessary to determine the viability of a new product or technology in the marketplace.

Eligible applicants include individuals, manufacturers and related service businesses that are developing new technologies or products in the 12 counties served by the Northwest Minnesota Initiative Fund. Use of the funds include prototype development and testing; market development, research and analysis; business structure and systems development; patent opinions and filings; product testing and analysis; new product tooling and fixtures; and engineering drawings.

This partnership program expands the focus of the Initiative Fund's New Product Development Program and capitalizes on Minnesota Technology staff's work with the area's manufacturers. Cooperative ventures such as the FIND fund increase the effectiveness and efficiency among organizations working in rural economic development.

Minnesota Technology, Inc., is a nonprofit corporation established to assist Minnesota manufacturing companies in becoming more competitive. It is part of the state's strategy to strengthen its Minnesota and preserve and increase jobs in Minnesota.

The Northwest Minnesota Initiative Fund is a charitable foundation committed to improving the quality of life for residents of northwest Minnesota. To achieve this mission, the fund focuses activities toward two principal goals: increasing economic growth and business development, and increasing the capacity of individuals and organizations to shape the nation's future.

For further information about this new program, contact Dave West or Steve Schoeneck at the NWMIF office at 722 Paul Bunyan Drive NW in Bemidji or call 218-759-2057.

time she gave up that sport she was ranked 10th in the state overall—and had proved her capabilities in that sport as well.

Still Races Enduro Classes

Although she has given greater attention to snowmobile racing, she hasn't given up on the dirt bikes yet. She rides in the Enduro races—70 to 90-mile rugged cross-country events—three or four times a summer, usually at Akeley, Brainerd, Huntersville and Grand Rapids. Trails are often through wooded area with a 28-inch minimum trail width required. In 1993 she won the circuit championship and can't remember being defeated in any Enduro races she has entered.

At five feet, seven inches tall and about 120 pounds, 30-year-old Valerie does not out-muscle her opponents. She stays in condition with aerobics, bicycling and some weight training as well as snowmobiling as often as she can, but she describes her riding style as "smart/aggressive." It means that she calls on her experience and knowledge of her sled to know when and how hard to make her moves.

Works For Printing Firm

For the past five years she has been employed as a sales representative for the Pierce Company, a printing firm in Fargo, ND. It leaves most of her weekends free to race snowmobiles.

Valerie said no individual race stands out in her mind as being more memorable than another, but she is proud of finishing second overall in the Men's Semi-Pro Class I at the end of the 1993-94 season.

In 1993 she was the first female to win first place in an all-men's Motorsports Racing Plus (MRP) event, but doesn't remember for sure where it was...probably Ely. She had previously won the High Point Championship in the women's snocross division in 1991 and 1992. In 1993 she recorded 18 first, five second and six third place finishes.

Wants More Women Racers

Valerie said she is encouraged by the increasing number of women who are getting involved in snowmobile racing. She thinks it is a good thing and encourages women with an interest in racing to give it a try.

"There are more women racers this year than ever before," she said, "and more seem to be going out on their own, not just riding because they happen to be at the races where their husbands or boyfriends are racing. And the factories and other sponsors seem to be recognizing this interest and adding emphasis and money to the women's classes."

Other Minnesota women racers with Arctic Cat sponsorship include Tami Miller of Deer River, Teresa Fett of Frazee and Chrissy Beck of Anoka. Arctco, Inc. also sponsors Melissa Duffy of Milton, VT and Christine Fredowski of Utica, NY.

While some snowmobile racers have been known to complain about too warm weather for racing, Valerie isn't one of them. She didn't race at Thief River Falls last year but said she heard the temperatures were "horrible."

"I like warm weather. Right around the freezing mark is just fine for me," she said. "I'm kind of a wimp."

Yeah, sure. Until she starts the engine.

Live alligator is Greenbush-Middle River mascot

Greenbush/Middle River — The Greenbush/Middle River Student council has a live alligator from Florida as team mascot for their Gators sports teams. The alligator is one foot long but is expected to double its size in the next year. It can grow to be up to five feet in length. It is being cared for by Jeremy Berg, who likes reptiles and keeps the 'gator in the living room of his home. According to Berg, alligators do not survive very well in cold climates, so he is keeping it in an aquarium with plans to add a heat rock when the 'gator goes gallavanting to the games and such. The 'gator has not been named yet.

Warroad, Roseau battle over location of County Capitol

by Mark Olson
Staff Writer

Roseau and Warroad are currently engaged in a rivalry which would make the Hatfields and McCoys look like good buddies.

The rivalry focuses on the proposal made by Warroad mayor Bob Marvin to move the Roseau county seat from the city of Roseau to Warroad.

The City of Warroad and the William Marvin Fund would donate $4.5 million for the new courthouse.

Roseau county was in the process of planning a new courthouse to replace the existing 1913 courthouse when the move was proposed.

The courthouse, if built in Roseau, is estimated to cost $2.6 to $2.8 million. The money would come from a building reserve, which would be replenished with a tax levy.

According to information provided by the Roseau County Assessor and County Auditor, the annual levy would initially cost about $11 to $28 per quarter section of land. The levy would decrease to $5 to $13 per quarter section in 1997 and continue until 2006.

The pro-move side has formed a "Taxpayers' Choice Volunteer Committee" to spearhead a petition drive to move the courthouse. The group claims that the move will save between $1,000 and $1,500 in tax expenditures for each family in Roseau County.

Groups which want to keep the courthouse in Roseau argue that there would be hidden costs to the taxpayers involving other county facilities, such as the FMHA and

Sno-Fest events held at Lincoln

"Endless Love" is the theme for the Lincoln high school 1995 Sno Fest celebration. The week-long event began Monday and culminates Friday with a program and crowning of the Sno Fest king and queen, and a Sno Fest ball that evening.

Candidates for king and queen are Freshmen — Kelly Almquist, daughter of Rob and Mary Almquist, and Adam Nordine, son of Jan and Diedre Nordine; Sophomores — Trisha Harbott, daughter of Hal and Nancy Harbott, and Paul Otto, son of Gretchen Otto; Juniors — Myndy Olson, daughter of Myles and Susan Olson, and Rob Stock, son of Connie and Bill Stock; and Seniors — Stacy Rahier, daughter of Judy Rahier, and Adam Henney, son of Myles and Renee Henney.

The couple representing the grade that accumulates the most points during Sno Fest Week will be crowned by last year's royalty, Jackie Flynn and Nick Chindo.

Several different competitions and events have been taking place throughout the week to help raise money for charity. The proceeds from button sales and penny jars will be distributed equally between the local Hospice and the Big Brother/Big Sister programs.

Other competitive events that brought in points for the classes involved banner-making, game attendance and dress up days. Each class was awarded points for students who attended specific sporting events during the week and participated in Monday through Thursday's dress up days.

Dress up days were: Monday — "Hair in the Air Day" (needs no explanation); Tuesday — "Color Day," when each class was assigned a specific color to wear; Wednesday — "Long John and Boxer Short Day;" Thursday — "Spirit Day," when school colors are worn; and Friday — "Dress up Day," when students can dress in their finest.

Friday's program will include reports from the captains of all Lincoln sports, as well as entertainment by various individuals and groups. Jennifer Olin and Dan Bjerkness will serve as emcees for the program. Performers will include:

- Danielle Goulet singing "Letting Go"
- "Rompin' Stompin'" played by the Lincoln Jazz Band, under the direction of Mr. Felt,

Drag racer makes switch to racing snowmobiles

by Mark Olson
Staff Writer

Whit Bazemore knows speed. In his Fast Orange Funny Car he clocks 290 mph.

Now he's putting his need for speed to the snow. He's participating in this weekend's Ironman races, held in Thief River Falls.

Bazemore, 31, is a native of warmer climates. He hails from race mecca of the world, Indianapolis, IN. Before arriving in Thief River Falls this week, he's been on a snowmobile once.

Whether on a snowmobile or a car "racing takes the same concentration and attention to details to be successful," Bazemore said.

He's receiving a crash course in these details. The differences and similarities between cars and sleds are quickly becoming familiar.

"Snowmobiling is a lot more physical," Bazemore said, his arms still aching from the day's two runs of the course (approximately 100 miles). "It's more seat of the pants. At least it is for me," he said.

Bazemore became interested in snowmobile racing after he met some Arctco staff at the Brainerd Raceway. Arctco is also a customer of Loctite, one of Bazemore's Funny Car sponsors.

Arctco approached Bazemore and asked him if he wanted to race in the Ironman. January is one of the off months in the racing business, so Bazemore could afford the time.

"I had no idea snowmobiling was this serious until I got here," Bazemore said. "It's really intense."

Bazemore is familiar with intensity. He has been with the drag racing Funny Car circuit for nine years.

He grew up in Atlanta and started out as a drag racing photographer at the Atlanta Dragway when he was 17. Bazemore pestered drivers and mechanics for five years, constantly telling them he wanted to race.

Ultimately, a race crew chief told him to "put his money where his mouth is" and recommended Frank Haley's Drag Racing School in Gainesville, FL. Bazemore followed his recommendation and qualified for a license to compete in the Top Alcohol Funny Car class.

He gained experience by racing for two seasons. In 1988 he moved into the Fuel Funny Car class.

Racing at a national level requires a great deal of money. Bazemore needed to earn a reputation as a successful driver before gaining a sponsor.

When he started, he "ate off the car." Bazemore said the mechanics were underpaid and they worked on the car in a friend's shop.

He eventually landed Loctite and Fast Orange as a major sponsor. Today, Bazemore said, it's not unusual to find drag racers with a sponsored budget of $1 million. Funny Cars cost in the avenue of $120,000 to $150,000.

Professional racing is something that engulfs the driver. Bazemore isn't married and spends most of his

Grygla opens new gymnasium

The Grygla-Gatzke School District is preparing to showcase its new athletic facilities.

Construction was recently completed on the new school addition, which includes a new gym, weight room, two handicapped accessible bathrooms, fifth-grade classroom, lobby and concession room.

The new facilities are the result of a 20-year bond issue. It cost approximately $1 million.

The Grygla-Gatzke Eagles play their first basketball game in the new gym against the Argyle Eagles on Saturday, January 21. The community will also hold a ribbon cutting ceremony Saturday, and the public will be allowed free admittance.

The new gym boasts a regulation size basketball court. The old gym court was short of regulation length by 12 feet and width by eight feet. Two practice basketball courts fit crosswise in the gym when the bleachers are pushed back.

The seating is also increased. The old gym accommodated between 400 and 500 people. The new gym seats around 700. The new space will come in handy, said superintendent Sal Hoffert, when playing high-attendance teams such as Goodridge and Middle River.

The old gym has a 20-feet-tall peaked roof. The new gym has a 28-feet-tall roof, allowing more air circulation when the gym is packed.

"I'm darned glad to move to a bigger gym," said Vern Johnson, Eagles basketball coach and Grygla-Gatzke athletic director. Johnson said the players were already feeling the impact of playing on a larger floor. They told him they planned to run more and get into shape to compensate for a larger court.

With the elementary school and high school using one gym, "it got tight," Hoffert said. More gym space available will lead to fewer conflicts of interest with other activities, including groups which use the stage in the old gym, and dances.

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCourciere

Soup and sandwiches make hearty winter lunches. Here are a couple of soups and a couple of delicious sandwich recipes you can make to fill your home made buns.

This is one of those filling German soups that will stick to the ribs all day:

GERMAN VEGETABLE SOUP

1 to 1 1/2 pounds beef stew meat
1 pound soup bones
2 quarts cold water
1 large onion, peeled and pierced with three whole cloves
1 bay leaf
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 medium carrot, coarsely chopped
1 small parsnip, coarsely chopped
1/2 cup chopped leeks or green onion, including tops
2 1/2 cups peeled, diced potatoes
Spatzle (below)
Salt

In heavy 5-6 quart saucepan or kettle, heat stew meat, bones and water to boiling. Skim foam as it rises to the top. Reduce heat.

Add onion with cloves, bay leaf, 1 teaspoon salt and pepper. Cover and simmer for 1 1/2 hours, skimming foam when necessary.

Remove onion and bay leaf and discard. Remove bones and cool. With tip of knife, remove marrow from bones and then discard bones. Add marrow to soup.

Add vegetables to soup, and simmer until meat and vegetables are tender, adding more water if necessary.

Drop Spatzle into soup with a spoon, using about 1 teaspoonful for each ball. Simmer about 15 minutes to cook Spatzle. Add salt to taste.

Spatzle

1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon nutmeg
2 eggs, slightly beaten
1/2 cup milk

Combine flour, salt and nutmeg in large bowl. Add eggs and slowly stir in milk, mixing thoroughly until batter is smooth.

Something everyone will enjoy:
SLOPPY JOES

1 pound lean ground beef
1/2 cup chopped onion
1/3 cup chopped green pepper
1 (12 ounce) bottle chili sauce
1/4 cup water
1-2 tablespoons brown sugar
1 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper

In large saucepan, cook beef, onion and green pepper until green pepper is tender. Drain.

Stir in chili sauce and remaining ingredients. Simmer 10 minutes, stirring occasionally. Serve on buns.

Make the filling and refrigerate and pop these into the microwave to heat just before eating.

HEARTY SALMON SALAD

1 (8 ounce) package Neufchatel cheese
6 (4 inch) Kaiser rolls
1 (7 1/2 ounce) can drained and flaked red sockeye salmon
1/4 cup thinly sliced green onions
1/2 cup finely chopped zucchini
1 cup (4 ounces) shredded Monterey Jack cheese
1/4 cup light mayonnaise
1/4 teaspoon dill weed
1 teaspoon lemon juice

Microwave cheese until softened. Set aside.

Slice tops off rolls and set aside. Remove center (about 2 inches diameter), leaving shells. Set aside.

Crumble roll centers and add to cheese. Add remaining ingredients and mix well.

Spoon mixture into roll shells, cover with tops, and microwave until filling is warmed, rotating plate. Serve warm.

Another hearty soup for cold winter days:

ITALIAN WHITE BEAN SOUP

15 1/2 ounce can white kidney beans (cannellini), drained and rinsed
4 cups water
1/2 cup onion, chopped
2 cloves garlic, minced
16 ounce can whole tomatoes
3 teaspoons chicken or vegetable bouillon
2 teaspoons dried basil
1/2 teaspoon dried thyme leaves
1/8 teaspoon white pepper

Combine beans with two cups water in a blender and process until smooth. Add them to a large saucepan, along with the remaining 2 cups of water and all other ingredients.

Bring to a boil, then reduce heat and simmer, covered, about 10-15 minutes. (Great Northern beans can be used instead of kidney beans.)

WE GLADLY ACCEPT:

LETTERS

To all my friends in northern Minnesota:

This letter to you is being written a little more than two years after my heart transplant. The second anniversary of that wonderful day was November 15, 1994, and I thought I should let all of you know that I am doing very well. I felt it especially important having just celebrated another Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's.

Sometimes people tend to allow memories of pleasant events in their lives to fade with the passage of time. It's hard to keep such things in the forefront when we have so many things going on in our lives, not all of them pleasant. Remember the day that you graduated from high school or college? The day you were married? The day your first child was born? On some of those days, you may have been so happy that you actually shed tears of joy. And yet now, some of us become so upset with minor problems that we allow the "negatives" to invade our lives ... maybe the transmission went out on the car, the roof has a leak, or a child received a grade in school that was less than our expectation.

These things are important, but please don't let them dominate to the point that you forget "the good stuff". For me, this "good stuff" has been seeing my son turn 14 and then 15, my daughter reached 17 and 18, Shuley and I celebrated 20 years together. I just cinched the Associate of the Year award in my business, and I have spoken to approximately 500 people in the past year regarding organ donation. In addition, my annual check-up in December was once again "clean as a whistle", including the biopsy of my heart to check for rejection.

I continue to work hard in my business as well as continuing my efforts to spread the word on organ donation. I have spoken to 15-20 high school classes in the past year and also to community and church groups throughout northern Minnesota. Within the next month, the following are on my schedule: two radio programs, one television program, a presentation to a hospital group, and several more high school classes. The reason I do all of this is because it is the only way I can think of to repay someone for giving me the "Gift of Life". If I can influence someone to make what I believe is the right choice someday, then maybe it will be your parent, child, grandchild, or friend who will be allowed to live. This is my way of paying back my donor, and all of you, who have been such special friends. Who knows, maybe this letter alone will be enough to help someone make a positive decision regarding organ donation. If it were your child or grandchild in need of a life-saving organ, would you want them to live? Yes! Then maybe you should discuss this with your family. After all, this is a decision best discussed while everyone is well.

Finally, I would like to wish all of you Happy New Year from a guy who is simply happy to be able to make such a wish for you.

With warmest regards,
Gary Rux
Abbott-Northwestern Hospital's "#159"

P.S. If you would like more information regarding organ donation, you can call LifeSource at 1-800-24 SHARE.

Dear Editor:

I am writing on behalf of my cousin in Sweden. We are related on the maternal side of the family. She is most interested in contacting any living relatives on the paternal side of her family. Contact with them was lost in the early 1940s. I would appreciate any assistance that you might be able to provide. If any information is forthcoming, I will forward it to Sweden.

We are seeking information about Augusta Elisabet Larsson (nee Wang), born in Segersbyn, Amal, Sweden, on January 10, 1885. She married Fred M. Larsson and her last known address (in 1940) was 504 1/2 North Duluth Avenue, Thief River Falls.

The couple had three children, Harold (probably born before 1914), Florens (Florence) and Astrid (born about 19[illegible]).

I know that my cousin and her children and grandchildren are looking forward to resuming contact with these relatives, if they are interested. I will greatly appreciate any information that you may be able to provide.

Yours truly,
Esther A. Ohlsson

Religious training important in an education

by David Hill
Associate Editor

One of the most lasting and valuable contributions family members make to their youngsters is respect for the value of education and a lifelong love of learning. A recent statement by Richard W. Riley, U.S. Secretary of Education, encouraged all people of faith across America to "make increasing family involvement in education a high priority in your community". His comments are not intended to highten tensions between people who see religion in schools as a threat and those who would teach their religion in schools, but to encouraged every part of the community to assist parents in giving their children a strong moral and spiritual center, as well as a sense of individual responsibility and educational achievement.

His statement proceeds from a statement from religious leaders who stated, "We believe the participation of family members in the education and spiritual development of young people is fundamental to a child's preparation for adulthood and the responsibilities of citizenship ... parents and guardians need to immerse themselves in the education of their children as never before."

They note "... there are children who do not attend school regularly, whose test scores and grades falter, who have too much idle time, and whose parents are absent, too overwhelmed or too busy to spend time reading, talking, praying (and) playing (with their children and) listening (to them), helping or encouraging them."

"Religious communities hear this cry," the statement continues. "We call upon all citizens, religious communities, community organizations, and businesses to do their share. We urge family members to become actively involved in their children's education, religious communities to work to better understand and meet educational and family needs, community organizations to sponsor meaningful youth-and family-oriented activities, and businesses to adopt family-friendly policies in the workplace"

Somehow I think, they intended to encourage religious education in educational training. Nevertheless, the point is well taken. At a time when so many young people are at risk of losing their way, America's religious communities provide a sense of direction and purpose. For families, education must include more than what is taught in the schools. To provide children with a sense of direction, values and morality, the entire community must encourage and help parents teach their children. For too long, parents and the public have asked why schools are failing to teach their children. I think they are looking in the wrong direction. Schools do not raise children, parents do.

Unfunded mandates - again!

by David Hill
Associate Editor

An unfunded mandate from the federal government, or state government, forces local government to raise taxes. Local officials cut services, and raise taxes to support the unfunded mandates and constituents blame local officials. So it's no wonder that local governmental officials complain so bitterly about unfunded mandates.

Recently, Congressman Collin Peterson announced that a bill easing unfunded federal mandates on states, was passed out of the committee on government reform and oversight. Peterson, a member of the committee and supporter of ending unfunded federal mandates, voted with the majority in passing the bill out of committee. "Although the bill isn't as strong as I would have like to see, I am pleased it is moving so rapidly," Peterson said.

Peterson explained, "The federal government is suffocating state and local jurisdictions with its never-ending stream of federal mandates. Congress constantly creates new programs without thinking about the costs to state and local governments. It is estimated that federal mandates passed between 1988 and 1990 alone will cost state governments $15 billion over the next five years. It is time Congress takes responsibility for its actions."

The repeal or elimination of all unfunded mandates is unrealistic. Politically, legislators wouldn't be able to agree on such an issue, although some conservatives want to enact a "no money, no mandate" law, according to a recent opinion piece by Nationally Syndicated Columnist David Broder.

There are some advantages to unfunded mandates. It forces state and local government to take more responsibility for the safety and welfare of its citizens, and actually can benefit citizens.

The increasing tendency of federal government to forcefully make state government an unwilling partner in debt, however, has to change. And that's what the unfunded mandate bill needs to address — when to waive a rule against unfunded mandates. It's a worthy goal.

LETTERS

To the Editor:

The December 31 edition of the Northern Watch of Thief River Falls carried an article which said that Super Value grocery of Crookston and Jubilee Foods of Thief River Falls were assessed a civil penalty of $24,000 by the U.S. department of labor's wage and hour division. After reading the article one can wonder what is happening to our freedom. If I have a child that is willing to work for $3 an hour, and if the employer and parents are satisfied, what business is it of our government to interfere?

It is ironic that our stores are loaded with goods made in third world countries mostly by child labor while in our country they cannot climb a ladder or unload a grocery truck. How picky can you get?

The price of what we buy is no longer based on the price of ingredients, but on the cost of government regulations. As an example, there are over 1,200 regulations on a loaf of bread.

Indications are that our bureaucracies are under funded and have to raise money by fines.

Sincerely,
Arnold Honl

Old Mill State Park to host winter events

Old Mill State park will be the site of a snow shoe interpretive hike and candle light/ moon light ski event January 14.

The two hour snow shoe interpretive hike will be offered free beginning 4 p.m. January 14. Space is limited. Please call (218) 437-8174 to register. Hot cider and popcorn will be available.

A one hour candle light/moon light ski event will be offered from 6 to 10 p.m. Saturday, January 14. Ski passes are required for all people 16 to 65-years-of age and may be purchased at the park. Daily passes for the ski trails are $1 with one year and three-year passes available. Hot cider and popcorn will be available.

Skis are now available to rent at the park office. Approximately 20 sets of skis, boots and poles in a variety of sizes from children's to adult's may be rented for under $7 a set. If you have never tried this winter sport here is a wonderful, inexpensive chance to check it out. Snow shoes may be rented for $5 a day at the park. The Agassiz Interpretive trail is less than a mile and offers beautiful winter views of the Middle River. The picnic shelter will be the warming house for the winter months for park visitors. Snowmobiles may ride down to the shelter and warm up this winter. Please do not snowmobile, snow shoe, or walk on the cross country ski trail tracks. It destroys the trail.

As of January 4, the sliding hill is still not completely covered with snow, but sliders have been using the snow covered part to slide halfway down the hill. The ski trails are in fair shape with about six inches of snow. Lets hope for more snow. The Argyle Fire department donated the use of a truck to flood a skating rink at the park. Fireman Cecil Deschene and Fireman Ed Safranski volunteered time two days to flood the area.

Vehicle permits are required to enter the park. The 1995 annual permits may be purchased for $18, and will allow entry at 66 Minnesota State Parks from now until December 31, 1995. Daily vehicle permits are $4.

For more information please call (218) 437-8174, or write Old Mill State Park, route 1 box 43, Argyle MN 56713.

MDA accepts applications for ag loans

Farmers who want to make their farming systems more sustainable can get help through a Minnesota Department of Agriculture (MDA) loan program. The MDA's Energy and Sustainable Agriculture Program (ESAP) will accept applications for this winter's loan review until February 25.

Established by the 1988 Minnesota Legislature, the program offers loans at an interest rate of six per cent. ESAP makes farm loans up to $15,000 per farmer and up to $75,000 for joint projects such as a single piece of equipment purchased by two or more farmers. Eligible purchases may include rotational grazing systems, breeding livestock, tree planting, on-farm energy production, solar-powered equipment, no herbicide weed control, equipment to handle cover crops, and soil conserving equipment. Any item that makes a farming system more sustainable is eligible under the provisions of this loan program.

MDA Commissioner Elton R. Redalen praised the loan program and its borrowers. "More than $1.7 million has been lent to 170 farmers since the program began," said Redalen. "These loans have helped farmers make the transition to a more sustainable system. That change has clearly been a sound business decision for these farmers."

Created as a $1 million revolving fund, the loan program returns the principal portion of the payments to the fund, making the money available for energy and sustainable ag loans to other farmers. The purpose of the program is to enable farmers to adopt practices that will lead them to a more sustainable farming system.

Although the loan program accepts applications continuously, they are only reviewed twice a year, in the spring and the fall. In order to enable farmers to make timely decisions, however, a purchase made after an application is submitted can still qualify for a sustainable ag loan.

A technical review panel evaluates the applications based on farm profitability and benefits to the rural environment. For an application or additional information, call Wayne Monsen, Grant and Loan Program Coordinator, (612) 282-2261.

Prowlers win 3-2 in overtime

Power play opportunities late in the third period and in overtime led to the tying and winning goals Tuesday as Thief River Falls knocked off Grand Forks Red River 3-2 in high school hockey at the Huck Olson Memorial Civic Center.

After skating 2 1/3 periods without picking up a penalty, the Roughriders were whistled three times in the final 8:13 of regulation time. The Prowlers put just two shots on goal during those power play opportunities, but scored on one of them when a shot from the point by defenseman David Halsa took a knuckleball-like drop on Red River goalie Tom Golden for a 2-2 tie at 11:33.

With goalie Chanc Keefe coming up with a couple of nice saves, Thief River Falls successfully skated off a penalty at the start of the eight-minute sudden-death overtime. Golden wasn't able to match Keefe's overtime success, giving up a goal to Nick Chiodo at 5:58 on the Prowlers' first shot on net in overtime – 38 seconds into a Thief River Falls power play.

The win helped continue the Prowlers climb to .500 – putting them at 5-6-1 after 1-5-1 start.

"We're happy with the win. It's another step for us," said Thief River Falls coach Pat Cullen. "I've said it before, but again, it's nice to be rewarded for hard work."

While the play went back and forth, great scoring chances were few and far between for either side.

"It was a tight defensive game," acknowledged Cullen. "It was two pretty even teams."

Red River scored just 2:27 into the game when a backhand off the right wing by Scott Taylor slipped by Keefe.

Thief River Falls tied it 1-1, but not until 14:20 of the first period when Tim Barry put the puck through Golden's legs during a scramble in front of the net.

The Roughriders went back on top 2-1 with the only goal of the second period – a point-blank rebound by Chris Finstrom at 8:45.

Scoring

First period - RR, Scott Taylor (Andy Bakken), 2:27. TRF, Tim Barry (Nick Chiodo-Keith Anderson), 14:20.

Second period - RR, Chris Finstrom (Mark Bry), 8:45.

Third period - TRF, David Halsa (Barry), 11:33.

Overtime - TRF, Chiodo (Anderson-Brian Howe), 5:58.

TRF - Chanc Keefe 9-4 4 5-22. RR - Tom Golden 4 8 6 0-18

Thief River Falls defenseman Paul Gonsorowski had the puck behind the Prowlers' net during Tuesday's high school hockey game against Grand Forks Red River. The Prowlers won 3-2 in overtime.

■ Prowlers win girls game 56-55 in overtime

Marshall County Central turned the ball over and as a result turned a win over to Thief River Falls Tuesday in girls high school basketball at Newfolden.

The Prowlers won 56-55 in overtime when eighth grader Nicole Kopari hit a final-second 3-point shot.

The Nordics finished with 28 turnovers – two of them coming in the last minute of regulation time that ended in a 41-41 tie and another occurring with 3.6 seconds left in overtime to give Kopari and the Prowlers the shot at the win.

"That last shot didn't beat us," said Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde. "We lost it before that. We had a lot of unforced errors; a lot of bad passes. We're just not handling the ball very well. I was pleased with the way we shot, but we took too many fouls and we didn't take advantage of the opportunities we had to win the game. It was an awfully tough loss."

And an awfully sweet win for the Prowlers, who led 19-12 at the end of the first quarter and had a 30-25 halftime advantage. The game was tied 35-35 at the end of the third quarter. After combining for just 27 second half points, the two teams produced an unusually-high 29 points in the four-minute overtime.

The Nordics had a 3-point edge heading into the last minute of regulation time, but lost the ball and the lead on turnovers, then missed a final-possession shot.

Thief River Falls opened up a 5-point lead in the overtime, but 8-for-11 free throw shooting by the Nordics in the extra session put them ahead 55-53. Marshall County Central controlled a rebound with 10 seconds left and was in position to run out the clock before losing the ball out of bounds.

Kopari, who netted 14 points, then ended it in dramatic fashion. Kelly Skeim led the Prowlers with 18 points, and Sarah Huschle chipped in 10. Tricia Pederson scored 21 points and Darlene Nelson had 14 for the Nordics.

Thief River Falls shot 38 percent from the field (22/58) and made 9 of 17 free throws. Marshall County Central shot 55 percent from the floor (23/42) and went 9-for-15 at the line. The Nordics had a 31-24 rebound edge. The Prowlers turned it over 15 times.

Results left Thief River Falls 3-9 and Marshall County Central 3-7.

Goodridge is 73-72 winner over B/G-MR

Goodridge continued to impress Tuesday when the Huskies outscored Badger/Greenbush-Middle River 73-72 in boys high school basketball.

The 7-2 Huskies started the 1994 portion of their 1993-94 season by winning four games in an eight-day span, with top-caliber foes Red Lake County Central, Clearbrook-Gonvick-Trail and Badger/Greenbush-Middle River among the conquests.

"We're really playing well right now," confirmed Goodridge coach John Rahn. "We toughened up our schedule this year, and the kids have really responded. They're playing hard."

After posting quarter leads of 19-14, 36-31 and 58-48, the Huskies had a six-point advantage with three minutes left before the visiting Gators answered a Goodridge parade to the free throw line with a trio of 3-point baskets to make it interesting down the stretch – the last one coming with 4 seconds left that accounted for the 73-72 final.

Brady Wiseth and Mitch Sinsky, who both made key free throws to help hold off the Gators' comeback bid at the end, scored 21 and 20 points, respectively, to lead the Huskies. Martin Dahlen had an 11-point, 13-rebound game off the bench, and Johnny Gallagher, who hit two free throws during the Huskies' lead-protecting fourth quarter trips to the foul line, grabbed 10 rebounds.

Led by Dahlen and Gallagher, the smaller Huskies surprised the Gators with a decisive 42-25 rebound advantage.

Matt Kuznia kept the Gators in the game with a 34-point effort. Teammates Sheldon Ruud and Matt Kujava contributed 12 points each.

Goodridge was 28-for-67 from the field (42 percent), and 9-for-19 at the free throw line. Badger/Greenbush-Middle River went 25-for-65 from the floor (38 percent) and 7-for-9 at the line.

The Gators are 7-2, with their only other loss coming at the hands of Class AA Thief River Falls.

Strong defensive play nets win for NCC men

It was a non-conference road game sandwiched between a pair of Northern Division weekend series, but a Tuesday night visit to Moorhead still brought out the best in the Northland Community College men's basketball team as the Pioneers shut down the Concordia College junior varsity 82-56.

"It was the first time all year where everyone came in focused, ready to play basketball," said Northland coach Mark Dannhoff. "I was really happy with the effort. We had a few lapses on offense, but not as many and not as long as we've had in the past. And our defense was strong enough to carry us through those offense lapses."

Northland led 42-30 at halftime and out-scored Concordia 40-26 over the final 20 minutes.

Chad Kujava led a balanced Northland attack with 13 points, while Preston Treat, Ryan Rislov and Gary Carey all finished with 11. Brett Krachnavy had a game-high 18 points for the Cobbers.

Northland was 42-for 86 from the field (49 percent), which included 11-for-22 shooting from 3-point range. Concordia went 25-for-76 from the floor (33 percent).

The win put the Pioneers at 4-7 for the year. Northland lost to Concordia 78-72 earlier this winter.

Final game in old gym: Grygla-Gatzke 90, MCC 60...

Free throws add up for Eagles

Packaging a week's worth of free throws into one game, Grygla-Gatzke converted the foul shots into a 90-60 Tuesday boys high school basketball win over Marshall County Central.

The Eagles went to the line 43 times, and made 28 of them. An unusually high 18 of those free throws came in the first quarter.

Throw in a 45-31 Grygla-Gatzke rebound advantage and you have a 30-point ball game – the sixth straight loss for the 2-7 Nordics.

"We fouled too much, and we gave them the offensive boards," noted Marshall County Central coach Ron Ueland. "And they got their transition game rolling in the second half."

Marshall County Central led 19-17 at the end of the first quarter, but Grygla-Gatzke went ahead 40-29 at halftime and had a 67-44 third quarter cushion.

In addition to their free throw diet, the Eagles feasted on 54 percent 31-for-57 shooting from the field. The Nordics made 24 of 61 – a 39 percent showing. Marshall County Central topped the turnover charts 23-18.

"We attacked from the start," pointed out Grygla-Gatzke coach Vern Johnson. "We got on a roll, and things kept going our way. We made some good decisions against their defense, and we got some good second-shot opportunities."

It was the first home game of the year for the 4-5 Eagles, and the final game in the old Grygla school gym. They are scheduled to make their debut in the recently-completed new gym Saturday, Jan. 21, vs Argyle.

RLCC boys improve record to 8-3

Fifty-nine percent shooting from the field carried Red Lake County Central past host Mahnomen 70-30 Tuesday in boys high school basketball.

The 8-3 Mustangs hit 29 of 49 shots en route to quarter leads of 13-9, 37-13 and 56-21.

"We shot well," acknowledged Red Lake County Central coach Todd Fine. "It was the best we've shot this year from the perimeter."

Aaron Chaput led the Mustangs with 18 points, while Aaron Rosten netted 16 and Bryce Huotari had 13. Mahnomen, 11-for-57 from the field (19 percent) did not have a scorer with more than six points.

Red Lake County Central was 7-for-11 at the free throw line, where Mahnomen went 6-for-11. The Mustangs had a 29-27 rebound edge.

NCC women lose to Concordia JV 75-35

Concordia College junior varsity did a number on the Northland Community College women's basketball team Tuesday as the Cobbers belted the Pioneers 75-35 in Moorhead.

It wasn't a pretty performance, admitted Northland coach Rick Nikunen. "It was just like we had lead boots on," he explained. "We were a step behind from the get-go and we just couldn't shake it."

Kelli Kronschnabel, a 6-0 sophomore from Fertile, scored 14 points – the only Northland player in double figures. Ten Cobbers put their names in the scoring column, led by Kerry Nistler and Rayena Heard with 12 points apiece.

The Pioneers, who lost their season opener to the Cobbers in similar 72-40 fashion back on Dec. 1, are 2-7 for the year.

Wolverines start strong, but fall at Tri-County 57-44

Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke started strong, but couldn't keep up the pace as the Wolverines lost a 57-44 girls high school basketball game to Tri-County Thursday in Goodridge.

Tri-County fell behind 14-3 at the outset, but thanks to a six-point flurry in the final minute of the first quarter, climbed back to within 14-9 as the quarter ended, then went ahead 33-22 at halftime and maintained a 42-32 third quarter spread.

"We played real well the first seven minutes, then played real poor the last minute of the first quarter," pointed out Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke coach Mike Gast. "It snowballed on us there and we just never got it back."

Sara Bogestad had a 28-point night to lead the Wildcats, with Anna Bogestad contributing 13. Jenny Johnson and Brandi Stratton led the Wolverines with 12 and 11 points respectively.

Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke was 19-for-49 from the field (39 percent) and struggled with a 6-for-21 free throw night.

"We missed so many free throws," acknowledged Gast. "That just killed us."

Tri-County went 22-for-49 from the floor (45 percent) and had trouble at the line, too, with a 10-for-23 night. The rebounds were even at 33-apiece.

The Wolverines, who have lost six straight, dropped to 3-6.

Mustangs split at EGF

Red Lake County Central had nearly as many turnovers (35) as field goal attempts (37) Tuesday in an 87-40 girls high school basketball loss at East Grand Forks.

"It's tough to score when you can't get the shots," noted Red Lake County Central coach Rick Koivisto. "They double-teamed us in the backcourt and we turned it over."

The Green Wave had quarter leads of 25-14, 52-21 and 75-33.

Five East Grand Forks scorers hit double figures, led by Pollie Bohn with 16 points. Meckenzie Malwitz scored 12 points and freshman Angie Chervestad had an 11-point, 10-rebound game for the Mustangs.

Red Lake County Central shot 49 percent from the field, but the 18-for-37 effort didn't keep pace with East Grand Forks' 51 percent 39-for-76 shooting. The Mustangs were 3-for-6 at the free throw line, where the Green Wave went 5-for-14.

A Red Lake County Central return trip to East Grand Forks Thursday netted a 45-44 overtime win at Sacred Heart.

The 3-5 Mustangs overcame an 11-point third quarter deficit for a 42-42 regulation time tie. Catherine Rosten then scored the three Red Lake County Central overtime points.

"I was pleased with the way we came back," said Red Lake County Central coach Rick Koivisto. "Everybody contributed. We're happy with any win."

Angie Chervestad had a 15-point, 10-rebound game for the winners, while Marci DuChamp (11) and Meckenzie Malwitz (10) also had double figures on the boards.

The Mustangs were 19-for-53 from the field (36 percent) and had a tough 6-for-20 free throw night. The Eagles were just 17-for-75 (23 percent) from the floor and 9-for-17 at the line. Red Lake County Central had a 45-41 rebound edge.

TRF swim meet vs. Lakers postponed

Icy road conditions prompted officials to postpone a Thief River Falls vs. Detroit Lakes boys high school dual swim meet scheduled Thursday for the Prowlers' Franklin Middle School pool.

Weather permitting, the Pennington County Sportsmen's Club annual meeting will be held Thursday, Jan. 19, beginning at 7 p.m. at the club house.

All members are asked to attend, and to bring a friend. Plans for the coming year will be discussed and 1995 club officers will be installed.

Gators win 52-41 game vs. Nordics

Offensive rebounds and turnovers fueled the Badger/Greenbush-Middle River offense Thursday as the Gators beat Marshall County Central 52-41 in girls high school basketball at Newfolden.

"We didn't shoot very well, but we hit the offensive boards, and we got enough turnovers off the press to stay ahead," explained Gators coach Tom Neihauer.

Team-wise, Badger/Greenbush-Middle River did finish with a respectable 43 percent shooting night from the floor, but the 23-for-53 figure included a 9-for-10 effort by Heather Anderson, who scored a game-high 18 points. Without Anderson's shooting, the Gators had a 33 percent 14-for-43 game.

Marshall County Central, beaten by Badger/Greenbush-Middle River 73-39 in the 1994-95 season opener, stayed close this time by making 17 of 19 free throw opportunities, including a 10-for-10 first half by Tricia Pederson. The Nordics led 9-6 at the end of the first quarter, fell behind 23-15 at halftime and trailed 37-21 through three quarters.

Darlene Nelson led the Nordics with 15 points. Pederson had 14.

Marshall County Central programed to play a slower-paced game to keep ball out the Gators hands, and plagued by 24 turnovers, put up only 39 shots, and made just 11 (28 percent). The Nordics 15 first half points included only one field goal.

"Defensively we played well enough to win the ball game," said Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde, who employed a combination defense to combat the Gators' high scoring Krissi Super and Jessica Borgen. They combined for only 19 points, but Anderson picked up the slack. "We did a nice job on defense, but we needed to hit a few more shots. We did turn the ball over too much, and that probably cost us the game."

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River had a 28-26 rebound advantage, but enjoyed a 15-5 edge on the offensive end.

"We did the best we could against them on the boards, but they're just bigger than we are," pointed out Mjelde.

The Gators are 11-1. The Nordics fell to 3-8.

Red River wins 6-3 JV game over TRF

Grand Forks Red River fell behind 3-2 in the first period, but then scored four unanswered goals over the next 30 minutes to beat Thief River Falls 6-3 Tuesday in junior varsity high school hockey.

Curt Edwards scored a pair of goals for the 5-7 Thief River Falls squad and Bryan Cleven picked up two assists. Third goal came from Trevor Lee.

Thief River Falls goalies Brad Inglis and Brian Barry combined on 20 saves. Red River wound up with 18 saves.

Klinke is recipient of coaching award

Northland Community College head football coach Gene Klinke has been named 1994 Minnesota Community College Conference Northern Division Coach of the Year, it was announced recently by Kathryn Henke, Northland's Director of College Relations.

Klinke-led Pioneers went 5-3 last fall, earning their second MCCC state playoff berth in his three years at the school.

The award reflects the success of the Northland football program and the work by the entire coaching staff, pointed out Klinke. "I feel that my football staff is one of the best in the league," he said. "It makes my job much easier knowing these guys are around."

Klinke, who is 16-9 as Northland head coach, said the post-season honor is a partial reward for the long hours away from home, the late nights and long bus rides the staff endures in an effort to help put Northland football on the map.

In addition to the wins and playoff berths, Klinke is also proud of the Pioneers' accomplishments in the classroom, which included five MCCC Academic All-State selections in 1994. "Smart student/athletes can make any coach look good," he noted.

Klinke and wife Janelle have three children: Taslin (4), Treson (1) and Williams (5 months).

Farm Price Index is steady

The Minnesota all farm price index for mid-December remained at 118, unchanged from last month, but down 19 points from last year. The crops and meat animal indexes were up 1 and 2 points, respectively; however, the dairy products index and the poultry and egg indexes were down 8 and 4 points, respectively, from the previous month.

Price gainers for crops were soybeans, corn, potatoes, dry beans and hay. Oats, wheat, barley and sunflowers all dropped in price.

The following livestock commodities showed price gains: calves, cows, barrows and gilts, sheep and table market eggs. However, steers and heifers, sows, lambs, all milk and turkeys experienced price declines.

Crookston schools get grants

Two grants were awarded by the Otto Bremer Foundation to Crookston Public Schools 593. One grant in the amount of 7,500 was for equipment for a school-based fitness center, and another for $23,700 to develop positive beginnings, a resource center for parents and children.

The Otto Bremer Foundation is a private charitable foundation established in 1944 by Otto Bremer. Its giving is concentrated on programs that benefit communities in Minnesota, North Dakota, and northwestern Wisconsin served by Bremer Financial Corporation, which is owned by the Otto Bremer Foundation and employees of Bremer First American banks, agencies and trusts. The program gives priority to programs dealing with rural poverty and those broadening understanding around issues of racism. Although its commitment to the countryside and rural communities dominates the foundation's grant making, support is also given to programs that address the issue of poverty in the City of St. Paul. In general, the foundation supports programs in the area of community affairs, human services, health, and higher education.

Thirty-three grants totaling $564,350 were awarded to Minnesota non-profit organizations in December. Ten grants totaling $362,180 were awarded to North Dakota non-profit organizations. Seven grants totaling $39,500 were awarded to Wisconsin non-profit organizations. Three grants totaling $125,000 were awarded to other non-profit organizations.

"To be successful it takes everything. I've been willing to give it everything. You have to live it and breath it."

Off the race course, Bazemore drives a Ford Taurus station wagon with 150,000 miles on the odometer. Driving on and off the track, Bazemore said, are two different things, although he admits to earning two speeding tickets in December.

Bazemore said he tries to log at least eight hours of sleep before a race. He also tries to keep himself physically fit, although Bazemore said drag racing is essentially a psychological sport.

Bazemore said he tries to psych himself down before races. "I don't pay attention to who's driving," Bazemore said. "I run my own race and go for perfection."

Concentration is important in a sport where the driver travels from 0 to 100 mph in one second. The car travels 60 feet in nine-tenths of a second. The racer has to keep the car under control while a gravitational force of 4g's weighs down on the car.

As a snowmobile amateur, Bazemore said he hasn't felt pressured before his first race. "I don't know how I'll do. I'll be as quick as I can and try to finish," Bazemore said. "I'm here to learn and get experience."

Grygla opens new school gymnasium

Teachers will no longer need to send physical education students to study hall during Christmas programs and proms.

Johnson said the A, B, seven, eighth and ninth grade basketball teams can now compete separately, rather than combining due to space limitations.

The new floor also allows for more shock absorption. It's composed of a maple floor resting on top of rubber spacers and two sheets of plywood. The old floor consisted of maple parquet resting on concrete, which, Johnson said, "is pretty tough on the legs."

Other major improvements include the new concession stand and the weight room — which was previously housed in the corner of the metal shop. The new weight room is 550 square feet and located next to the gym.

The open house next Saturday will include tours of the new facilities and drawings for t-shirts and sweatshirts commemorating the event. Before the game, school staff is holding a dinner, with revenues going to senior scholarships.

Warroad, Roseau courthouse battle

County Highway Office, which would need to move to the new county seat.

In a press release which echoed most arguments made by Roseau's side, Roseau Mayor Bernie Burggraf stated:

"No one city official should be allowed to build his city or community at the expense of another city or community. No individual or company should be allowed to buy government . . .

"There is no reason to move the county seat. The county has been well served in Roseau. Roseau is located in a fair geographical location and the hidden additional costs do not warrant a move of this magnitude. . . .

"Remember, there is no such thing as a free lunch or a free courthouse."

Northern Minnesota rivalry is usually confined to the hockey arena. Burggraf said he avoided hecklers at Tuesday night's Warroad vs. Roseau hockey game until the final minutes. When the score was tied at 0-0 a few out-of-state Marvin Window representatives shouted, "Would you give up the courthouse for a goal?" Burggraf laughed at the incident.

Weighing pros and cons, the Warroad Pioneer and Roseau Times-Region newspapers have waged a battle of ink on the editorial pages.

Warroad editor, Tony Rogers, wrote, "I believe voters should welcome this gift and use the money they are saving to build better lives for themselves and their communities."

Roseau editor, Dick Melvin wrote, "If money can be used to change the county seat, why couldn't it be used to influence votes on the county board?"

Each side has been holding civic meetings at a dizzying pace and each side boasts its own task force.

The "Roseau County Citizens Committee on the Courthouse," is headed by former Seventh District Congressional Representative Bob Bergland. The committee plans to study costs involved in a move in minute detail.

"The Marvin family has been very generous in its philanthropy," Bergland said. "They've built up a lot of goodwill and earned nothing but kudos, but this is a different animal — where there are winners and losers."

The Taxpayers' Choice committee plans to circulate a petition in two weeks. Putting the move to a county-wide vote requires signatures from 60 per cent of the people who voted in the last election.

The petitioners have 60 days to circulate the petition, and if the requirements are fulfilled, an election will be set up within 30 days.

In the meantime, the existing plans to build the courthouse in Roseau will continue as scheduled.

The petition law was sent to the Minnesota Attorney General's office for review. The law is 100 years old and has raised some eyebrows. Those involved in the debate question the legality of allowing only those who voted in the last election to sign the petition rather than allowing everyone eligible to vote sign the petition.

There are 9,639 Roseau county residents registered to vote, but only 6,356 residents voted in the last election.

Until the proposed move goes to a vote, Warroad and Roseau will have to take out their differences on the ice.

Grand 500 race is still on

The International Series of Champions & Can-Am Racing Circuits announced that plans for the Jan 24-27 Grand 500 snowmobile race from Winnipeg to Hinckley will continue as scheduled.

ISOC and Can-Am officials pointed out that the Grand 500 is separate from the I-500 which was cancelled earlier this week.

Grand 500 race legs include Tuesday, Jan. 24 - Winnipeg/Thief River Falls; Wednesday, Jan. 25 - Thief River Falls/Bemidji; Thursday, Jan. 26 - Bemidji/Grand Casino-Mille Lacs; and Friday, Jan. 27 - Grand Casino-Mille Lacs/Grand Casino-Hinckley.

Organizers acknowledge the possibility of marginal snow conditions and are ready to implement a back-up plan to complete the race.

The $200,000 purse is expected to attract 300 drivers from across the United States and Canada.

Kyoko Kino of Osaka, Japan, is currently in her second year of study at Northland Community College in Thief River Falls. Some of her family and friends were caught in the earthquake in Kobe, Japan.

Local student worries about family in Japan

Kyoko Kino learns of terror caused by earthquake

by David Hill
Associate Editor

Tuesday, January 17, an earthquake of the magnitude of 7.2 on the Richter scale tore apart the industrial port city of Kobe, Japan. In the space of 20 seconds or so at about 5:40 a.m., the city of 1.4 million suffered billions of dollars in damage and as of Thursday morning the death toll had climbed over 3,000.

Kyoko Kino, a second year student at Northland Community College in Thief River Falls, was horrified when an instructor called her at home shortly after hearing first reports of the earthquake. She tried calling her mom, who lives in Osaka, but couldn't get through. She tried calling a friend who lives near Kobe, and she couldn't get through. For awhile all she could do was watch television news reports of the devastation. She finally reached her brother who lives in Tokyo and learned that he had been able to reach their mother in Osaka.

She learned that although most of the damage was in Kobe, the earthquake caused major damage in Osaka, where her mother lives. It caused minor damage to her home, but her friend was not so lucky. Kyoko said she learned from her mother, that her friend and her baby were unhurt, but had been forced out of their apartment, which had been destroyed.

Kyoko said it was just coincidence that she and her mother had been talking about earthquakes a week or so before. Although many in the public might believe that earthquakes are synonymous with Japan, not all of Japan experiences earthquakes.

Kyoko said children in Japan are taught at a young age what to do when an earthquake strikes. Earthquake drills are also held once a year, but earthquakes in the Kobe area are unusual. Kyoko explained that her mother and her friend both believe the quake was stronger than estimated.

Osaka, Japan's second-largest city and across the bay from Kobe, also was heavily damaged. The wreckage extended 50 miles northeast of Kobe to the ancient capital, Kyoto, where treasured Buddha statues and a five-story pagoda built in 951 suffered minor damage.

According to reports from News Services, hardly a block in the industrial port city of Kobe had a house or building intact. Many streets were reduced to piles of rubble by the strongest quake to strike an urban area of Japan since 1948.

Aftershocks continue to terrorize the residents. Kyoko was finally able to talk directly to her mother on Tuesday. She said her mother is still afraid and although she wants to know what is going on, she won't watch television because of the horrific pictures. Interviewers on Japanese stations talked with people who reported hearing people screaming after the quake, and the smell of gas and burned people. Kyoko said her telephone call with her mother Tuesday was interrupted by an aftershock. Kyoko said her mother quickly hung up because she said she had to turn off gas to the burner she was using to boil water.

Kyoko noted that homes, apartments, and buildings are all very close together. Fires spread rapidly and buildings collapsed on top of each other.

She feels helpless. She especially felt helpless when she saw a picture of a woman and her child wrapped in a blanket. She wanted to be with her mother.

Kyoko said she also believes not enough is being done for the victims of the earthquake. They don't have enough places to sleep and there is a lack of water, she said. They need a lot of help.

According to News Services in an article in the Star Tribune Wednesday, more than 8,380 build-

Homark to show new homes to public Sunday

For northwestern Minnesota residents interested in viewing the latest in manufactured housing, Homark Co. of Red Lake Falls will have six new models on display at the Red River Shows building in Crookston Sunday, January 22, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Larry Eukel, who directs sales and marketing for Homark, said that this year's show is the second annual. Friday and Saturday are devoted to showing the homes and their features to approximately 30 present dealers and five potential dealers who have been invited to participate in the event.

"We are extremely excited about our new models of homes," Eukel said, "and many of the changes we have made are major departures from what has been traditional in the manufactured mobile home market for some time."

Eukel believes that there will be exceptional interest in the entirely new 2100 Series which will be shown for the first time anywhere at the Crookston show. Two additional models in this series will be introduced in mid-spring this year and they are being promoted as "designed for the 21st Century and built now."

The 2100—a double-wide model—has such features as a 3-12 pitch on the truss roof rafters, 2x10 floor, 2x6 exterior walls and 2x4 interior walls, all on 16-inch centers. Heat ducts are on the perimeter walls instead of down the center and insulation is R-22 in the floor, R-19 in the walls and R-28 in the attic.

The 2100 also has vinyl windows with low E double pane glass, vinyl lap siding, modular oak cabinets in the kitchen and bath, preformed countertops, recessed lighting in the kitchen and track lighting in the bedrooms. It is equipped with Coleman gas furnace ready for air conditioning and a Deluxe Blend Air II air exchanger which changes the air in the home and attic every four hours when the furnace is not running and continuously when it is.

Eukel said the display will include two single-wide homes and four double-wide models. Single-wides are a new Royal American model 16x70 in size and a Dynasty model 16x80.

The double-wides will include two Dynasty models and one Royal American model in addition to the 2100 Series. Two of the double-wides are 28x60, one is 28x64 and one is 28x66.

In the new models a number of prior options have become standard features, Eukel said. He added that there is no admission charge to attend the showing Sunday and that drawings will be held for door prizes.

Oklee-Plummer school venture is put on hold

Plan would have grades 7-8-9 in Oklee and 10-11-12 in Plummer

Mark Olson
Staff Writer

Plans to combine Oklee and Plummer schools, grades seven through 12, have been put on hold.

The "cooperative plan," as proposed by the Oklee and Plummer school superintendents, would send grades seven through nine to Oklee, and grades 10 through 12 to Plummer. Elementary grades would remain the same.

Declining enrollment at both schools led to the possibility of combining classes.

The superintendents proposed the move last November to the Oklee and Plummer cooperative planning committees. But when the two committees met again in January, members of each committee said they wanted the 10th through 12th grades in their own town.

The Plummer and Oklee school boards will vote on the measure next week. Both boards are expected to reject the cooperative plan.

"Now it's a little bit in limbo," said Mark Lee, a Plummer cooperative plan committee member.

The situation has touched nerves in each town. "It's a touchy situation," Lee said. "From what I understand, Oklee feels they'd lose more business without the older kids. From what I see, it's the younger kids that spend more, but that [Oklee's argument] is a legitimate gripe."

Plummer Superintendent Rich Lorenson said he also heard complaints from parents with children in seventh, eighth and ninth grade who live on the fringe of the Plummer district and would need to travel even farther to Oklee. The schools are approximately 15 miles apart.

Lorenson said he and Oklee Superintendent Dale Salberg proposed sending 10th, 11th and 12th grades to Plummer because it was a central location for high school students traveling from the Oklee and Red Lake Falls area.

Plummer has 112 students in grades seven through 12, and Oklee has 162 students in the top six grades.

"Neither community wanted to give up the high school," said Dan Christianson, the Oklee cooperative plan committee chairperson. "Until they're forced to have no alternative, they'd like to see the school in their community. Right now, people will pay for the separate schools."

Declining enrollment means less state aid and more reliance on local funds. "If we work cooperatively, there will be more class offerings at a reasonable price to the taxpayer," Salberg said.

"They're still willing to pay the price at this time," Christianson said. "Until the price becomes a burden, it's affordable."

The superintendents also proposed combining classes to cut back on different preparations for each class. Currently, each teacher teaches six different classes daily. Combining the schools could also increase curriculum for each grade.

Currently the schools are involved in "pairing and sharing" programs, where students travel to the other school for certain classes. For example, students travel to Oklee for computerized drafting and travel to Plummer for auto mechanics.

The schools have also combined their sports teams. Home games alternate at each school.

Norris Camp on Register of Historic Places

The simple, one-story, wood-frame buildings of Norris Camp tell the story of hard work and a country struggling its way out of the Great Depression. The site has been placed on the National Register of Historic Places through a nomination by the State Historic Preservation Office of the Minnesota Historical Society.

The 30-acre camp is 18 miles south of Roosevelt, off the Norris-Roosevelt Forest Road, in the heart of the Beltrami Island State Forest in Lake of the Woods County.

The camp was typical of Civilian Conservation Corps construction of the era. It included a mess hall, recreation building, wash house, hospital and bunkhouses among its 50 structures. Today, 14 original buildings remain, and those, according to Register historians, are in amazingly sound shape for a camp intended to be temporary.

Beginning in 1936, the camp was occupied and expanded by the Resettlement Administration. It made the camp a headquarters for a federal relief effort known as the Beltrami Island Project. The project was an extensive federal relief effort encompassing 740,000 acres. From 1936 to 1942, camp workers

Hearings on DNR presence at Norris Camp set for April

In 1986 the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources decided to close its office at Norris Camp. That decision has been reviewed every year since. In April, public hearings on Norris Camp will be scheduled. Dates for those meetings have not been decided, but once the meetings have been held a decision is expected to be announced at the end of April.

According to Susan Roth of the Minnesota State Historical Preservation Office, property placed on the National Register of Historic Places are on the register because of their association with significant persons and events, because of their architectural or engineering significance or because they contain important information about history or prehistory. In this case, the camp was placed on the register

Public hearings to help the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources make a decision on whether to move their office at Norris Camp to Warroad will be held in April. Recently, Norris Camp was placed on the National Register of Historic Places. This picture was taken by Reporter Mark Olson when he wrote a feature story on the camp a couple of years ago.

Buzzing among the books

Red Lake Falls — The Red Lake Falls Library is too noisy, but the problem is not the buzzing of people talking. The problem is an annoying buzzing noise coming from on high — the lights. The library has been playing music to try to cover the noise, but that doesn't seem to help. Bruce Wilson, RLF public works director, is looking into the matter and says it may be that the ballasts in the lights have to be replaced to put an end to the buzzing. This would cost the city $1,990.

Long underwear heats up Wadena City Council

Wadena — Long underwear led to a heated debate at a Wadena City Council meeting. Police Chief Lane Waldahl apparently authorized the purchase of six pieces of long underwear from city funds for the city's police officers. The majority of the city council objected to the purchase because they claimed long underwear was not specified as part of officers' uniforms in the officers' union contract and they feared deviation from the uniform specification would set a precedence for other departments. After considerable discussion between the council and Chief Waldahl, the matter was tabled. It was referred to the city lawyer for interpretation.

Otter Tail Power Co. board approves construction budget

Members of Otter Tail Power Company's board of directors approved the 1995 construction budget of $32.3 million and the five-year budget (1995-99) of $152.4 million. Included is funding for production engineering and construction, transmission and distribution lines and substations, and general projects.

"Serving western Minnesota customers reliably fits well with our 1995 theme, The Energy to Serve You," says Roy Larson, Otter Tail Power's vice president of customer service for Minnesota and South Dakota. "Our goal will continue to be serving customers at the lowest possible cost as we plan construction projects on an annual basis."

Each year Otter Tail needs to upgrade and repair its electric distribution system. This year is no exception, says Larson. Examples of various projects include constructing substations, reconductoring power lines, providing underground electric service, and converting lines from lower to higher voltages.

The #1 Show In Northwest Minnesota Is Back!

4th Governor's Snowmobile ride scheduled for Feb. 9-10

Fourth Annual Governor's Snowmobile Ride is slated for February 9-10 at Ruttger's Sugar Lake Lodge located 15 miles south of Grand Rapids. The ride celebrates and highlights the impact of the sport of snowmobiling for Minnesota's winter tourism economy. With more than 216,000 registered snowmobile enthusiasts in the state, a strong market among snowmobilers from neighboring states and the hours of work contributed by snowmobile club members on trail development, maintenance and grooming, snowmobiling has become a mainstay of tourism destinations throughout Minnesota.

This will be the second time Grand Rapids has served as host community for the event. The ride was started to provide an event similar to the annual Governor's Fishing Opener which would draw media attention to an important recreational opportunity.

The 1995 ride is made possible through the cooperation of private and public organizations in an effort to promote one of Minnesota's most popular and fastest growing winter sports. Arctco, Polaris, Skidoo and Yamaha, the world's four major snowmobile manufacturers along with Minnesota United Snowmobile Association (MnUSA), the Minnesota Office of Tourism, the Grand Rapids Area Visitors and Convention Bureau, Ruttger's Sugar Lake Lodge and the Department of Natural Resources are cosponsors of the event.

Logistical and organizational support will be provided by the Haypoint Jackpine Savages Snowmobile Club and the Driftskippers Snowmobile Club whose trails will be used for the ride. Members of area snowmobile clubs will serve as guides along a route from Sugar Lake to Remer (coffee break) to Hill City (lunch stop) and back to Sugar Lake. The Governor's Ride will be second event in a month-long celebration of the sport of snowmobiling in the Grand Rapids Area. The annual Minnesota Women on Snow Ride will be held February 3-5. MnUSA will hold its annual Winter Rendezvous in Grand Rapids February 1-12 and the International Snowmobile Hall of Fame Induction Weekend will provide the grand finale February 24-26.

1 can tomatoes
1 can kidney beans
Large package noodles or rice
Salt to taste

Brown meat and onions. Cook noodles or rice.

Add other ingredients to meat and onions and mix with noodles or rice.

Top with ground beef mixture, sauce, cheeses and second package of rolls.

Bake at 350 degrees for 30 minutes, until light brown.

To The Editor:

So, what [illegible] is [illegible] time [illegible] some? [illegible] appropriate.

I would just like to add my two cents worth on the county situation. First of all, a vote on where the county seat should reside is fair and fair [illegible] a vote with four million plus dollars attached to it is not fair. We as voters have been very disappointed in our politicians who have been bribed by lobbyists of big corporations. We are now offered a new courthouse if we vote to move the county seat. Are we going to fall to the same level as the weak politicians? The thought of moving the county seat couldn't have been an overnight brainstorm. Why wasn't this brought to our attention in time for the general election? It would have saved taxpayers money.

I would like to constitute the Courthouse as pride and respect. The definition of pride is to take credit for and that would be paying out of our pockets. Then comes respect following at pride's heels, which means to honor, to relate to and consideration. It is a fact that we don't appreciate free things as much as things we paid for with our own hard earned money. If the courthouse is not built by us (county taxpayers) then deep down inside us it'll never seem like ours. This statement probably doesn't mean much to anyone who wasn't born and raised here so please consider how you would feel if this took place in your home county.

If you take the money out of the deal, what other reasons are there to consider to move? Some might say that having the county seat in Warroad would encourage growth but that would be selfish reasoning. The county seat is presently centrally located. The extension office works with many people from all over the county. Just think of all the extra travel. It's possible other services would move also. If the federal offices move that would cause a greater inconvenience for many of the farmers that are involved with the government programs. This county, unlike some other counties, is a fairly conservative one. For years now our money has been banked for that pride and respect - the Courthouse. Do we really want to slap the county in the face and say spend that hard earned money on something else?

Yes our taxes are a little higher to pay for this, but at least we know that what we pay in property taxes stays in our county and we will see where it goes, unlike other taxes. Our house value is $57,200 and this year $18.36 tax has been added for the new courthouse. At the end of 2006 we'll have paid $123.52. Our federal and state income tax for 1994 is approximately $6,900, $15 [illegible] items [illegible] small price to pay in comparison. Maybe the Warroad donators would consider putting them [illegible] toward the [illegible] problem [illegible]. We have a good solid county and I hope we keep it that way.

You're probably wondering who I am. Well, I'm a Roseau County native. I work for the county and have for 17 years. I don't have any rank and haven't been involved in the planning or the banking of the new courthouse but I do have feelings. Feelings that have been a little hurt by the chain of events.

Congratulations and thanks to all of those wonderful people who have put so much time and work already into this [illegible] Centennial celebration! Let's all get involved in our county's 100th!

I encourage you to dig into your roots and let your conscience be your guide when you go to vote!

Sincerely,
Val Wensloff

Cheers, Roseau County, and to 100 more!!!!

Girl Scout Cookie Sale Needs Support

Those of us who live in the Upper Midwest have shared many traditions over the years, and it's once again time to share another. The Pine to Prairie Girl Scout Council's annual cookie sale starts next week.

You may not realize that when you place an order for Girl Scout cookies, your purchase does much more than make a little salesperson happy and give you some pleasant munching. In the long run, you might be helping that salesperson explore a future career in sales, accounting or merchandising. Selling Girl Scout cookies may give a girl her first experience in the business world and help her to succeed in the competitive job market of tomorrow.

Proceeds from cookie sales support nationwide service projects, scholarships for travel and activities and math and science learning projects. A full $2.24 of the $3 price of a box of cookies stays within the Pine to Prairie council's jurisdiction to provide service to girls.

Local Girl Scout troops also benefit directly from the cookie sale. The first 10 per cent of sales stays right with the local troop to help carry out its own unique, girl-planned activities.

We know how much the girls and their leaders appreciate the support they have received in the past, and we expect they will be no less appreciative of continuing support this year. Orders will be taken from January 20 to February 6 and cookies will be delivered March 6-20. If you are not contacted and would like to be a part of this fun and educational program for girls, call Carol Novak, cookie sale chairperson for Thief River Falls, at 681-3959. Also willing to help take your order if you can't contact Carol are Ginny Armstrong at 681-5874 and Kitty Cornell at 681-3449.

Christmas Gifts Long Remembered

Richard Lowell Nygaard is a resident of Erie, PA, and a United States Circuit Court Judge. But he was once a resident of Thief River Falls in a much earlier time and under much much different conditions. He tells about it in this following commentary appeared in the December 25, 1994 edition of the Philadelphia Enquirer.

It was the Christmas of '46 or '47. I don't suppose it really matters, except to say that the Depression that hit America in '29 had not yet left our little home in Thief River Falls, Minn.

Dad was a butcher. But in the frigid, northern Minnesota winters he was perpetually sick with asthma unless he left home to seek work in the warmer and drier west. Mom did "day work" for people who couldn't afford a full-time maid, and took in washing and ironing to help make ends meet. But, I didn't know it.

This was the carefree time when life was young. For me these were the halcyon, simple, childhood years when there was nothing one really had to do—just play.

Christmas was the magical, mystical time of deep snow, wreaths and candles, pine trees, caroling, special services in our little church and the delicious aromas of wonderful Norwegian foods. Life was secure. My relationships were not complicated by having to interact with anyone outside my extended family and a few Norwegian families who belonged to the small church that lay at the center of our spiritual and social life.

But this year was different. The bustle that usually preceded the holidays was not there. It was quieter. Even now, looking back, that was all I realized. It was, I recall, the morning of the day before Christmas. Mom was doing the wash, when there came a knock at the door and two men entered our house. They were from the Salvation Army and the Zion Lutheran church.

We grew quiet as they carried boxes into our kitchen. Some of the boxes had turkey, potatoes, apples, oranges, candies, fruits, vegetables and all the trimmings necessary for a Christmas dinner. The other boxes were loaded with presents for each member of the family. I thought it was wonderful!

I didn't know then why they had come to visit or why they brought these precious things to us. I didn't know there had been no food in the house for Christmas dinner. I didn't know there was no money to buy Christmas presents.

Indeed, I didn't even know that we were poor. I didn't know then why it was that after the men left, my mother hid her face in her apron and began to cry. Nor did I know then why she went quietly into her bedroom and knelt beside her bed.

I do know now, and I too give thanks to Him whose birth we celebrate at Christmas.

Make It A Habit To Read Your Newspaper

Newspaper people have never been very bashful about touting the value of their product or its importance as a carrier of information and therefore a source of knowledge. You would probably expect that from people within the field of print journalism and write it off as only the bugling of a bull elk defending his territory.

But the contention is true, although it may require the reader to be somewhat selective in what he or she reads or how it is interpreted. And now a like opinion has been honestly expressed by television news anchorman Peter Jennings. In January of last year on ABC radio, Jennings stated the following:

"We'd like to put in a good word today on behalf of our competition.

"I'm Peter Jennings for the ABC Information Network. We are speaking of newspapers ....

"If you believe you are keeping yourself informed by listening to radio, or watching television news, we must disagree. Television and radio, essentially, are headline services. We are in the business of telling you the bare outlines of what has happened. Time constraints, even on all news stations, make it impossible to give you the kind of depth you can find in a newspaper.

"One of our own broadcasts, for instance, will run about two minutes and may include 360 words. That's a lot of time for a broadcast news story. But in our 360 words, we cannot possibly tell you the details that a newspaper reporter can provide in a one-thousand-word article.

"Obviously, we want to keep you listening to us, and we believe we're your best source for the headlines. But for the details, you'll have to read your newspaper. It's a habit you might want to start now."

Feedlot program helps meet pollution rules

Marshall County's participation in the Minnesota Pollution Control Agency's County Feedlot Program has given the county an active role in assisting livestock producers meet pollution rules.

By processing feedlot permit applications and certificates of compliance, all local ordinances will be met and that their applications will be processed.

Feedlot permit applications are processed after they are reviewed for completion. The livestock facility is checked to determine if it will meet all local laws and regulations.

Applications are forwarded to the MPCA for evaluation if the feedlot has greater than 1,000 animal units, 300 to 1,000 animal units with potential pollution hazards, or a potential pollution hazard which will not be corrected within a ten month period.

In counties that do not participate in the feedlot program, the feedlot operator is required to obtain an animal facility permit from the MPCA. The feedlot operator will not have the benefit of a local official who can process the application, but will have to submit the form to the MPCA for processing.

C&NC unit to give beds to service clubs

Convalescent and Nursing Care (C&NC) unit at Northwest Medical Center in Thief River Falls is offering hospital beds being replaced in the unit free of charge to local non-profit service clubs.

The recipient organizations may use the beds for a loan program to people in need of them or may donate them to individuals.

The C&NC unit plans to replace all of its patient beds—approximately 90 of them—with new all automated beds for all of its residents. Change-over is planned for Tuesday, January 24.

Because the hospital has no storage space for the beds being replaced, service clubs which are willing to take some of the used beds must remove them from the C&NC unit between January 25 and February 1. For more information on how to make arrangements to receive the beds, service club representatives may call Gail Holland at Northwest Medical Center, phone 681-4240, extension 210.

Beds not taken for local area use by February 1 will be hauled to Grand Forks, ND, where they will eventually become part of a shipment of supplies to that city's sister city in Russia.

Warroad poll reveals interest in election on county seat issue

Taxpayer's Choice Volunteer Committee has announced that a poll shows nearly 90 per cent support for an election to decide the site of the new Roseau County Courthouse. The poll was completed on January 16, 1995, by Capitol Targeting, a Twin Cities based independent polling firm hired by Taxpayer's Choice to gauge the level of support for a special election.

The poll is part of an on-going controversy following an offer by the City of Warroad and the Wm. S. Marvin Fund to build a new $4.5 million courthouse at no cost to taxpayers if it would be built in Warroad. The current site of the courthouse is Roseau.

Mark Sump, president of Capitol Targeting said, "What is most apparent in our findings is that people want an opportunity to vote on this issue."

According to the news release, the poll indicated that 89 per cent of Roseau county residents want the county seat issue placed on the ballot.

Taxpayers' Choice has notified county residents that it will be circulating a petition calling for an election to decide where the new courthouse should be built. A total of 3,814 signatures of eligible voters are needed to petition the county to call for a special election.

According to the news release from Taxpayers' Choice, the poll also indicated that over two-thirds of the residents agree that there is a need for a new courthouse. Sump said, "It's simply up in the air whether or not to use taxpayers' dollars to pay for it. The majority of those polled would not be willing to pay more than $25 per year in additional property tax toward a new courthouse."

Further, the release stated, the poll results showed that the county is evenly split on whether or not it makes a difference where the courthouse is located. Sump's analysis said, "Outside Roseau, the vast majority of the county residents don't believe it would make any difference. Over 80 per cent of the population uses the courthouse a few times a year or less-even among Roseau residents."

According to the news release, the 400 sample poll was drawn anonymously from a geographical formula based on voter registration and voter turnout in the county. There is a margin of error of plus or minus 3.5 per cent.

Alliance for Arts in Education will host town meeting here

To provide information on the benefits to be derived from the arts being taught in public schools, a town meeting open to all area residents interested in the arts will be conducted Thursday, February 2, from 5 to 7 p.m. in the Lincoln high school cafeteria in Thief River Falls.

Hosting the town meeting will be the Minnesota Alliance for Arts in Education headquartered in Minneapolis. The Alliance is a non-profit organization, partially funded by a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board through an appropriation by the Minnesota legislature.

David Bach, executive director of the Alliance, said that meetings with business people, Chamber of Commerce and others are being arranged from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on February 2. The town meeting from 5 to 7 will include serving of hors d'oeuvres and will precede the 7:30 p.m. concert by Classic Retro for the Thief River Falls Concert Association.

Persons who are not members of the concert association but would like to attend the concert as well as the town meeting may purchase individual performance tickets for the Classic Retro concert only at the town meeting session.

At the concert, recognition will be given by the Alliance to about a dozen people who are members or otherwise involved in the organization's programs in the generally northwestern area of the state.

Included will be members or member representatives Rebecca Peterson (board member), Fergus Falls; Ronald Paggen, Newfolden; Herbert Benz, Roseau; Mary Ann Schmidt, Robyn Ofstedal, Bernadette and Ric Sorenson, Fosston; Caryl Bugge, Thief River Falls; and Kay Rosengren, Hallock.

Also named are Comprehensive Arts Planning Program (CAPP) chairs Vicki Kolden, Oklee; Felice Dickey, Clearbrook; and Carol Hallan, Warroad. Recognition will also be given to Darcy Reese, vocal music instructor in the Thief River Falls schools, American Crystal Sugar Grant recipient and John Reishus, Warroad school superintendent, winner of the 1994 School Administrator Award.

Program for the town meeting is entitled "An Excellent Education Includes The Arts." Welcomes will be given by Terry Soine, principal at Lincoln high school and Rebecca Peterson, Alliance board member and director, Center for the Arts, Fergus Falls.

Bach and Janet Grove, program manager for the Alliance, will discuss the "Goals 2000" program, and what business and parents expect of schools. John Mattson, publisher of the Thief River Falls Times, will speak on the business community and the arts and Bev Arnston, coordinator for the Northern Expressions School of the Arts at Lincoln high school, will discuss what is happening in arts education in this community.

Special appearance will be made by Eileen Van Driest, 1994 Miss Minnesota, who will talk on building self-esteem through the arts. A 1989 graduate of Winona senior high school, she is studying instrumental music at the University of Wisconsin—Madison.

Mara Lunde, director of the Northwest Regional Arts Council in Thief River Falls, will talk about how arts organizations can help with arts in education and Bach will conclude the meeting by summarizing how all can work together to improve education through the arts.

Following the concert by Classic Retro, the Alliance will host a reception in the school cafeteria for all members of the concert association attending the concert.

In describing the work of the Alliance for Arts in Education, Bach cited the following activities:

"We help school and community committees plan and implement Comprehensive Arts Planning Programs," he said. "Over the past decade, 165 Minnesota school districts have participated in CAPP.

"We organize citizens to advocate for continued and increased funding for the arts in their school districts. Community forums and workshops are held in every corner of the state.

"We lobby the Minnesota Legislature, State Board of Education and Minnesota Department of Education [illegible] of importance to arts education. We spearheaded lobbying efforts which led to the inclusion of the arts in Minnesota's school graduation rule," Bach added.

"We raise public awareness to the fact that the arts are essential to a complete education. We also publish Artbeat, a statewide arts education newspaper, and distribute it to parents, educators, school administrators, artists, legislators and other citizens.

"Regardless of changing financial times or education trends, we cannot afford to send our children into the world and workforce without the skills developed through the study of the arts," he said. "The arts are essential to a productive and fulfilling life. There must be strong grassroots advocacy for arts education if this is to be so."

LHS Key Club recognized for Christmas effort

Members of Lincoln high school's Key Club were presented with a plaque in appreciation of their effort to raise money for Northland Hospice.

Several organizations participated in the Christmas Tree Walk in December at the Pine Tree Farm, which is owned by Jim and Robin Bitzegaio. The event involved individuals decorating trees and placing buckets under the tree. Individuals supported their favorite tree by placing money in the bucket.

Groups or organizations participating in the event included the Key Club, Kiwanis, National Honor Society, Kindergarten at Challenger, Girl Scout Troop 140, three-year-old Headstart students, Youth at First Baptist church, Rose Wold's Day Care, and the Pine Tree Farm.

Total money raised during the Christmas Tree Walk was $164.15. The Key Club's tree raised the most money.

After the Christmas Tree Walk, trees and decorations were dispersed to needy families by Pennington County Social Services.

City of TRF schedules neighborhood meetings

Thief River Falls City Council has called a number of neighborhood meetings to allow citizens to comment on the city's Comprehensive Plan.

The meetings have been organized by ward. On Monday, January 23, neighborhood meetings will be held at the Heritage Community Center for First Ward at 7 p.m., and Second and Third wards at 8:15 p.m.

Neighborhood meetings will be held for Fourth and Fifth wards on Tuesday, January 24. The Fourth ward meeting will be held at 7 p.m. in the Heritage Community Center and at 8:15 p.m. for Fifth ward.

Steve Grittman, vice president of Northwest Associated Consultants Inc., the firm hired to prepare the comprehensive plan, will facilitate the meetings.

The updated Comprehensive Plan is a master plan for future development of the city, which includes plans for recreation, parks, future land use, transportation, and commercial development.

The Comprehensive Plan is one of four tools used by the city when dealing with issues pertaining to planning and zoning. Other tools include the six-year Capital Improvement Plan, Zoning Ordinance and Land Sub-division Ordinance. The Comprehensive Plan is key to the other tools.

A final public hearing on the Comprehensive Plan will be scheduled later, but the neighborhood meetings provide citizens an opportunity to provide input on these important issues.

Three sections of the updated plan are available for review at the public library.

Veterans Service office closed on January 20, 23

The Pennington County Veterans Service Office will be closed January 20 and Monday, January 23. John Ellison, veterans service officer, will be attending the Veterans of Foreign Wards Department Convention and MOC Council of Administration meeting in the Twin Cities area.

Fosston balance beats Mustangs, Chervestad

Angie Chervestad, a 6-foot freshman center, scored 33 points Thursday, but Red Lake County Central still lost a 79-53 girls high school basketball game at Fosston.

Chervestad also grabbed 16 rebounds, 10 of them on the offensive boards.

"She worked hard," said Red Lake County Central coach Rick Kaivisto. "We broke their press a few times and got her the ball for some easy baskets, but she did a nice job."

Trailing 21-14 at the end of the first quarter, Red Lake County Central pulled within 22-21 before the Greyhounds' fast break broke it open. The winners had a 40-28 halftime lead and a 60-42 third quarter cushion.

"We couldn't run with them," noted Kaivisto.

Marja Savaloja led Fosston with 23 points, and she had nine teammates in the scoring column with her.

Red Lake County Central, 3-6 for the year, made 25 of 60 field goal attempts (42 percent) and 3 of 6 free throws. Fosston was 34-for-78 from the field (44 percent) and 8-for-11 at the line. The Mustangs finished with a 39-31 rebound advantage.

ings were destroyed or damaged. The Hanshin expressway in Kobe collapsed in five places; other main roads were damaged at more than 20 sites. Lines for bullet trains were damaged at 36 places, and 10 trains were derailed. An estimated 500,000 households remained without electricity 20 hours after the quake. Gas supplies were stopped to 834,000 households. Water supply to about 600,000 households was suspended.

Kyoko has been in the United States since February 27, 1993, and hasn't been home since. When she graduates from Northland Community College in June she plans to return to Japan, continue using her English and become a translator.

Kyoko said she learned of Northland Community College from another friend who was attending the University of Minnesota at Crookston. She has enjoyed her stay in Thief River Falls, which is quite different from her home, but she is looking forward to going home to see her family and friends.

Note: The Richter scale is a gauge of the energy released by an earthquake, as measured by the ground motion recorded on a seismograph.

Every increase of one number, say from magnitude 5.5 to magnitude 6.5, means that the ground motion is 10 times greater. Some experts say the actual amount of energy released may be 30 times greater.

Theoretically, there is no upper limit to the scale, although it often erroneously is reported to be 10.

bers, the cooperative planning committees will probably remain dormant until next year when the process will begin again. Lee said perhaps someone independent of the communities should come in and look at the situation objectively.

Lee grew up in Oklee and now lives and teaches in Plummer. "I see how both sides sit. It's hard — like walking on water. I have friends on both sides," Lee said, "but we have to decide what's best for the kids."

Last year 47 per cent of Homark's sales consisted of double-wide homes. The company manufactures only "mobile" as opposed to "modular" homes, meaning they are equipped with axles and wheels to be moved to their destination.

Many people were on the Ironman 250 cross-country course Saturday and Sunday. Reasonably good temperatures brought out a large number of spectators. Many were seen at bridges along the course. The drivers were very fast this year, topping last year's top time by an average of about two minutes. Pro class riders reached speeds of greater than 90 miles per hour on the flat icy course.

moved settlers from poor, unproductive agricultural lands and restored those lands to their natural condition and suitable for forestry, game and recreation. Up to 500 men lived at the camp during the project.

The project was the first in the United States to begin removing settlers and it became a pioneer experiment in settler relocation and land use planning. People who had been barely able to make enough off the land to feed and clothe their families had fallen behind in their taxes. Many were on relief. Local support for education and road maintenance suffered. Medical care was almost non-existent. Those resettled found homes on better land closer to village services.

Through resettlement, the financial position of the settlers was improved and the project relieved county financial problems through the reduction of tax delinquency, relief payments and by helping centralize public services. The Baudette Region reported the project on August 31, 1934, with an article describing the "new project by the government under the direction of the Rural Rehabilitation Administration to get men off relief and onto small farms." The paper regularly reported the relocation of settlers. The first was "a middle-aged widow with two sons and a brother living with her" who moved in the spring of 1935.

In addition to the buildings, some original tools, equipment and signs recall the operation of the camp during the Depression.

The National Register of Historic Places includes buildings, structures, sites, districts and objects throughout Minnesota. Properties are listed on the National Register because of their association with significant persons and events, because of their architectural or engineering significance or because they contain important information about our history or prehistory.

Listing on the National Register recognizes that properties are worthy of preservation. Certain properties also may be eligible for federal tax benefits and grant funds. The National Register is maintained by the National Park Service and is administered in Minnesota by the State Historic Preservation Office at the Minnesota Historical Society, St. Paul. For information about the National Register or to learn more about historic preservation in Minnesota call 612/296-5434.

Hearing on DNR presence at Norris Camp

because of its historic significance and its connection with the Civilian Conservation Corps. In terms of what it means to be listed on the register, for the private owner it means recognition. It is not necessary for Roth's office to review changes to property owned by a private individual, although if the changes are too much, the property can be taken off the register.

For property maintained by federal or state offices, the historical preservation office becomes involved if the federal or state office plans to make changes to the property. "They must make sure that changes would not detract from the property's historical appearance," she said.

Any work to the buildings, she said, would be reviewed by the historical preservation office. Generally, she said, they would come to an agreement before anything was done on the property.

Gretchen Mehmel, Red Lake Wildlife manager for the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources, said public hearings to help determine the presence of the DNR at Norris Camp will be held in April. Specific dates and times for those meetings have not been set yet. One of the issues which will be discussed at the hearing is whether the DNR should close its office at Norris camp and move its office to Warroad. An analysis of advantages and disadvantages of such a move is being prepared and will be discussed at the public hearings. Mehmel said if the DNR decided to move it would probably transfer the property to another public agency, but she had no idea who could afford to maintain the 18 buildings on the property.

Of the 18 buildings on the property, 14 buildings were placed on the National Register of Historic Places. Seven permanent staff are at the camp. They occupy 11 of the buildings. Three of the buildings are heated by propane. Since the decision to move in 1986, an order was issued to make emergency repairs only.

Spuds beat Prowlers 68-57

Moorhead turned back a Thief River Falls upset bid with a 21-2 second half run that carried the Spuds past the Prowlers 68-57 Tuesday in boys North Sub-Section 8AA high school basketball.

Thief River Falls shot 51 percent from the field (25/49) and out-rebounded Moorhead 34-28, but once again fell victim to a season-long problem – turnovers. The Prowlers lost the ball 24 times. Many of the turnovers came in the face of the Spuds' aggressive game-long full-court pressure defense.

"We turned it over too many times, again," offered Thief River Falls coach Scott Brekke. "The word is out, and teams will continue to press us until we show that we can handle it. So far we haven't done that."

Until the turnover total began to take its inevitable toll, Thief River Falls gave Moorhead a run. A 3-point basket by Nathan Anderson and back-to-back buckets underneath by Kyle Sanden produced seven straight points and a 9-6 edge with 2:18 left in the first quarter. Outside of a brief 29-28 advantage late in the first half, the Spuds were not able to wrestle the lead away from the Prowlers until they put together a string of 11 unanswered points to close out the third quarter up 46-42.

Sanden, who played the final 6:43 with four fouls, put in his own rebound to start the final period, keeping the Prowlers within 46-44.

But that was the only interruption in the 21-point Moorhead surge that covered the last 3:40 of the third quarter and the first 3:34 of the fourth quarter. After the Sanden basket, Seth Greenwaldt and Jeremy Blake hit back-to-back 3-point baskets and Ethan Pole followed with a 3-point play on a drive and a free throw – all in a game-deciding 57-second blitz.

Forced into a must-foul situation at the end, the Prowlers watched the Spuds score their final 14 points at the free throw line.

Greenwaldt, a 6-2 junior, and Pole, a 6-2 senior, scored 23 and 20 points, respectively, for the Spuds. Both hit three times from 3-point range as Moorhead made the Prowlers pay the price for playing a zone – needed to combat the visitors quickness.

Pole hit a 3-pointer from the corner at the buzzer ending the first quarter to keep Moorhead within 15-12, and after a 30-30 halftime tie, Greenwaldt completed a final-possession hold ending the quarter with a rebound basket at the horn that created the 46-42 Moorhead lead.

"I thought our zone did fairly well overall," said Brekke. "We knew they would hit a few out there, but I thought we made them work for it."

Moorhead shot only 38 percent from the floor (22/58), but did hit eight treys and cashed in on 16 of 23 free throw opportunities. Thief River Falls was a quiet 4-for-8 at the line. The Spuds turned it over 16 times.

The loss put the Prowlers at 5-5, including 0-3 against North Sub-Section 8AA competition. The Spuds are 7-3 overall.

"We're not happy with losing, but we've played (Class AA) Fergus Falls, Bemidji and Moorhead tough," noted Brekke. "We gave them all good basketball games. I think Thief River Falls basketball is gaining some respect at the AA level."

Quick start key to 7-0 Warroad victory vs. TRF

University of Minnesota-bound Wyatt Smith scored three goals and had three assists Tuesday to lead Warroad past visiting Thief River Falls 7-0 in Section 8A high school hockey.

Alan Hasbargen scored twice – the first one coming just 27 seconds into the game – and added one assist, and Zach Hallett collected four assists for the winners, who jumped out to a 5-0 first period lead and were never threatened in a game that featured third period running time and 23 penalties.

"Take away the first period and it was a good game," said Thief River Falls coach Pat Cullen. "But the first period was the game. They came out skating, and we didn't."

Mark Carlson and Matt Ulwelling also scored for Warroad, a 7-5 winner when the two teams met in Thief River Falls back on Dec. 6.

Warroad goalie Willie Marvin had a quiet 15-save shutout.

The loss dropped the Prowlers to 6-7-1 heading into tonight's (Saturday) game against No. 1-rated Roseau at the Huck Olson Memorial Civic Center.

Northland playoff hopes on the line

Results of an upcoming homestand will likely determine the state tournament fate for the Northland Community College men's and women's basketball teams.

Northland will host Minnesota Community College Conference doubleheaders Monday vs. Fergus Falls, Friday (Jan. 27) vs. Rainy River and Saturday (Jan. 28) vs. Hibbing. Women's games start at 6 p.m. Monday and Friday, 12 noon Saturday. Men's games begin at 8 p.m. Monday and Friday, 2 p.m. Saturday.

The Pioneers find themselves in near must-win situations following a pair of Wednesday night setbacks at Brainerd, where the women lost 62-48 and the men fell 88-82.

Northland women took a 2-3 Northern Division record into a Friday (Jan. 20) home court matchup with Itasca. The Pioneers are locked into a middle-of-the-pack log jam with Brainerd, Mesabi, Itasca and Vermilion behind front-running Rainy River and Fergus Falls in an eight-team field that will advance its top four regular season finishers to the 1995 Minnesota Community College Conference state tournament. Only Hibbing appears to be out of playoff contention.

The Northland men, 1-4 in the Northern Division, face an even bigger challenge in a seven-team race where Hibbing, Rainy River, Mesabi, and Fergus Falls have already broken away from Vermilion, Northland and Brainerd. (Itasca does not have a men's team).

Coming up with wins at home becomes even more important when you look ahead and find the Pioneers playing three of their final four Northern Division men's games and four of their final five MCCC women's games on the road.

Brainerd stunned Northland by overcoming a 16 point second half deficit to win the men's game 88-82.

The Pioneers led 40-39 at halftime and appeared to be in control with the double-digit second half advantage.

"Demond Watson, Chad Kujava, Tim Olson, Rob Burley, and Jake Rantanen played some great defense," reported Northland assistant coach Parrish Tatum. "But the last five minutes..."

After surrendering the lead, Northland got back in contention on a 3-point basket by Kujava with 28 seconds left in an 84-82 game.

But two sets of free throws by the Raiders' Rich Oberfeld iced it – the second pair coming with just five seconds to play.

Four Brainerd scorers hit double figures, led by Mike Rogers and Jamie Burt with 19 each. Kujava finished with a game-high 20 points, while Olson netted 15 and Watson had 13.

Free throws proved critical as the Raiders made 16 of 22 at the line, while the Pioneers made only half of their 24 attempts.

Northland mustered just half an offense in losing to the Brainerd women 62-48.

Inside players Kelli Kronschnabel (22) and Angel Mickelson (16) combined for 38 points, but Northland's outside game failed to show as the Pioneers' guards went just 4-for-30 from the field.

Northland started slow, but managed to trim an 18-4 deficit to 28-20 at halftime. The comeback was cut short, however, by the lack of an outside game.

"We had our chances, but the shots just didn't fall," said Northland assistant coach Ronda Olson.

Tara Oseland scored 18 points and Nicki Iverson had 16 to lead the Brainerd offense.

Junior center scores 43 vs. Crookston...

Sanden sets school single-game record

Kyle Sanden set a single-game Lincoln High School basketball scoring record Thursday with a 43-point night that carried the Prowlers to a one-sided 93-42 win over Crookston.

The 6-10 junior center was 20-for-22 from the field and 3-for-3 at the free throw line as he topped the previous school mark – a 40-point game by Ron Hanson set on Dec. 16, 1960 vs Crookston.

Sanden scored 12 points as the Prowlers jumped out to a 28-8 first quarter lead, picked up 12 more as the spread went to 50-21 at halftime, had 11 in the third quarter when it became a 75-31 runaway and left the game after breaking the record with 8 fourth quarter points.

The win snapped a four-game losing streak for the Prowlers, putting them at 6-5. The 51-point spread was in stark contrast to a 67-65 Thief River Falls overtime win at Crookston in the 1994-95 season opener.

Eric Bjorgaard also reached double figures for the Prowlers with 13 points, and was credited with 8 assists. Josh Vadnais led Crookston with 12 points.

"It was a real nice win," said Thief River Falls coach Scott Brekke. "We've put in two weeks of hard work, and even though we hadn't won, I thought we had been doing some good things. It was nice to get a win for our efforts."

Game-opening 3-point baskets by Bjorgaard and Nathan Anderson loosened up a Crookston zone, and gave Sanden a chance to operate inside.

"Kyle had a great game. He deserved the points," said Brekke. "And the rest of the kids did a great job getting him the ball. They played well as a group. They were excited when Kyle got the record."

Brekke began thinking about the scoring mark at the end of the third quarter when he had assistant coach Jeff Loe check the book to see where Sanden stood. He had 35, and the record was targeted before Sanden went to the bench.

Behind Sanden, the Prowlers put together a 56 percent 37-for-66 shooting display, made 13 of 14 free throws and had a season-low 8 turnovers.

"When you shoot like that and turn it over just eight times, good things are going to happen," noted Brekke.

Crookston went 17-for-55 from the field (31 percent) and 4-for-4 at the line while turning it over 16 times.

The Prowlers out-rebounded the Pirates 34-22 with Sanden getting 9 of them.

First place Cards, Rainy River hand Northland losses

Hibbing and Rainy River handed Northland a pair of Minnesota Community College Conference setbacks in late-reported Jan. 13/14 men's basketball match-ups.

The Northern Division-leading Cardinals, ranked No. 3 in the latest MCCC state coaches poll, collected an 89-73 Friday night victory, while the Voyageurs out-scored the Pioneers 96-82 in a Saturday matinee at International Falls.

"We knew Hibbing would be tough," said Northland assistant coach Parrish Tatum. "They have a real strong bench. Against Rainy River, we were a little slow with our footwork on defense."

Hibbing	89
Northland	73

Northland played Hibbing on near-even terms in the second half, but it was too little too late for the Pioneers, who trailed 43-28 at halftime and wound up losing 89-73.

Nick Theising scored 23 points and Matt Swanson had 20 for the Cardinals. Tim Olson netted 15 points and Chad Kujava contributed 12 for the Pioneers.

Rainy River connected 15 times from 3-point range in beating Northland 96-82.

Again, Northland couldn't overcome a slow start that created a 41-28 halftime deficit.

Kwame Brown, a 6-1 freshman forward, scored 23 points against Pioneers en route to MCCC Player of the Week honors – 77 points, 30 rebounds, 13 assists, 5 steals and 5 blocked shots in three games.

Chad Kujava finished with a game-high 24 points for the Pioneers. Gary Carey had 10 first half points before leaving the game with an ankle injury.

Super scores 31, Gators win 44-33

Playing at less than full strength didn't stop the Badger/Greenbush-Middle River girls from improving their record to 14-1 Thursday with a 44-33 high school basketball win over Warren-Alvarado-Oslo.

The Gators were without Jessica Borgen, sidelined by an injury, while both Ali Hietala and Krissi Super played despite illness.

"I was concerned with this one," said Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Tom Nelbauer. "We played a slow-down game in the first half just trying to stay close. We put the press on in the second half, and it was effective."

The Ponies led 8-7 at the end of the first quarter and had a 17-16 halftime edge before the Gators went ahead 31-25 in the third quarter.

Super didn't look under the weather in the second half when she scored 23 of her game-high 31 points. Ann Ellerbusch led the Ponies with 16.

Despite a home court edge at Greenbush, the Gators shot just 34 percent from the field on a 14-for-41 night. Super made 11 of 12 field goal attempts, leaving the rest of the Gators with a 3-for-29 figure.

Gators stop Nordics 62-43

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River generated some offense with its defense Tuesday and as a result beat Marshall County Central 62-43 in North Border Conference boys high school basketball at Greenbush.

The two rivals played to a 14-14 first quarter tie, but the Gators out-scored the Nordics 35-16 over the next 16 minutes, opening up a 36-24 halftime lead and a 49-30 third quarter gap.

"We played some excellent defense in the second and third quarters," pointed out Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Eldon Spruby. "The defense got the offense going."

Only Badger/Greenbush-Middle River double figure scorer was Matt Kuznia with 16 points, but 11 of the 13 Gators who saw varsity action got into the scoring column. Micah Ranum continued his high-scoring efforts for the Nordics with a game-high 24.

The 8-2 Gators were 21-for-53 from the field (40 percent), hitting 3 of 6 from 3-point range. The 3-8 Nordics struggled with 18-for-63 shooting from the floor (29 percent), including a 2-for-14 effort on treys. Badger/Greenbush-Middle River made 17 of 23 free throws, while Marshall County Central went 5-for-11 at the line.

While the Nordics were missing their shots, the Gators were rebounding – to the tune of 32-17, according to Badger/Greenbush-Middle River charts. Marshall County Central had more turnovers, 17-15.

Darlene Nelson and Tricia Pederson gave Marshall County Central a solid 1-2 punch Thursday as the Nordics beat Lake of the Woods 51-37 in North Border Conference girls high school basketball at Baudette.

Nelson scored 14 points, grabbed 15 rebounds and picked up 8 assists, while Pederson had a 15-point, 4-assist night.

"Darlene had a tremendous game," said Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde. "It was a good team effort."

Fog-shrouded snowmobile racers prepared their sleds in a staging area near Chief Red Robe park in Thief River Falls before they began the second leg of the Grand 500 Wednesday morning. Nearly 200 racers participated in the event.

Brad Pake leads Grand 500 after three days of racing

After three days of racing, Brad Pake of Felton riding an Arctic Cat is in first place in the Grand 500.

Race directors for the Chevrolet Grand 500, which pulled into Thief River Falls Tuesday night and roared out of town early the next day, were pleased with the first day of racing.

Nearly 200 racers all made it off the starting line in Winnipeg. Not all successfully completed the first leg of the race, however.

Twenty did not finish the course. Race organizers said that among the injuries of those who did not complete the first leg were reports of two broken legs, one broken collarbone, and one broken nose. All are signs that the race is living up to its billing as a tough and grueling race. One of the injured is said to have ridden his snowmobile three miles with a broken leg.

In addition to the 20 who did not complete the course, one person was disqualified for speeding in a speed zone near the border, and 10 were penalized for other violations, primarily driving to the left of course markers. Near the end of a driver's meeting to review the rules and make announcements, it was announced that one snowmobile had been lost. Apparently, a snowmobile rider's snowmobile became disabled and he walked away from the snowmobile to call for assistance. When he returned, the snowmobile was missing.

The unofficial results were announced at the meeting which was held at the Best Western in Thief River Falls. In first place was Nathan Titus, who was riding a Polaris. The unofficial top 15 places in the race were as follows: 1 Nathan Titus, no address, Polaris; 2 Harley Doebber, Burnsville, Polaris; 3 Jimmy Theriault, Kokabeka Falls, Ontario, Polaris; 4 John Engstrom, Brooklyn Park, Polaris; 5 Jeremy Fyle, Burnsville, Arctic Cat; 6 Scott Sears, Anoka, Polaris; 7 Nolan Knockenmus, Brooklyn Park, Polaris; 7 (tie) Rick Ward, Sugar, IA, Polaris; 8 Robert Roth, McGrath, Arctic Cat; 9 Tony Haikonen, Kemijarvi, Finland, Ski-Doo, 10 Kurt Greaves, Ypsilanti, MI, Ski-Doo; 11 Dennis Durmass, Loveland, CO, Ski-Doo; 12 Kevin Spielman, Brainerd, Polaris; 13 Daniel Skallet, Eagan, Arctic Cat; 14 Greg Rugland, Roseau, Arctic Cat; 15 Rob Irving, Duluth, Arctic Cat.

Kirk Hibbert of Thief River Falls was in 37th position, roughly four minutes out of first position. Corey Davidson of Holt was in 60th position, roughly six minutes out of first position.

The Second Day

The second leg of the Chevrolet Grand 500 began where the Ironman 250 finished in Thief River Falls near the Eighth Street bridge. The second leg of the course, which was roughly 127 miles long, got underway at about 9 a.m. Wednesday. The first gas stop and rest for the riders who roared out of the start early Wednesday was near Gunvick.

There were significant changes in results to report after the ride from Thief River Falls on Wednesday. In first place was Brade Pake. Pake was the unofficial winner of the Ironman 250 in Thief River Falls, but was disqualified because of a technicality Tuesday evening. A representative of Arctco, said they felt they had two winners in the Ironman 250 and awarded Pake $2,500 for his effort in the Ironman 250.

Unofficial reports from the race Wednesday stated that about 25 of Sturgeon stands tall in winning at Eagle River

David Hill
Associate Editor

Though he had to put up with some short person jokes, Brian Sturgeon stood taller than everyone at a party for him at Arctco in Thief River Falls Tuesday. Sturgeon was the toast of the party for winning the Eagle River World Champion Formula III Shoot-Out in Eagle River, WI, recently. Not only did he win the Formula III race convincingly, he also won first place in the Stock A, B and C races at Eagle River and took home more than $17,500 in cash and contingencies.

"We've been waiting for this since 1988," said Joey Hallstrom race team director at Arctco. Hallstrom explained that they thought they could win the race with Sturgeon back in 1988, but had a bit of bad luck and then ran into a tough competitor in Mike Houle.

Sturgeon would not accept all of the credit for the big win. He thanked everyone at Arctco, T/S Racing out of Fergus Falls, which built the sled and prepares it for races, and the race department.

Sturgeon has been racing Formula III sleds since 1988. He likes racing the highly modified big machine because he likes the speed, he said.

Formula III is the racing class with the biggest sleds. They all start out with a stock engine, but that's about all. Sturgeon's sled has a 600 ZRT motor as its stock component. Just about everything else on the sled is modified.

Sturgeon explained that these modified sleds are used by companies to test new concepts. One of the modifications that came about as a result of testing on Formula III is the front arm adjuster now available on many sleds.

Snowmobile racing enthusiasts compare Formula III ice oval racing and the Eagle River World Championship Snowmobile Derby to NASCAR's Winston Cup Series and the Daytona 500. Both showcase top drivers competing aboard fast, heavily modified, but stock-based racing machines.

Sturgeon said he likes racing for Arctco primarily because they are willing to try out new ideas. They're also a good sponsor. Arctco put up $10,000 as a contingency for Arctic Cat racers if they won the race. Sturgeon explained that other than the prestige of winning the title and the trophies, which are nearly as tall as he is, the major manufacturers put up money for the winners, not the race organizers.

Though he now lives in Thief River Falls and works for Black Magic MotorSports Inc., he grew up in Burnsville. Most of his time is dedicated to racing and getting ready for races. Sturgeon said this win was important to himself and the Arctco Racing team.

Sturgeon won Stock A and Stock B aboard an Arctic Cat ZR 700, and Stock C World Championship aboard his Arctic Cat ZR 580 EFI.

The final 15-lap Formula III race was not easy to win. The T/S Racing team, led by Steve Thorsen and Dean Schwarzwalter of Fergus Falls, worked late into the night, every night, solving problems and sorting out details with the new ZRT. Sunday's final race began with Sturgeon in second place until about three or four laps to go and he pulled into first with some good driving and didn't relinquish first place. Sturgeon's sled however, didn't make the curve after the win and ran into a pile of straw bales. He explained later that with about 20-feet to go he heard a noise come from the engine and everything began to slow. The momentum he had built up, however, pretty much carried him across the starting line.

Though he didn't get to take a victory lap at Eagle River, friends at Arctco made victory sweet when he returned.

Brian Sturgeon's sponsors are: T/S Racing, Woody's Traction Products, FOX Racing SHOX, V-Force Induction Reeds, Daniel Paul's Custom Lettering, Hymark Roller Cams and Black Magic.

Oklee school board comments on high success of students

(Editor's Note: The following commentary has been prepared and submitted for publication in the Northern Watch by the school board of the Oklee Public Schools.)

The Oklee school board has met over the past several years with the Win-E-Mac, Red Lake Falls and Plummer school boards. These meetings have been open to the public and have been mainly to look at ways we can share. The Oklee school board has in the past and will continue in the future, to look at any way we can better the education of our students, as long as it meets the criteria of being cost effective and good for our district.

The Oklee school district has many things of which to be proud. In the past four years, 1991-1994, our Junior Engineering Technical Society (JETS) has won, for schools our size, the state competition and placed in the top 10 in the nation for two of those years.

Most of our students go on to some type of post secondary education and do very well. Many of our students have received academic and athletic scholarships to help further their education. Our graduate students have gone on to many careers in the professions and in the arts, including theater. Most importantly, they become good citizens.

Size is a plus! In a study conducted by the American Legislative Exchange Council, it found that school size, not classroom size, was the key in performance of students. Children do better in places small enough where "the principal knows the name of each student." Schools with fewer than 300 students showed the best performance.

An important advantage for smaller schools is the ability of parents to become involved in a significant way. In addition, students in a small school stand a far better chance of participating in various extracurricular activities, which boosts confidence levels.

Our buildings and overall campus are in very good condition and will be totally paid for in 1999. The Oklee school is operating in the black and is financially sound. We are working to expand our technology and vo-tech curriculum to introduce our students to jobs of the future.

Students, parents, faculty, staff, administration, board and volunteers deserve credit, but mostly it's the people of the Oklee district who make the school what it is.

Alfalfa processing meet in Karlstad

To unveil a new method of harvesting and processing alfalfa, a meeting will be held Tuesday, February 7, at 2 p.m. in the Karlstad Community Center.

The process uses green alfalfa direct from the field and reportedly will greatly reduce harvesting losses due to the weather and increase the value of the crop.

The proposed plan is to form a producer-owned cooperative which would provide markets for the alfalfa products as well as management and technical assistance.

This new processing system was developed by United States Department of agriculture research in cooperation with various universities in the United States. An in-field harvester has been under development by a private firm. Preliminary plans are for the processing plant to harvest the crop. It is estimated returns could be from $60 to $120 per acre.

Main speakers at the meeting will be Dr. Lance Abercrombie, microbiologist and biochemist from Wisconsin, and Ted Niskanen, resource developer with the Minnesota Department of Economic Development. Both men have spent more than 14 years in researching and conducting market studies for new alfalfa uses.

Also in attendance will be a representative from Congressman Collin Peterson's office, Duane Flanders from the Agricultural Utilization Research Institute,

Woman pleads guilty in pulltab charges

Red Lake Falls — As part of a plea agreement, Lorae A Miller, 32, of Thief River Falls, plead guilty to one count of providing inside information on pulltabs to herself. In the agreement, one count of forgery will be dismissed, she will be placed on supervised probation for two years, and a one year jail sentence will be stayed on condition that she pay $1,400 restitution to the Red Lake Falls Blue Line club. According to Red Lake county attorney Dan Geller, Miller was playing pulltabs while she worked at Phillies restaurant in Red Lake Falls. "When you work there you have a real advantage," said Geller. "There were considerably short numbers out there for a while."

Karlstad Hospital to close temporarily

Karlstad — The Karlstad City Council recently voted to temporarily suspend operations of the Karlstad Hospital on February 1 at the recommendation of the city health commission. Kevin Quinn, administrator of the Karlstad Health Facilities group, stated that the decision to close the hospital was made in order to avoid financially jeopardizing the entire Karlstad Health facilities operation. The Karlstad clinic and nursing home will remain in operation. Arrangements are being made for the Karlstad physicians to have temporary admitting privileges at Thief River Falls, Roseau and Hallock hospitals. Residents have been advised to contact Tri Valley EMS ambulance services for medical emergencies.

Marshall Co. immunization clinics slated

Marshall County Nursing Service will hold immunization clinics from 1 to 11 a.m. on Tuesday, February 7 at the Newfolden Community Center, Wednesday, February 8 at Middle River Community Center, Thursday, February 9 at Grygla Civic building, and Monday, February 20 at the Evangelical Covenant Church in Warren as well as Monday, February 27, from 4:30 to 6:30 at Marshall County Nursing Service office.

The vaccine used is provided free of charge by the Minnesota Department of Health for use in community based immunizations is encouraged to attend.

There will be a $4 fee for administering the vaccine, but no one will be refused because of inability to pay.

The nursing service asks parents to take their infants to family physicians for the initial DTP and oral polio immunization or bring signed referral from the physician indicating the immunization is to be given by its clinic. Immunization services given at these public clinics should not be substituted for the child's usual well-child visit with his or her physician. Bring the child's immunization record each time the child is to be immunized. Immunizations will not be given without the immunization record unless it is the first shot to be administered.

For more information contact Nancy Maurstad, RN, at the Marshall County Nursing Service, phone (218) 745-5154.

Warroad mayor clarifies offer

Warroad Mayor Bob Marvin, in two letters sent to the Roseau County board for this week's meeting, clarified the status of the city's offer. In the letters, Marvin informed the county board that the city of Warroad just recently received architectural drawings for the courthouse. City staff will be reviewing these plans and meeting with the architectural firm of Thomas & Vecchi before preparing a written proposal. The City of Warroad also needs additional financial information for both the courthouse and the planned jail facility.

"As soon as we receive adequate information, the City of Warroad will submit a formal written proposal to the County Board of commissioners", said Marvin in his letter.

The second letter, prompted by citizen concerns, detailed exactly which facilities are included in the city's offer. Marvin made it very clear that the city of Warroad is not offering to relocate the fairgrounds or highway maintenance department. The facilities which the city has offered to construct are the courthouse, jail and social services center.

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere

1 teaspoon salt
5 cups kidney beans

Simmer garlic, onion and green pepper in oil.

Brown beef and add to first mixture. Add tomato sauce, chili powder, salt and kidney beans. Simmer for one hour on low heat.

Here is another dish that will warm you up this weekend:

MEXICAN MEATBALL SOUP

2 (10 1/2 ounce) cans beef consomme

2 cups water
4 medium potatoes, cut in pieces
4 carrots, halved lengthwise and cut into 1 1/2 inch pieces
2 stalks celery, cut into 1 inch pieces
2 green onions

Meatballs

1 pound ground beef
3 tablespoons canned diced green chilies
1 clove garlic
Minced onion to taste
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon oregano

Mix meatball ingredients and make into balls.

In a four-quart kettle, combine consomme, tomato sauce and water. Cover and bring to a boil.

Add potatoes and simmer 10 minutes.

Drop in meatballs and carrots. Cook 10 minutes longer.

Add celery and cook until vegetables are tender (10-15 minutes). Skim fat.

Serve garnished with chopped green onions.

This tasty treat can be used as a main dish or as a side dish with your favorite meal:

POTATO SKILLET

1/4 cup margarine
1 pound frozen hash brown potatoes
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped green pepper (optional)
4 eggs
Cheese

Melt margarine in large skillet. Add hash browns, onion and green pepper and mix.

Cover and cook over low heat for 15 minutes, stirring constantly. Slightly beat four eggs and pour evenly over ingredients in skillet. Cover and cook over low heat for 10 minutes until eggs are set.

Remove skillet from heat and top with cheese. Cover until cheese melts. To serve, cut into wedges.

CHICKEN AND RICE

1 (7 ounce) box of Minute Rice
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 package onion soup mix
1 can cream of celery soup
2 cups milk
1 cut up chicken

Pour rice in bottom of 9x13 inch pan. Add soups and milk.

Cover and bake 3 hours at 350 degrees.

LETTERS

To The Editor:

I am writing in regard to the courthouse issue in Roseau county and some of the statements that are being made in the newspapers.

First let me remind you that the people have a legal and constitutional right to petition and to vote on an issue like this. Thank God the bureaucrats and big government haven't taken that right away from us yet. When people do petition and make offers for contributions it does not make them crooks, gangsters, power hungry or second class citizens as it is being stated by some of the influential people of the City of Roseau and of the media.

It appears there is a group of people in Roseau that doesn't believe in letting people vote on these types of important issues. I just can't understand what the reasons would be.

It was headlined in the Roseau Times Region quoting Mayor Burggraf as saying, "There is no such thing as a free lunch." Evidently there is! The City of Warroad is offering approximately a 5 or 6 million dollar project to the County of Roseau to enhance its business atmosphere. If it is worth this much to the City of Warroad, I would then say the City of Roseau has been having a free lunch of 100 years.

It has been stated that Roseau county has three million dollars set aside for this courthouse. This is not really the case. There has never been a levy for the courthouse. There is only approximately $650,000 in the building fund and the rest of the money has got to be drawn from all of the other funds that provide services for all of the people in the county. They will all have to be replaced with a tax levy. This will be another tax burden especially on the ones with a fixed income such as Social Security. It will be especially hard for the people with agricultural land who are already overstressed and struggling to make it now. Just the landfill alone is going to be a burden of millions of dollars.

It is also stated that the City of Warroad and Marvins are buying and controlling county government. This is absolutely impossible. There are five county commissioner districts in Roseau county. Four commissioners outside of the Warroad area can and do control all issues. By the way, does the City of Roseau control Roseau county, seeing that the county seat is there? We all know this is impossible.

It has also been stated in newspapers that there would be additional expenses for the number of offices that would move with the change of the county seat. To name a few: ASCS, FmHA, Social Service Center, Extension Office and the County Highway office.

In answer to this statement, the Social Service Center and the Extension Office are a part of the courthouse system and are in the building plans already. The County Highway office and garage are no part of the courthouse system. For example, there is a county garage in Warroad, Greenbush, Badger and Strathcona.

The FmHA is a lending institution just like the Security State Bank of Warroad, Citizens State Bank of Roseau and the Badger Bank. None of these organizations have any ties with the courthouse system.

Now to address probably the most important issue of the courthouse issue. Who can and can't sign the petition?

The answer to that is anyone who is 18 years and over and is a legal voter and lives within Roseau county can sign the petition. Now who can and can't vote. Anyone who is 18 years of age and over, who is legal voter, can vote on this issue if living within Roseau County.

Yours truly,
Devan Horner

Helping Bail Out Welfare By Making Fathers Share Responsibility

It is true that most attempts at welfare reform seem to be directed toward the women recipients of benefits that keep them in the home and provide for their children. It is also true that despite the miraculous advances made in medical science, every child born today must still have a father as well as a mother.

Since it is a genetic partnership that creates a child, it seems reasonable that there should be an equally shared responsibility for the support of that child. Indeed, the father's role as provider should be of primary emphasis in our society.

Texas columnist Molly Ivins quotes Katha Pollitt as stating: "Newt Gingrich's Personal Responsibility Act is aimed against unmarried moms, but these women are actually assuming a responsibility that their babies' fathers have shirked. It's all very well to talk about orphanages, but what would happen to children if mothers abandoned them at the same rate fathers do?"

Ivins presents a series of proposals which would apply to men in a similar manner as they have been proposed for women. Her list is as follows:

- A man who fathers a child out of wedlock (now identifiable through DNA tests) must pay $10,000 per year or 20 per cent of his income, whichever is greater, in child support until the child reaches 21. If he is unable to pay, the government will, and in return, the father will be given a workfare (no wage) job and a dorm residence comparable to those provided homeless women and children—i.e., curfews, no visitors and compulsory group therapy sessions in which he can learn to deal with his irresponsibility.
- A man who fathers a second child out of wedlock must pay child support equal to that for the first. If he can't pay or is already on workfare, he must have a vasectomy.
- Married men who have children out of wedlock or in sequential marriages have the same obligations to all their children, whose living conditions must be as close to equal as possible.
- Fathers will be legally compelled to spend time with their children or face criminal charges of child neglect. Absentee dads, not overburdened single moms, will be legally liable for the crimes and misdemeanors of their minor children, and their paychecks will be docked if the kids are truant.

If this sounds unduly severe, consider that the nation's taxpayers collectively are making up the support that individual fathers are failing to pay. Consider also that potential fathers have available the only cheap, easy to use, mostly effective, non-prescription and side-effectless contraception if they choose to use it. Maybe a good share of 21 years' income would be a good incentive.

"The real Catch-22 of welfare reform is that there are no jobs out there for welfare mothers," Ivins writes. "Look at the unemployment lists. Look at raising two kids (the average) on one minimum wage salary without health insurance or day care. And think about it."

Corporate Welfare: Myth Of Big Government?

U.S. Secretary of Labor Robert Reich has demanded an end to what he terms "corporate welfare" that he says involves $111 billion in special tax treatment for certain industries. He proposes that the government claims that money and uses it for more federal training and job creation programs.

It turns out that the funds in question are primarily tax deductions permitted for ordinary business expenses or to encourage certain types of investments the government considers vital to the economic health of this nation. Reich referred to these deductions as "handouts."

There has been considerable tightening in allowable tax deductions in the recent past and more may be warranted. Fairness in taxation is as important as any aspect of it.

What is of concern is the big government mentality as described in Sen. Kay Bailey Hutchinson's response to Reich's proposal. The Texas Senator said: "His underlying assumption is that the federal government has a legitimate, uncontestable claim on all wealth in the country regardless of the source, and the right to redistribute that wealth as it sees fit."

This is the kind of philosophy that drives the effort toward ever larger, more intrusive government and greater loss of individual freedom and responsibility.

"It is the belief that private wealth, whether held by businesses or individuals, belongs to the government," writes Richard Lesher, president of the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. "Anything left in private hands after taxes is strictly a matter of government discretion and indulgence."

"Based on previous administration statements," Sen. Hutchinson adds, "we can conclude they would classify as welfare such items as mortgage interest payment deduction, the nontaxable status of employer health benefit plans, deductions for contributions to charity and the deduction allowed for extreme medical expenses."

Reich's proposal is contrary to the basic premise of a nation driven by the free enterprise system of reward related to effort and ability. Private individuals and businesses, not government, produce wealth. The wealth they produce should be theirs, not the government's. This fact has seemed to be increasingly lost on previous Congresses. Perhaps Sen. Hutchinson and others of similar understanding can return this Congress to reality.

Applications solicited for HPG program

Competitive applications are now being solicited for the Housing Preservation Grant (HPG) program, according to Charles J. Phillips, county supervisor of the Rural Economic & Community Development (RECD) in Pennington county. RECD (formerly Farmers Home Administration) began receiving preapplications on Nov. 22, 1994 and will continue to accept them until Feb 21, 1995.

"The HPG program is a much sought after funding source for public agencies, private nonprofit organizations and other eligible entities", Phillips said. "The HPG program provides eligible institutions with the opportunity to assist different types of homeowners in repair and rehabilitation of their dwellings."

Daley also noted a significant change in the HPG program—repair and rehabilitation assistance will again be available to owners of rental property.

Institutions interested in applying for the HPG program must submit a preapplication before or postmarked by Feb. 21, 1995 to a RECD district office. Applications should indicate whether the proposal is to assist individual homeowners, rental properties or cooperative housing projects, but an application may not combine a proposal.

Preapplications cannot be considered unless the applicant has made the statement of Activities available to the public for at least 15 days prior to the last date of receipt of the preapplication, i.e., Feb. 6, 1995. Such application by the applicant must note that the comment period is (at least) 15 days.

"The HPG program is administered by an eligible institution who in turn provides assistance to eligible homeowners and landlords," Phillips said. "Homeowners should not contact local RECD offices for direct HPG assistance."

For further information concerning the preapplication process for the Housing Preservation Grant program contact the nearest RECD district office in Grand Rapids, Crookston, Alexandria, St. Cloud, Willmar, Marshall or Austin. The district office will continue to be the HPG processing office while the state office will continue to service the HPG program.

Penn. County veterinarian releases year end report

F.W. Hazard, DVM, Pennington county veterinarian, presented his annual veterinary report to Pennington county commissioners Tuesday.

Hazard reported that rabies was diagnosed in the area again. "Skunks were still the most common reservoir of this disease locally. The eastern coast area and middle Atlantic area still has an epidemic of rabies carried by raccoons. Attempts are being made to find a sure fire vaccine and a method of vaccinating animals in the wild. The Minnesota Board of Animal Health is still encouraging the public to keep their pets — dogs and cats — immunized against this disease, and they repeat their warning about adopting wild animals as pets (skunks, raccoons, fox, wolves etc.) that could possible be a source of rabies.

"The Northwest Minnesota Dairy Day was attended by the county veterinarian. Again, there was a number of cows, heifers and calves. No health papers or tests were required of owners of the dairy stock shown due to Minnesota still retaining its brucellosis and tuberculosis free status.

"The 1994 Pennington County Fair was also attended by the county veterinarian. All classes of livestock were represented in adequate numbers. Rain again was one of the problems at the fair.

"Livestock disease problems in our area were not too great this year.

"1 Anaplasmosis — blood cell disease in cattle was not prevalent.

"2 Equine Encephalomyelitis (Equine Sleeping Sickness) was not a big problem in the county. This might be due to the cool summer.

"3 Swine Pseudorabies — no problem in this county. Southern Minnesota counties still have numerous quarantines on their swine herds. State and federal programs are still trying to control this disease. Breeding hogs and feeder pigs sold must be from negative herds.

"4 Brucellosis Disease — Abortion Disease or Bang's Disease. Minnesota retains its 'Brucellosis Free' status.

"5 Tuberculosis — "TB" Still Minnesota has not tested extensively for this disease. It is noteworthy that the human incidence of this disease is growing each year that passes. Some feel that number of immigrants may be a source of this presence of TB.

"Once again the U.S. Veterinary Service and the Minnesota Board of Animal Health want reports of old or new infectious animal diseases so they can act quickly to control these diseases."

Free throws carry TRF past Roseau

Free throws helped carry Thief River Falls past Roseau 68-59 Tuesday in boys high school basketball.

The Prowlers made [illegible] 20 free throws, including an 8-for-10 fourth quarter, in turning back the Rams' challenge.

"We played well enough to win," said Thief River Falls coach Scott Brekke. "Our feet were a little heavy. We weren't moving real well on defense. But we still did some good things and we made some free throws."

Roseau started with a 13-12 first quarter lead, trailed just 29-27 at halftime and still remained in the game at 48-42 through three quarters.

"Roseau played well," pointed out Brekke. "They gave us a game."

Kyle Sanden of the Prowlers and Scott Lunos of the Rams shared game-high scoring honors with 22 points each. The Thief River Falls offense also included 14 points by Josh Hedin and 11 from Nathan Anderson. Greg Pladson of Roseau joined the double figure club with 16 points.

The Prowlers also received key contributions down the stretch from Robby Farbo, who went 4-for-4 at the line and came up with a couple of steals after taking over for Sanden, who fouled out with 2 1/2 minutes left.

Thief River Falls shot 62 percent from the field (26/42) to go along with the 80 percent night at the free throw line. Roseau went 22-for-55 from the floor (40 percent) and 7-for-15 at the line.

The win sent the Prowlers into the weekend with a 7-5 record.

Green Wave holds off TRF for 2-1 win

Goalies Chane Keefe and Scott Schultz took center stage Tuesday as East Grand Forks edged Thief River Falls 2-1 in high school hockey at the Huck Olson Memorial Civic Center.

Keefe, a Thief River Falls junior, kept his team in the game by making 32 of his 36 saves in the first two periods. Schultz, an East Grand Forks senior, came up with 15 of his 25 stops in the final period to preserve a one-goal lead.

The outcome might wind up being the deciding factor in awarding the No. 3 and No. 4 seeds behind front-runners Roseau and Warroad in the 1995 Section 8A tournament next month. The Prowlers and Green Wave played to a 2-2 overtime tie back on Dec. 13 in East Grand Forks.

East Grand Forks out-shot Thief River Falls 34-10 over the first 30 minutes, but stymied by Keefe, could only come up with a 2-1 lead.

First goal belonged to the Prowlers as Jason Breiland beat Schultz with a waist-high, glove-side shot just 1:32 into the game.

Left alone in front of Keefe, Luke Brown of the Green Wave tied it at 8:42.

Game winner came from Corey Bergman at 12:02 of the second period as he picked up a rebound off the post during a 4-on-4 situation.

Thief River Falls stormed back in Period 3, peppering Schultz from the outset. Twice they put the puck in the net, only to have the apparent goals waved off by the officials.

Breiland looked to have scored the equalizer at 9:45 with an end-to-end rush on a delayed penalty call against the Green Wave. But Schultz got a piece of the shot before a collision pushed him and the puck across the goal line. Trailing the play, the officials ruled that Schultz had control of the puck – creating East Grand Forks possession and thus ending the delayed penalty – before it entered the net.

Moments later, on a more obvious call, a Thief River Falls shot got by Schultz, but was ruled to have occurred after the net had been dislodged.

Thief River Falls put together one more good scoring opportunity with a 2-on-1 rush after Keefe had been pulled in favor of an extra attacker with one minute left. However, Nick Chindn's shot hit the outside of the post with 32 seconds left.

The loss dropped the Prowlers to 6-9-1.

Detroit Lakes wins 40-34 girls game...

Both teams struggle in TRF-DL match-up

Detroit Lakes wound up with a 40-34 make-up game win Tuesday in a girls high school basketball game that was less than an artistic success.

The host Lakers won the North Sub-Section 8AA contest that had been postponed a week earlier because of the weather despite shooting 28 percent from the field (11/40) and turning the ball over 32 times.

And Thief River Falls stayed close even though the Prowlers shot just 16 percent from the floor (10/63) and missed 21 of 35 free throw attempts.

The match-up featured 59 fouls and 71 free throws. It was a closely-called game, said Thief River Falls coach Sally Wiltse, but she didn't pin the loss on the officials. "It was frustrating the way they were calling things, but we have no one to blame but ourselves," she said. "We shot terrible."

Down 22-13 at halftime, the Prowlers pulled within 31-30 by the end of the third quarter, but then came up with just four free throws over the final eight minutes.

Thief River Falls sophomore Kim Stenseth was the game's only double figure scorer, finishing with 11 points.

Detroit Lakes, beaten by Thief River Falls 46-39 in the Brainerd Invitational earlier this season, made 19 of 36 free throws and finished with a 41-33 rebound advantage. Thief River Falls pulled down 20 offensive rebounds, but couldn't turn them into points. The Prowlers turned it over 21 times.

"It wasn't any fun," acknowledged Wiltse. "Our defense was good, but there was no continuity at all on offense for either team."

The loss dropped the Prowlers to 3-12.

Huskies handle RLF, but fall to Crookston

Goodridge will try regain its winning touch Tuesday when the Huskies host East Grand Forks Sacred Heart in boys high school basketball.

A 63-47 Friday (Jan. 20) winner over Red Lake Falls, the Huskies saw a five-game winning streak come to an abrupt end Monday at the hands of Crookston 72-54. Idle this weekend, Goodridge will take a 9-3 record into the Sacred Heart contest.

"Right now, we're just not doing real well," said Goodridge coach John Rahn. "We're not playing like we did earlier. We've got to try to get back to that level."

Gators block 17 Stephen shots

Shot-blocking defense played by Badger/Greenbush-Middle River played a major role in Stephen's 22 percent 15-for-70 shooting Tuesday as the Gators beat the Tigers 48-38 in boys high school basketball at Greenbush.

Seventeen of the Tigers' shots were batted away by the Gators, with Matt Kuzma blocking seven of them and Richard Klein six.

Unlike the Gators' wild 90-88 win in four overtimes when the two teams met early this season at Greenbush, the rematch turned into a defensive battle in which B/G-MR posted quarter leads of 15-8, 27-17, and 36-27.

"It was a great defensive game," explained Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Eldon Sparby. "Both teams had to work hard to get the points."

Kuzma scored a game-high 17 points. Nathan Smith led Stephen with 10 points.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River, 10-2 for the year, made 19 of 45 field goal attempts (43 percent) and sank 5 of 8 at the free throw line, where the Cougars were 12-for-22. Kittson County North had a 34-31 rebound edge and Badger/Greenbush-Middle River had more turnovers, 14-9.

Nordics saddled with 3-10 record

Struggling Marshall County Central boys high school basketball team watched its record dip to an unaccustomed 3-10 following back-to-back losses to Lake of the Woods and Warroad.

The Nordics fell to Lake of the Woods 55-49 Friday (Jan. 20) in Baudette and were beaten 61-56 at home by Warroad Tuesday.

Sixteen offensive rebounds, part of the Bears' 35-23 advantage on the boards, sparked Lake of the Woods past Marshall County Central 55-49.

The winners had quarter leads of 13-9, 26-20 and 40-36.

Lake of the Woods had a 50 percent 24-for-48 shooting night, while Marshall County Central turned in a 39 percent 18-for-46 performance. The Bears made 5 of 9 free throw attempts; the Nordics sank 10 of 13. The teams split 43 turnovers – 22 by the Bears.

Warroad had a 10-point lead four minutes into the game and finished with a 61-56 win over Marshall County Central.

Marshall County Central trailed at the quarter stops 20-10, 34-25 and 49-38 before pulling even at 51-51 with two minutes remaining. But a turnover robbed the Nordics of the chance to go ahead, and Warroad went 8-for-8 at the free throw line down the stretch to ice it.

The Nordics' Micah Ranum cashed in on 12 of 17 free throw opportunities en route to a game-high 24 points. Todd Moen of Warroad netted 20.

Marshall County Central was 17-for-42 from the field (40 percent) and 19-for-27 at the free throw line. Warroad went 21-for-38 from the floor (55 percent) and 16-for-29 at the line. The Nordics, who have had trouble on the boards this winter, out-rebounded Warroad 25-22, but they also had more turnovers, 20-13.

Four Red Lake County Central scorers hit double figures, led by Bryce Huotari and Aaron Rosten with 15 points each.

The Mustangs shot 42 percent from the field, a 31-for-73 showing that included 7-for-20 shooting from 3-point range – much to the chagrin of Red Lake County Central coach Todd Fore. "We didn't show much patience," he said. "It wasn't very pretty."

Sacred Heart was 20-for-52 from the field (38 percent) and 6-for-14 at the free throw line, where Red Lake County Central was 5-for-9. The Mustangs had a 34-24 rebound advantage. The Eagles had more turnovers, 13-8.

Eleven Grygla-Gatzke players put their names in the scoring column, led by Jeremy Verbout with 16 points, Kevin Warne 14 and Shaun Verbout 12, as the Eagles rolled to a 75-50 Tuesday night boys high school basketball win over visiting Kittson County North.

It didn't take long to come up with a winner as the 53 percent shooting Eagles (30/57) jumped out to a 28-7 first quarter lead and opened up a 43-14 halftime gap.

"Our pressure defense caused them some trouble early, and gave us some pretty good shots," noted Grygla-Gatzke coach Vern Johnson. "We put some fast break opportunities off the press."

Josh Whitlock scored a game-high 25 points for the Cougars, who shot 38 percent from the field (20/52). They were 5-for-8 at the free throw line, where the Eagles went 11-for-13.

"I was pleased with what I saw defensively, especially in the first half," said Johnson.

The Lumberjacks finished with 165 points, followed by Crookston/Fertile-Beltrami with 102 and Thief River Falls 60.

Sophomores Chris Pribula and Josh Engevik, along with freshman Nate Keller, turned in solid performances for the Prowlers, according to Thief River Falls coach Ryan Lukken, whose team is slowly recovering from a rash of injuries and illness that have created a manpower shortage.

In the junior varsity portion of the meet, Bemidji collected 151 points while Thief River Falls and Crookston/Fertile-Beltrami both finished with 42.

MCC girls lose 46-29

Strong defensive effort was obstructed by an 18 percent 11-for-58 shooting performance Thursday as Marshall County Central lost a 46-29 girls high school basketball game at Roseau.

With Lacey Hirsts man-to-man effort limiting the Rams' high scoring Megan Taylor to 16 points – half of her season average – the Nordics accomplished their defensive goals, according to Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde. But it was a season-low offensive output that ended a brief three-game win streak and dropped the visitors to 6-8 for the year.

The Nordics hit their first three shots and had a 7-2 lead before they began to misfire. The Rams were up 14-9 at the end of the first quarter, 25-16 at halftime and 33-20 through three quarters.

"It was just like somebody put a lid on the basket," said Mjelde. "Defensively I thought we played really well, but the shots that normally fall for us just wouldn't go in. And once we start missing, it's contagious."

Roseau was 21-for-59 from the field (36 percent) and 3-for-5 at the free throw line, where Marshall County Central was 5-for-10. The Rams had a 41-31 rebound advantage. The turnovers were even at 18 apiece.

Dr. Winjum joins program

Charles Winjum, M.D., from the Dakota Clinic-Thief River Falls has joined the Thief River Falls Sports Medicine Team, it was announced by Gail Holland, Public Relations Coordinator at Northwest Medical Center.

Dr. Winjum is practicing in family medicine and obstetrics and has a special interest in sports medicine. He will assist the Sports Medicine Team in coverage of contact sporting events at Lincoln High School and Northland Community College, and provide medical treatment to area athletes at Dakota Clinic-Thief River Falls.

Dr. Winjum received his medical degree from McGill University in Montreal, Quebec, Canada. He completed specialty training in family practice at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire. Prior to joining Dakota Clinic-Thief River Falls, he practiced at Northwestern Clinic in Crookston for seven years.

Gators top Wolverines

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River scored the game's first 16 points Thursday en route to a 65-38 girls high school basketball win over Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke.

Despite special defensive coverage, Krissi Super scored 28 points and grabbed 14 rebounds as the Gators improved to 16-1 with their seventh straight win.

"They came out with a diamond-and-one (defense), and we were really prepared for it," explained Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Tom Neibauer. "Our passing was really sharp – the best its been since tournaments last year. We got a hot of high percentage shots."

Strong guard play by the Gators included a 13-point game by Ali Hietala and 9 rebounds by Nikki Wahl.

The Gators, who were 25-for-55 from the field (45 percent) and 12-for-22 at the free throw line, had quarter leads of 18-2, 34-16 and 50-22.

Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke lost for the seventh time in eight starts to fall to 4-8 for the year.

"They're a good team," acknowledged Wolverines coach Mike Gast. "They beat us. Krissi (Super) just dominated."

The Wolverines were 17-for-48 from the field (35 percent) and 4-for-5 at the free throw line. The Gators had a 32-25 rebound edge.

RLCC girls fall behind early in loss to Panthers

Red Lake County Central faced a 31-8 deficit at the end of the first quarter Thursday and wound up losing a 74-46 girls high school basketball game to Norman County West in Halstad.

The Mustangs, 3-8 for the year, trailed 46-16 at halftime and were down 61-30 through three quarters.

"Same old song – too many turnovers," said Red Lake County Central coach Rick Koivisto.

Red Lake County Central was 20-for-63 from the field (32 percent) and 2-for-5 at the free throw line. Norman County West went 31-for-73 from the floor (42 percent) and 12-for-19 at the line. The winners also had a sizeable 49-27 rebound advantage.

The Mustangs are back in action today (Saturday) vs. Ulen-Hitterdal in Plummer – a change in the schedule that lists the game for Oklee.

HIRE AN S.I. FEEDER

Do you need a hired hand? Good help is hard to find these days. Help that works hard and is flexible. Help that doesn't waste your time and resources. Help that is strong and can handle the farm environment. When it comes to feeding livestock, S.I. feeders are ready to start work today.

So what is the difference between Schoessow feeders and a good hired hand? Not a lot - except you only invest in them once and receive the benefits for years to come. They will never ask you for a pay increase. They will never want holidays. They will not quit when the work gets tough. And labour disputes . . .well, they are a thing of the past.

Tuesday evening at the Best Western in Thief River Falls Jeremy Fyla of Burnsville was awarded first place in the ISOC Commercial Sawing Ironman 250 held in Thief River Falls January 14-15. Fyla drove a 1995 Arctic 440ZR in the race. He won $11,327.74 in cash and contingencies. Corey Davidson of Holt on a Polaris won second place and over $5,000 in cash and contingencies. Catholic Schools Week to feature ethnic food fair

Highlight of Catholic Schools Week at St. Bernard's Catholic school in Thief River Falls will be the third annual ethnic food fair to take place from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday, February 3, in the basement dining room of St. Bernard's Catholic church.

The food fair is open to anyone in the community and a free-will donation will be accepted from those attending. School classes and related groups will present the culture and foods from 10 different countries.

Theme for the week is "Catholic Schools...Schools You Can Believe In."

Although the annual observance officially begins on Monday, January 30, there will be no school classes that day, due to a technology in-service day for school staff.

On each of the other school days through Friday, February 4, special designation has been given for student dress. They include Dress-up Day, Look-Alike Day, Pajama Day and Beach Party Day.

On Wednesday, February 1, a lunch for parents and grandparents will be held from 11 a.m. to 12 noon. A school pep fest will be held Friday afternoon, February 3, with a spirit award to be presented at 2 p.m.

At 11 a.m. Sunday, February 5, a Catholic Schools Week mass has been scheduled for all St. Bernard's School families. An appreciation dinner for all former faculty members of the school will take place at noon.

St. Bernard's school has adopted a mission statement which helps define the mission and purpose of the school. The statement reads:

"Our mission at St. Bernard's School is to continue to nurture a positive, trusting environment that will enable everyone to grow spiritually, intellectually and physically.

"Our purpose is to enhance each child's self-esteem, values and ideals in harmony with the family. Above all else, our Father in Heaven wants us to love each other and thereby be a positive influence in our faith community and our world."

Area women featured in magazine

Featured in the January/February issue of Country Woman magazine was a story about Connie Strandquist of Hallock and the complete make-over she received at the Stylist 1 beauty shop, owned by Debbie Williams in Thief River Falls.

After she noticed the sudden appearance of gray hair, Strandquist made an appointment and got "the works." A description of what was done and why, as well as before and after pictures, is included in "Give Me The Works," a regular feature of the magazine.

Deer Park Garden club held meeting Jan. 10

The Deer Park Garden club held its January meeting on January 10 at the home of Gene and Willia Preslegaard in Thief River Falls. The meeting was called to order by President Norma Hanson and the club creed was recited by all. Roll call was answered by naming a wild flower. The club received notification of future spring workshops, horticulture shows and annual fall meetings for the next five years. Lavonne Radniecki, vice president for District 13 is the chairman of the awards committee for August 1995. The club will purchase a $125 brick at the State MSHS office building. Payment of $25 per year will be made.

Discussion was held on a project called "Container Gardens" for shut-ins in the spring. The club is being asked to submit a name to be used as a district name. Announcement was made of a horticulture workshop at the courthouse on February 2. The February 14 meeting will be at Lois and Ernie Swanson's home in Highlanding township. Each member is asked to bring a wrapped $2 friendship gift.

The club received a memorial gift in memory of Adeline Chervestad. Helen Chervestad presented the program on "Golden Rods." The hostess served lunch. Members present were Ethel Wiseth, Helen Chervestad, Audrey Bergeson and Norma Hanson.

Traditional gathering at Red Lake school

Second annual two-day Traditional Gathering and cultural workshop will be held Thursday and Friday, February 9 and 10, at the new Red Lake elementary school on the Red Lake Indian Reservation.

The event will be co-hosted by the Cross Cultural Training Project, Eagles program, drug abuse program and other Red Lake Nation service providers.

"The Traditional Gathering returns after a most successful first year when 500 people were expected to attend," notes Bill May, Cross Cultural coordinator for the Red Lake Band of Chippewa Indians. "Organizers were elated—and food service providers severely tested—when nearly 1,600 people came to learn and enjoy the two-day gathering and workshop in February of 1994."

The 1995 gathering, with concurrent cultural workshops and traditional craft demonstrations being held all day, will be conducted by elders and others from several United States and Canadian Ojibwe reservations. Subject matter may include historical, cultural differences, naming ceremonies, dance, pow wow, use of tobacco and environmental issues, emphasizing the Ojibwe traditional relationship to the land.

Traditional demonstrations and displays will include sugarbush, baskets, flutes, quill work, medicinal plants, hide tanning, trapping, hunting, fish nets, sewing and the moccasin game.

"Indians and non-Indians alike are cordially invited to participate, especially educators, social service workers, elected officials and those with a sincere interest and desire to learn more of the unique history and culture that is the Red Lake Nation," adds Michael Meyers, Red Lake public relations director.

Entertainment by the celebrated "Young Dreams Dance Troupe" will top off Thursday's events February 9 with a talent show and music to highlight the activities Friday, February 10. A one-day pow wow will be held Saturday for those wishing to return for a third day. Complimentary meals will again be served this year at noon and the supper hour.

Copies of the Project 2000 Strategic Plan will be sent to homes in School District 564 next week. Project 2000 is a comprehensive plan that will be used in planning for the school district. Members of the committee met in the new Franklin Middle school Media Center for this picture: (from left) Larry Belmont, Maria Hvidstan, Jana Millar, Marcia Sandahl, Wayne Johanason, Ray Kuznia, Nancy Tofte, Judy Lindquist, Carol Ihle, and Jean Heinrichs, committee chair.

Project 2000 copies mailed

Every business needs a strategic plan that serves as a guideline for everyday decisions. School districts need the same direction. That's the philosophy behind the Thief River Falls - St. Hilaire Education Project 2000, a five-year plan to carry Independent School District 564 into the 21st century.

The plan, which will be mailed to homes across the district this week, combines the work of the local Project 2000 Strategic Plan committee with state and federal efforts to help communities focus their efforts on quality education. Thief River Falls Vice-Mayor Jean Heinrichs, who chairs the local Project 2000 committee, says the plan coordinates a community agenda to accomplish six specific goals. "I think our goals are very well defined and we have begun a presentation schedule that includes all the service, government, and community groups within our school district. We want to develop partnerships — a network — with a single focus — quality learning."

The six strategies include:

- A Partnership Center for Learning;
- Planning and expansion of available technology;
- A safe and caring community environment;
- Individual educational opportunities;
- Design of a quality learning system;
- Resources and opportunities for youth.

An agenda for action accompanies each strategy. Heinrichs says it's a very aggressive plan. "We expect results. Over the next five years, to the year 2000, our schools are going to experience a burst of community support that is a coordinated strategy to improve educational standards for each individual child." Heinrichs says community groups, parents, businesses, churches, and others in the community want to be involved.

"We have a well-coordinated volunteer program that has been so successful. That's our indicator. We know this community is interested,

Meeting on waste pick up set

Pennington county commissioners will hold a meeting for township officials to discuss proposals for county-wide solid waste collection. The meeting will be held 2 p.m. Monday, February 6 at the city auditorium meeting room in Thief River Falls.

Commissioners have discussed county-wide solid waste collection for many years. Last May they held a public hearing on its intent to adopt an ordinance to establish an organized solid waste collection system in any town or city in Pennington county not having an established ordinance for solid waste collection. An ordinance, however, was not adopted because of other issues, such as the SwisCorp deal. The company is expected to have the solid waste facility up and running around April 1.

Howard Person, solid waste officer for Pennington county, explained that the meeting on Monday is being held at this time to allow township officials enough time to take information and proposals back to township residents before the annual township meetings begin in late February or early March.

Several ideas will be discussed at the meeting, but there is one main proposal. Person said the main idea that has favor with the county commissioners at this time calls for townships to establish sites for dumpsters - one for every 15 families. Townships would be allowed to put the dumpsters wherever they want to put dumpsters. It would cost $13 per month per household, or $12 per month if one lump sum payment for the service is made at the beginning. The cost

Northwest Technical College students have selected Julia Thorson, administrative support instructor, as Teacher of the Year for the Thief River Falls campus. She is shown with Monique Peterson of Thief River Falls, a student in legal secretarial and word processing.

Thorson is NTC Teacher of Year

Students of Northwest Technical College in Thief River Falls have selected Julie Thorson as Teacher of the Year for the Thief River Falls campus.

The students made their selection based on guidelines established by the Minnesota Technical College Student Association which include years of experience, how the instructor relates to the students and involvement with students, campus and community.

Nominations for the honor were presented to the Thief River Falls Student Senate which made the final selection.

Thorson is an administrative support instructor at the Thief River Falls campus of Northwest Technical College. Her primary major is the Legal Secretary Technology program. She has been employed by the technical college since 1970 and has been involved in the many changes the college has experienced since that time.

The Thief River Falls campus nomination was submitted to a regional committee along with candidates from the other five Northwest Technical College campuses and the Brainerd/Staples campus. The regional group selected an instructor from the Detroit Lakes campus and submitted that name to the state student senate committee as the regional candidate for the title of Minnesota Technical College Teacher of the Year.

Unusual court procedure ends in agreement

Several procedural steps were waived in an unusual court appearance Wednesday in a Ninth District court in Pennington county in which Hardy Nathaniel Hodge, 60, Thief River Falls, made his first appearance and pled guilty in a plea agreement to criminal sexual conduct in the third degree.

Several procedural steps were avoided or waived in the court appearance Wednesday. Typically in a first appearance, a defendant is brought to court to hear the charges against him, then released into police custody, or given an opportunity to make bail or released on their own personal recognizance. In a subsequent court hearing a defendant will enter a plea to the charge. If requested, a third hearing might be held to consider evidentiary issues. If a defendant pleads not guilty, he or she is also given an opportunity of a trial by jury. On Wednesday all of those procedural steps were waived. Assistant Prosecutor Alan Rogalla filed his case on Wednesday, and Attorney Lawrence McDowell appeared in court on the same day with his client, Hardy Hodge, ready to enter a plea agreement with the state.

As an example of how different this case was treated, Jeremy Allan Lund of Thief River Falls, made his first appearance on November 30, pled not guilty on December 5, entered a plea agreement on December 22, and was sentenced for criminal sexual conduct in the second degree on Monday, January 30. The charge against him came as a result of an incident with minors last July. The plea agreement with Lund calls for him to serve one year in jail, with all but the 32 days in jail he has already served in jail stayed. He was also ordered to pay $632.50 in fines and court costs, ordered to have no contact with the victims or children under 18, undergo a DNA blood test as required by the state, register his address with the state offender program, and was placed on 25 years probation.

Court records show Hodge was originally being charged with one count of first degree criminal sexual conduct and one count of third degree criminal sexual conduct. The charges stem from incidents involving sexual penetration with a minor between April 5, 1984 and April 1987 in Thief River Falls.

A charge of first degree criminal sexual conduct carries a maximum penalty of 30 years in jail and/or a fine of $40,000. A charge of criminal sexual conduct in the third degree carries a maximum penalty of 15 years in jail and/or a fine of $30,000.

Under terms of the plea agreement, Hodge pled guilty to count two, which was criminal sexual conduct in the third degree, and count one was dismissed. Hodge was also sentenced to one year in jail and a fine to be determined by the court, both of which will be waived on condition that: Hodge submit to a DNA analysis, as required by Minnesota law; have no unsupervised contact with children under the age of 18, make restitution as follows, $250 to DARE and $250 to VIP within 60 days, be placed on supervised probation for two years, imposition of sentencing to the commissioner of corrections would be stayed and would end with the terms of the probation in two years. At the end of the two years the matter would be modified to a misdemeanor.

On Wednesday, Ninth District Judge Dennis Murphy accepted the plea agreement and went over rights of the defendant. He also ordered a pre-sentence investigation and tentatively scheduled official sentencing for March 13, 1995. Hodge has not officially been sentenced.

Hodge, a member of various local organizations and a former

Blood Drive in Newfolden on February 8

On Wednesday, February 8, citizens of Newfolden will have an opportunity to make an important, personal contribution to the welfare of this community. That is the scheduled date of a mobile blood drive to be held at the Newfolden Community Center from 2:30 to 7 p.m.

Jody Lunke and Denae Blawat, chairmen of the drive, would like every person to consider this drive to be an invitation for personal action — the simple, satisfying action of donating blood for a person in great need. In less than an hour you may give the most precious gift of all — the "Gift of Life".

In our area, over 3,000 units of blood are needed each month to supply the needs of patients served by United Blood Services. This blood can only come from caring individuals — the human body is still the only source. Donors must bring picture identification to the blood drive. Please be sure your identification includes your names plus one of the following: date of birth, social security number. Donors can also bring their United Blood Services assigned donor number or photo.

To make an appointment to donate blood call Jody Lunke at 449-4465 or Denae Blawat at 523-3692.

Minneapolis man dies from CO poisoning

Bemidji — A 47-year-old Minneapolis man died of carbon monoxide poisoning Sunday at North Country Regional Hospital in Bemidji. David Anthony Wojdyla was found unconscious in a camper parked near Hagali Lake in Hagali township by his brother-in-law, Eugene Hunt of Brooklyn Center. The two had been snowmobiling in the Hagali area and had spent the night in a camper with a propane heater. Hunt awoke nauseated and vomiting and tried to wake Wojdyla. When Wojdyla did not respond, Hunt tried CPR. When that failed, Hunt sought help from a nearby home. Authorities stated the propane heater was turned on but not burning. Hunt was released from the hospital Sunday after spending time in the hospital's intensive care unit.

Here are some tasty recipes to liven up those long winter days.

Shirley Norquist from Strandquist was kind enough to send in the Chocolate Cherry Cordial recipe I couldn't find, so here it is — now let's see if we can all hang on to it this time:

CHOCOLATE CHERRY CORDIALS

1 (12 ounce) package semi sweet chocolate chips, melted
3 tablespoons cherry liqueur
1 1/2 tablespoons grenadine syrup
24 candied cherries

Spoon small amount of chocolate into each of 24 paper or foil candy cases. Coat sides and bottom well.

Refrigerate for no more than five minutes to set chocolate. Set aside remaining melted chocolate.

Combine cherry liqueur and grenadine syrup and chill well. Place a cherry in each chocolate case and drizzle enough cherry liqueur mixture over to cover halfway.

Spoon melted chocolate over each cherry to fill case. Chill for 5 minutes or until chocolate is set.

Place candy in airtight container. Let stand for at least 24 hours before serving.

Peel casings from chocolate and eat carefully — juice will drip.

I see that beef is on sale in the grocery stores — make this delicious one-dish meal with that roast you bought:

HERBED POT ROAST WITH VEGETABLES

4 pound beef arm, blade or cross rib pot roast or boneless chuck eye or shoulder roast
1/2 teaspoon dried marjoram leaves
1/4 teaspoon dried basil
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
2 cloves garlic, crushed
1/4 cup apple cider
1/4 cup water
5 medium carrots, cut into 2-inch pieces
4 medium turnips, cut into fourths
1 medium onion, cut into fourths
1 green bell pepper, cut into 1 inch pieces
1 cup (1 inch pieces) celery
2 tablespoons chopped fresh parsley

Cook beef in Dutch oven over medium heat about 10 minutes or until brown.

Sprinkle with spices, salt and pepper.

Add cider and water and heat to boiling. Reduce heat, cover and simmer for 1 1/2 hours.

Add vegetables, parsley and 1/4 cup water, if necessary. Cover and simmer 45 minutes or until vegetables and beef are tender.

This easy dish will make for hearty eating and quick fixing:

CHICKEN IN CREAM

1/2 cup flour
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
3 to 3 1/2 pound cut up broiler-fryer chicken
2 cups half and half
Paprika

Heat oven to 325 degrees.

Mix flour, salt and pepper.

Coat chicken with flour mixture and place, skin side down, in ungreased rectangular baking dish. Pour half and half over chicken.

Bake, uncovered, 45 minutes, then turn chicken. Bake, uncovered 30 to 45 minutes longer or until thickest parts are done (do not over bake).

Remove chicken and keep warm. Stir enough hot water or milk into baking dish to make sauce of desired consistency. Pour over chicken and sprinkle with paprika.

Yum — liven up those old meals with something tangy for dessert:

BAKED LEMON PUDDING

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/4 teaspoon salt
3 eggs, separated
1/2 cup sugar
2 teaspoons grated lemon rind
1/4 cup lemon juice
2 tablespoons melted butter
1 1/2 cups milk

Sift together 1 c. sugar, flour, baking powder and salt.

Beat egg whites until stiff. Add 1/2 cup sugar, a spoonful at a time. Set aside.

Beat yolks until light. Add lemon rind and juice, butter and milk. Stir into the flour mixture and beat smooth.

Add beaten egg whites, folding gently. Pour into buttered 2 quart baking dish.

Set into a 1/2 inch deep pan of hot water. Bake 45 minutes at 350 degrees. Chill before serving.

To The Editor

I enjoy reading editorials in the Times and Northern Watch and regard them as a useful gauge of local opinion on political issues and other public matters. Most often what one finds in these editorials is commonsensical and agreeable. However, an editorial appearing in last week's Northern Watch so proved me that I feel I really must respond.

In an editorial entitled "Corporate Welfare: Myth of Big Government", the author (presumably the editor, Mr. Lundin) attempts to refute Secretary of Labor Robert Reich's assertion that corporate America is the recipient of large amounts of government hand-outs. In brief the editorial argues that the business interests have acquired their wealth by their own efforts, independent of public assistance, and therefore the government has no legitimate claim to some portion of their profits.

However, even an elementary understanding of the American economy and political process shows this argument to be absurd. Business has benefitted from government policy in many ways. Three ways in particular stand out. One is through the letting of bids for public projects and/or procurement of government supplies. Often times these contracts and purchase agreements are conducted on a cost plus basis, thereby ensuring business a healthy profit, far in excess of what would be earned in similar private deals. We have all heard accounts of the lucrative profits "earned" by defense contractors. In some cases, such as mail contracts with airlines, government has at times deliberately given private business excess profits as a way of subsidizing its operations.

Another way that business has benefitted from government policy is through distribution of the public domain. In theory, as American citizens we all own the air waves, the forests, minerals and other natural resources on public lands, the rivers and seaways, the airways, and the discoveries and inventions forthcoming from publicly owned and/or funded research facilities.

Yet, through the political process, and all the lobby connections and favoritism it involves, business has often gained exclusive access to these valuable assets free of cost or for a fraction of their true worth. Again, we have all heard accounts of how the U.S. Forest Service has at times spent more on road construction for logging companies than it collected in royalties for the stumpage, and also, how pharmaceutical companies have acquired patents for drugs developed at public institutions for little or nothing and then earned millions of dollars from them.

A third way that business has benefitted from government policy is through grants of special rights to associations in regard to regulation of the professions and issuance of licenses. The reference here, of course, is primarily to such associations as the American Bar Association, the American Medical Association, and their like. The government not only has given these associations power to determine who receives licenses to practice those professions, it also enforces this monopoly on behalf of the private association by prosecuting any who might attempt to practice without the associations approval, regardless of their knowledge or true abilities.

Such grants of control over licensure and enforcement of it have in effect given these professional associations monopoly power, since by limiting their membership and following common billing standards, they can avoid true competition and ensure high levels of profit. Not for nothing do the law and medical schools limit their enrollment at levels well below what the market could bear. The truth of this monopoly power of the professional associations is reflected in the fact that lawyers are able to charge in excess of $100 an hour for their services while the average working American, operating in a competitive labor market, is lucky to get $10 an hour for his or her time.

In short, to claim that the corporate/business interests have acquired their wealth on their own, independent of the government, greatly abuses the facts and violates the truth. Indeed, it can more convincingly be argued that government—by how it lets its contracts, on what terms, to whom; by how it awards right of usage of the public domain, on what terms, to whom; and by to what groups and professional associations it grants and enforces the right of self-regulation and monopoly control of licensure—is the main creator of economic inequality in American society.

Mr. Lundin's attempt to claim the contrary suggests one of two things: Either he is simply ill-informed and lacks a basic understanding of how the American economy and political process work, or else, for whatever reason, he has decided to make himself the local spokesperson for the special interests and general corporate community.

Thank you for affording me this opportunity to respond to Mr. Lundin's comments.

Sincerely,

-s- Donald Waterworth

(Editor's note-Portion of the following letter have been cut to reduce excessive length.)

To The Editor:

"Move our courthouse to Warroad? You've got to be kidding!" That was the reaction of most of the people after hearing about the Marvin's offer to fund the new courthouse if it was built in Warroad. Everyone thought it was a joke, too ridiculous to even consider.

Well, folks the joke is on us. It is not only being taken under consideration and being checked into, but there is a strong possibility it could happen.

What would be the results of such an action? Would moving the courthouse be a plus or a minus to our county?

I am sure when the Marvin's made the offer to fund the new courthouse, their intentions were good-just wanting to do a good deed and helping out their town. I doubt if they really thought about the results of such an action would be. I doubt if they sat down and added up the minuses versus the pluses. If they would have they would have come to the same conclusion, as I have, that the minuses by far outweigh the pluses.

At first look there is one plus in this situation. The courthouse would be paid for without any contribution on the part of the Roseau county taxpayers. But is this a fact? No folks, I think not. If you weigh the side expenses of moving the county seat from Roseau to Warroad, you would find that in the long run it would cost the taxpayers more money to change count seats than to build a new courthouse. After all not only the courthouse would be relocated but all the other county offices as well. How about the expenses of another election? Who's going to pay for that? We the taxpayers of course.

The money for the courthouse is already there. However, the money for another election is not. We'll have to pay for that in our future taxes.

One of the offices that would move be the extension office. It would no longer be centrally located for the people who make the most use of it. Speaking for myself as an active 4-H leader for nearly 20 years, my 4-H leadership would come to an end. I couldn't possibly spread myself thin enough to run way to Warroad for meetings and materials.

How about all the farmers who make use of our extension services? You and I both know that busy farmers wouldn't be able to run to Warroad to their extension office. It is centralized now where its is, convenient for both rural youth and farmers. Most of the farmers are near Roseau or west of Roseau.

O.K., let's say having the courthouse paid for by private funds is a plus. Is it really? If Marvins' pay for the courthouse would it be our courthouse? I think not. It would belong to the Marvin foundation not to you and me. I will pay for my own courthouse, thank you! I don't need or want charity. I want a building I feel I helped build, a building I could take pride in. This would not be so if it was built by a private party.

We have been lucky enough to have our county seat the same name as our county—Something I always thought was pretty neat!

Now the biggest minus of all, the hatred that will result from such a move. Right now Roseau and Warroad have just a friendly rivalry over sports, just as Greenbush and Roseau do. This is just good healthy competitive feelings that make our lives just a little more spicy and interesting. This new hatred that is growing between Roseau and Warroad because of the courthouse is neither healthy nor friendly and in our 100th birthday year to top it all off. This is not good for any of the people of our precious Roseau County. We should be pulling together, not a part.

No fellow Roseau countyites, it just don't add up. The minuses far outweigh the pluses and I have only touched the surface.

Roseau has served us well for many years as our county seat. Why change it now?

I now the Marvins' had good intentions but when weighing the minuses against the pluses I think the Marvin foundation would be very wise in withdrawing its friendly offer. Otherwise the best we can do is just not sign the petition, so that we do not have to go through the trouble and expense of having another election. Let's bring this matter to a close as soon and as friendly as possible.

Editorial opinion published on this page, whether locally written or re-printed from other sources is intended to stimulate thinking and discussion among our readers. Courthouse Question In Roseau County Recalls Actions From The Past

When it comes to controversies of an area nature, the questions faced by Roseau county residents regarding the building of a new courthouse are indeed emotional and provincial as well as economic. While the debate is of current interest and has drawn considerable media and public attention, we should remind ourselves that it is neither unique nor unusual.

County seat controversies and community competition and rivalries are old hat in this area, and probably elsewhere as well. Evolution of Pennington county as a separate entity and Thief River Falls as the county seat did not come about without considerable argument, bickering, temper tantrums and hard feelings a few generations ago.

It was not many years ago that there was a move afoot to establish the City of Newfolden as the Marshall county seat instead of Warren when a courthouse building project was under consideration for that county. Defenders of the status quo marshalled their forces, utilized the legal means at their disposal and withstood the challenge. There were bruised egos and some animosities created in that effort, to be sure, but in general the wounds were superficial and seem to have healed well.

Still more recently, although with admittedly smaller total community impact, the Northwest Regional Development Commission offices were enticed to move from Crookston to Thief River Falls and will soon be relocated in Warren. This competition and maneuvering among communities is legal, should be expected and is relatively common.

The need felt by people in communities to do what they can to economically solidify and maintain or improve their communities individually is a preservationist feeling that all should be able to readily understand.

Viewpoints also may be expected to differ and personalities to clash when a situation such as the current Roseau county one arises. In offering to provide a $4.5 million courthouse in Warroad without assessment to Roseau county taxpayers, the Marvin family is seeking to improve its community. In resisting this effort to move the seat of county government, Roseau area people are attempting to protect their interests and maintain their own community. Both entities are entitled to, and should be expected to use, whatever legal means are available to accomplish their goals.

Statements from persons involved as principals in the efforts have been and will continue to be published in The Times and Northern Watch. Letters from citizens in today's issue also express personal opinion on the question. We publish these statements and letters to inform the public and provide a forum for additional views of individuals.

In time, the situation will be resolved and the business of Roseau county will go on. It will be a tribute to the people of Roseau county and in keeping with life in a democracy to accept whatever that resolution may be. An existence totally free of conflict or controversy can't be expected, but every individual can control how he or she reacts to them. Reasonable people act and react responsibly. Roseau is a county of reasonable people.

When Is A Budget Cut Really A Tax Increase?

When is a Congressional budget cut really a tax increase? When the government budgets to spend more for a program in the future than it did in the past.

Something which seems so basic shouldn't really be in question, and perhaps it won't be with new leadership in the Congress. One of the early acts of the new Congress is to have the Congressional Budget Office use real numbers in its budget estimates.

In the budgeting peculiar to government, this has not been the case. Government has automatically assumed an inflation factor as a given, and reference to the budget has been handled accordingly. This has been confusing to the public which does not understand it and frustrating or infuriating to that portion of the public which does.

For example, in the past, if the government had budgeted $200 million for a project and inflation was five per cent in the following year, the project would automatically receive a five per cent increase in budget or $210 million. If Congress voted to fund the project at $205 million—$5 million more than the previous year—it would proclaim a $5 million budget cut as that much less than the inflated amount.

Under this system, which is ludicrous to everyone but the government, budget cutting could be claimed while more and more money was being spent.

Taking the situation a step further, the Clinton administration's fiscal 1994 budget officially listed an increase in the percentage of Social Security benefits that is taxable as a "spending cut." The Republican "Contract With America" rolls back that particular proposal and calls it what it is—a tax increase, not a spending cut.

To The Editor:

The rumor mill is boiling and splitting at the seams, and rumors they are. Not very many seem to have facts.

I can't believe people are telling us taxpayers there is no need for a new sheriff's department, when on the blueprints of the new court house there is a dotted outline in the parking lot labeled jail and sheriff's department.

The landfill problem will not go away-by-itself, but not-many-are talking about that cost to the taxpayers.

Now here is the sticker, along comes a windfall and relieves us of some of the burden. How fortunate can we be!

It's as simple as 2+2, because what we will have if the money is taken from one department and put in another is robbing Peter to pay Paul. It does not relieve a thing and only increases our tax burden.

I am kind of fortunate because I don't own business property or agricultural land, however, it will still cost me some where around $1,000 extra. If we don't sign the petition we will not have a chance to vote and make it our choice. You can be sure we will always have our patriotic choice to apply taxes forever and ever, whether we feel good about it or not.

Wake up, Taxpayers! If we don't take advantage of this, probably all of us will be looking for charity to help us pay our taxes.

Of course the court house should move—Just the same as if someone from Greenbush or Badger would want it in their city if they were to put up the money.

Like I said before, add things up—the court house, the jail and sheriff's department, the cost of the landfill—then subtract $4.5 million. You will still have to pay taxes but not as much.

Let's all get a chance to do our patriotic duty and bring this thing to a vote.

A special thanks to Bill and Margaret Marvin for being so generous to the whole county.

Riverland ride

First annual Riverland Ride sponsored by the Riverland Association and Arctco, Inc. got underway December 31 and will run through February 28.

Weekly drawings began Wednesday, January 11. Weekly winners as of February 1, 1995, for $150 each have gone to Tammy Welter of Crookston, Brenda Gervais of Red Lake Falls, Les Gervais of Red Lake Falls, and Tom Welter of Crookston. Additional drawings will take place on February 8, 15, 22, and March 1. March 1 marks the end of the ride with a grand prize drawing for an Arctic Cat Kitty Cat and $250. The Riverland Ride began with the purpose to promote the trail system in northwestern Minnesota, and to provide snowmobilers with an opportunity to have fun and win up to $2,500 in cash and prizes.

To enter the ride, snowmobilers must pick-up an entry form at any one of the community destination sponsor sites. For more information on entering the ride, contact Julie Olson of the Thief River Falls Chamber of Commerce at 681-3720.

To The Editor and District 564 School Board

On the evening of January 8, 1995, I lost my brother in a car accident. At 10 p.m. I called my immediate supervisor of the Wastewater Department for the City of Thief River Falls. I told him what had happened and his response was "take whatever time you need off." When I returned to work five days later, I was given options of funeral leave, sick leave, vacation and personal leave. My employer, the City of Thief River Falls, showed compassion and concern for this tragic accident. They made my return to work as painless as possible. I commend and thank my employer for this.

My wife called her supervisor, the Food Services Director for School District 564. She was granted time off also. She was told she could use two days sick leave. However, when she returned to work, she was denied sick leave for the funeral.

I called the Superintendent of Schools and explained the situation to him. He said he would take the matter to the school board. The school board also denied sick leave for the funeral.

I don't understand the school board's decision on this matter. What kind of message are they sending to our children when they take such a callous stand on matters such as this? I hope at the next school board election we will have people running for these positions who deal with matters such as this with some compassion for the employees.

I also feel that our community lost a lot when we closed our small residential schools. Apparently Challenger School was not the answer to the school district's financial problems. In Saturday's Northern Watch, it stated that schools with fewer than 300 students showed the best performance. This proves to me that bigger is not better. It looks to me like I'm not the only one who is having problems with the way this school district is run—the taxpayers of School District 564 voted "No" in the school special levy referendum by a large margin.

Yours truly,

LHS Mock trial team edges out Warren

Lincoln high school's mock trial team won its first trial of the season Wednesday at Warren by edging the host team 170-166. Next and final trial for the team prior to start of the play-off schedule will be against Bemidji Monday, February 13, at 9:30 a.m. in Red Lake Falls.

It is nearly imperative for teams to win both their trials of the season to qualify for the play-offs, according to teacher coach Cal Lindberg of the Lincoln team. He said he knew Warren would again be a formidable opponent and he expects Bemidji to put forth a strong effort as well.

"The margin of victory at Warren was very narrow," he said, "but it is a lot better to be on the high side of a narrow victory than on the low side. We will take a victory by any margin and be satisfied."

In this trial Lincoln represented the plaintiff and on Monday in Red Lake Falls will represent the defense.

Serving as attorneys for the Lincoln team were Alyssa Johnson, Myndy Olson and Kate Ihle with witnesses Jennifer Vad, Chris Tsukich and Kassie Westerman. Nels Brown accompanied the team to videotape the trial.

Scoring the trial were Judge Larry Jorgenson and attorney Brian Rokke. Judge Jorgenson gave Lincoln 82 points and Warren 81 while Rokke scored 88 points for Thief River Falls and 85 for Warren. Judge Jorgenson awarded a penalty point which was subtracted from the Warren score when one of the Warren witnesses was caught lying by LHS team attorney Kate Ihle.

"Our team accepted an invitation by Warren coach Chu Drenckhahn to have lunch with the Warren team following the trial," Lindberg noted. "We appreciate that spirit of friendly competition which is something we try to incorporate into our program as well."

Peterson elected vice-chair of rural caucus

Congressman Collin Peterson was elected vice chair of the Congressional Rural Caucus during an organizing meeting of the caucus recently.

"As vice-chair of the Congressional rural caucus, I hope to use this position to bring the concerns of rural America to the forefront in this Congress," Peterson said. "The caucus will not only mobilize support for a good farm bill, but we will also highlight specific rural concerns relating to healthcare, housing, education, and other issues that will be addressed during the 104th Congress.

"Rural America's representation in Congress has been diminishing," Peterson said. "There are currently only about 70 members who represent rural districts, and that's why I believe it is so important to band together and speak with one strong voice.

"I am honored to have been chosen for this post, and I look forward to working with the caucus members to make sure rural issues are not abandoned by the 104th Congress."

Minnesota Opera at Clearbrook

The Minnesota Opera brings its brand-new educational tour, featuring a new 90-minute adaptation of "The Barber of Seville", called "Figaro's Revenge," to the Clearbrook elementary gym on February 11 at 7 p.m. This production is presented by the Clearbrook CAPP committee.

Created by Minnesota Opera Artistic Director Dale Johnson, "Figaro's Revenge" draws upon source material that includes the original eighteenth-century Beaumarchais play, "The Barber of Seville," the famous Rossini opera, and the lesser-known work by Paisiello by the same name. Heading the cast are Douglas Frank as Figaro, Peter Vitale as Count Almaviva and Carolyn Pratt as Rosina. They will be accompanied by two musicians playing a digitally sampled score on synthesizers.

Tickets are now available at the Clearbrook school. Advance tickets are $5 for adults and $2 for students. Tickets sold at the door will be $5.50 for adults and $2.50 for students. Refreshments will be available during intermission. For more information call the Clearbrook school office at (218) 776-3112.

Alicia Bakken of the Prowlers got the ball under the basket and scored to tie the game at 19-19 early in the second quarter of Thursday's high school basketball match-up against East Grand Forks. Jessie Loer (20), Nicole Benson (32) and Sara Stinar (42) of the Green Wave look on, along with the Prowlers' Kelly Skeim (24) and Sara Huschle. East Grand Forks won 78-57.

EGF free throws stop TRF girls

Thief River Falls matched East Grand Forks from the field, but not at the free throw line Thursday as the visiting Green Wave beat the Prowlers 78-57 in girls high school basketball.

Both teams finished with 26 field goals, and that included just one 3-pointer – for the Green Wave. But East Grand Forks capitalized on Thief River Falls' penchant for fouls with a big 25-for-31 night at the free throw line. The Prowlers, on the other hand, went to the line just nine times, hitting five of them.

Pollie Bohn, a 5-11 senior, led the 13-3 Green Wave with a 30-point game that included 12 free throws. She was joined in double figures by teammates Jill Hageman, a 5-8 sophomore with 16 points, and Jessie Loer, a 5-8 senior with 11.

Thief River Falls fell to 3-14 with the loss, but got solid 15-point games from 5-7 senior Kelly Skeim and 5-10 sophomore Kim Stenseth.

Shooting has not been a Thief River Falls strong suit this winter, but the Prowlers surprised even themselves with a 50 percent 14-for-28 first half, yet still trailed by 12 at intermission, 41-29.

That's because the free throws were already mounting up for the Green Wave. The visitors complemented their 14-for-32 first half field goal shooting with a 12-for-13 showing at the line.

Thief River Falls stayed close for a while. Down just 19-15 at the end of the first quarter, the Prowlers caught the Green Wave at 19-19 on back-to-back baskets by Nicole Kopari and Alicia Bakken to open the second quarter.

East Grand Forks got the next seven, though, including a 3-pointer by Hageman, to go ahead 29-21. They never trailed again, scoring the final five points of the first half at the free throw line to lead by an even dozen at the break.

The spread didn't change through the third quarter, but the still-competitive 53-41 contest turned into a not-so-close 21-point difference over the final eight minutes when the winners closed it out by hitting their last seven field goals and 11 of 13 free throws.

Thief River Falls wound up shooting 43 percent from the field for the night (26/61), while East Grand Forks shot 46 percent (26/57). After being out-rebounded 15-12 in the first half, the Green Wave finished with a 34-24 rebound advantage for the game. They also had more turnovers, 19-18.

Thief River Falls boys lose 66-64 game at Bemidji...

Sanden hits 1,000 point mark

Bemidji fashioned 20 offensive rebounds into a 66-64 North Sub-Section 8AA boys high school basketball win over Thief River Falls Tuesday.

The road loss dropped the Prowlers to 7-7 for the year and left them winless in five starts against North Sub-Section 8AA foes.

"We played good basketball, but you can't let a team get that many offensive rebounds," said Thief River Falls coach Scott Brekke. "We've got to do a better job boxing out."

Bemidji is 9-6 overall and 4-1 in North Sub-Section 8AA play, trailing only Fergus Falls in the standings that will determine post-season seeding positions.

The Prowlers lost despite a 34-point game by junior center Kyle Sanden that put him over the 1,000-point mark for his high school basketball career. Sanden, who broke the Thief River Falls single-game scoring record in mid-January with a 43-point outburst against Crookston, headed to Bemidji just three shy of joining the 1,000-Point Club – information Brekke kept to himself until after the fact. "Kyle didn't even know it until I told him," explained Brekke. "We just wanted to let it happen. We didn't want it hanging over him."

Sanden, who is averaging 24 points and 14 rebounds per game, is the fourth boy and sixth Lincoln High School basketball player to surpass the 1,000-point plateau. He currently ranks No. 3 on the boys' scoring list with 1,031 points, trailing only Chris Bjorgaard with 1,125 and Dave Hanson 1,088, while jumping over Art Johnson with 1,012 points.

All-time school scoring record holder is Jodi Kruta with 1,771 career points. Only other Lincoln girl in the 1,000-point category is Michelle Olson with 1,062.

Thief River Falls and Bemidji played to a 15-15 first quarter tie before the Prowlers went ahead 33-32 at halftime and nursed a 49-44 lead into the fourth quarter.

The Lumberjacks won it thanks to 7-for-9 final period free throw shooting – their entire complement of free throws for the game.

Thief River Falls had a shot at catching Bemidji when the Lumberjacks' Rhett Roberts missed the front end of a bonus free throw opportunity with 23 seconds left in a 62-60 game. But the winners regained possession with an offensive rebound, and Mike Burgess sank two free throws to make it 64-60.

Sanden scored with 13 seconds remaining to pull the Prowlers back to within 64-62, but two free throws by Adam Wiechmann with just nine seconds left provided the Lumberjacks with a 66-62 cushion. Sanden closed it out with a basket at the buzzer.

Jon Solheim led Bemidji with 27 points. Gus Self contributed 16. Nathan Anderson joined Sanden in double figures for the Prowlers with a strong 19-point outing.

Thief River Falls shot 46 percent from the field (23/50) and had a productive 15-for-20 free throw night. Bemidji shot 42 percent from the floor (25/59) and out rebounded the Prowlers 36-26 to compensate for 17 turnovers. The visitors turned it over 14 times.

Prowlers strike early in 8-2 win

Four first period goals helped Thief River Falls snap a four-game losing streak Tuesday as the Prowlers picked up an 8-2 Section 8A high school hockey win at Crookston.

Keith Anderson scored twice, while Jason Breiland, David Halsa, Ben Furuseth, Paul Gonsorowski, Nick Chiodo, and Tim Barry all had single goals for the Prowlers, who improved their record to 7-10-1.

Thief River Falls scored on four of 10 first period shots against Crookston goalie Erik Mattison, then weathered a comeback attempt by the Pirates, who scored twice in the first 6:17 of the second period, by scoring four unanswered goals.

Chiodo's goal came just 1:25 after Crookston had cut the difference to 4-2, then Anderson made it 7-2 before the period was done – his second goal coming with just three seconds left.

Anderson, Gonsorowski and Chiodo had two assists apiece. In all, 12 different Prowlers figured into the scoring.

"We played pretty well," said Thief River Falls coach Pat Cullen. "The kids worked hard and moved the puck. We did a lot of nice things, and we got a lot of bodies involved – probably the most we've had all year."

Nordics win another close one

■ MCC boys collect back-to-back two-point victories

Confidence has been restored in the traditionally-strong Marshall County Central boys high school basketball program following back-to-back two-point wins over rivals Kittson Central and Argyle.

The Nordics had lost four straight and were staring at a 3-11 record before knocking off Kittson Central 53-51 last Saturday (Jan. 28) and then winning another close one at Argyle Tuesday, 66-64.

"We're getting better," said Marshall County Central coach Ron Ueland. "We're more competitive. I think we'll shake a few branches before it's all done."

Up 10 early, the Nordics settled for a 20-16 lead at the end of the first quarter and a 34-33 halftime edge. Argyle came back for an 8-point lead in the third quarter, but the Eagles carried just a 52-50 advantage into the last eight minutes. The game's final possession belonged to the Eagles, but with just enough time for an off-the-mark desperation half-court throw.

Micah Ranum of the Nordics led all scorers with 22 points. Teammate Trevor Magner had 13. The Eagles' offense included 16 points by Matt Riopelle, 13 by Blair Stoltman and 12 by Jamie Morberg.

Marshall County Central was 28-for-49 from the field (57 percent) and 5-for-7 at the free throw line. Argyle went 26-for-64 from the floor (41 percent) and 7-for-8 at the line. The Eagles had a 26-22 rebound edge. The Nordics topped the turnover figures 17-13.

Huskies beat Sacred Heart

Goodridge shook off a first half East Grand Forks Sacred Heart challenge to win a 75-53 boys high school basketball game Tuesday.

The visiting Eagles trailed only 15-14 and 31-26 at the first two quarter stops, but faced a 57-34 third quarter deficit.

"We played very uninspired basketball," said Goodridge coach John Rahn. "We're just not playing very well at all right now."

A schedule that has featured just two games over a 20-day span has played a part in taking the edge off the Huskies' game, according to Rahn. "We just haven't been able to get into any kind of rhythm," he noted.

Brady Wiseth scored 20 points, while Mitch Smsky netted 14 and Martin Dahlen 11 for the winners, who used their bench extensively in the fourth quarter. Ben Senger led the Eagles with 14 points.

Goodridge, 10-3, shot 43 percent from the field (30/69) and made 13 of 27 free throws. Sacred Heart shot 42 percent from the floor (18/43) and struggled with an 8-for-20 free throw night. The Huskies finished with a 35-32 rebound edge.

Davis combo leads TRF wrestlers

Tuesday's Warren-Alvarado-Oslo quadrangular high school wrestling meet produced a win and two losses for Thief River Falls.

The Prowlers beat the host Ponies 45-27, but fell to Crookston 58-12 and Red Lake County Central 36-33.

Crookston also posted wins over Warren-Alvarado-Oslo 58-11 and Red Lake County Central 62-12, with the Mustangs coming back to beat the Prowlers and then the Ponies 42-33.

"Crookston was by far the best team there," acknowledged Thief River Falls coach John Anderson, "but I thought we wrestled pretty well. We've got seven pretty decent kids who can go out and get the job done."

Thief River Falls sophomore Luke Davis was 3-0 for the day at 145 pounds, and senior John Davis recorded two pins to go along with a forfeit win against Red Lake County Central. "They (Luke and John Davis) are wrestling really well," noted Anderson, who also cited the efforts by sophomore Kyle Nelson at 160.

Thief River Falls' dual meet record is 5-14.

Grygla-Gatzke boys streak hits 7 games

Scott Hoganson scored 20 points and Jamie Lunsetter had 15 as Grygla-Gatzke won its seventh straight game Tuesday, a 54-51 North Border Conference boys high school basketball decision over visiting Warroad.

"It might not have been real artistic, but both teams played hard," reported Grygla-Gatzke coach Vern Johnson.

The Eagles had quarter leads of 18-15, 23-20 and 43-34. A fourth quarter-opening 3-point shot by Lunsetter produced a 12-point gap, but Warroad came back to make it close at the end.

A steal and a lay-up by Lunsetter put Grygla-Gatzke ahead 52-48 with 14 seconds left, but the win wasn't secured until Hoganson made two free throws with 1 second showing.

The 9-5 Eagles, who do not have a starter taller than six-foot, haven't lost since dropping a 56-45 decision to Badger/Greenbush-Middle River back on Jan. 6. "We do some good things," acknowledged Johnson.

Adam Paulson led Warroad with 14 points.

Grygla-Gatzke was 18-for-40 from the field (45 percent) and 14-for-18 at the free throw line. Warroad went 21-for-47 from the floor (45 percent) and 4-for-6 at the line. The Eagles had a 24-19 rebound edge. The visitors had more turnovers, 14-13.

Gators handle Cougars 60-43 without Kuznia

A 43-21 rebound advantage led to a 60-43 Badger/Greenbush-Middle River boys high school basketball win over Kittson County North Tuesday at Middle River.

The 12-2 Gators, up 14-6 at the end of the first quarter, lead only 25-21 at halftime before pulling away in the second half. It was 42-33 after three quarters.

"We shot poorly in the first half," noted Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Eldon Sparby. "Our defense did a nice job in the second half."

Russell Larson scored 15 points and Aaron Rislov had 11 for the Gators, who played without leading scorer Matt Kuznia, sidelined by a foot injury. Josh Whitlock of Kittson County North led all scorers with 23 points.

The Gators were 20-for-47 from the field (43 percent) and 17-for-27 at the free throw line. The Cougars made only 16 of 54 field goal attempts (30 percent) and had an 8-for-16 night at the line. There were just 17 turnovers in the game – nine charged against Kittson County North.

"They played a good game against us," pointed out Sparby. "We pressured them the whole time and they still only turned it over nine times."

Girls high school basketball...

Shooting, turnovers leads to MCC defeat

Season-long problems in the shooting and turnover departments once again spelled the difference for the Marshall County Central girls Tuesday in a 71-45 high school basketball loss to Kittson Central at Hallock.

The Nordics shot 26 percent from the field (17/64) and turned the ball over 26 times.

"That's pretty much plagued us all year," acknowledged Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde. "We turned the ball over against their press, and we have nobody with any shooting consistency. They just shot the ball better than we did."

The Wolfpack grabbed a 20-8 first quarter lead, had a 35-19 halftime advantage and opened up a 57-30 third quarter spread.

Kelly Sjoblom led Kittson Central with 19 points. Tricia Pederson scored 15 points to lead Marshall County Central.

The Wolfpack shot 48 percent from the floor (30/62) and went 11-for-14 at the free throw line, where the Nordics were 7-for-10. The winners had a 38-28 rebound advantage and finished with 18 turnovers.

Greyhounds down Prowler swimmers

Numbers are increasing, but Thief River Falls boys high school swim coach Ryan Lokken still runs out of names when making out a line-up sheet.

With the missing person list having peaked at 13-to-14, the number of Prowlers on the unable-to-perform chart dropped to nine Thursday in a dual meet match-up against Bagley/Fosston. But the absentees, sidelined for a variety of reasons, still made a significant difference on the Fosston pool scoreboard as Thief River Falls lost 61-33.

"It was a good meet," said Lokken in spite of the lopsided final. "We had a lot of good times. We swam well. It was the most intense meet we've had this year. We just don't have enough kids yet."

Thief River Falls highlights, according to Lokken, were provided by personal-best, or significant time drops by Chris Pribula in the 200 freestyle, Aaron Sjaaheim and Steve Lyman in the 100 butterfly, Sam Adams in the 100 freestyle, and Zach Olson in the 500 freestyle.

Adams won the 100 and Pribula won the 500.

Shorthanded Roseau girls lose 64-27...

Gators handle Rams

Thursday's much-anticipated North Border Conference girls high school basketball showdown between Badger/Greenbush-Middle River and Roseau didn't turn out to be much of a game – a 64-27 romp for the Gators in Greenbush.

Both teams came into the contest with just one loss. And the Rams' lone defeat came at the hands of the Gators, 63-47, back on Dec. 5.

But the rematch turned into a bust when the Rams took the floor without Megan Taylor (injured) and Erin Habstritt (family trip). Taylor averages 30 points per game; Habstritt 10.

Without those two, Roseau produced just one first quarter point, trailing at the stops 9-1, 36-13 and 54-21.

The Gators went to 17-1 with the win, but it was a shallow victory, admitted Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Tom Neibauer. "We were pretty disappointed they weren't at full strength," he said. "We've been pointing toward this game for a long time."

What might have been an individual duel between Taylor and the Gators' Krissi Super turned into a forfeit win for Super with 21 points. Teammate Ali Hietala scored 18. Sarah Lundbohm led the Rams with 10 points.

"The first quarter was terrible," noted Neibauer, "but outside of that, we played pretty well."

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River was 24-for-54 from the field (44 percent) and 15-for-17 at the free throw line. Roseau went to the line just five times, hitting one.

Scoring

	1	2	3	4	T
Roseau	1	12	8	6	27
B/G-MR	9	27	18	10	64

Roseau - Paula Hovda 2, Sarah Lundbohm 10, Amanda Anderson 9, Alexis Anderson 4, Christy Petrowski 2.

B/G-MR - Krissi Super 21, Jessica Borgen 8, Heather Anderson 4, Ali Hietala 18, Nikki Wahl 5, Robin Klien 2, Sue Ann Hemp 4, Jill Wilhelmi 2.

Mustangs lose to Ponies

Red Lake County Central had trouble with a game-long Warren-Alvarado-Oslo press, and as a result had trouble scoring points Thursday in a 61-27 girls high school basketball loss on the road.

"Not very good," was the way Red Lake County Central coach Rick Koivisto described the Mustangs' play as they fell to 4-9 for the year.

The Ponies had quarter leads of 16-8, 32-14 and 50-21.

Erin Aakre led the winners with 18 points, while Ann Ellerbusch netted 13. A 12-point night by Angie Chervestad was the top performance for the Mustangs, who had just four players in the scoring column.

Turnovers limited Red Lake County Central to only 35 field goal attempts. They made 11 (31 percent). Warren-Alvarado-Oslo was 27-for-70 from the field (39 percent). At the free throw line, the Mustangs were 3-for-4 and the Ponies went 5-for-7. Red Lake County Central finished with a 24-23 rebound edge.

Scoring

	1	2	3	4	T
RLCC	8	6	7	6	27
W-A-O	16	16	18	11	61

RLCC - Amy Tvedt 3, Catherine Rosten 4, Angie Chervestad 12, Mackenzie Malwitz 8.

W-A-O - Janina Diedrich 1, Erin Aakre 18, Jessica McGregor 3, Heidi Leverington 2, Mandy Peterson 2, Jami Copp 7, Brenda Myrfield 2, Kelly Hapka 6, Ann Ellerbusch 13.

Winners of the school district level spelling bee will advance to regional competition to be held on Saturday, March 11 at Northland community college in Thief River Falls. Winners of the regional competition will compete in the state level contest.

"The public is invited to attend all competitions to show support for the students who have proved to be the top spellers in fifth through eighth grades in the Thief River Falls school district," Mrs. Marshall said.

Roots and Wings parenting series

"Roots and Wings: Raising Resilient Children" facilitator training will be held February 14-16 in the meeting room of the St. Hilaire Elevator, St. Hilaire.

Roots and Wings is a parenting series developed by Hazelden Foundation. It is designed to ground children in a firm and loving foundation from which they can grow into confident and capable adults.

The Hazelden Foundation was founded in 1949 to offer treatment with dignity and respect to chemically dependent people. Hazelden's education department has been active for over 15 years. This parenting program focuses not only on chemical dependency's affect on the family but also more importantly, on how to create resilient children: young people able to cope and even thrive in the face of life's everyday stress and problems.

All parents want to raise healthy capable children and this program is designed to meet those needs. Indeed, any adult working with young people will find much useful material based on the latest research on risk and protective factors.

The topic areas are: Minimizing risk and enhancing protective factors; modeling healthy standards of chemical health; using teachable moments to inform, educate, and establish expectations; allowing natural consequences and formulating logical consequences; expressing affection and helping children relate to their feelings; appreciating rituals and traditions.

Registration for the facilitator training is handled by the Pennington County Extension office, (218) 681-2116.

Annual Valentine Pop Concert at Franklin middle school Thursday

Annual Winter Valentine Pop Concert will be presented Thursday, February 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the Franklin middle school gymnasium by the sixth, seventh and eighth grade bands and the "Morning Darkness" jazz band and "Sunrise Singers" jazz choir.

The bands are under the instruction of Mike Lehrer and Bruce Felt with Marcia Knuttila directing the "Sunrise Singers." Student directors will direct the sixth, seventh and eighth grade bands for the pop concert.

"This is just one example of the many ways in which the Band Boosters assist us," Lehrer said. "They are a very important asset to our band program here in Thief River Falls and we give them a big thank you for all their help. We have many booster organizations in our community which provide financial and physical support for many activities. They are all much appreciated."

Lehrer, Felt and Knuttila said that all music to be performed by all five groups will be light and popular in nature and that everyone of all ages is invited and encouraged to attend this annual concert.

Admission will be $2 for adults and students in grades 9-12 and $1 for students in grades K-8. Preschool children will be admitted free.

"Sunrise Singers" will open the program with "Can You feel The Love Tonight" and "Old Time Rock and Roll," under the direction of Marcia Knuttila.

"Morning Darkness" jazz band will follow with "April In Paris," "Can You Feel The Love Tonight" and "Caravan," under the direction of Mike Lehrer.

Band selections will include "Band Room Riff Two," directed by Lisa Jopppru, "Old Time Rock and Roll," directed by Rachel Harger; "Circus Bee," directed by Matt Dyer; "La Cucaracha," directed by Heidi Young; "The Lion Sleeps Tonight," directed by Zach Olson; "Circle of Life," directed by Bethany Packard; "The Loco-Motion," directed by Katy Hook; "T.V. Heinrichs says the theme for the project was taken from an old African proverb, "It takes an entire village to educate one child." She says no one within a community is ever free of educational responsibility. "We are all in this together — this fantastic opportunity to insure the abilities of every individual."

The goals for Project 2000 were developed over the past two years through the work of six community committees and over 180 volunteers.

Farmers must purchase minimum crop insurance

Purchase necessary by March 15 to be eligible for farm programs

Farmers who intend to participate in the 1995 wheat and feed grain program should be aware that they must purchase minimum amounts of crop insurance to be eligible. Records must show that they have purchased this insurance by March 15. If they don't have the insurance they are not eligible for any program benefits, such as deficiency payments and grain loans.

Minimum level of required insurance is called Catastrophic Coverage or CAT, and is available at the CFSA office, or from any Crop Insurance agent. A list of agents is posted in the Consolidated Farm Service Agency (formerly Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service) office in Thief River Falls.

This minimum CAT Coverage will allow farmers to sign up in the 1995 farm program. The cost of this insurance coverage is considered reasonable, at $50 per crop, with a maximum of $400 per farm per county.

If farmers have higher coverage of insurance from their own agent at this time, that coverage will continue for the 1995 crop season, and no further action will be necessary on their part.

For those who want higher coverage than the CAT provides, it will be available from any insurance agent on the list. If farmers "buy up" to better coverage, CAT coverage is not required or allowed, and any fees paid will be refunded.

It is important that farmers are aware that they must have evidence of insurance before they can sign up for the farm program and that the last date that they can buy this insurance is March 15. If they let this important deadline pass, they cannot sign up for the wheat and feed grain program," states the county director, Philip Bergland.

Disaster Payments

The sign-up period for disaster benefits will remain open until March 31, Bergland added. The procedures to determine eligibility for a disaster payment are time consuming for both producer and staff, and they come in the same time period that also requires work on wheat and feed grain, CAT insurance, farm changes, conservation programs, etc.

"We regret the inconvenience caused by any delays and we assure you that the needs of all producers in all programs will be served prior to any deadlines," Bergland said.

1995 Wheat And Feed Grain Program

The sign-up for the popular wheat and feed grain program is now open and will remain so until April 28. The county CFSA office is asking that farmers delay sign-up for a short while to allow office workers to get a little further along on the very important disaster program, as well as to get final information and instruction on the new program.

"We will be ready to take your wheat and feed grain application by Monday, February 13," Bergland said. "Call us at (218) 681-1612 for an appointment."

Items of interest in the '95 Program include: Estimated deficiency payments are 60 cents on wheat, 40 cents on corn and barley and 10 cents on oats. A portion of this payment will be advanced at the time of sign-up, but the exact amount is unknown. There will be no set-aside requirements on wheat, barley or oats. Corn will have a 7.5 per cent set-aside. Target rates for wheat are $4, barley $2.36, corn $2.75 and oats $1.45. It is expected to have the 0-85 provision on which farmers will be permitted to plant minor oilseeds, and a flex-planting provision on base acres. Yield and base notices have been mailed. Producers will be informed of any changes.

Reconstitutions

If farmers have or will make any cropland changes in their farm for the 1995 year, the county CFSA office needs to know of it before they sign-up for the farm program. Right now the disaster payments are a top priority in the office. That doesn't mean there is less interest in farm changes, but they will be delayed for a short time.

Winners of the School District 564 spelling bee Tuesday in the Franklin middle school cafeteria were seventh grader Seth Harlow (left), first place and eighth grader Hayden Goethe, second place. They will advance to the regional competition in March at Northland Community College in Thief River Falls along with third place winner Justin Disterhaupt, also an eighth grader.

Seth Harlow wins Dist. spelling bee

Seth Harlow, seventh grader at Franklin middle school and son of Tom and Donna Harlow, won the School District 564 spelling bee Tuesday afternoon, February 7, at the Franklin school cafeteria.

Second place went to Hayden Goethe, son of Howard and Ann Goethe and third place to Justin Disterhaupt, son of Doug and Jody Disterhaupt. Hayden and Justin are both in the eighth grade at Franklin. All three top finishers will advance to the regional competition in March at Northland Community College in Thief River Falls.

Seth won the competition on the final round by correctly spelling the words "recipe" and "tremendous." In the same round, Justin missed on "absurdity" and Hayden misspelled "chivalry."

Under the contest rules, if only one contestant in the final round correctly spells the word given in order, he or she is given the opportunity to spell the next word on the pronouncer's list. If that word is spelled correctly, that contestant is declared the winner.

Twenty-five students from grades five through eight qualified for the contest but not all were present to compete.

Seth's final word was the 84th on the list with all other competitors eliminated in the first 82 words pronounced by Lowell Dyrud, English instructor at Lincoln high school, who served as pronouncer for the spelling bee.

Diane Marshall, instructor at Franklin middle school, was coordinator for the spelling bee. Judges for the event were Carol Trantry and Jane Miller, instructors at Challenger elementary school, and Marvin Lundin, editor of the Thief River Falls Times.

Qualifying to compete in the district spelling bee Tuesday as the top spellers at their grade level were the following:

Sara Sunllhy, Rebekah Salem, Bethany Brown, Sara Willis, Adam Knutt and Mitch Hjelle, all in fifth grade at Challenger elementary;

Taryn Pream, Melissa Adamson, Nate Kolaml, Angela Griffin, Karen Christensen and Kyle Swanson, all in sixth grade at Franklin;

Erin Rundell, sixth grader who won the St. Bernard's school spelling bee;

Seth Harlow, Matt Lotovsky, Jonathan Lofgren, Amber Morkrid, John Cox and Senja Lopac, seventh graders at Franklin;

Allen Bolar, Hayden Goethe, Matthew Koehmstedt, Justin Disterhaupt, Andy Janisch and Stephanie Wiseth, eighth graders at Franklin.

Words spelled correctly by the students in the oral spelling bee included the following:

Truly, gracious, diamond, experience, library, frighten, vanilla, journal, nickel, faucet, elephant, favorite, wrench, league, cellar, business, athlete, strength, muscle, aisle, genius, whether, fertile, luxury, college, chocolate, discipline, extremely, dissatisfied, physical and neighborhood.

Red Lake Watershed loses appeal on Maple Lake project

Minnesota Court of Appeals has upheld the Minnesota Department of Natural Resources' decision to deny a permit that would have allowed a $720,000 Red Lake Watershed District project to divert water from Poplar river to replenish Tamarac Lake and control water levels at Maple Lake.

Red Lake Watershed District received a petition to conduct work around Maple Lake in 1979. In 1989 it held its first public hearing on the project and had completed studies, which determined that benefits outweighed the costs. The Maple Lake Project, which would affect roughly 600 landowners, would augment lake levels in Maple Lake and bolster flood-control measures in the area near the lake. It would also restore Tamarac lake during periods of high water. Construction of the project, however, would involve building a dike on state-owned land, and the ultimate impact would include occasional flooding of substantial portions of the Polk Wildlife Management Area. After conducting the hearings and studies, the Red Lake Watershed District board applied to the Department of Natural Resources, which manages the affected state land, for a permit to work in public waters and begin work on the project. The DNR rejected the permit application stating that the watershed district lacked authority to condemn the land and that the DNR opposed using state land for this project.

Attorneys for the Red Lake Watershed District argued that the Red Lake Watershed District has authority to take state land for drainage projects. The court concluded, however, that the Watershed district has to obtain permission from the Commissioner of Natural Resources to perform work that would affect public waters, which establishes a hierarchy among two state agencies. It also stated that the watershed district did not characterize its Maple Lake Project as a drainage project and it lacked the power to condemn the land over the DNR's objection. The court also stated that "the project would put the land to a use inconsistent with its current use as part of the Polk Wildlife Management Area." It suggested that only "specific legislative authorization may overcome the state's preeminence in determining the ultimate use of this land."

Mark Hanson of Dougherty Rumble & Butler, the law firm representing the watershed district, said Tuesday that the result of this case changes the way watershed districts have been doing business in the state for 60 to 80 years. He added that the case is not based on whether the project was good or bad, but semantics. The watershed district believes it is a drainage project, but the court concludes that it is not a drainage project.

The legal brief from Hanson states that it has authority Minnesota Statute Chapter 117, and Chapter 103D to condemn state land already put to use as conservation lands. It notes that the watershed district is not attempting to radically expand its authority as asserted by the

Do not stand at my grave and weep. I am not there. I do not sleep. I am a thousand winds that blow. I am the diamond glints on snow. I am the sunlight on ripened grain. I am the gentle autumn rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush, I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circling flight. I am the soft star that shines at night. Do not stand at my grave and cry. I am not there, I did not die.——Sadly Missed By Your Family

Region One Board to meet February 15

Regional Coordinating Board One, representing 15 counties in northeastern Minnesota has announced their next board meeting will be held February 15 from 1:30 to 5:30 p.m. in the council chambers at the East Grand Forks City Hall, 303 Fourth Street.

The regional coordinating board, consisting of consumer, provider, employer, labor, health plan, public health and government representatives, was established by the 1992 MinnesotaCare Act and has been meeting since January 1993, working to identify issues they believe are top concerns about health care reform in the region. The board will continue to meet in several communities throughout the region in the coming months and encourages public attendance and participation.

The agenda will include an update on the Northern Plains HMO from Tim Sayler. There will be a review of legislative proposals for 1995 from the Minnesota council of HMOs, the Minnesota Hospital Association and the Minnesota Medical Association. Also included will be board discussion and recommendations on 24 aspects of health reform legislation. To allow the greatest participation possible, the board asks that public comment be limited to three minutes for each presenter. Written comments may be submitted instead of or in addition to an oral presentation.

Region One includes the following counties: Becker, Beltrami, Clay, Clearwater, Hubbard, Kittson, Lake of the Woods, Mahnomen, Marshall, Norman, Pennington, Polk, Red Lake, Roseau and Wilkin.

For more information or a copy of the annual report, call the Minnesota Department of Health at (612) 282-6356. The next board meeting is scheduled for March 15, 1995 in Moorhead.

SOUPCON

Sherry LaCoursiere

Today we will have sweet treats for Valentine's Day.

This cake would be a great Valentine treat.

DOUBLE CHOCOLATE MARSHMALLOW CAKE

4 (1 ounce) squares unsweetened chocolate, melted
4 tablespoons butter, melted
2 cups sugar
2 teaspoons soda
2 cups whole milk
3 cups sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
1/4 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons vanilla
4 egg whites, beaten stiff
Creamy White Frosting
Chocolate Glaze

Combine chocolate and butter and add sugar.

Combine flour, cream of tartar and salt and add to the chocolate mixture alternately with the milk.

Add vanilla. Fold in beaten egg whites.

Pour batter into 3 (9-inch) greased layer pans. Bake at 350 degrees for 20 to 25 minutes.

Creamy White Frosting

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup egg whites (5 or 6)
1 tablespoon white corn syrup
Pinch of cream of tartar

Place all ingredients in top of double boiler, stirring well to combine.

Heat over boiling water, stirring, until mixture reaches 150 degrees on a candy thermometer (about 6 minutes).

Remove from heat and pour into a bowl. Beat with mixer until icing is thick enough to spread.

Frost cool cake layers.

Chocolate Glaze

1 (1 ounce) square unsweetened chocolate
1 teaspoon butter

Melt chocolate with butter. Drop over the white frosting after it has been allowed to set.

These bars would be a good Valentine treat too:

LINZER BARS

1/2 cup butter or margarine
1/2 cup ground almonds
1 cup flour
1 egg
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 cup wild raspberry jam
1 cup coconut
1/2 cup slivered almonds

Combine butter with 1/3 cup of the sugar. Blend in ground almonds and flour. Press into 9x9 inch, ungreased pan and bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes.

Spread hot bars with jam. Beat egg with remaining sugar until well blended. Stir in slivered almonds and coconut and spoon over jam so the jam is completely covered.

Bake 20 to 25 minutes until golden brown.

Another sweet treat — this one made with cherries:

CHERRY OATMEAL DESSERT

1 1/2 cups quick oats
1 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon soda
3/4 cup brown sugar
3/4 cup melted butter
1 can cherry pie filling

Mix all ingredients except pie filling like pie crust, mixing well. Pat 1/2 of mixture in 9-inch square pan.

Pour cherry pie filling over the crust, then sprinkle with remainder of crust mixture.

Bake 35-45 minutes at 350 degrees. Serve with whipped cream or ice cream.

Something yummy for the chocoholic in the family:

CHOCOLATE MARSHMALLOW BARS

3/4 cup butter or margarine
1 1/2 cups sugar
3 eggs
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 tablespoons cocoa
1/2 cup chopped nuts
4 cups miniature marshmallows
8 ounces chocolate chips (1 1/3 cups)
3 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup peanut butter
2 cups crisp rice cereal

Cream 3/4 cup butter and sugar. Add eggs and vanilla and beat fluffy.

Combine flour, baking powder, salt and cocoa and add to above mixture. Stir in nuts and spread in greased jelly roll pan.

Bake at 350 degrees for 15-18 minutes. Sprinkle marshmallows evenly over cake and return to oven for 2 to 3 minutes.

Spread marshmallows over cake using a knife dipped in water. Cool.

For topping, combine chocolate chips, butter and peanut butter in small saucepan. Cook over low heat, stirring constantly, until melted and blended.

Remove from heat and stir in cereal. Spread over bars.

Comedians to take the stage at Winter Show

Red River Valley Winter Show in Crookston will offer two popular comedy duos: Williams & Ree who perform Friday, February 17, and outrageous comics Puke & Snot on Saturday, February 18. Each team presents two shows in the Winter Show's South Arena. Williams & Ree at 4:30 and 7 p.m. Friday, and Puke & Snot at 2 and 4 p.m. Saturday.

Two free country gospel concerts on Sunday, February 19, showcase Nashville's Fox Brothers. They begin at 1:30 and 4 p.m.

Williams & Ree, "the Indian and the white guy," have been delighting audiences since they first teamed up at college in Spearfish, SD, in 1968. The Scandinavian from Mountain Home, ID, and the Sioux from Pierre, SD, polished their act as members of a band with a repertoire of a dozen songs and a desperate need for entertaining patter between numbers - then took it on the road.

Today Bruce Williams and Terry Ree perform more than 200 dates each year, sharing the stage with superstars like Garth Brooks, the Oak Ridge Boys and Randy Travis. They have been regulars on "Hee Haw" and the Nashville Network.

Says Terry Ree, "The Indian and the white guy' routine was a natural for us right from the start. People never question our material or give us any flak. I mean I am an Indian and, in fact, we do our act at a lot of Indian conventions and before Indian groups. The truth of the matter is that we pick on everyone no matter what their background."

Puke & Snot (also known as Mark Sieve and Joe Kudla) have been called outrageous, ingenious, innovative and universally appealing, and praised for their uniquely creative use of unevoked vegetables. They are stars on the summer Renaissance Festival circuit, also bringing their show - sometimes dubbed "Shakespeare for Transients" - to performances at World's Fairs, Disney World, comedy clubs and college campuses across the country.

The Fox Brothers bring an entirely different spirit to their Sunday concerts. The Nashville performers combine country gospel standards and their own familiar songs, creating a mix of spiritual music. They were recently named "country group of the year" for the second time in the Voice Diamond Awards and nominated as finalists in The Nashville Network-Music City News Awards. Their hits include "Strong Family Resemblance," "Carry On," "Mama's Daily Bread" and "Somebody to Believe In."

For ticket information on Williams & Ree and Puke & Snot, call the Red River Valley Winter Show office at 1-800-827-1646 or (218) 281-2900.

LETTERS

To The Editor:

In recent years there has been a noticeable trend in the media to report the unusual as though it is the usual, the rare as though it is common, and the isolated as though it is widespread. This may be because the norm, the ordinary, the everyday occurrences are not sensational enough to increase circulation, sell advertising time or to improve the image and prestige of those doing the reporting.

While we all want the truth reported and would agree that the media serves as a source of valuable information and is a watchdog for society, it is equally important to put these events in appropriate perspective.

Sensational stories over the past few years would lead us to believe we should fear the people and the things that we depend on for the safety and well-being of our families and ourselves. These include our ministers, teachers, doctors, nurses, cars, the food we eat, the water we drink and the very air we breathe.

On January 26, 1995, there was a televised report on Channel 8 pertaining to anesthesia as practiced across the country. The program highlighted and focused on what we feel to be isolated and unusual anesthesia related complications in the United States. It would certainly be unfortunate if this report created unfounded fear and kept a patient from having a badly needed operation, perhaps even a life-saving operation.

The facts are that the decision to undergo a surgical procedure and anesthesia are best made by well-informed patients along with their physicians after having weighed the risks and benefits of such a procedure. Both surgery and anesthesia are [illegible] safer than they are [illegible] new medications, advanced monitoring techniques and the new technical advances in surgery allowing us to be less invasive and greatly shortening the recovery time for our patients. Whether the anesthesia is performed by an anesthesiologist or an anesthetist, the risk appears to be the same and the incidence of an anesthesia problem is one in 250,000.

We, the surgeons at Northwest Medical Center, wish to express publicly our confidence and thanks to our anesthesia colleagues who help us every day to provide a safe and necessary service for our community.

Sincerely,
Randall J. Bolar, M.D.
Jerome Bray, M.D.
Ernesto Padilla, M.D.

To The Editor:

I would like to publicly withdraw my name from the list of names that the Concerned Citizens Committee group of Roseau collected at the Roseau meeting on Tuesday, January 10, 1995.

I have lived in Roseau county for more than 40 years—five years in Beaver township and 35+ years in Moranville township. I have been self-employed most of those years since I was 18. I have done a lot of sales related work throughout Roseau county, visited with a lot of farmers and factory workers. I don't believe the professional politician that represents the Concerned Citizens Committee represents the ethics and high standards of county residents.

What we are getting from Bob Berglund is some more politics that is saying, "I know what is best for you, so you don't need to vote. Let me decide."

To Roseau-based politicians, corruption is someone giving a gift to the City of Warroad to pay for a new courthouse. Then the community of Roseau cries out "strings attached!"

I think that the Marvin family has given you a big gift with no strings attached over the past three or four decades. They have been pumping money into your business district through all the employment they have given to the county. They were there when Polaris was struggling to exist. If I were you I wouldn't burn too many bridges.

In my way of thinking, corruption is power players in Roseau trying to steal my right to vote.

There is only one reason Mr Berglund is doing his power moves on the county. He is living in the fear of the thought that the majority of the people in the county are not on his side of the issue.

I personally live and believe in a very conservative style of government. I learned this the hard way. My living quarters consist of a shelter in the west end of my barn and my main business vehicle is a 1963 IH pickup which is robin's egg blue, has one red door and one yellow door which I borrowed out of my junk pile. Sometimes I think pride goes a little too far.

We can't afford any new taxes whether they be $25 or $2,500. We never held a job in D.C.

Sincerely,
Russ Walker

Add One More Place Government Should Not Be Involved

After failing to make an impact on settlement of the major league baseball strike through either appointment of William J. Usery as a mediator or meeting personally with owners and player representatives, President of the United States Bill Clinton has said he intends to ask Congress to pass legislation to force binding arbitration.

"Clearly, they are not capable of settling this without an umpire," President of the United States Clinton said. "The only way to do this appears to be for Congress to step up to the plate and pass the legislation."

Catchy metaphor, Mr. President of the United States—comparable to saying you went for a double play but made two errors instead...or that two strikes have already been called against you and an appeal to Congress could well be the third.

We repeatedly refer to you as President of the United States to call attention to what your position is. You are not president of the major leagues, a major league baseball team, nor the players association. The fact of the matter is that the major league baseball strike is another place the federal government does not belong.

It may be that major league baseball in the past has been granted special consideration in regard to anti-trust law. If that is so, it is now an existing condition that should have no bearing on the present work stoppage. It is certainly true that termination of a major league baseball season last year had an adverse economic impact that was devastating to many people and that continued suspension of play in 1995 will add to that situation.

Baseball team owners and major league baseball players must be allowed to come to a consensus (or come to their senses) among themselves. A workable agreement is essential to all parties. Owners know it, players know it, fans know it, apparently Congress knows it....the President of the United States should know it. But it must be allowed to evolve within the confines of major league owners and players. They have created the conditions and they must resolve them.

The President of the United States must have received the message from his failed attempts that it takes more to put the players on the field than to cry out "Play Ball!"

Budget Cutters Take Aim At Entitlements.... But Can't Pull Trigger

According to the Concord Coalition, a national organization dedicated to eliminating federal budget deficits, Social Security benefit payments will exceed taxes collected to pay for them by the year 2013. The coalition projects that by 2029 the Social Security Trust Fund will have been used up because of "radical demographic changes."

These are frightening projections, not only to recipients of Social Security benefits but to anyone who expects supplemental retirement income from Social Security at any point in the future.

A Bipartisan Commission on Entitlement and Tax Reform—a 32-member panel of elected officials and private citizens—has offered a plan to cut back various entitlements and tax breaks over the next 40 years. Current age of full retirement, now at 65, is scheduled to rise to 67 by 2027—a time which many claim is too late. The commission proposes raising the full retirement age to 70 by the year 2037.

At the present rate, the commission warns, spending on entitlements and interest on the national debt will exceed tax revenues by 2012, just 17 years from now, and America will be broke. That's another frightening thought.

Congress is not ready to tighten the clamps on entitlements although its members are willing to talk of making deep budget cuts. House Majority Leader Richard Armey of Texas has admitted: "The fact of the matter is once members of Congress know exactly, chapter and verse, the pain that the government must live with in order to get a balanced budget, their knees will buckle."

There is good reason for the hesitancy besides adverse public opinion. It is succinctly pointed out by the American Association of Retired Persons that "These are social insurance programs in which everyone who pays and meets the legal qualifications is eligible to receive benefits."

In other words, Social Security and Medicare are earned entitlements. Employees and their employers or those who are self-employed have made payments into the system over many years with the expectation of return upon retirement. If the system had operated as intended and the payments been properly invested as they should have been, there should be no financial problem with the trust fund now or in the future.

Marketing seminars set in Kennedy

A marketing seminar will be held at The Cafe in Kennedy February 16 and March 2 and will run from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. Featured speaker will be Mark Skogerboe, Kittson county native and long-time broker and trader. The seminar is sponsored by the Karlstad-Lancaster-Greenbush Farm Business Management program.

Skogerboe will present "Marketing and More with Futures and Options." His discussion will not only involve marketing grain and livestock commodities, but also touch on using futures markets and options to protect prices for purchased inputs such as heating oil, fertilizer, interest rates and other topics of importance to today's producers.

Skogerboe is an experienced broker and trader, having his own brokerage and more recently has been affiliated with Benson Quinn Commodities. Skogerboe has been trading on the futures market since 1980 and has studied and traded futures options since they were first introduced in 1984. He has taught numerous marketing classes to area farmers, sharing his knowledge, expertise and personal insights in an effort to help producers take advantage of opportunities to manage risk and improve profitability.

Topics to be addressed the first session, February 16, will include an introduction to marketing and price forecasting based on supply and demand (fundamentals); marketing and price forecasting using charts (technical analysis); and a brief introduction to futures.

In the second session, March 2, Skogerboe will address terms, mechanics and strategies of futures and options and getting the most service from a broker. All sessions begin at 10 a.m. and will run until about 2 p.m. with a break for lunch. Lunch will be available for purchase at The Cafe.

Enrollment will be limited. Individuals wishing to attend must call 436-3261 or 436-2261 to register. Lynn W. Carlson, FBM instructor, is organizing the event and will provide additional information if needed.

All farmers are encouraged to attend. A tuition fee will be charged to persons not enrolled in the Karlstad-Lancaster-Greenbush or Thief River Falls Farm Business Management Programs. Participants will earn one credit through Northwest Technical College.

LETTERS

To The Editor:

The largest problem in America today, in my opinion, is the moral decay of our society. It looks like the ones responsible for this are our district judge and County Attorney and Prosecutor.

If a man can admit to a crime to our sheriff and then make a plea agreement with the County Attorney and Prosecutor, why in the world do we have a State guideline for punishment? This is ludicrous to me and many others.

How can a felony be reduced to a misdemeanor in two years? Isn't a felony a felony? Can a man have a permit to carry a loaded, concealed pistol after these two years? We as citizens better remember Judge Dennis Murphy may be soft on crime, and our own County Attorney and Prosecutor Alan Rogalla may be soft on crime, in the next election.

Wake up and smell the coffee, judicial system! Criminals are the ones supposed to serve time, not the victim. We as citizens will be watching, so keep that in mind when sentencing on March 13, 1995. A misfeasance judicial system has no place in our country or county. This is supposed to be America still, not some Third World judicial system. This country was founded on the principle of "In God We Trust," so let's start being just judges and prosecutors.

Sincerely,
Jerry Unruh
Thief River Falls

P.S. If you are concerned, send a letter to Judge Dennis Murphy and Prosecutor Alan Rogalla, both of Thief River Falls. Your input is needed at once.

(Editor's Note: Persons mentioned in the foregoing letter were provided the opportunity to respond in the same issue in which the original letter appears. Following is a response to the letter above.)

To The Editor:

In reference to the Letter to the Editor from Jerry Unruh, there are a couple of matters that should be pointed out.

First, the manner in which this case was handled was at the request and consistent with what the victim in this case desired. Second, to my knowledge and according to the sheriff, the crime that this letter to the editor addresses was not admitted to the sheriff or any officer.

My main reason for writing is to clarify the situation raised by the two questions asked. First, a felony reduced to a misdemeanor is called a "Stay of Imposition" and is a common way to handle first time offenders. The result does not remove a felony from an individual's record for future cases as far as sentencing may be concerned, nor does it remove the criminal sexual offender status the individual obtains.

In reference to the question about the carried, concealed pistol, let me address that on two concerns. First, under the gun permit law, a person convicted of a Criminal Sexual Conduct in the Third Degree charge would be ineligible to carry a pistol for a period of 10 years after being discharged from any probation.

Second, under the Restoration of Civil Rights Statute, a person convicted of Criminal Sexual Conduct in the Third Degree would be ineligible to possess any type of firearm for a period of 10 years after probation. Thus, a weapon is not a question for a period of 10 years of discharge on this particular crime or any crime of violence. (This is never said in court as the law sets it out without the necessity of referring to it in court on every single case that is a violent offense.)

In closing, as indicated by Mr. Unruh, a victim has rights under Minnesota law. Some of those rights include the right to a quick and speedy resolution of any matter involving them without the necessity of having to go through the pressures of a trial. In this specific case, the victim requested a resolution of this matter as speedily as possible and did not want the defendant to go to jail. Our office handled the matter exactly how the victim desired the case to be handled.

Sincerely,
David Olin
Pennington County Attorney

Snowshoe workshop to be held in Fertile Feb. 15

Many people throughout the north country enjoy the life-long sport of snowshoeing. Snowshoeing provides the best access for enjoying and viewing nature during winters with normal and above normal snow cover. A good pair of quality snowshoes that are properly maintained can last a lifetime or more! Unlike some athletic equipment they can also be easily shared among family and friends.

Learning how to make your snowshoes can greatly enhance your snowshoeing experience. Two snowshoe-making workshops are being offered by Agassiz Environmental learning center of Fertile. On Wednesay, February 15, in cooperation with the Dilworth-Glyndon-Felton Community Education department, a snowshoe program and snowshoe making workshop will be held starting at 7 p.m at the Glyndon school building. On Sunday, February 26, another workshop wil be held starting at 1 p.m during the annual Snofest event in the Fertile Sand Hills at Fertile.

After enjoying a short presentation on snowshoeing, participants will learn how to lace snowshoes. Those interested may elect to purchasase a high-quality Ojibway-style snowshoe kit, bindings and finishing supplies. These will be available at a cost of $75 per set. Those wishing to obtain a snowshoe-making kit must pre-register at least four days before the workshop. Call Joe Gartner, the instructor at (218) 945-6503 (work) or (218) 926-5620 (home) for more information and/or to pre-register.

Local professionals attend meeting on domestic violence

On January 26-27, a conference devoted to the subject of domestic violence was held in Bemidji. This conference was jointly sponsored by the Ninth Judicial District Domestic Violence Council and the Ninth District Judicial Administration office, and was the result of a grant from the State Justice Institute. At the invitation of the Minnesota Supreme Court Chief Justice, Sandy Keith, participants attended from each of the 17 counties in the Ninth District.

Five to six people from each of the counties were invited to attend as a team. The teams consisted of people from the following categories: survivors of domestic violence, battered women's advocates, law enforcement officers, prosecuting attorneys, probation officers and court service personnel, court administration, social workers, mental health professionals, batterers' treatment personnel, and judges.

Those attending for the Pennington county team included: Judge Dennis Murphy, Police Chief Ken Froschheiser, city prosecutor Delray Sparby, county prosecutor Alan Rogalla, and Violence Intervention Project advocates Desirae' Varner, Kelly Rogalla, and Judith Anderson.

The intent of the conference was to facilitate the creation of county coordinating councils which will strive to ensure that their community responds to domestic violence cases in a consistent manner and works to ensure the greatest safety for victims of this crime. Some of the counties within the Ninth District already have formed domestic violence coordinating councils, and they have already completed several goals that they have set for themselves. Pennington County has had a domestic violence council since July of 1993.

The conference presented three nationally and internationally known speakers who spoke movingly on domestic violence: Sarah Buehl, Domestic Violence prosecutor from Norfolk county, MA, who was featured in a 60 Minutes segment Quincy; Ellen Pence, training coordinator for Duluth Domestic Abuse Intervention Project; and Sergeant Ches Williams, supervisor, family violence unit Dallas police department.

Other workshops featured local speakers and trainers and the topics included: domestic violence from the perspective of law enforcement and defense, treatment for batterers, effects of domestic violence on children, civil and criminal law, a panel of formerly battered women, custody implications in domestic violence cases and the use of visitation centers, abuse prevention, prosecuting domestic violence perpetrators, legal services/response to domestic violence.

Communities need to be seriously addressing domestic violence, and the formation of local councils is a good start. The statistics on domestic violence are startling. Between 1988 and 1995, 152 women were murdered in Minnesota as a result of domestic violence. Many, many children were also casualties. Domestic violence is a serious, pervasive issue that affects everyone in society, and it is heartening to know that each segment of our communities are willing to address this social problem for what it truly is, a crime.

Candlelight, moonlight cross-county ski event

A candlelight/moonlight ski event will be held from 6 to 10 p.m. Sunday, February 12, and from 6 to 10 p.m. Saturday, February 18 at Old Mill State Park. Ski passes are required for all people 16-65 years of age, and may be purchased at the park. Daily passes for the ski trails are $1 with one year and three-year passes available.

Skis are now available to rent at the park office. Approximately 20 sets of skis, boots and poles in a variety of sizes from children's to adult's may be rented for $6.50 a set. If you have never tried this winter sport this is a wonderful, inexpensive chance to check it out.

A snow shoe interpretive hike will be offered free at 4 p.m. Sunday, February 12, and at 4 p.m. Sunday, February 19. Space is limited to 15, if more than 15 sign up, a second hike will be given following the first. Snow shoes may be rented at other times for $5 a day at the park.

The picnic shelter will be the warming house for the winter months for park visitors. Snowmobiles may ride down to the shelter and warm up this winter. Please do not snowmobile on the cross-country ski trails. It destroys the skiers' track.

Vehicle permits are required to enter the park. The 1995 annual permits may be purchased and will allow entry at 66 Minnesota State Parks from now until December 31, 1995.

Please call (218) 437-8174 or write Old Mill State Park, route 1, Box 43, Argyle, MN 56713 for more information.

Weatherman to visit second grade students

To talk about the science of meteorology, KTHI-TV weatherman Tom Szymanski will speak to second graders during two morning assemblies at Challenger elementary school commons in Thief River Falls Thursday, February 16.

Elizabeth Quick, science technician at Challenger, said that as part of their Air and Weather Science unit, second graders are exploring the nature of air, keeping a daily weather journal and learning about weather instruments.

"Weather is the kind of science children at this age relate to easily," Quick said. "Meteorology, the science of weather, has a very real application in their daily lives."

A native of Stevens Point, WI, Szymanski has a bachelor's degree in geography from East Carolina University and a master's degree in meteorology from the University of Nebraska. He has been at KTHI-TV since 1992.

Olson attends conference on tourism

Julie Olson was in Brooklyn Center January 26-27 for Minnesota's annual conference on tourism. The conference took place at the Earle Brown Heritage Center in Brooklyn Center, just north of Minneapolis. This year's theme was "Tools for Change," which refers to new technologies, new marketing and workplace challenges and adapting to these changes to benefit the industry.

The conference's keynote speaker was Michael McKinley, president of McKinley Companies and president of the National Speakers Association. The topic of his speech was "Simple Tools for a Complex Worlds." McKinley has worked with the Carlson Companies, Circle Wisconsin, and Northwest Airlines.

State Tourism Director Hank Todd discussed some of the emerging technologies that have changed Minnesota tourism marketing methods.

Vocalist Diane Johnson (right), accompanied by Ida Nordvall on the piano, will entertain Sunday, February 12, during the open house sponsored by the Friends of the Thief River Falls Library at the library. Open house hours will be from 1 to 5 p.m. with the entertainment program from 2 to 3 p.m. Everyone interested in the local library is encouraged to attend. Diane is a music graduate of Bemidji State University and currently instructs vocal students for Northland Community College as well as giving other private music lessons.

Court upholds DNR in appeal on case

DNR. "Nothing could be further from reality." "The Watershed District is simply asking this court to re-affirm what has been the water law of this state for years."

Lowell Enerson, Red Lake Watershed District manager, said that the board of directors will meet sometime next week after meeting with Senator Stumpf. They are considering three options: 1) appeal the case to the Minnesota Supreme Court, 2) Introduce special legislation to complete the Maple Lake project, which has verbal support from Senators Stumpf, Moe and Lieder, or 3) Stop the project.

Enerson said they have drafted special legislation in preparation of seeking special legislation.

Right now, Enerson said they are worried about the possible precedent set by this decision. In effect, it would allow any landowner the right to stop condemnation process for a project just by objecting to the project. This would place an incredible burden on agencies such as the watershed district.

Farmers need crop insurance

Conservation Reserve Program

The U.S.D.A. has announced proposals which will offer new options for CRP. The CFSA can now offer a five-year extension of present contracts if landowners agree to the solid planting of certain trees. Also offered is a one-year extension of all contracts which are due to expire in 1995. Other proposals include: an early release from present CRP contract, a sign-up for new contracts to replace the acreage of those who want to withdraw, and a 10-year extension of existing contracts, subject to a re-evaluation of soil types and rental rates. As soon as any of these contract changes become available, farmers will be notified.

Dairy Refund

Dairy producers who reduced their milk marketing during 1994 as compared to 1993 will be eligible for a refund of certain assessments paid in during the year. Northland men have hot hand in 118-88 basketball win...

Pioneers gun down Raiders

Unpleasant displays of offensive fireworks were unloaded Wednesday as the Northland Community College men's basketball team closed out its 1994-95 home schedule with a 119-88 win over Brainerd.

Tim Olson, Anthony Kallod and Gary Carey, along with drives by Demond Watson, gave Northland a strong inside game, but the Pioneers really made noise on the outside. They shot 58 percent from the field for the game, and 13 of those were 3-pointers as Chad Kujava, Preston Treat, Watson and others hit it up big time.

Sharp passing led to the high percentage shooting, explained Northland coach Mark Dannhoff. "We made some excellent passes to the open man," he pointed out. "This is college basketball. You're suppose to make those shots. It's just that it's a lot harder to do it with a hand in your face."

Kujava finished with 20 points, while Treat had 18, Watson 16, Olson 12, and Carey 11 as Northland kept its faint hopes alive of landing a Minnesota Community College Conference state tournament spot. The Pioneers are 7-13 overall and 4-7 in the Northern Division, where they are vying with Rainy River and Fergus Falls for the fourth and final spot from the Northern Division. They close out regular season play Monday at Fergus Falls.

"We were ready to play tonight," noted Dannhoff. "Everybody contributed. We went after every loose ball and every rebound. We wanted Monday to mean something. Our sophomores didn't want to let it (state tournament hopes) go."

Only Brainerd lead of the night was 4-3 two minutes into the game. A 15-0 Northland run gave the Pioneers an 18-4 lead that was never challenged. It was an impressive 50-34 at intermission and the spread never dropped below double figures in the second half.

Mike Rogers, the leading scorer in the Northern Division with a 23.8 average, caught fire from the outside toward the end and led the Raiders with a game-high 22 points. Darin Hoepner hit 19.

Brainerd was 30-for-81 from the field (41 percent) and 13-for-19 at the free throw line, where Northland was a productive 20-for-28. The Pioneers had a 39-34 rebound edge. The 4-16 Raiders, who fell into the Northern Division basement at 2-8, topped the turnover charts 22-17.

Demond Watson drew contact from Brainerd defender Mika Rogers as the Northland guard tried to drive to the basket in the men's portion of Wednesday's community college basketball doubleheader at Northland. Watson scored 16 points in the Pioneers' 119-88 win.

Grygla-Gatzke winning streak ends vs. Bears

Grygla-Gatzke win streak that reached nine games with a 55-41 home court victory over Red Lake Falls Monday came to an end the next night in Baudette, where the Eagles lost a 66-57 boys high school basketball match-up.

Slowed by illness and frustrated by the calls, the Eagles watched a 19-14 first quarter lead turn into a 31-23 halftime deficit that became a 44-33 spread by the end of the third quarter. A fourth quarter comeback that cut the difference to a single point with three minutes left looked like it might resume the win streak, but fatigue set in down the stretch.

"We played an awfully poor second quarter," acknowledged Grygla-Gatzke coach Vern Johnson. "We gave up way too many easy shots."

The Bears' Matt Speiker dominated the inside as the 6-3 junior scored a game-high 19 points, grabbed 9 rebounds and blocked four shots. Jeremy Verbout led the Eagles with 17 points.

Grygla-Gatzke shot 50 percent from the field (26/52) and at the free throw line (7/14), but watched Lake of the Woods shoot 59 percent from the floor (26/44) and 61 percent at the line (11/18). The Bears held off the Eagles' comeback with a fourth quarter that included 6-for-6 shooting from the field and a 10-for-15 showing at the line.

The Eagles are 11-6.

TRF girls pull away at the end

■ Prowlers hit fourth quarter shots against Lakers

Three quarters worth of offense was nearly doubled in the final eight minutes Tuesday as the Thief River Falls girls came up with a 25 point finish in a 51-38 Section 8AA Sub-Section 4 high school basketball win over Detroit Lakes.

The host Prowlers led at the quarter stops 10-7, 20-16 and 26-23 before taking charge with a fourth quarter shooting display that featured a 7-for-14 figure from the field and 11 of 15 free throws.

"The fourth quarter turned the game around," confirmed Thief River Falls coach Sally Wiltse. "We got the ball inside. They (Lakers) gave us the openings underneath and we got the ball to those people."

It was the Prowlers' second win in three meetings with the Lakers this winter, putting them at 4-14 for the year.

"We played pretty well. It was a nice win," said Wiltse.

Nicole Kopari led a balanced Thief River Falls attack that had five players scoring between 13 and 8 points. Amy Fredrickson scored 10 points to lead Detroit Lakes.

For the game, the Prowlers were 18-for-65 from the field (28 percent) and 15-for-28 at the free throw line. The 2-17 Lakers went 13-for-43 from the floor (30 percent) and 10-for-17 at the line. Thief River Falls had a 35-31 rebound edge. Detroit Lakes had more turnovers, 22-16.

TRF hockey team beats Bemidji 5-1

First-year Thief River Falls coach Pat Cullen has been waiting all season for everything to fall into place. The Prowlers finally came through Tuesday in an impressive 5-1 high school hockey win over Bemidji at the Huck Olson Memorial Civic Center.

"It was a very good game for us," said Cullen. "It's probably the best we've played all year for three periods by all three lines. We got some scoring from some people who haven't been scoring a lot, and defensively we didn't give them very many good scoring opportunities."

Aaron Ehrenstrom scored twice for the Prowlers, who had a 1-0 first period lead and a 2-0 second period edge. Keith Anderson, Jason Breiland and Tim Barry also scored for the Prowlers, who improved their record to 8-11-1 at the start of a regular season-ending three-game home stand. They face Fergus Falls tonight (Saturday) and take on Detroit Lakes Tuesday to complete the schedule.

Nick Chiodo collected three assists as the Prowlers wrapped up a home-and-home sweep against the 8-10 Lumberjacks.

Scoring

First period - TRF, Aaron Ehrenstrom (Nick Chiodo-Keith Anderson), 8:29.

Second period - TRF, Anderson (un.), 5:07.

Grembowski pinned Brett McDougall of Valley in 45 seconds and defeated Bill Johnson of East Grand Forks 2-0.

McLendon pinned Nathan Vasquez of Schroeder before losing to Heath Lancot of Valley in the finals.

Hruby pinned Justin Rasmussen of Valley in 49 seconds, lost to Jako Snedel of Schroeder in the semifinals, beat Josh Vigness of South in the wrestle-backs, then gave up an injury default in the third place match.

Shorthanded NCC women lose 68-52

A short bench caught up with the Northland Community College women's basketball team in the second half Wednesday as the Pioneers faltered down the stretch in a 68-52 Northern Division loss to Brainerd.

Trailing just 32-31 at halftime and down only 44-40 with 8:03 remaining, a seven-player Northland squad simply ran out of gas while being doubled 24-12 at the end.

Starting forward/center Angel Mickelson missed the game because of an injury and reserve guard Kristy Johnson was out because of health reasons as the Pioneers fell to 7-12 overall and 6-6 in the Northern Division, where there are four available Minnesota Community College Conference state tournament berths.

When the Pioneers' energy level neared the empty mark, the Raiders found themselves presented with a batch of open shots from the 12-to-15 foot range. And they hit them – 7-in-a-row to turn the 44-40 game into a 58-42 affair and 12 of their last 15 overall.

"We got tired," acknowledged Northland coach Rick Nikunen. "We became a half-step slow. We knew they were good shooters, and we knew we had to get out to cover them. We just weren't able to do it."

Nikki Iverson, who drilled three straight shots from the side to begin the late-game shooting chime, led the winners with 18 points while Angie Evenson had 16 and Thief River Falls freshman Lori DeLap contributed 10. Kelli Kronschnabel and Gina Silverson led the Pioneers with 17 and 14 points, respectively.

It was the final home game of the year for the Pioneers, who will finish with MCCC games Monday at Fergus Falls and Friday at Itasca.

"We're still alive, but now we have to win Monday," said Nikunen.

Swimmers join forces at Crookston

Sportsmanship superseded competition Tuesday at the annual Crookston Smash boys high school swim meet.

The event matched a combined Thief River Falls and Crookston/Fertile-Beltrami team against a Bagley/Fosston and Park Rapids Area combination. Each school supplied 12 swimmers for the event, won by Thief River Falls-Crookston/Fertile-Beltrami outfit 534-473.

"It was a lot of fun," reported Thief River Falls coach Ryan Lokken. "It's something where we're trying to promote sportsmanship, and the kids, on a whole, swam well."

Competition featured two point-producing heats in each individual event, with the accumulated totals producing the "team" champion.

Gators lose to Ponies in last seconds, 51-50

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River turned over a 51-50 boys high school basketball decision to Warren-Alvarado-Oslo Tuesday with a rash of late-game mistakes that ultimately led to a winning bucket by the Ponies' Travis Boman in the final seconds.

The Gators, who stretched their winning streak to six games when Russell Larson scored 17 points, Richard Klein 16 and Matt Kuznia 15 in a 69-45 conquest of Roseau Friday, saw a 47-42 lead disappear in the final six minutes against the Ponies in Greenbush.

Five turnovers, one field goal and one free throw were part of the Gators' late-game collapse. They were still ahead 50-49 with 13 seconds left before an errant Badger/Greenbush-Middle River inbounds pass was picked off by Boman, who then hit his game-winner.

"It was a good basketball game," pointed out Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Eldon Sparby. "We played well until the final 3-4 minutes when we starting making some foolish turnovers."

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River was 21-for-54 from the field (40 percent) and 7-for-10 at the free throw line. Warren-Alvarado-Oslo went 19-for-50 from the floor (38 percent) and 9-for-15 at the line. The 13-3 Gators had a 37-21 rebound advantage, but also had more turnovers, 16-12.

RLCC tops Goodridge in double-ot

Red Lake County Central emerged an 80-78 winner over Goodridge Tuesday in a double-overtime boys high school basketball showdown at Plummer.

"It was really wild," reported Goodridge coach John Rahn. "It was back and forth all night. Both teams were hitting their shots, and neither side could stop the other one. It was something else. It was a shame either one had to lose."

Red Lake County started with a 24-16 first quarter lead. Goodridge went ahead 40-39 at halftime, fell behind again, 54-48, at the end of the third quarter, then pulled even when Johnny Gallagher hit two free throws in the final seconds of regulation time to tie things at 61-61.

First overtime failed to resolve the issue that remained deadlocked at 68-68.

After doing most of its scoring inside, Red Lake County Central beat a Goodridge zone from the outside in the second overtime when Scott Lorenson, scoreless to that point, hit three treys.

The Huskies countered with 3-pointers by Brady Wiseth and Mitch Sinsky and were still within 79-78 when the Mustangs' Aaron Chaput made the front end of a bonus free throw opportunity with five seconds left. Goodridge grabbed the rebound on the second attempt, but without a time-out to call, had to hurry just to put up a desperation half-court throw that was off the mark at the buzzer.

Chaput finished with a Red Lake County Central record 40 points. Aaron Rosten added 21. Wiseth and Sinsky both scored 22 for the Huskies while Martin Dahlen contributed 12.

"It was a fun game to watch," offered Red Lake County Central coach Todd Fore, whose team was coming off a 72-69 Friday night loss to Warren-Alvarado-Oslo when the Mustangs saw a six-point lead disappear in the final two minutes. Rosten scored 23 that night, with Chaput netting 16, Lorenson 15 and Bryce Huotari 13.

The Mustangs are 12-5. The Huskies are a similar 12-4.

Northland women win weekend pair

Two narrow wins on a Feb. 4/5 weekend road trip kept the Northland Community College women's basketball team in contention for a Minnesota Community College Conference state tournament berth.

Friday, the Pioneers out-scored Vermilion 77-72 in Ely and Saturday got by Mesabi 45-43 in Virginia.

An injury kept Kelli Kronschnabel out of the starting line up for the first time this season, but the Northland sophomore was still a force with a game-high 33 points off the bench as Northland beat Vermilion 77-72.

"It was a really good game," reported Northland coach Rick Nikunen. "It was probably our second best effort of the year."

Northland trailed 35-31 at halftime, but out-scored Vermilion 46-37 over the final 20 minutes.

Effects of close Friday night games took a toll on the caliber of play for both teams Saturday afternoon as Northland downed Mesabi 45-43.

"It was not pretty to watch," admitted Northland coach Rick Nikunen. "Both teams were extremely tired. There were a lot of turnovers and both teams shot poorly."

Kelli Kronschnabel finished a 52-point weekend for the Pioneers with a game-high 19 points, including a rebound basket with 20 seconds left to break a 43-43 tie.

Poor free throw shooting costs Mustangs girls

Missed free throws cost Red Lake County Central Thursday in a 65-56 girls high school basketball loss to Win-E-Mac.

The Mustangs were just 5-for-20 at the line in Oklee as their record fell to 4-11.

Win-E-Mac had quarter leads of 17-13, 33-27 and 55-34.

Pioneers split two men's ball games

Two solid outings netted the Northland Community College men's basketball team a Feb. 4/5 weekend road split as the Pioneers tripped Vermilion 75-74 Friday and fell to Mesabi 84-71 Saturday.

Vermilion........................74

Chad Kujava, fouled on a 3-point field goal attempt with 14 seconds left, hit all three free throws to lift Northland past Vermilion 75-74 in Ely.

"It was an outstanding effort by everybody," said Northland coach Mark Dannhoff, whose team led 34-29 at halftime.

Mesabi pulled away at the end en route to an 84-71 win over Northland in Virginia.

The Pioneers led 34-33 at halftime and stayed close until a 24-for-34 Mesabi afternoon at the free throw line finally took its toll. Northland also had chances at the line, but a 19-for-29 showing didn't get the job done.

"The game was much closer than the final score indicates," said Northland coach Mark Dannhoff. "We played well. We played basketball like we want to, but you can't be missing free throws like that against the good teams."

Dennis Biliske receives several auctioneer awards

Dennis Biliske of Dennis Biliske Auctioneers has been named 1995 Minnesota State Auctioneers Association Champion Auctioneer and the 1995 North Dakota Auctioneers Association president.

At the annual convention in Brainerd, 25 auctioneers competed for the coveted champion auctioneer title. Five finalists were chosen and Biliske's speed, clarity and appearance earned him the champion title.

At the 43rd annual convention in Bismarck, ND, Biliske was elected by a panel of his peers to guide the North Dakota Association as its president.

In addition to these accolades, Biliske also received three advertising awards at the Minnesota convention and a first place color advertising award from the North Dakota Association.

Polaris sets record sales

Polaris Industries Inc. has announced record sales and earnings for the fourth quarter and year ended Dec. 31, 1994, the sixth consecutive year of record sales and earnings.

The company recorded full-year 1994 sales of $826,286,000, a 56 per cent increase from the previous year. Pro forma net income (assuming Polaris were a tax-paying corporation for the entire year) was $54,703,000 for 1994, a 66 per cent increase over pro forma net income of $33,027,000 for 1993. Pro forma earnings per share increased to $2.97 from $1.81 in 1993.

Polaris CEO Hall Wendel said the company had an "outstanding" fourth quarter in which sales were $241,561,000 up 69 per cent over 1993 sales of $142,858,000.

Pro forma net income in the quarter was $19,600,000, an 83 per cent increase over pro forma net income of $18,715,000 for the fourth quarter of 1993. Pro forma net income per share was $1.06 for the 1994 period compared with $0.59 for the 1993 period.

At Dec. 31, 1994, Polaris had cash and cash equivalents of $62,881,000 compared with $33,798,000 for the prior year. Annual cash flows from operating activities, Wendel said, remain "extremely strong," increasing 41 per cent to $111,669,000 in 1994, compared with $79,324,000 in 1993.

"These results cap off a truly remarkable year for Polaris," Wendel said. "We continue to enjoy record worldwide demand for our products. For the full year snowmobile sales increased 30 per cent and all terrain vehicles (ATV) sales jumped 33 per cent in response to significant new models introduced in 1994. Sales of personal watercraft (PWC) grew by 142 per cent to reach $115,000,000 in just our third year in this fast growing market."

The company ended the year with low field inventories in all product lines, Wendel said. "Despite marginal snowfalls in many parts of the country, snowmobile field inventories are extremely low. In the case of ATVs and PWC, we have very low field inventories with 1995 advance orders up from record levels in the year before.

"The moves we've made over the past several years to diversify our product lines should serve us well in 1995," Wendel said. "We look for sales and earnings to continue to increase, although not at the pace of the fourth quarter or the full-year 1994, which were truly remarkable."

In December of 1994 shareholders overwhelmingly voted to convert Polaris from a master limited partnership to a corporation. The conversion was structured to meet the needs of long-standing income-oriented investors and new growth-oriented investors. A key element in the conversion is a planned series of regular and special dividends which will give shareholders the same amount of cash they would have received had Polaris remained a master limited partnership through 1997.

In January of 1995 Polaris announced the first of the planned three special distributions of $1.92 per share will be paid on April 1, 1995, to shareholders of record on March 17, 1995.

MARK FINLEY and his associates are well qualified to present this series of classes. They have intensely studied the Bible prophecies of Daniel and Revelation, comparing them to current events and world history. For the last ten years Mark has spoken to thousands in Europe and the Middle East observing the fulfillment of prophecy firsthand.
His lectures on Bible prophecy behind the former Iron Curtain in Hungary, Poland, Yugoslavia and most recently Russia have attracted thousands. Recently he addressed capacity crowds twice nightly in the former Communist Party Congress Auditorium inside the Kremlin. His prophecy presentation in Moscow's Olympic Stadium drew over 55,000 people. Mark is joined by a highly qualified team of professionals across North America.
Your faith in God will increase and you will be able to face the future with greater confidence as you attend Discoveries in Prophecy.

TRF council OKs alternate truck route

Thief River Falls city council has gone on record as in favor of a Highway 59 alternate truck route. After presentation of a memo from the office of the community development director and engineering service director, the council approved a resolution in favor of the route. A public hearing on the proposal will be held 7 p.m. February 28 in the Pennington county courthouse.

In addition to the alternate truck route, the council also discussed plans and specifications for the 1995 street, sidewalk and utilities project, plans for a gazebo at Floyd B. Olson park, and many other items.

The concept of an alternate truck route from the intersection of Highways 1 and 59 around the southwestern section of the city to Highway 32 has been discussed for many years. The concept has been included in the city's comprehensive plans since 1970.

The rationale for support as stated in the memo to the city council states that the alternate truck route would address safety and traffic flow concerns, surface water drainage problems, and economic development.

Heavy truck traffic on Highway 59 has created some traffic congestion in the downtown business district and construction of the proposed route would provide traveling public and trucks a route that would avoid the busy downtown area. Expansion at Arctco, Digi-Key, Bridgeman's, SwisPen Co, and the Occupational Development Center would add to congestion. The state is also planning to locate a Highway department office and shop near Westside Motors. Snowplows and other maintenance vehicles would not have to travel through downtown.

Heavy trucks have been using Barzen, but is not designed to handle that kind of traffic, and possible other traffic problems.

The alternate truck route will include a drainage ditch, which will divert much of the surface water run off to the south and into the ditch on the north side of Greenwood street. This diversion of surface water run-off would then facilitate the installation of storm sewer along the west side of Barzen to handle the run off from a much reduced drainage area.

Major private sector employers are considering expansion. An alternate truck route in that location would allow the city to respond "positively" to these requests.

The city council authorized preparation of plans and specifications to be included in the 1995 street, sidewalk, and utilities improvement project. Affected property owners were notified and a public hearing was held Monday, February 13.

Residential sidewalks on the list include: LaBree Avenue from Fourth Street to 12th Street; Fifth Street from Main Avenue to LaBree Avenue; Sixth Street from State Avenue to Horace Avenue; Seventh Street from Main Avenue to LaBree Avenue, Eighth Street from Davis Avenue to Dewey Avenue; Riverside Avenue from Porter Street to Emil Street; Duluth Avenue from North of Zeh to Backe Street; and Zeh Street from Knight Avenue to Highway 32.

Street improvements would be made to East First Street and South Sherwood Avenue; Stevens Drive from Sherwood Avenue to Nelson Drive; Highway 59 frontage road improvements west from Brooks Avenue 400 feet; Highway 32 frontage road improvements 500

Warroad council approves offer of $4.5 million

Warroad City Council approved a resolution Monday committing to grant $4.5 million to Roseau county if voters approve moving the county seat to Warroad. The resolution was presented to the Roseau County board February 15, 1995.

Warroad Mayor Bob Marvin said, "This action by our city meets all of the terms and conditions of the county board. The city commits to grant $4.5 million for a new courthouse and social services offices." Marvin added that "the city further commits to providing the land and utilities free of charge for the new complex."

The city received documented proof from Norwest Bank that $4.5 million will be transferred from the William Marvin fund of the Minnesota Foundation to the city when voters approve moving the county seat. The money will be immediately transferred to Roseau county.

Brian Hardwick, Warroad City Councilor said, "this shows that our city council and community is behind this effort. If the voters approve, citizens will save millions in tax money and, at the same time, have a beautiful, state-of-the-art courthouse facility. We're proud that our community could put forth such a fine offer with the William Marvin Fund."

The resolution specifies that the city will transfer to the county $4.5 million; the money will be used for a courthouse, estimated to cost $2.9 million by the county, and that any money not used for the courthouse (at current estimates, $1.6 million) will be held by the county in trust with the benefit of interest for future courthouse expansions or possibly a new jail in Warroad, at the discretion of the county board; and, the city will provide, at no cost, land and utilities to the site.

Mayor Bob Marvin commented, "Because the county's architect was unable to provide us with direct information, estimates, and data, our only option was to meet the county's terms by granting them maximum flexibility." "In other words," Marvin added, "here's $4.5 million, build a courthouse and whatever offices the county needs, save whatever you can for the future. If you need a new jail in the future, then you'll have a nice savings account to start the project."

Warroad officials were expected to meet with the county board on February 15 to discuss the offer.

Jury finds Holmgren guilty on sex charge

After more than six hours of deliberation Wednesday, a Pennington county jury convicted Bruce Edwin Holmgren, 23, Thief River Falls, of one count of criminal sexual conduct in the first degree.

Holmgreen was originally charged with one count of first degree criminal sexual conduct, and one count of third degree criminal sexual conduct. The charge of criminal sexual conduct in the third degree was dismissed prior to the jury going into deliberation.

The charge against Holmgren stems from an August 1994 incident involving a female minor at her home.

Criminal sexual conduct in the first degree carries a maximum penalty of 30 years, $40,000 or both. Sentencing guidelines however will have an impact on his final sentence.

Holmgren was represented in court by Assistant Public Defender Don Amdal. Amdal said he talked with Holmgren on Thursday, and he intends to appeal the case. Amdal said he expects sentencing in the case will take place in four to six weeks.

Pennington County Assistant Prosecutor Alan Rogalla successfully prosecuted the case, which was heard by Ninth District Judge James R. Wilson.

Hartz Foods held its annual food show at the National Guard Armory in Thief River Falls last week. Over 70 vendors displayed food and grocery items to representatives of about 100 stores from Minnesota and North Dakota. Hartz holds two shows each year. This year they took advantage of an automated food ordering system. During the show, representatives of the stores could make purchases for the stores that could last from three to six months.

Optimism shown at Hartz Foods meeting

Annual meeting and food show of wholesaler held here this week

Buoyed by a profitable fourth quarter in fiscal 1994 and expectations of profit for the first quarter of fiscal 1995, Hartz Foods, Inc. held its annual meeting and food show in Thief River Falls Tuesday and Wednesday.

More than 250 people attended the food show in the National Guard Armory and more than 100 motel rooms were booked for store representatives and vendors participating in the events.

Mike Sande of Sheyenne, ND, and Paul Nelson of Thief River Falls were reelected to the board of directors. Other directors are Doreen Bjerknes, Erskine; Lynette Jelle, Grygla; Tom Lucen, International Falls; Rick Noreen, Portland, ND, Warren Hanestad and Robert Olson, Thief River Falls.

Paul Nelson is president and chief executive officer, Sande is chairman of the board and Hanestad is secretary.

Shareholders of the cooperative attending the annual meeting were presented with an annual report showing total revenue in the fiscal year ending October 1, 1994, of $36,461,855, cost of sales totaling $32,327,320 and a gross profit of $4,134,535.

Operating expenses totaling $4,826,696 resulted in an operating loss for the year of $692,161. Other income of $135,154 reduced the loss to $557,007 and income tax benefit of $219,000 further reduced the net loss for the year to $338,007.

Total revenues for the year were down nearly $8 million from fiscal 1993, reflecting loss of stores which the company had previously served and which primarily switched to other suppliers. Some owners of those stores are now encouraged by the turn around at Hartz Foods and are coming back, according to Kent Fritze, chief financial officer for the company.

Fritze said the attitude at Hartz Foods was that the company had "bottomed out" in the past year but has remained viable with a good debt to asset ratio and begun its recovery. Store owners at the annual meeting and food show and employees of the company all seemed to have a spirit of optimism for the years ahead, he added.

Fritze also said that the bottom line of the 1994 annual report was actually better than it looked because of a $366,000 pension allowance which was carried as an expense but was not actually paid out during the year.

Notes to the consolidated financial statements perhaps tell more about the company's circumstances than its financial statement for the past year.

"The company's financial statements have been presented on the basis that it is a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and the satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business," the notes state.

"The management of Hartz Foods, Inc. implemented a company-wide restructuring during 1994. Various changes in each department have been made during the fiscal year.

"Management.. has significantly reduced its overhead structure, which should result in future cost savings. These reductions include programs where savings will be realized immediately and programs where savings will be realized over time.

"Cost reductions have been implemented through the elimination of the cost equalization program (which lowered mark-ups on best sellers), re-negotiation of the refrigeration lease program, lease of three new tractors for Hartz Truck Line, Inc., the change from Gateway Foods to Super Valu as back-up supplier, the re-routing of truck deliveries and many smaller programs generating company savings."

Fritze said the change from Gateway Foods in Superior, WI, to Super Valu in Fargo, ND, as a back-up supplier made a significant reduction in freight charges. He noted that Hartz continues to be most heavily supplied through vendors supplying Hartz Foods directly.

"Additional gross profit was

Northwest STS program saves counties thousands

Pennington, Kittson, and Marshall counties benefit from sentence to serve

Northwest Sentence to Serve program released its annual report Tuesday to the Pennington county board of commissioners. Program coordinators plan to present the annual reports to Marshall and Kittson county boards soon.

Last year, individuals participating in the Sentence to Serve (STS) program completed 34,797 hours of work. At $5 per hour that work has a value of $173,985. The value in terms of jail days saved at $45 per day, was estimated at $90,360.

Three counties, Pennington, Marshall and Kittson participate in the STS program. Individuals participating in the program are doing so because the courts have allowed them to work off their fines and jail term. The approximate cost of the program was estimated at $92,336. That cost was covered by the Minnesota department of corrections, the Red Lake Watershed district, township donations, and each county in the program.

The statistics were broken down by county to show just where the work and savings were occurring.

In Pennington county, 453 county offenders were served. STS performed 25,603 hours of work, saved 1,562 days of jail time, worked 115 days, and saved $198,310 at $5 per hour and $45 per day in jail days saved.

In Marshall county, 113 offenders were served. STS completed 4,280 hours of work, saved 200 days of jail, completed 6,777 hours of work in the county, worked 91 days in the county, and saved $30,300 in completed hours at $5 per hour and jail days saved at $45 per day.

In Kittson county, STS completed 2,132 hours of work, saved 112 days in jail days, provided work for 56 Kittson county offenders, served 5,942 hours of work in the county, completed 61 days of work in the county, and saved at $5 per hour and $45 per day for jail, $15,700.

Scott Peters, program coordinator said these statistics are encouraging for the program. "It was a very good year. In 1993 STS crews worked 10,000 hours. In 1994, STS crews worked about 35,000. STS has certainly been utilized more, he said.

The three counties in the Northwest STS program, began working together last January. Peters said the county boards have been very supportive, and the sheriffs in each county have been very supportive.

In terms of their return, Peters estimated that for every dollar spent by Pennington county they have received about $10. For every dollar spent by Kittson and Marshall counties, they have received about $5 back. It may seem a little out of balance, but Peters said when you look at the number of offenders served it balances out.

The response by the public has also been very positive, Peters said. They seem to like the idea of offenders working off their time rather than sitting in jail.

Clients or organizations which take advantage of STS personnel include: Red Lake Watershed district, Thief River Falls Sports Arena, Thief River Falls Library; National Guard Armory, City of Warren, home to 250 snowmobile race, Valley North school; Goodridge school, the Adult Learning Center; RF Snowshoveling; Karlstad home; City of St. Hilaire; Thief River Falls Water plant; community service organizations, and many more.

Offeners participating in the program go where the work is and perform a wide variety of work. More recently, the STS crew has been

Family clinic to open in EGF

East Grand Forks — A family medical center will open in East Grand Forks in the spring. Dr. Frank LeBlanc will open the clinic, along with James Berglund, physician assistant. Dr LeBlanc was most recently practicing in Warren and operated an allergy clinic in Grand Forks.

SOUPCON

Sherry LaCoursiere

As a birthday gift, I got a big cook book on crock pot cooking, so I'll give you some recipes from it today.

This sounds like an easy all-in one meal — just make a loaf of bread in your bread-maker at the same time, toss a salad before serving, and you've got a meal:

CHUCKWAGON BEEF

1 pound very lean ground beef
 (or venison burger)
1 can (16 ounces) whole tomatoes
1 green pepper, chopped fine
1 onion, chopped fine
1/2 cup raw, long-grain rice
1 teaspoon salt
1 bay leaf
Dash pepper
4 slices American cheese, cut into triangles

Place all ingredients except cheese triangles in crock pot. Stir thoroughly. Place 4 of the triangles on top.

Cover and cook on low heat for 8-10 hours.

Before serving, top with remaining 4 cheese triangles.

Doesn't this sound different:

GOURMET MEAT LOAF

1 slice bread
1/4 cup milk
1 egg, beaten
1 medium onion, chopped
1 1/2 teaspoons curry powder
2 teaspoons lemon juice
1/4 cup chopped almonds
8 dried apricots, soaked and chopped
1/4 cup chutney
Salt and pepper
1 1/2 pounds ground beef

Soak bread in milk and squeeze dry. Mix egg with milk.

Add all ingredients to ground beef, blending well. Shape into a loaf.

Place in crock pot, cover and cook on low for 8-10 hours.

I bet you don't have to be a bachelor to try this dish:

BACHELOR'S STEW

2 pounds lean stewing beef, cut into 1-2 inch cubes
1/3 cup dry bread crumbs
1 teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
1 large onion, cut into eighths
3 carrots, pared, split lengthwise
 and cut into 4-inch pieces
4 celery stalks, cut into 1-inch pieces
1 teaspoon basil
1/3 cup quick cooking tapioca
1 (4 ounce) can sliced mushrooms, undrained
1 teaspoon Kitchen Bouquet
2 cans (10 3/4 ounces each) tomato soup
1 cup beef broth or water

Wipe beef cubes well.

Combine bread crumbs with salt and pepper and toss with beef. Place beef cubes in crock pot and add remaining ingredients, stirring well.

Cover and cook on low for 10-12 hours (high for 3-5 hours).

Why not have a pot roast this weekend — put it on when you go snowmobiling and have a delicious supper afterward:

AMERICA'S FAVORITE POT ROAST

3 1/2 to 4 pound beef arm or boneless pot roast
1/4 cup flour
2 teaspoons salt
1/8 teaspoon pepper
3 carrots, pared, sliced lengthwise
and cut into 2 inch pieces
3 potatoes, peeled and quartered
2 small onions, sliced
1 stalk celery, cut into 2-inch
 pieces
1 (2 ounce) jar mushrooms, drained
3 tablespoons flour
1/4 cup water

Trim all excess fat from roast. Brown and drain if using highly marbled cut.

Combine 1/4 cup flour and salt and pepper. Coat meat with the flour mixture.

Place all vegetables except mushrooms in crock pot and top with roast (cut roast in half, if necessary, to fit easily).

Spread mushrooms evenly over top of roast. Cover and cook on low for 10-12 hours.

If desired, turn to high setting during last hour to soften vegetables and make a gravy. To thicken gravy, make a smooth paste of 3 tablespoons flour and the water and stir into crock pot. Season to taste.

Minnesota Wheat Council sponsors "Bake and Take Day" scheduled March 25

"Bake and Take Day," an annual event sponsored by the Minnesota Wheat Council, is scheduled for Saturday, March 25. The event is designed to encourage individuals or organizations to take the time to bring a baked product to someone and say "thank you" or "you are not forgotten."

According to Marge Pladson, secretary with the Minnesota Wheat Council, "Bake and Take" is a national event coordinated by the Wheat Foods Council.

"The Minnesota Wheat Council has undertaken the program as part of its domestic production efforts," Pladson said. "Last year we were pleased to have over 1,500 individuals and organizations from across the state participate in the event."

Pladson encourages individuals and groups to participate in the event simply by baking one of their favorite foods, or using one of the recipes available from the Minnesota Wheat Council, and taking it to a friend, neighbor or some needy or less fortunate person on March 25.

"'Bake and Take' is an excellent community service project for organizations like 4-H, church groups, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts and many others," Pladson said.

The Minnesota Wheat Council has recipe/gift enclosure cards available for individuals or groups wishing to participate. The materials are free of charge and can be obtained by writing to Pladson at Minnesota Wheat, 2600 Wheat Drive, Red Lake Falls, MN 56750 or calling her at 1-800-242-6118.

The Minnesota Wheat Council is an organization founded by wheat farmers through a one-cent per bushel check-off on all wheat sold in Minnesota. The council's primary responsibilities include foreign and domestic market development and wheat-related research activities.

As part of its domestic program, the Minnesota Wheat Council is a member of the Wheat Foods Council—the only organization on the national level which generically promotes nutritional awareness and increased consumption of wheat foods by American consumers.

Former Gully resident wins at Shooting Star

Ruben Kolling, who was born and raised at Gully and now lives in Abingdon, VA, recently won $149,663.99 on the eight-line quarter progressive slot machines at the Shooting Star Casino in Mahnomen.

Ruben and his wife Clarice were in Gully for a visit with Clarice's mother Helen Jergensen when they and Clarice's sister-in-law decided to make a trip to the casino at Mahnomen. They enjoy playing through the night and having an early morning breakfast, so arrived at the casino about 2 a.m.

Kolling said he would put most of his winnings in savings and spend the interest at the casino, although he later admitted he had purchased a new snowmobile. Other winners recently were Isadore Miskavige from the Grand Forks, ND, area who won $28,888.98 playing the $1 red, white and blue progressive and Julie Esteban of Winnipeg who won $19,604.44, also on the dollar progressive.

WE GLADLY ACCEPT:

Annual report shows more dwellings built

Number of permits issued for the construction of new single family dwellings in Thief River Falls increased from 6 in 1993 to 10 in 1994.

Bob Bregier, city building inspector, presented his summary of building permits to the Thief River Falls city council Tuesday night. Two hundred and thirty-three building permits were issued in 1994, and the total construction cost of these permits was $10,634,882.

Bregier said that the number of permits was up but the total construction cost of the permits was down. He explained that last year's construction cost total included the cost of Challenger elementary school.

Of the 233 permits issued, three were for multi-family dwellings at a construction cost of $248,000. Ten permits were issued for new single family dwellings with a total construction cost of $727,000. One hundred and seventy-five permits were issued for residential remodeling and additions at a total construction cost of $1,306,602. Four permits were issued for new nonresidential buildings at a total construction cost of $666,000. Forty-one permits were issued for nonresidential remodeling and additions at a total estimated cost of $7,687,280.

The average cost of new dwellings erected in 1994 was $72,700. Last year, the average cost was $83,310. In 1992, the average cost was $50,667. In 1984, the average cost was $61,273.

In 1994, 22 mobile home permits were issued, 50 plumbing permits, five demolition permits, five permits to remove abandoned tanks, 11 sign permits, and 17 temporary sign permits.

The total construction cost of all permits was $10,634,882, which compared to $17,907,057 for 1993. In 1992, the total construction cost was $6,133,172. Fluctuations occur in the total construction cost experienced because of the size of some of the projects, such as the Challenger elementary school project.

Year	Total construction cost
1984	$1,732,518.00
1985	$2,296,557.00

Rep Finseth authors bill to exempt used farm machinery from sales tax

State Rep. Tim Finseth of Warren has authored legislation to make permanent the one-year sales tax exemption on used farm machinery.

"Area farmers have benefitted from this legislation," Rep. Finseth said, "and making the tax exemption permanent is the next logical step."

A 1994 law change exempted used farm machinery sold between July 1, 1994 and June 30, 1995 from the 2.5 per cent sales tax. Farm auction sales and occasional sales of used farm machinery by a farmer were already exempt. This law also exempts sales of used farm machinery by dealers.

Finseth may be contacted at 253 State Office Building, 100 Constitution Avenue, St. Paul, MN 55155 or by calling 612-296-9918.

LETTERS

To The Editor:

Your editorial on Social Security in the February 11 issue of the Northern Watch treated the subject rather kindly. The Social Security Trust Fund has never had anything in it of what we might call ordinary investments. The so-called government bonds held in the fund can only be paid off with some sort of a tax.

So to put it bluntly, when the present rate of social security taxes is not enough to pay current obligations, then the tax will have to be raised if those obligations are to be paid off. This means that starting in about 2013, as you stated, taxes will have to be raised in ever increasing amounts to pay the large numbers of retirees reaching retirement age after that year.

The impression is given that the excess social security taxes being collected at the present time are going into the Trust Fund. They are not. These excess funds are being spent for something else. They are not being saved for the future. Enough said.

Sincerely,
Robert Thacker

Political Perspective In Minnesota

As a rule we don't get too excited or involved with the personalities or intricacies of Minnesota politics. There are those, however, who not only take a great interest but delight in analyzing the twists and turns of people and activities in Minnesota government and political circles.

Among the most adept are three of the state's most experienced public affairs consultants, Wy Spano, D. J. Leary and Sarah Janecek. They publish a newsletter called "Politics in Minnesota" that is simply crammed with names, events and issues of a political or government nature. The issue which is dated for Valentine's Day has an especially interesting variety of items. With permission of the writers, we would like to call attention of a couple of those items to our readers.

The first story in the newsletter deals with Minneapolis Mayor Sharon Sayles Belton questioning busing for school integration in her State of the City address a week ago.

"For some time," Politics in Minnesota commented, "various thoughtful people we know have been uncomfortable with an unintended but nonetheless very real and apparently inevitable result of the integration process—the decline of a sense of neighborhood.

"As one new teacher told us last year after her first full year of teaching on Minneapolis' north side, 'We basically tell kids they can't go to school near where they live because too many kids like them live there. It seems like a shot at self-esteem.'

"When a prominent African-American like Sayles Belton publicly questions the wisdom of this long-standing policy, it's bound to have an effect on the entire debate. We were reminded of the contributions former Mayor Don Fraser made to the debate on welfare and children when he began pointing out the alarming increases in single parenting and other problems inside the city.

"At the time, some people said that kids were a county welfare problem, not a city problem, and Fraser ought to butt out—just like some people are probably saying now that mayors don't run schools so what is Sayles Belton talking about?

"It's called leadership," the newsletter continues. "Some old time liberals might be quaking, but we think Sayles Belton deserves kudos for her thoughtfulness."

Later in the issue, commenting on DFL Rep. Steve Wenzel's bill to limit the top salaries of local government officials, the writers noted that "...a shot aimed at local governments proved to boomerang back at the legislature. It seems that most of the salaries covered by the bill were authorized by DFL-run local units of government. "Politics in Minnesota" called it a "....spectre of Democrats attacking Democrats and city people attacking themselves."

The newsletter pointed out that some Republicans wanted to use the bill as a vehicle to point out that the problem of inflation isn't at the top in salaries but in the middle. There are more than 242,850 public employees in Minnesota, of whom 17,000 (seven per cent) make more than $50,000 a year.

But the Minnesota Planning Agency notes that payroll costs (salaries and benefits) made up 40 per cent of all state and local government spending in 1991—including 54 per cent for school districts, 36 per cent for the state, 32 per cent for cities and 31 per cent for counties. And, adjusted for inflation, per capita public payrolls grew 16 per cent between 1980 and 1991.

"All of this leaves Republicans scratching their heads and wondering if Democrats really want to be the ones to start talking about salaries. But don't look for much further action on this legislation. It has yet to be introduced in the Senate, where Democrats seem to understand the politics a bit better than in the House."

As Long As We're Talking Politics....

While we're on the subject of politics, it seems that mention should be made of Congressman Collin Peterson's involvement in a Washington group called simply The Coalition. At present the group is comprised of 23 conservative House Democrats who say they are banding together "to tone down the extreme ideas of both parties and become a force that will have to be reckoned with."

Congressman Peterson revealed his recognition of reality when he was quoted as saying, "There will be times when our position is in line with the Democrats and other times when our position is more in line with the Republicans....It is our intention to show the people of this country that they don't have to be disenchanted with government. The people asked for a change and it is our goal to give it to them."

Another Minnesotan, Rep. David Minge, added: "We believe we should support the best solutions to our problems no matter which political party has proposed them. Petty partisanship can help win elections, but it does not help us address the serious issues that confront us."

Such spoken wisdom, if it can be translated into action, is unusual if not unique in Congress. It expresses what the American people have been trying to get through to their Representatives and Senators for years and years: "Stop trying to prevent the opposition from getting credit for a good idea and do what is best for America."

We are extremely pleased to see our Seventh District Congressman get in on the ground floor of this movement and hope that The Coalition attracts many more cooperative-minded Representatives from both parties to its membership. Maybe it really is necessary for our elected officials to feel the heat in order to see the light.

Millionaire's Ball hosted by Dance Club February 25

Third annual Millionaire's Ball will be hosted by the Northernaires Dance Club Saturday, February 25, at the Elks club rooms in Thief River Falls. Public participation is invited.

The evening will include a champagne cocktail hour at 6:30 p.m., followed by a meal of prime rib or Cornish game hen catered by Lillian Rux at 7:30 p.m. Music for dancing following the meal will be provided by "Backdraft."

Tickets at $40 per couple are available from dance co-chairmen Val Johnson and Shelly Sorvig who say the annual event is "a hoot."

"It's basically a really glitzy Halloween party. Those who don't feel comfortable with costumes can simply come decked out in their finest, but I think that people who dress up have more fun," Sorvig said.

Although elaborate costumes may be most in line for prizes, imagination and a sense of humor add to the fun. One year a man came in his bathrobe, insisting he was "Playboy" magazine publisher Hugh Hefner and his date was Miss October, Johnson and Sorvig said.

The co-chairmen suggested that people look into their closets and use their imaginations.

"A cowboy hat can turn you into a Country Western singer, a suit into a Senator, a baseball cap into a sports hero or a slinky dress and well-placed beauty mark into Cindy Crawford," Johnson said.

"People are quite forgiving. It's not like they expect an exact replica... just close enough to give an illusion of the character intended."

"So if you've ever dreamed of dancing with Elvis or Madonna, swapping jokes with Roseanne or Seinfeld or rubbing elbows with the Prince and Princess of Wales, this may be the place to fulfill your dreams," Sorvig added. Call 681-3783 or 964-5582 for reservations.

Section 8A hockey tournament games will begin Tuesday

Two first round games Tuesday will kick off the 1995 Section 8A high school hockey tournament.

First night match-ups will find Bagley/Clearbrook-Gonvick-Trail-Fosston playing Lake of the Woods/Rainy River in Baudette, while Indus visits Crookston.

Rest of the tournament will be played at the East Grand Forks Civic Center – quarterfinal doubleheaders Thursday and Friday, Feb. 23 and 24, single semifinal games Saturday and Monday, Feb. 25 and 27, and the championship game Thursday, March 2.

Seeding positions were determined Wednesday by a vote of the Section 8A coaches at a meeting held in Thief River Falls.

Spuds win swim dual

Regular season boys high school swimming schedule came to an end Thursday when Thief River Falls lost a 108-76 dual to Moorhead at the Franklin Middle School pool.

It was a loss, the fourth in four duals for the Prowlers, but you couldn't tell by Thief River Falls coach Ryan Lokken. "It was an awesome finish to a tough year," he said. "The kids came in with their personal best times almost across the board. They really swam well. They beat us, but we gave them a good run."

Thief River Falls came up with first place finishes by Sam Adams in the 50 freestyle, Aaron Spaaheim in the 100 butterfly, Chris Pribula in the 500 freestyle, and the 200 freestyle relay team of Charley Follett, Spaaheim, Adams, and Pribula.

Prowlers shut out Lakers 4-0

Thief River Falls controlled play from start to finish Tuesday in a 4-0 high school hockey win over Detroit Lakes.

Goals by Aaron Ehrenstrom, Paul Gonsorowski, Brian Howe, and Jared Lee, plus a 19-save shutout by goalie Chance Keefe, completed a 10-11-1 regular season for the Prowlers, who won their final three starts – all at home – and four of their last five to head into Section 8A tournament play on a positive note.

Detroit Lakes, figured to be a legitimate title contender in Section 4A, came into the Huck Olson Memorial Civic Center with a 14-6-1 record. But the Lakers weren't able to mount much of an attack, and had to rely on a strong 32-save effort by senior goalie Matt Anderson to keep it close.

"I thought we thoroughly dominated," said Thief River Falls coach Pat Cullen. "We played well. We did a lot of good things. We controlled things offensively, and we didn't give them many chances."

Ehrenstrom, a junior wing recently elevated to first-line status, started things by netting his sixth goal in the last three games as he one-timed a centering pass high in the slot area at 6:04 of the opening period.

Gonsorowski made it 2-0 when a power play ice-hugger from the point by the junior defenseman skipped under Anderson at 8:47.

The score didn't change until the third period when Howe and Lee, two of the three seniors making their final home appearance, doubled the margin to 4-0 with goals spaced just 32 seconds apart early in the third period.

Howe swatted in a rebound on a scramble around the Detroit Lakes net at 3:36 and Lee picked up his first varsity goal with a soft backhand that got by Anderson at 4:08.

Captain Tim Barry is the third senior on the 1994-95 Thief River Falls roster. "It was nice to see Jared and Brian get those goals in their last home game," noted Cullen.

There was no preliminary game since Detroit Lakes did not have a junior varsity team.

Scoring

First period – TRF, Aaron Ehrenstrom (Nick Chiodo, Keith Anderson), 6:04. TRF, Paul Gonsorowski (Chiodo, Anderson), 8:47.

Gators hold off Nordics' rally

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River built a 20-point third quarter lead, then held on for a 74-69 Tuesday boys high school basketball win over Marshall County Central at Newfolden.

Ahead 18-15 at the end of the first quarter, the Gators opened up a 37-22 halftime cushion and led 42-22 midway through the third quarter before the Nordics stormed back. Marshall County Central finished the third quarter with six straight points to make it 53-38 and carried the momentum through a 31-point fourth quarter.

"We were controlling the game in the second and early in the third quarter," noted Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Eldon Sparby. "I thought we played an excellent second quarter. And I didn't think we were playing that poorly at the end. But they (Nordics) played flawless basketball down the stretch."

Results put Badger/Greenbush-Middle River at 15-4 and Marshall County Central 6-13.

"I think the kids show some class by not folding and giving up when we were down," said Marshall County Central coach Ron Ueland. "He had a pretty good second half. The first half was as poor as we've played all year, but the fourth quarter was the best we've played all year. I guess that's very typical of this team."

The Nordics' comeback, fueled by 16 second half points by Brandon Borg, who was 10-for-10 at the free throw line, did not get them any closer than the five-point final margin.

Micah Ranum of the Nordics led all scorers with 20 points, while Borg netted 18 and Kyle Halvorson 13. Four Gators hit double figures, led by Russell Larson with 15 points, Vance Harren and Richard Klein 14 each, and Matt Kuznia 13.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River was 29-for-55 from the field (53 percent) and 13-for-15 at the free throw line, including a 9-for-10 fourth quarter to stave off the Nordics' rally. Marshall County Central went 24-for-58 from the floor (41 percent) and behind Borg, had a productive 17-for-20 free throw night.

The Gators out-rebounded the Nordics 29-18, but also had more turnovers, 22-19.

Bemidji 58-43 winner vs. TRF girls

Bemidji established an early 10-point cushion, then broke the game open with a press-breaking fast break in the third quarter that produced a 58-43 North Sub-Section 8AA girls high school basketball win over Thief River Falls.

The Lumberjacks jumped out to a 21-11 first quarter lead, maintained a 31-21 halftime spread, then blitzed the Prowlers 23-4 in the third quarter for a 54-25 gap.

"I thought we had a pretty decent first half, but we were still down by ten, and I felt we had to make something happen," said Thief River Falls coach Sally Wiltse. "So we went with the full court press."

Bemidji handled it, easily, as Megan McKee scored 17 points, Laura Danielson 12, Michelle Ballan 11, and Holly Janson 10.

"Defensively we're struggling," acknowledged Wiltse, "and people are taking advantage of it. Bemidji is very physical inside, and we couldn't handle them."

Kelly Skeim scored 16 points and Nicole Kopari had 12 for the Prowlers in their final home appearance of the 1994-95 season. They finish the schedule with North Sub-Section 8AA games at Alexandria today (Saturday) and at Moorhead Friday.

Thief River Falls shot 31 percent from the field (16/51) and made 10 of 20 free throws. Bemidji shot 40 percent from the floor (28/70) and went 6-for-15 at the line. The Lumberjacks' physical play and ability to box out under the basket allowed them to double the Prowlers on the boards, 42-21.

Thief River Falls topped the turnover charts 18-14.

Huskies' defense stops Red Lake Falls offense

Goodridge emphasized defense Tuesday in a 59-20 boys high school basketball win over visiting Red Lake Falls.

The 15-4 Huskies led at the quarter breaks 15-5, 33-7 and 45-15.

"It was a compete team effort defensively," reported Goodridge coach John Rantn. "Even the kids who came off the bench kept the intensity going defensively."

A balanced Goodridge offense included Mitch Srnsky with 12 points, Brady Wiseth 11 and Martin Dahlen 10.

The Huskies made 23 of 69 field goal attempts (33 percent) and hit 4 of 8 free throws. The Eagles were just 8-for-43 from the field (19 percent) and 4-for-14 at the line.

Chervestad scores 40 in 59-53 RLCC victory

Angie Chervestad converted passes from her teammates into a 40-point game Tuesday as Red Lake County Central won its third straight game, a 59-53 girls high school basketball victory over Norman County East at Plummer.

Chervestad, a six-foot freshman center, was 19-for-23 from the field and also pulled down 13 rebounds. Meckenzie Milwitz had a 12-point, 10-rebound game for the winners, while Catherine Rosten collected 8 assists and Ami Tvedt had 6.

"They did a nice job getting the ball to Angie, and she hit the shots," said Red Lake County Central coach Rick Korvisto. "She (Chervestad) does a nice job when she gets the ball. She doesn't put it on the floor."

The Mustangs had a 19-12 first quarter lead and opened up a 30-18 gap before they settled for a 34-28 halftime advantage. It was 46-43 through three quarters. "We really played well early, then just kind of held on," noted Korvisto.

Kacey TeHennepe led Norman County East with 18 points.

Red Lake County Central was 26-for-53 from the field (49 percent) and 6-for-13 from the floor. Norman County East went 24-for-64 from the floor (38 percent) and 5-for-8 at the line. The Mustangs finished with a 39-20 rebound advantage.

Argyle holds on for 62-60 win over TRF

A fourth quarter comeback fell short Tuesday as Thief River Falls lost a 62-60 boys high school basketball game at Argyle.

The Prowlers shaved a 16-point final period deficit to 61-60, but watched a potential go-ahead basket miss the mark with 40 seconds left. The Eagles controlled the rebound and eventually wound up with a Blair Stoltman free throw on the front end of a bonus situation with seven seconds showing.

Thief River Falls came up with the rebound on the second attempt, but the Prowlers' shot for a tie at the end didn't connect.

The late-game rally didn't make up for a poor overall outing, according to Thief River Falls coach Scott Brekke. "It was pathetic," he said. "We just weren't ready to play. We played four minutes out of 32. You can't do that and expect to win."

Argyle led 19-18 at the end of the first quarter, held on to a 29-28 halftime edge, then opened up a 45-36 third quarter spread.

Stoltman, a 5-9 sophomore, led all scorers with 23 points, while 6-0 junior Aaron Heggen netted 19 and 5-8 junior Garred Conway picked up 14. Thief River Falls scoring featured 22 points by 6-10 junior Kyle Sanden, 16 by 6-0 senior Eric Bjorgaard, and 11 from 6-2 senior Nathan Anderson.

A 31-28 rebound edge by the smaller Eagles was an indication what kind of performance it was for the Prowlers, noted Brekke.

Scoring

Thief River Falls	18	10	0	24	60
Argyle	19	10	16	17	62

Red Lake County Central turned a seven-point halftime edge into a 19-point third quarter spread Tuesday and finished with a 71-54 boys high school basketball win over Grygla-Gatzke at Oklee.

The Mustangs posted quarter leads of 15-13, 36-29 and 59-40 in a match-up of 12-6 teams.

"We beat them inside in the third quarter," explained Red Lake County Central coach Todd Fore. "We hit a couple from the outside, and that opened up the inside."

Bryce Huolart had three treys as part of his game-high 20 point night for the Mustangs. Aaron Chaput and Aaron Rosten did the damage underneath with 19 and 14 points, respectively.

Jeremy Verbout led Grygla-Gatzke with 16 points and Shaun Verbout had 10.

"We got out-played," acknowledged Grygla-Gatzke coach Vern Johnson. "They (Mustangs) did some good things. They moved the ball real well and they beat us on the boards."

Red Lake County Central out-rebounded Grygla-Gatzke 35-21. The Mustangs were 25-for-51 from the field (49 percent) and 15-for-20 at the free throw line. The Eagles went 21-for-51 from the floor (41 percent) and 10-for-14 at the line. Grygla topped the turnover charts 15-11.

INSIGHT INTO EYESIGHT

OPTOMETRIST

THE 20/20 NUMBERS GAME

The term 20/20 refers to the size letters which the average eye can read twenty feet away. In most standard vision testing, you read the familiar Snellen eye chart at a distance of 20 feet. The upper number of the fraction expresses this distance. The lower number identifies the size letters you were able to read at this distance. Thus 20/70 vision means that you are able to read at 20 feet the line which a normal eye can read at 70 feet.

Often, this test is given by having you look into a machine which creates the same conditions optically. The results are roughly similar to those of the Snellen chart.

However, parents should not be lulled into the impression that their child has perfect vision because he scores a 20/20 on this vision test. All it measures is how well or poorly the child sees at that distance. And that's all. Problems with near vision, eye coordination and focusing ability are among the many problems NOT discovered in this test. Only a professional eye examination will protect the priceless miracle of sight.

Mustangs lose yet another close one, 69-67 to the Bears

Clearbrook-Gonvick-Trail edged Red Lake County Central 69-67 in a Feb. 10 boys high school basketball match-up – giving the visiting Mustangs their fourth one-basket loss of the season.

Red Lake County Central led at the quarter stops 17-16, 44-41 and 60-55 before running into final-period trouble against a Clearbrook-Gonvick-Trail zone. "It was a real good ball game, but we just couldn't hit the outside shot in the fourth quarter," said Mustangs coach Todd Fore.

A miss on the front end of a Bears bonus free throw opportunity in the final moments gave the Mustangs a final-possession shot, but the attempt was off the mark.

Both teams shot well. Red Lake County Central was 27-for-52 from the field (52 percent) and 8-for-12 at the free throw line. Clearbrook-Gonvick-Trail went 31-for-48 from the floor (65 percent) and 5-for-8 at the line. Both teams had 19 rebounds and 13 turnovers.

Spartans end NCC playoff hopes

Northland didn't give up without a fight. The Pioneers were eliminated from the 1995 Minnesota Community College Conference men's state basketball tournament picture Monday following a 91-78 loss at Fergus Falls.

But the final spread was deceiving. The Pioneers, after trailing 48-38 at halftime, were back within five points with 2 1/2 minutes left.

"I felt we had them on the ropes," noted Northland coach Mark Dannhoff.

But a Fergus Falls basket off a scramble for a loose-ball rebound kept Northland from getting any closer.

"We played hard all the way to the end," said Dannhoff. "It was a good game. Both teams played hard."

An eye-opening 38-point night by sophomore guard Chad Kujava kept the Pioneers close. Nine of his baskets were from 3-point range.

"Chad played one of the most outstanding individual games I've ever seen," noted Dannhoff, who was quick to give credit to the rest of the Pioneers for their efforts in setting up Kujava. "They recognized who had the hot hand, and they all did a great job getting him the ball. They gave up the ball to their teammate."

Only other Northland scorer in double figures was Anthony Kallod, a 6-8 sophomore from Fargo, ND, who scored all 13 of his points in the second half.

The Spartans' offense included a big 27-for-33 night at the free throw line, where the Pioneers were 13-for-15.

Thief River Falls JV boys tip EGF 75-63

Jared Brandt scored 22 points and Derrick McFarlane had 18 Thursday as the Thief River Falls boys junior varsity high school basketball team beat East Grand Forks 75-63.

East Grand Forks started the high-scoring game with a 27-21 first quarter lead and had a 43-41 halftime edge. Thief River Falls went ahead 62-48 in the third quarter.

Thief River Falls is 7-10 for the year.

TRF comeback tops EGF 60-54

Thief River Falls out-scored East Grand Forks 19-9 in the fourth quarter Thursday for a come-from-behind 60-54 boys high school basketball win over the Green Wave.

The game in the Lincoln gym was a make-up contest from a Feb. 10 postponement.

Kyle Sanden scored 30 points and grabbed 16 rebounds as the Prowlers climbed above .500 at 9-8. Nathan Anderson was also in double figures for the winners, while sophomore Robby Farbo came off the bench for a strong fourth quarter contribution, finishing with 8 points.

"The kids did a nice job," said Thief River Falls coach Scott Brekke. "They played a good ball game. It was a nice win for us."

Thief River Falls started with a 13-9 first quarter lead and had a 32-25 halftime advantage before falling behind 45-41 in the third quarter.

"We controlled the tempo most of the night, but he had that one spell where we tried to run with them and got in trouble," explained Brekke.

Dustin Haug led East Grand Forks with 18 points, but high-scoring Justin Knowlton, who burned the Prowlers for 39 points in an 86-71 East Grand Forks win back on Jan. 6, was held to 11.

"The kids did a nice job shutting down Knowlton," noted Brekke. "That was the key. We used a diamond-and-one, with Nathan Anderson and Ryan Swanson taking turns chasing him."

The Prowlers were 24-for-55 from the field (44 percent) and 11-for-19 at the free throw line. The Green Wave went 20-for-52 from the floor (38 percent) and 12-for-19 at the line. Thief River Falls had a 37-30 rebound edge, and topped the turnover charts 17-16.

Tri-County winner over B/G-MR girls

Tri-County snapped a 27-27 third quarter tie with a 13-9 fourth quarter Thursday that produced a 40-36 girls high school basketball win over Badger/Greenbush-Middle River in Karlstad.

The Gators, after starting the year 19-1, ended the regular season with back-to-back losses.

"We've got a lot of work to do before tournaments start," said Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Tom Neihauer. "We're going to have to make some changes."

Anna Bugestad scored 14 points to lead the Wildcats. Krissi Super came back from a first quarter ankle injury to score a game-high 17 points for the Gators.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River shot only 27 percent from the field (14/44) and had an 11-20 night at the free throw line, where the Wildcats were 11-for-19.

"You're not going to beat very many teams shooting like that," noted Neihauer. "It was a bad night."

Students in Joyce Kopari's speech resource room at Challenger elementary school have been using a new 20-gallon aquarium as part of their learning program. The aquarium was purchased with a mini grant from the Agassiz Environmental Education Council. Working on the aquarium in the top photo is Lisa Carlson from Mrs. Peterson's fifth grade class. In the bottom photo are Travis Mathson and Michelle Johnson of Mrs. Bergland's fourth grade class.

Aquarium in speech room draws interest

An aquarium purchased with a $100 mini grant from the Agassiz Environmental Education Council has proved to be a popular addition to the speech resource room of Mrs. Joyce Kopari, speech clinician, in the grades 4 and 5 school house at Challenger elementary school.

"The students have been involved in setting up the aquarium with gravel from the shore of Lake Superior, planting different kinds of plants, testing the pH level in the water, monitoring the temperature and feeding our tropical fish," Mrs. Kopari said.

"They are reading and collecting many articles and pictures of different 'swimmers of the deep.' They are busy writing in their speech journals and drawing pictures relating to the aquarium while using their good speech and language skills."

Speech students using the speech resource room have already brought along about 180 visitors from their classrooms to show them the new "fish display," Mrs. Kopari added.

She thanked the many people who have shared their books, posters, shells and interesting stories with her students. The aquarium project parallels a unit on fish and birds in the fifth grade curriculum, Mrs. Kopari said. She also has a second tank which will be used for a terrarium when the fifth grade unit on plants is studied later this year.

Student Brittany Larson, fifth grade daughter of Mark and Jean Larson, wrote the following poem about the aquarium:

I could tell something fishy was in our new school when I walked in our speech room and found a small pool.
The aquarium belongs to Mrs. Kopari.
For those that don't have one
we really are sorry.
We can watch fish
while we practice our speech.
It's almost like spending a day at the beach!

Goodridge Fire depart. installs new 911 system

Goodridge area fire department has now completed arrangements to have its fire calls handled through the 911 emergency number, according to Doyle Nelson, assistant chief of the department.

Nelson said that using the 911 number will be the fastest way to have the fire department respond to a fire call.

"Immediately upon receiving the 911 fire call at the law enforcement center in Thief River Falls," Nelson said, "the dispatcher will activate our fire department members' pagers and relay the information. The prior system involved a local call, then a call to the law enforcement center to activate the pagers. Using the 911 system will eliminate one communications step."

Persons in the area served by the Goodridge area fire department who have questions may call either Nelson at 681-6972 or Fire Chief Dale Hanson at 378-4328.

40 give blood at NTC and NCC blood drive

Forty-six people volunteered and 40 were able to donate blood at the Northwest Technical College and Northland Community College blood drive February 9 at the technical college in Thief River Falls. Thirteen donors gave blood for the first time.

Dean Dahlen and Avis Dyrud coordinated the drive sponsored by the Technical College Student Senate and the Phi Theta Kappa chapter at Northland Community College, which assisted with recruiting donors, publicity, providing refreshments, registering donors and helping to unload and reload mobile equipment. Others who assisted were Mark Appel and Aaron Kuznia.

Donations will help meet the blood needs of many patients in 46 hospitals served by United Blood Services.

City Council OKs truck bypass plan feet south from the Occupational Development Center property; Street surfacing at Meadowlark Court.

Utility improvements would be made to a sanitary sewer and water main extension on Nelson Drive and Fern Road; sanitary sewer and water main extensions for the site of a community college housing site; a sanitary sewer extension along Baken Street, east of Oakland Park Road, to serve adjacent residential properties; a sanitary sewer and water main extension to Johnson Greenline; and construction of a 500,000 gallon water reservoir and pump house at the Regional Airport.

Thief River Falls city council is considering a proposal that would eliminate parade participants from throwing candy from parade floats. Other options suggested in a letter from Police Chief Froschheiser include permitting parade participants to walk along each side of the street and handout candy, and distributing pre-packaged candy at certain locations on the parade route.

The proposal was made because of the accident in Oklee last year, in which a 12-year-old girl was killed when she fell under the wheels of a parade float while attempting to pick up candy thrown from a parade float. Police Chief Froschheiser said he personally favors allowing parade participants to walk along each side of the route to hand out candy.

In other business, the council authorized submission of an application to DTED which approves the SwisCorp industrial development project; approve the sale of $3.3 million in solid waste facility revenue bonds, which are not under the full faith and credit of the city; appointed Thune-Upham as the city's property/casualty insurance agent; approved collateral with First National Bank in Thief River Falls; approved a contract for independent services for 1995 with Jobs Inc.; designated Lisa Johnson as acting deputy clerk in the absence of Roger DeLap; approved an additional compensation for additional duties for Johnson; approved the transfer of $7,000 from the Revolving Loan Fund the Centennial project (not park) to get a gazebo construction project going; accepted a low quote of $13,321.02 for a Toro mower; accepted the annual report of police activities; accepted the annual building report; approved a revised quote on a three-wheel vehicle; declared that the primary duties of the city's animal control officer as that of a police officer; approved a two-year lease with R.C. Shetland Flying Service of Bemidji as a fixed base operator at the Thief River Falls airport beginning April 1, 1995; approved establishment of a Thief River Falls Joint Airport Zoning board and requested representation from Rocksbury township and Pennington county; approved the state contract for the Airport water reservoir project; approved plans and specifications and called for bids on the airport reservoir project; approved a low quote of $10,831.05 for a multi-purpose payloader bucket; approved a low bid of $13,558.41 from Superior Ford for a 1995 full-sized 4x2 pickup for the Engineering Services department; approved a resolution requesting that the Red Lake Watershed District to do a feasibility study for County road 61 west to the river to address a drainage problem by Challenger elementary school; approved the sale of 15-feet of land to the county so the county can construct an elevator at the courthouse; approved advertisement for a water plant operator; approved a wastewater infiltration and inflow study required by MPCA; approved a letter in opposition to the sale of the Western Area Power Administration; approved advertisement for the position of electric superintendent; approved dance permit applications for Jordan Lindquist on February 19 at the armory and Matt Perkins on February 24 and March 3 at the armory.

Crowned Valentine's Day King and Queen at Oakland Park Nursing Home in Thief River Falls were Peter Klungness and Donella (Dolly) Larson. They were guests of honor at an afternoon luncheon following the coronation.

Optimism expressed at Hartz Foods annual meet realized by reviewing all items purchased and removing inconsistencies in pricing," the notes to the financial statement add. "Gross profit was also realized in the area of buying, such as buying before major price increases. As a result of these changes, the monthly statements indicate that the company was profitable for the fourth quarter months of July, August and September of 1994.

"Management has set a goal to be profitable in fiscal 1995. Further, management has budgeted sales to level off, i.e., the company should not experience any more decreases in sales. With 'bids' out to various accounts, management hopes that it may, in fact, increase sales over 1994.

"Lastly, management is aware of major re-structuring and changes taking place in the food business both nationally and locally. While it will be some time before the impact of these changes is locally felt, management is adapting and changing its buying strategy to best accommodate the goals of the cooperative members," the notes conclude.

Hartz Foods currently has 223 member stores and supplies approximately 350 stores throughout its territory. It has experienced success with its Take 5 convenience store program which is also expected to expand in 1995.

President and CEO Paul Nelson has emphasized program of store clean-up, paint-up and identification since his arrival just over a year ago. Store owners who have implemented these efforts in their stores have noted increased sales as a result.

doing a lot of work for the watershed district in Marshall county. But, he has even had one offender knit afghans. Peters said they try to take advantage of the skills and abilities of the offenders. Some of the offenders have been very limited in what kind of work they can perform, which accounts for knitted afghans and other different solutions.

In Minnesota last year, 9,771 offenders participated in the STS programs, serving 636,724 hours of work. The dollar benefit of the STS labor, based on $5 per hour was estimated at $3,183,618. In Minnesota 74 counties participate in STS programs.

Estimates for 1995 place the number of offenders served at 14,000. They are expected to complete 828,000 hours of work and provide a benefit of $4,140,000 at $5 per hour. The total number of jail days saved is expected to be around $4,000.

Overall, the program showed improvements in all aspects including number of offenders served, total hours worked, market value of completed projects, jail days saved, benefit of labor, and value of jail days saved.

Three individuals coordinate projects and activities for the STS crews in Northwest STS: Scott Peters, Wayne Nomeland, and Robert Cardinal.

Gunderson selected to head college

Northland Community College president Dr. James Haviland gets post in MnSCU St. Paul office

Dr. Orley D. Gunderson, president of Northwest Technical College in Thief River Falls, has been selected to become president of the consolidated community and technical college here when the two institutions merge later this year. The combined college is expected to be named Northland Community and Technical College.

Announcement of Gunderson's selection was made Wednesday by the office of the Minnesota Higher Education Board which approved the recommendation made by Dr. Jay Noren, chancellor of Minnesota State Colleges and Universities (MnSCU).

The local community and technical colleges will become a single institution soon after the state's higher education merger occurs on July 1. On that date, all community and technical colleges and state universities will become part of the new MnSCU system.

"Outstanding College President"

Noren termed Gunderson "an outstanding college president, dedicated to students and dedicated to serving the communities of northwestern Minnesota.

Dr. James Haviland, president of Northland Community College and also a candidate for president of the merged institution, was selected to join the central office staff of MnSCU in St. Paul with the title of Distinguished Fellow for Academic Affairs.

In his post with the MnSCU administration, Dr. Haviland will report to the associate vice chancellor for community colleges, with particular duties expected to include review of academic programs and a pilot exchange program for faculty and business leaders.

Haviland Pleased

Dr. Haviland said he is pleased with the appointments announced Wednesday because they accomplish two of his own personal goals—assuring the consolidating of the two colleges and gaining an opportunity to work at the system level with co-located colleges throughout the state.

At a news conference Thursday morning at the technical college, Dr. Haviland said his position will allow him to work at all levels within the MnSCU system and that he is excited about the opportunity to join the system as it begins its operations. "There is only one chance to get in on the ground floor," he said.

"We have two outstanding college presidents in Orley Gunderson and Jim Haviland," Chancellor Noren said. "Fortunately, both will continue to share their talents with our new system as we begin this exciting era in higher education in Minnesota."

Dr. Gunderson, who has been president of the local technical college campus since 1980, said: "I enthusiastically look forward to working with the faculties and staff to form the comprehensive college."

Key Word Is "Opportunity"

At the press conference he said the key word at this point should be "opportunity" as he seeks input from faculty and staff for an exchange of ideas on what the strengths of the new college should be.

He said that the higher education community will have to live with a degree of uncertainty as several widely varying proposals are handled in the legislature. Enrollment declines at the technical and community college will be reversed next year, he said, and he will seek the counsel of personnel at both colleges to determine a realistic goal for percentage of increase.

"We have a lot of work to do between now and next August," he said. "We must continue to work on programs that make it convenient for traditional students to transfer to four-year schools and we must develop ways to establish programs at the college level that will serve the needs of industry. It will be imperative to communicate and cooperate as we modify existing programs and add programs in order to grow."

Gunderson also cited the importance of going forward with "ade-

Jared Landreville, age 2, Jonathan Landreville, age one, and Lawrence Landreville were killed in the fire. The boys' mother, 17-year-old Christa Anderson, is hospitalized for smoke inhalation in Thief River Falls.

Karlsted City Council votad to temporarily suspend the acute in-patiant hospital servicas and 24-hour amergency room service et tho Karlstad Memorial hospital affective February 1. Since then, many people have been involved in finding solutions to their problems.

Karlstad searches for health care solutions

by David Hill
Associate Editor

Tri-County EMS has offered to solve part of Karlstad's emergency medical need services, but Karlstad is looking at all of the options.

In late January, Karlstad City Council voted to temporarily suspend the acute in-patient hospital services and 24-hour emergency room service at the Karlstad Memorial Hospital effective February 1. That effectively closes Karlstad Memorial Hospital and eliminates 23 jobs by the end of the first week of April.

According to administrative staff, the difficult decision was made in order to avoid financially jeopardizing the entire Karlstad Health Facilities operation.

The hospital has been attempting to recruit a primary care physician for the past six months, without much luck. Dr. Feng Cheng-Cheng resigned earlier this year and Dr. Charles Mayo will be at the facility until June 30. Dr. John Myhre, a family practitioner from Battle Lake began as a locum tenens (temporary) doctor, January 31, on a contract, which will end in the first week of March.

Currently, the Karlstad Memorial Clinic, which did not close, is open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, and is staffed by two doctors. (The hospital and clinic are located in the same building and have one common administration.)

Karlstad Health Facilities, which includes the hospital, clinic and 71-bed skilled nursing home, applied for Federal Health Profession Shortage Area (HPSA) designation last February but was turned down because it didn't meet physician to population requirements. In order to receive the designation, Karlstad's primary care area must have a physician ratio of 3,500 to 1. It was later recommended for approval by the Office of Rural Health and Primary Care, a division of the Minnesota Department of Health. As a result, it seems likely that Karlstad will receive the designation. The designation, however, helps the facility's quest to find a doctor to serve in Karlstad as it offers medical school graduates incentives to locate in a HPSA designation, but won't solve all of its problems.

About 200 people attended a public meeting January 26, to discuss the closing. At the meeting, Kevin Quinn, administrator of Karlstad Health Facilities explained part of the problem. "Running an ER without a hospital, 24-hours-a-day, 365 days a year, with three 8 hour shifts of registered nurses, is $132,000, based on salaries and benefits. Having a physician over them is another $80,000 or more, and the lab and x-ray people and supplies, more money, probably a minimum of $250,000, or $20,000 a month."

Tri-County Emergency Medical Services came to the rescue early in February by proposing to operate an "Urgent Care Center". Urgent Care Centers are authorized under Minnesota Statute to provide advanced emergency medical care with few restrictions. As outlined by a news article in the North Star News, "The Tri-County EMS will provide: 1) Ambulance services/basic life support. 2)

TRAT to present comedy "The Nerd"

Two Rivers Area Theatre will present the three-act comedy "The Nerd" by Larry Shue. The presentations will take place at the Red Lake Falls Community Hall from 7:30 p.m. March 3-4, and 2 p.m. Sunday, March 5. Tickets are available at the door for $5.

"The Nerd" takes place in present day Terre Haute, Indiana. It begins at the home of Willum Cubbert, a bachelor architect played by Lowell Arlt. Cubbert is in the middle of a sad but amicable breakup with his girlfriend Tansy, played by Mona Thibert. Cubbert's life is further interrupted by the arrival of Rick Steadman, played by Alan Rogalla, who had gallantly saved Willum's life in Desert Storm. They had never previously met but had kept in touch by letters. In many of those letters Cubbert had told Steadman that, "if you ever need a place to stay, money, or anything, just let me know." Well, Steadman let Cubbert know by showing up on his 34th birthday, apparently for a long visit.

The title of the play provides the general nature of Steadman's character, and he proceeds to make Cubbert's and his friends' lives miserable until they concoct a crazy charade to get him to leave.

Many other characters add their talent to the awkward and hilarious situation.

Cast in this hilarious comedy are: Lowell Arlt, Ramona Thibert, Alan Rogalla, John Thibert as Axel, Larry Enkel as Warnock Waldgrave, Andrea Liston as Clelia Waldgrave, and Kyle Walters as Thor Waldgrave.

Some strong language is used so parental discretion is advised.

Larry Shue's comedy "The Nerd" has become standard repertoire for professional and community theatres for the last 15 years. One of his later plays "The Foreigner" was performed by Two Rivers Area Theatre in 1991.

Red River Shootout March 5

Classes for traction and non-traction will be held, with machines starting one at a time, one minute apart so traffic and snow dust won't be a problem. The entry fees will be $30 in all classes except the Pro 500 in which the entry fee will be $100.

Trophys will be given in amateur classes with a payback in the Pro 500 class. Registration will be at the Thief River Falls Best Western from 8 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. with a drivers meeting at 9:30 a.m.

The race will begin at 11 a.m.

Lawrence Landreville, 25, Jared Anderson, 2, and Jonathan Landreville, 1, died when their home two and one-half miles south of Karlstad caught on fire. Christa Anderson, 17, was taken to Northwest Medical Center in Thief River Falls. Anderson, who is pregnant, was listed in good condition as of Friday morning. A truck driver spotted the fire and reported it at about 2:30 a.m. Tuesday. The cause of the fire is still under investigation, but it is believed to have started in the garage and the cause to have been electrical in nature. The family had lived there a little over one month.

More good recipes from my new crock pot book this week.

Doesn't this sound like a dish for company:

NORWEGIAN MEATBALLS IN SAUCE

1 1/2 pounds lean ground beef
1/2 pound lean ground pork or veal
1 egg
1 cups mashed potatoes
1/2 cup dry bread crumbs
1/2 cup milk
2 teaspoons seasoned salt
1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
1/4 teaspoon each: allspice, ground ginger, black pepper and nutmeg
1/2 teaspoon brown sugar
1/2 cup flour
1 cup beef broth
1/2 cup heavy cream
1/2 cup chopped parsley

Combine all ingredients except flour, broth, cream and parsley. Blend well and shape into 24 or so 1 1/2 inch meatballs.

Roll lightly in flour and place on rack of broiler pan in 400 degree oven for 20 minutes. Drain.

Place in crock pot. Pour beef broth over and cover and cook on low for 7-9 hours (high for 2-3 hours).

Before serving, carefully remove meatballs to warm platter. Stir cream into broth and mix until smooth.

Pour sauce over meatballs and sprinkle with parsley.

This easy dish can cook all day and will be ready for supper when you get home:

BAKED CHICKEN BREASTS

2 to 3 whole chicken breasts, halves
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can condensed cream of chicken soup
1/2 cup dry sherry
1 teaspoon tarragon or rosemary
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1/4 teaspoon garlic powder
1 (4 ounce) can sliced mushrooms, drained

Rinse chicken breasts and pat dry. Place in crock pot.

In saucepan, combine remaining ingredients and heat until smooth and hot.

Pour over chicken breasts and cover and cook on low for 8-10 hours.

HAMBURGER AND SAUSAGE SOUP

1 pound lean ground beef
1 pound Polish sausage, sliced
1/2 teaspoon seasoned salt
1/4 teaspoon leaf oregano
1/4 teaspoon basil
1 envelope (1 1/2 ounces) dry onion soup mix
6 cups boiling water
1 (16 ounce) whole tomatoes
1 tablespoon soy sauce
1 cup sliced celery leaves
1 cup sliced pared carrots
1 cup uncooked elbow macaroni
Grated parmesan cheese

In skillet, brown ground beef and sausage. Drain well.

Place meat in crock pot. Add seasonings, herbs and onion soup mix. Stir in boiling water, tomatoes and soy sauce. Add celery, celery leaves and carrots to meat mixture, stirring well.

Cover and cook on low for 8-16 hours (on high for 4-5 hours).

One hour before serving, turn to high setting and stir in macaroni. Serve topped with parmesan cheese.

LETTERS

To The Editor:

Attention parents of Thief River Falls students. The school administration of this fine community has developed a curriculum designed to ensure every student not only has the opportunity to graduate, but he or she will also score academically very well versus whomever.

Imagine other kids trying to compete against those from Franklin Middle School who have completed a rigorous course in "Foods and You" which thoroughly explores the complicated world of foods. Or against a student skilled in the art of "Fimo," which "uses the new clay to create little people and jewelry." Had enough? I have a whole list of "studies" available to our kids at Franklin to round out their education. Who are we trying to kid?

The very idea that someone in the administration would even think that a course in "Time for Tots" or "Screamarama" will add to the education of our children is absurd. When time and money are in as short supply as we are led to believe, why waste even a nickel on ridiculous classes such as these? They must require an instructor and supplies which in turn cost money and resources.

Why should studies in language, music, industrial arts or speech have to compete for resources with a class in "Exploring New Foods!" The purpose of school is not to entertain our kids. It is supposed to educate them and provide them with the tools to compete and live in society. Anyone seen a teenager who didn't already have a fairly large grasp of the concept of food?

And whoever decided that kids of this age were incapable of sitting through a class lasting longer than 40 minutes? Why have nine different "studies" every day if you are going to fill them up with the kind of fluff I read in the registration bulletin? Cut the classes down to six per day by having longer periods. Teachers might actually have the time to teach and skip the worksheets, and kids might actually learn something of value.

Quit wasting everyone's money and our educators' talents on a class designed for "Exploring Careers." My son will be in eighth grade and I don't want him worrying about a career. A brief session of a couple hours, maybe, but don't waste a whole trimester. I want to know that he can read, figure out problems, communicate, think, and have some vague idea of what really is happening in the world and where.

I want someone to justify these types of classes at a time when everyone agrees that not enough of the basics are covered.

As parents we don't have to let this happen. Sure, we can direct our kids to take courses of substance, which are offered. But the fact is, precious resources are being wasted on courses designed to graduate—not educate—our kids. I can't wait to see what creative new fields will be available next year at Lincoln.

One thing is certain. With courses like "The Franklin 500" (in Boy Scouts we called it the Pinewood Derby), our students shouldn't have any problem qualifying for the next level of education based on GPA. I can only imagine the demand for kids who have completed the necessary requirements in "Art of Wonder" and have created a nice assortment of "Wee Folks."

Seriously, folks, these are all courses and descriptions taken from the registration bulletin for Franklin Middle School for next year. And I think it's sad.

Sincerely,
Darryl Breitenfeldt
Thief River Falls

(Editor's Note: In keeping with our policy of allowing a response in the same issue to letters critical of individuals or situations, we provided a copy of Mr. Breitenfeldt's letter to Bill Hahne, principal at Franklin school. He shared the letter with teachers of elective subjects at Franklin who prepared the following response.)

To The Editor:

As teachers of elective courses at Franklin Middle School, we are deeply concerned by the assumptions that are being made by Darryl Breitenfeldt in his letter to the editor. The American educational system is designed to meet the diverse interests and learning styles of all students. In order to meet these needs, courses in various disciplines are available to all middle school students.

One cannot assume that each student will only be interested in math, science, communications and social studies. Young people must have the chance to explore other areas of study which also involve creative processes and creative thinking skills. The elective courses at Franklin are designed to provide young people with a balanced education that will give them the opportunity to gain skills which will enhance both their enjoyment and quality of life.

Elective course objectives have been written that require specified levels of achievement. Students enrolled in elective courses are held to the same high academic standards as those in the core curriculum. They must demonstrate responsibility, work ethic, creative thinking and problem-solving skills to successfully complete these courses.

In the public school system, visitors—particularly parents—are always welcome to all classrooms to view first hand the learning taking place. We welcome the opportunity to discuss in person any aspects of our curriculum that are of concern. We are proud of the education offered to the students in the Thief River Falls schools.

To The Editor:

This afternoon (February 20) Nicholas Tunheim rang my doorbell to tell me that my neighbor had fallen and needed help. Shawn Rud had already gone into her house and called 911 to report the incident with the correct address.

These young people were playing hockey on an adjoining street and responded to my neighbor's need with valor. My neighbor was screaming for help and may not have been heard or found for several hours had these young people not heard, responded and done the correct things.

All of them came to her steps where she had fallen: Nicholas Tunheim, Shawn Rud, Billy Puppe, Nick Daley, Cody Hempel, Taylor Hempel, Lucas Trickle and Brandon Langlie. They all deserve thanks and accolades for their caring, compassionate and valiant behavior.

Sincerely,
Millie's Neighbor

Senator Introduces "Bad Faith" Insurance Bill

"People buy insurance to protect themselves in time of need," notes State Senator Dallas Sams of Staples, "but who protects people from an insurance company that chooses to take forever to pay a claim or, worse yet, denies payment for a claim that is legitimate?"

Sen. Sams has introduced a bill he calls the Insurance Bad Faith Bill that he says "offers hope and help to people in these situations."

Believing that most Minnesota insurance companies and their representatives are honest, up-front and professional, Sen. Sams said his bill will allow them to continue business as usual.

"But for companies that act in bad faith—that deny to pay valid claims or settle valid claims in a timely manner—it would not be business as usual."

Under the proposed bill, an individual could recover damages above and beyond the limits of a policy if the insurance company would be found to have acted in bad faith.

"The threat of losing more than the policy coverage will encourage insurance companies to settle up and be fair," Sen. Sams said. "It will take away the profit motive of spending a little money on staff lawyers to avoid losing more in benefit claims."

Anyone who has had property damage or fire related insurance problems are encouraged to write to Sen. Dallas Sams, G-9 State Capitol, St. Paul, MN 55155.

College Appointment Shows Diplomacy

Chancellor Jay Noren and the Minnesota Higher Education Board displayed diplomacy this week in the naming of Dr. Orley Gunderson and Dr. James Haviland of Thief River Falls to responsible positions in the new Minnesota State Colleges and Universities (MnSCU) system.

The two presidents of local post high school educational institutions had both submitted their names for consideration as president of the college to be created by the merger of Northland Community College and the Thief River Falls campus of Northwest Technical College. Both are well qualified administrators with the benefit of local background in area needs and ongoing merger efforts. It would make good sense to retain one of them as president rather than take another option—reject both as applicants and find someone from outside to fill the role.

Following an extensive interview process that involved personal conversations with members of the community as well as the two presidents themselves, Chancellor Jay Noren has shown his diplomatic abilities. He recommended that Dr. Gunderson become the new president of the combined college, but created a challenging position in the administration of MnSCU that appealed to Dr. Haviland.

Both presidents at a news conference Thursday morning termed the announcement from the Minnesota Higher Education Board a "win-win" situation, speaking from a personal standpoint. Who could expect a better result than that?

We congratulate both Orley and Jim on their appointments. We have every confidence in Dr. Gunderson's ability to forge a strong and vital college which not only meets the needs of students who will move on to four-year schools but is responsive to area business and industry in providing skills training to prepare area people for area employment. This will require a concerted and sincere cooperative effort from local faculties and staffs, and we believe Orley is capable and deserving of attaining that support.

We also have confidence that Dr. Haviland will make his mark in the new administration as his position evolves and his ideas prove valuable.

There is a down-side to the Chancellor's and Higher Education Board's decision, of course, and that is the necessity for Jim and his family to leave our community in a few short months. He, and they, have been welcome and active participants and will be missed by many. We join their friends, associates and acquaintances in wishing them well in their future location and endeavors.

We also would be remiss if we did not congratulate Chancellor Noren on his handling of a delicate situation. He was able to accomplish several worthwhile objectives without creating any controversies. He gained a capable administrator in the state office, retained a dedicated and experienced president in the local college and demonstrated his interest and concern for an individual college in the large system.

If such diplomacy continues in the state MnSCU office's dealing with its campuses, there may be reason for hope that the mega-merger of all state, community and technical colleges can succeed.

Responses Invited: Letters critical of individuals or other entities may be shown to those individuals or representatives of those entities in advance of publication with an invitation by newspaper staff for response in the same issue as the original letter.

Corrections: If an error is made in news or advertising publication, the staff encourages readers to call it to our immediate attention by calling 681-4450. We will attempt to correct the error or clarify the misunderstanding in the next issue.

LETTERS

To The Editor:

On behalf of the district-wide staff development committee, the district staff development office and the entire staff of the Thief River Falls-St. Hilaire public schools we want to thank all of the community members who helped make February 17, district-wide staff development day, a success.

On behalf of area businesses, the Chamber of Commerce coordinated an appreciation breakfast for the educational community early that morning. The Academic Boosters Club provided refreshments for staff at the morning break. These efforts require extensive volunteer hours and expense. Their hard work is an expression of appreciation that means a great deal to all of us.

In keeping with a goal of the Thief River Falls-St. Hilaire Education 2000 Strategic Plan, we included in our staff development sessions several businesses which informed staff about their work in the community. As we move toward our mission of a "Community Partnership Focused on Quality Learning," our district is committed to continued learning about how education and the community can work together to provide that quality learning for students.

We appreciate very much the time and efforts of Regan Rohl from Edward D. Jones, Paul Nelson from Hartz Foods, Inc., Marty Johnson from First National Bank, Marie Finney from Digi-Key Corp., Jeff Gustafson and Rocky Ammerman from Minnesota Jobs and Training Service.

Thanks to all of you.

Sincerely,
Jane Miller, Chair

To The Editor:

I went to bed saddened last night by a news report stating for every three five births in our country one baby is aborted—with no apologies, no remorse, and only justification in the eyes of the media that this is a needed service not to be denied its people. One-fourth are being barred from living and sharing in our lives.

What many who support these statistics fail to realize is that each of these abortions is not just a speck or a blob removed in a medical DNC procedure; it is a growing individual murdered no differently than Jeanna North was, or Suzanne Smith's babies, or any other domestic violence/abuse situation where a victim's life is taken.

What is hardening the hearts of our people to allow this to continue? I am thankful for those in the medical profession who are standing up against the pressure and coercion that is taking place in the medical field at this time. Many want no part of abortion in their hospitals or in their lives. In America, they should have that choice, too; to refuse to be a part of what they feel is morally wrong.

"Human life is sacred...from its very inception it reveals the creating hand of God."

—Pope John XXIII

Sincerely,
Kathryn Schafer

The February meeting of the Fosston and Area Singles' Christian Fellowship assembly will be held Sunday, February 26 at 3 p.m. at the Embassy Community center in Fosston. Madelyn Vigen to be named director

Thief River Falls city council is expected to formally appoint Madelyn Vigen as the city's park and recreation director at their next meeting Tuesday, February 28.

Vigen, who is one of the city's co-directors of the department, was one of seven people interviewed by the city council as finalists for the job. About 40 people applied for the job.

Vigen has served as the city's co-director for the park and recreation department with Curt Howe ever since the position was vacated by Mike Mongoven over two years ago. The city held off appointing one person to head up the department because a re-organizational study was being completed. Following the completion of that study, which recommended a park and recreation director position, the city advertised to fill the position.

The park and recreation director is responsible for supervising a professional and technical staff which includes arenas, recreational facilities and administering the departmental budget and grant funds.

Vigen has been with the park and recreation department for 14 and one-half years.

Vigen said the park and recreation department is known for longevity among its employees. She has every confidence in the people she works with because they certainly know their duties. She added that for the past couple of years they have been working on expanding their programs and they plan to continue to expand programs.

Thief River Falls branch of the American Association of University Women is touring Challenger elementary school at 11 a.m. today (Saturday, February 25). Members and guests were to meet at the main entrance on the south side of the school.

Assistant principal Dave Hedin is leading the tour. Following the tour the group will go to the American Legion club rooms for the Saturday hamburger day sponsored by the Sons of the American Legion.

Marcy Mickelson is coordinator for the program.

Spring dead animal pickup will start soon in area counties

Spring pick-up of dead livestock for the region will get underway in March and continue into April, weather permitting, according to the Pembina Trail Resource Conservation and Development Association.

A cost-share program for farmers in Pennington, Marshall, Red Lake and Roseau counties will help pay a portion of the collection fee. Farmers in other counties will pay 100 per cent of the cost.

Livestock owners needing this service can call 1-800-450-2482 or 218-253-2482 for more details. Evening calls are preferred.

MCC girls end regular season winning 55-42

A strong first half carried Marshall County Central to a regular-season-ending 55-42 girls high school basketball win over Warren-Alvarado-Oslo Tuesday.

The visiting Ponies went ahead 14-12 in the first quarter, but the Nordics had a 24-20 halftime lead and maintained a 32-25 edge through a low-scoring third quarter.

"The first half was probably the best basketball we've played all year," reported Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde. "We had some turnovers in the third quarter, but then we played well again in the fourth quarter."

Tricia Pederson had an "outstanding" game, said Mjelde, who watched as the 5-10 junior scored 18 points, grabbed 12 rebounds and handed out 6 assists. Darlene Nelson, a 5-9 junior, also played well with a game-high 19 points.

Anne Ellerbusch led Warren-Alvarado-Oslo with 16 points.

The Nordics had a 50 percent 23-for-46 shooting night and an 8-for-15 game at the free throw line. The Ponies were 18-for-52 from the field (35 percent) and 6-for-12 at the line. The winners had a 29-21 rebound advantage, but also had more turnovers, 17-12.

Marshall County Central finished the regular season with three straight wins and a 9-11 record.

Prowlers hold on to beat Nordics 63-61

Losing coach Ron Ueland was happy and winning coach Scott Brekke was relieved Tuesday when the final horn sounded in a 63-61 Thief River Falls boys high school basketball victory over Marshall County Central.

Despite the setback, Ueland was elated with a game-long comeback that wiped out a 16-point first quarter deficit. Winning on a final-second shot was exciting, but Brekke was trying to figure out why a first quarter blow-out turned into a down-to-the-wire finish.

With teammates feeding Kyle Sanden a steady diet of lob passes over the smaller Marshall County Central defenders, the 6-10 junior center did all the scoring as the Prowlers jumped out to a 13-0 lead four minutes into the game. It was 20-4 at the quarter break and 26-14 on a Sanden rebound basket with 3:36 left in the first half.

"We were real happy with the start," acknowledged Brekke. "They couldn't stop Kyle. We worked the ball around and the kids did a nice job getting the ball inside."

But the early domination robbed the Prowlers of their intensity, said Brekke, and the scrappy Nordics took advantage of the crack in the Thief River Falls armor to make a game of it. With 6-0 junior center/forward Micah Ranum supplying two 3-point plays to key an 8-0 run, Marshall County Central was within 26-22 with 2:24 remaining in the first half.

"After getting that lead early, we might have had a let-up, especially defensively," acknowledged Brekke. "They came at us hard. We missed a few shots, and we couldn't seem to stop them."

Ranum closed out a 31-28 first half by scoring from underneath with 14.3 seconds showing.

"We played a real nice game, once we got going," said Marshall County Central coach Ron Ueland. "It took some adjustment against the big guy (Sanden) defensively, and we got real aggressive on offense. We made things happen offensively – something we haven't be able to do very often this year. Brandon Borg did a nice job getting our offense going in the second quarter."

Twice at the start of the second half the Nordics pulled within a single point, but when Eric Bjorgaard finished the third quarter with a three-point play and a base line drive, the spread was back to 48-41.

Another Bjorgaard drive, this one with 4:42 remaining, had the Prowlers in charge 54-45.

But the never-say-die Nordics responded to the challenge by scoring three points on each on their next four possession – an inside move for a field goal and free throw by Ranum, then 3-point launches by Trever Magner, Kent Rokke and Kyle Halvorson – to pull within 61-59 with 2:07 still showing.

The Marshall County Central rally was completed when Halvorson tied it 61-61 by hitting two free throws with 38.9 seconds on the clock.

"I was real proud of the kids for not quitting," said Ueland. "They could have easily folded things up and said, let's try again Friday."

Thief River Falls held the ball following Halvorson's free throws for a final shot. It didn't come off as planned, but guard Josh Hedin, seeing that the designed play wasn't going to happen, pulled up on a drive and hit a short jumper from the side with 1.9 seconds to play.

"It was a real heads-up play by Josh," said Brekke. "He went to the hole and made something happen."

The Nordics got the clock stopped with 1.2 seconds left, but a desperation length-of-the-court inbounds pass sailed long to seal it.

Sanden finished with 36 points and Bjorgaard contributed a strong 15-point game as the Prowlers improved to 10-9. Ranum, despite the big size disadvantage inside, earned respect from the Lincoln High School gym crowd with a 22-point effort to lead the 6-15 Nordics.

"The guy (Ranum) is phenomenal," said Ueland. "He's not intimated when he goes inside against bigger people."

Thief River Falls shot 52 percent from the field (27/52) and made 6 of 8 free throws. Marshall County Central shot 46 percent from the floor (24/53) and went 6-for-7 at the line. The Nordics finished with a 27-26 rebound edge and topped the turnover charts 12-8.

Davis is top-placing TRF wrestler

Third place finish by senior John Davis at 189 pounds was the top Thief River Falls showing in the individual portion of the 1995 Section 8AA high school wrestling tournament Feb. 17-18 at St. Cloud Tech.

Top two finishers in each weight class earned Class AA state tournament berths. Davis lost an 8-6 decision in a state tournament-qualifying true second match.

"We were disappointed we didn't get anybody to state, but overall, it was not too bad," was the way Thief River Falls coach John Anderson described the Prowlers' post-season showing. "Team-wise, we did much better than we did last year."

The Prowlers finished 11th in the 12-team field, but they increased their scoring from 11 to 43 points over last season, and they had six place finishers this time around, compared to just one a year ago.

Rocori was the top-scoring team in the individual competition with 243.5 points, followed by Bemidji with 198.5, Brainerd 178.5, St. Cloud Tech 162.5, Little Falls 151.5, Alexandria 112, Moorhead 104, St. Cloud Apollo 68.5, Sauk Rapids 65.6, Detroit Lakes 44.5, Thief River Falls 43, and Fergus Falls 28.

Top four point producers earned spots in the Section 8AA team tournament Thursday at Rocori, where the host Spartans beat Brainerd 33-24 in the finals for a state meet berth.

Sanden sets record

A 36-point game by Thief River Falls junior Kyle Sanden in the Prowlers' 63-61 Tuesday win over Marshall County Central moved the 6-10 center atop the career basketball scoring charts for Lincoln High School boys.

Sanden was 15 points shy of Chris Bjorgaard on the scoring charts going into the contest. He scored the first 13 points of the game and became the Prowlers' all-time scoring leader on a free throw with 5:30 left in the first half.

Bjorgaard, a 6-2 guard-forward, finished his high school basketball career in 1987-88 with 1,125 points. Sanden currently has 1,146.

All-time Thief River Falls scoring leader for boys and girls is Jodi Kruta, who finished her high school basketball career in 1991-92 with 1,771 points.

Earlier this season Sanden set a single-game school scoring record with 43 points against Crookston.

B/G-MR boys beat RLF, fall at Tri-County

A 42-point win over Red Lake Falls and a two-point loss to Tri-County sent the Badger/Greenbush-Middle River boys high school basketball team into a regular season-ending Friday game at Argyle with a 16-5 record.

Section 8A hockey quarterfinals...

Anderson, Chiodo spark 6-3 TRF win

Keith Anderson scored four goals and linemate Nick Chiodo collected four assists Thursday as Thief River Falls doubled Kittson Central 6-3 in the Section 8A high school hockey tournament quarterfinals at East Grand Forks.

The No. 5-seeded Wolfpack played the fourth-seeded Prowlers to a 2-2 first period tie and went ahead 3-2 on a goal by Ryan Johnson just 45 seconds into the second period.

But Steve Rambeck tied it again two minutes later, starting a string of four unanswered Thief River Falls goals that advanced the 11-11-1 Prowlers, playing for the first time since finishing the regular season with a 4-0 win over Detroit Lakes Feb. 14, into the semifinal today (Saturday) against top-seeded Roseau.

"We got off to a slow start," acknowledged Thief River Falls coach Pat Cullen. "It was a combination of nerves, and not having played for so many days. But the kids, even when we fell behind, didn't get rattled. They kept their composure."

Aaron Ehrenstrom also scored for the Prowlers, who beat the Wolfpack 4-3 during the regular season. Anderson, in addition to his four goals, also picked up an assist for a five-point night.

"Keith and Nick really did a nice job," said Cullen. "They worked hard all night."

Thief River Falls goalie Chanc Keefe, after giving up some goals early, played well down the stretch, according to Cullen. "We gave up some soft goals at the start of the game, but after that, he (Keefe) really got tough," he said.

THE IMPACT-RESISTANT LENS
Every eyeglass and sunglass approved by the Food and Drug Administration must be impact-resistant. It must be able to withstand the impact of a 5/8" steel ball dropped from a height of 50 inches.
This can afford you some degree of protection, but keep in mind that these impact-resistant glasses aren't shatter-proof or break-proof. You may have greater protection than you did before the FDA regulation went into effect, but you still have to protect your eyes and your glasses from accidents.
A lot depends on the care you give your glasses. Dropping them can sometimes loosen the lens. If you have scratched your glasses, you may have weakened them. They will be easier to break or shatter.
It's important to have your glasses checked regularly. If needed, your optometrist can recommend quality lenses that meet the highest standards of impact-resistance. At the same time, he can check your eyes to make sure your glasses are giving you the best possible vision.

Section 8A Sub-Section 4 girls...

Spilde, Tri-County defeat MCC 61-45

Erika Spilde opened the 1994 Section 8A Sub-Section 4 girls high school basketball tournament with a bang Thursday afternoon – an eye-opening 30-point performance that sparked Tri-County to a 61-45 win over Marshall County Central.

Spilde, a 5-2 senior guard, picked up half of her points on five 3-point shots that had the Northland Community College gym buzzing – and Marshall County Central coach Tom Mjelde muttering.

"We knew we had to get out on her, but she kept backing up," said Mjelde. "She was shooting way behind the 3-point line. We couldn't get to her in time."

And on occasion when the Nordics did prevent Spilde from getting off the outside shot, the Wildcats slipped the ball inside to a trio of 5-10 front line players – senior Sara Bogestad, who scored 14 points, sophomore Heidi Slusynski with 8 and freshman Anna Bogestad with 8 more.

"They had too many weapons," said Mjelde. "If we went out after Spilde, they dumped it inside. They're a real good ball club. They're big, they pass well, and they shoot well."

Marshall County Central stated with a 6-0 lead, but Tri-County finished the first quarter with a 13-1 run – 7 points coming from Spilde and 6 from Sara Bogestad.

The Nordics, who lost to the Wildcats by 23 and 15 points in two regular season meetings, were still within 17-13 following a short turnaround jumper by Sara Hodny with 4:57 left in the first half. But the game then took a definite Tri-County turn when Spilde hit 3-point shots on consecutive trips down the court in helping produce a 25-14 halftime gap.

"Those two (3-point) baskets by Spilde were the turning point," acknowledged Mjelde.

If those back-to-back treys didn't decide the issue, then a 12-0 Tri-County run to start the second half did. Spilde was part of it, of course, with two more 3-pointers.

The Nordics never recovered, trailing 41-27 at the end of the third quarter and getting no closer than 11 points over the final eight minutes.

Tricia Pederson scored 12 of her team-high 16 points in the fourth quarter to lead the Nordics. Darlene Nelson contributed 10.

Marshall County Central was 13-for-50 from the field (26 percent) and 15-for-23 at the free throw line. Tri-County went 21-for-48 from the floor (44 percent) and 14-for-19 at the line. The Wildcats out-rebounded the Nordics 31-25. Marshall County Central topped the turnover charts 19-17.

The loss ended the Nordics' season at 9-12.

Huskies' home court success is extended

Goodridge took charge with a 20-4 second quarter scoring run Tuesday and finished with a 79-61 boys high school basketball win over Argyle.

It was the final home appearance of the 1994-95 season for the Huskies, who have lost just three times on their home court over the past three years. They were 8-0 in Goodridge this winter.

"That's a great tribute to the kids, especially the seniors who have been with us the past three years," pointed out Goodridge coach John Rahn.

The 16-4 Huskies turned a 15-14 first quarter lead into a 41-26 halftime gap and a 65-37 third quarter spread.

"It was a good win for us," said Rahn. "The guys all played hard. We played well at times. The second quarter was big."

Brady Wiseth led the Huskies with 22 points, while Mitch Sinsky had a 17-point, 12-rebound game, and Ryan Kriel netted 14 points. Blair Stollmann and Jamie Morberg scored 16 points apiece for the Eagles.

Goodridge was 28-for-78 from the field (36 percent) and 11-for-26 at the free throw line. Argyle went 22-for-72 from the floor (31 percent) and 6-for-8 at the line. The Huskies beat the Eagles on the boards 46-29.

RLCC girls finish with a 71-59 win vs. Sacred Heart

Fifty-one percent shooting from the field (34/67) carried the Red Lake County Central girls to a regular season-ending 71-59 high school basketball win over East Grand Forks Thursday in Plummer.

Angie Cherveslad scored 22 points while hitting 11 of 16 shots, and grabbed 19 rebounds as the Mustangs won for the third time in their last four starts to close out an 8-12 campaign.

Johnson key to Wolverines' win

Mike Gast isn't real keen on handing out individual praise in a team sport, but the Goodridge/Grygla-Gatzke head coach will give credit when credit is due. Thursday that credit went to sophomore guard Jenny Johnson, who scored 15 points in leading the Wolverines to an opening round 42-38 Section 8A Sub-Section 4 girls high school basketball tournament win over Kittson County North.

Part of Johnson's game-high scoring figure were a number of key baskets as the Wolverines struggled to get by a team they beat twice during the regular season, including an 18-point 51-33 decision in the regular season finale Monday.

"First game tournament jitters, I guess," offered Gast. "We played real tight tonight. I'm just thankful Jenny was on tonight. She hit some big baskets when we were struggling. I don't normally like to brag up any one player, but if Jenny wouldn't have been hitting those shots tonight, we would not have won the game."

The second portion of a three-game tournament-opening session at Northland Community College was close throughout. The Wolverines led 12-8 at the end of the first quarter, fell behind 20-18 at halftime, but went back on top when a 3-point basket by Johnson kicked off a 7-0 run to open the second half.

However, the Cougars stayed within 29-28 as the third quarter ended, and caught the Wolverines at 32-32 on a bucket from the side by Mary Hokanson with 6:37 remaining.

That's when Johnson came through, again, with a another 3-point basket to begin another 7-0 run for a 39-32 cushion with 5:01 left.

Refusing to go away, Kittson County North crept back within 40-38 when Naomi Wilebski slipped inside to score with 32.2 seconds showing.

The Wolverines finally iced it when Melissa Bernstein, who joined Johnson in double figures with 10 points, made both ends of a bonus free throw opportunity with 21.5 seconds left.

The Wolverines shot 30 percent from the field (15/30) and made 9 of 16 free throws. The Cougars shot 37 percent from the floor (17/45), but hit only 4 of 10 free throws. Kittson County North had a slim 29-27 rebound edge, but also had more turnovers, 20-14.

Grygla-Gatzke steals a win from Sacred Heart

An effective press opened the door for the Grygla-Gatzke offense Friday in a 72-45 boys high school basketball win over visiting East Grand Forks Sacred Heart.

Sacred Heart turned the ball over 34 times – 21 of those being direct steals by Grygla-Gatzke. With those plays leading to numerous fast break opportunities, the winners shot 58 percent from the field for the game (30/52).

"Our defensive pressure forced a lot of steals," noted Grygla-Gatzke coach Vern Johnson.

Jeremy Verbout scored 17 points and Scott Huganson had 12 as Grygla-Gatzke built quarter leads of 15-11, 32-21 and 56-31.

Sacred Heart, 20-for-45 from the field (44 percent), was led by Chris Meyer with 14 points.

At the free throw line, Grygla-Gatzke was 9-for-18 and Sacred Heart made 3 of 5. The winners, who turned it over 19 times, finished with a 33-25 rebound advantage.

Following a news conference Thursday morning at Northwest Technical College in Thief River Falls, Northland Community College president Dr. James Haviland (left) and Northwest Technical College Thief River Falls president Dr. Orley Gunderson posed for this "Northern Watch" photo. The news conference was called following the naming of Dr. Gunderson as president of the college which will be formed from merger of the two colleges later this year. Dr. Haviland has been appointed as a Distinguished Senior Fellow for Academic Affairs with the central office staff of Minnesota State Colleges and Universities in St. Paul when that organization begins its official functioning in July.

Dr. Orley Gunderson named to head combined college

quate, affordable student housing that is secure and safe" that should begin this spring and be ready for occupancy in the fall.

Seeks Faculty Cooperation

At the morning press conference Dr. Gunderson said he would be meeting with faculty that afternoon to outline some of the challenges that lie ahead and request their input and continued cooperation as the merged college evolves.

Dr. Haviland, who is on sabbatical leave as president until June 1, said he will technically serve as president during the month of June. He said he has completed the first draft of his book—"This Book Is No Joke!"—which deals with the role of humor in communications.

Haviland holds a doctorate from Western Michigan University and recently completed a master of business administration degree at the University of St. Thomas. He has been administrator at Northland since his arrival in 1986.

Haviland Family To Move

The Haviland family, which includes Jim's wife Alicia and their seven children, plans to move to the Twin Cities area early this summer. The children include Wade, 13; Adam, 12; Chelsea, 11; Brittany, 9, Reid, 8; Blake, 6; and Chase, 5.

Alicia Haviland has been active in aerobics instruction and a number of volunteer activities ever since coming to Thief River Falls. The Twin Cities setting may provide her with a greater opportunity to make use of her graduate degrees in nursing and chemistry.

Dr. Gunderson, a native of Mahnomen, holds degrees from the University of Minnesota and Pennsylvania State University and earned his doctorate in education at Oregon State University.

He spent two years as an administrative intern at Lane Community College in Eugene, OR; served as an instructor at Bemidji State University; was a senior consultant in the State Department of Education; and worked at Willmar and East Grand Forks technical colleges before coming to Thief River Falls in 1980.

He was assistant superintendent and president of the Thief River Falls Technical College from 1980 until 1992 when it became part of the six-campus Northwest Technical College. He has served as president of the Thief River Falls campus of the technical college since that time.

Local Merger Plan Ongoing

Gunderson and Haviland, along with NCC dean Sue Minnick, who is now interim president at Northland, have been working together for some time in planning for the consolidation of the two colleges into a unified institution.

Northland and the Thief River Fall campus of Northwest Technical College are among 22 community and technical college campuses which are expected to combine into 10 comprehensive colleges in the first two years of the MnSCU merger. Each of the combined institutions will have one president.

According to present plan, on July 1, 1995, the current central offices and governing boards of the state community college, technical college and state university systems will cease to exist. The 15-member Higher Education Board will govern an integrated system with 62 campuses, 163,000 students and 20,000 employees.

The merger often is described as the most far-reaching restructuring of higher education ever attempted in Minnesota.

Karlstad searches for health care solutions

Delivery of patients to the Karlstad Clinic or others; 3) Staffing, recruiting and scheduling of on-call volunteer RN's, and 4) Coordinating additional staff for ambulance drivers through the fire department to keep EMS personnel available.

"They are asking the Health Facilities for: 1) Stocked Urgent Care Room (the old ER); 2) Billing agreement to bill patients for use of supplies, doctors, RN's; and, 3) Insurance for RN's during on-call activities."

In the meantime, Karlstad is exploring other options.

One of the options being explored involves a cooperative agreement between Karlstad Health Facilities and Kittson Memorial Hospital in Hallock. Currently, the two hospitals share a physical therapist through United Hospital, and a dietician contracted by Kittson to Karlstad at cost.

TRF magnet arts school accepting 95-96 applications

Northern Expressions School of the Arts in Thief River Falls has distributed its brochures on the 1995-96 academic year to area school districts and is ready to accept applications for enrollment.

The brochures detail information about what Northern Expressions—the magnet arts school associated with Lincoln high school—will offer and how to get further information on how to fill out an application for the coming school year.

The magnet arts school is a tuition-free school for the Seventh Congressional District of Minnesota. It is one of seven such schools in the state and is funded through the Minnesota Center for Arts Education in Golden Valley.

Students going into the 11th or 12th grade during the 1995-96 school year and residents of the Seventh Congressional District, are eligible to participate in the arts school.

"Interested students should ask for a brochure from their high school principal, counselor, media center supervisor or teacher of English, visual arts, music, drama or physical education," emphasizes Bev Arnston, director of the arts school. "Brochures have been sent to each of these educators in all schools in the Seventh District."

Arnston explained that the school offers six art-based curricular areas as its base—visual, media theater, music (instrumental, vocal and orchestral), dance and literary. Each student has an individual learning plan that is planned by the student, his or her parents and the advisor at the school.

"Arts and academics are stressed equally and are integrated so that students come to understand the relationship among subject areas," Arnston added. "Students elect to study one art area in depth. The school also designs the learning process around outcomes rather than class time.

"The art school is for the young person whose interest in an art form is extremely keen and whose art development has reached a point where he or she would benefit from the concentrated area of study that the Northern Expressions School of the Arts has to offer."

Priority deadline for completed Northern Expressions arts school applications was March 1. The final deadline for completed applications is May 1. For more information about the arts school or to receive the informational brochure and/or admissions packet, call Bev Arnston at 218-681-8677 or write to her at Northern Expressions School of the Arts, District Service Center, 230 LaBree Avenue South, Thief River Falls, MN 56701.

"The convention presents an opportunity for students to become involved with the political process first hand," notes Elaine Grosum, advisor to the student council at Lincoln. "Resolutions are discussed and voted on in addition to

Hwy. 59 bypass viewed as development or disaster

Many opinions expressed at hearing on proposed connector route

Over 60 people braved cold weather to attend a meeting at the Heritage Community Center in Thief River Falls Tuesday night to express their opinion and/or learn more about a proposed connector highway from the intersection of Highway 59 and 1 to Highway 32 at County road 61 south of Thief River Falls. The 10-ton connector road would be approximately 2.38 miles long and cost an estimated $1.25 million, according to the county engineer, Delton Schulz.

Schulz said that per acre cost of property along the proposed route ranges from $1,000 to $9,000, which is supported by public record. Depending upon funding formulas and other priorities, the project could be completed in as little as two years, or it could take as long as three years to complete.

It was announced at the meeting that the Thief River Falls city council had gone on record in support of the route. Support from the city, however, is based on the premise that the county will not build a bridge across the river on County road 61, which would create a true bypass.

Opinions ranged from outright support to outright opposition to the proposal. One of the more vocal people at the meeting was County Commissioner Bob Carlson. Carlson asked that a memorandum written to the Thief River Falls city council by Ron Lindberg and Don Stewart, which explained the city's position on the alternate route, be read into the record.

In summary, that memo stated the council supports the alternate route because it would: 1) improve safety and traffic flow at the intersection of Third Street (Highway 59) and Main (Highway 32), particularly because of trucks making a right hand turn from Highway 59 to Highway 32; hopefully discourage truckers from taking Barzen Avenue, a route not equipped to handle such traffic; and accommodate new and expanding businesses which utilize trucks and other heavy equipment. 2) The city would also support the route because they believe it would improve drainage in the area. 3) The city supports the route because it would allow economic development in the area to continue. The memorandum noted, for example, that Digi-Key was in the process of purchasing large tracts of land in the area for future expansion.

Carlson responded by saying that in meeting with Chris Twomey, executive director at Arctco, he learned that 80 per cent of their truck traffic comes from the south and 75 to 80 per cent of their employees do not live in the city. He said that in meeting with Ron Stordahl, he learned that Digi-Key is looking to expand in the distant future. He also noted that most of Bridgeman's traffic comes from the south. He concluded that the bypass would do little for these industries.

Bridgeman's to show off its improvements

In an event designed for more than 100 area dairy producers, the 100 Bridgeman employees in Thief River Falls and 10 contract haulers and their spouses, Bridgeman Dairy will show off the major improvements made to its facilities in recent years on Wednesday, March 8.

Activities will begin in the new two-bay milk receiving station at the downtown milk processing facility on Main Avenue. After a welcome, introductory remarks and a ribbon-cutting there, the group will tour the station, processing plant and the distribution center located south of Thief River Falls on highway 32. A reception at the American Legion club rooms will conclude the event.

Cutting the ribbon marking completion of a number of improvement projects will be Murl Nord of Blackduck, a District 6 representative and secretary on the Land O'Lakes board of directors. Murl and his wife Suzette operate a 1,400-acre farm where they milk 145 cows and raise all heifer calves as replacement stock.

Nord is a member and director of the Executive Committee of the National Milk Producers Federation and a past chairman of the Blackduck Co-op Ag Services board of directors. He has been both chairman and director of the District 6 Land O'Lakes board, chairman of the Blackduck school board and a director of the Red River Valley Dairyman's Association.

The receiving bay is the most recent of a series of improvements and additions that have been accomplished over a period of several years.

"The capital improvements that have been made over the past few years have had multiple objectives in mind," notes Denny Tollefson, manager of Bridgeman Dairy's Grand Forks division, of which Thief River Falls operations are a part.

"These objectives are enhanced customer service, improved product quality, provision of a safe work environment, improved operating efficiencies and providing for market growth. I'm very pleased with the outcome of these facilities. The company, our producers, employees and the Thief River Falls community can be very proud of them.

"Due to their location in the northern Minnesota milkshed and the markets we serve, the Thief River Falls processing and distribu-

Construction at the Bridgeman Dairy in Thief River Falls which has been ongoing for several years has now been completed and will be recognized at a special event Wednesday, March 8. Oklee — The city of Oklee is getting used to having its sidewalks broken up by a backhoe. There have been five water line breaks in the city this past week. Oklee will have all new water main lines and shutoffs to homes if funding for a proposed water project is approved.

SOUPÇON

Sherry LaCoursiere

Today we'll have some recipes that you can serve to more than a few guests. These are all from the "Taste of Home" magazine collector's edition.

This sounds like a very tasty main dish meal in a hurry:

BEEF STROGANOFF SANDWICH

- 2 pounds ground beef
- 1/2 cup chopped onion
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 1 loaf French bread
- Butter or margarine, softened
- 2 cups sour cream (16 ounces)
- 2 tomatoes, seeded and diced
- 1 large green pepper, diced
- 3 cups (12 ounces) shredded cheddar cheese

Brown ground beef and onion. Drain. Add salt, garlic powder and pepper.

Cut bread in half lengthwise, butter both halves and place on baking sheets.

Remove meat mixture from the heat and stir in sour cream. Spoon onto the bread.

Sprinkle with tomatoes, green pepper and cheese.

Bake at 350 degrees for 20 minutes or until cheese is melted. (Serves 8-10.)

Have this dish ready to bake if you are going to be serving a crowd:

BAKED SPAGHETTI

- 1 cup chopped onion
- 1 cup chopped green pepper
- 1 tablespoon butter or margarine
- 1 can (28 ounces) tomatoes with liquid, cut up
- 1 can (4 ounces) mushroom stems and pieces, drained
- 1 can (2 1/4 ounces) sliced ripe olives, drained
- 2 teaspoons dried oregano
- 1 pound ground beef, browned and drained (if desired)
- 12 ounces spaghetti, cooked and drained
- 2 cups (8 ounces) shredded cheddar cheese
- 1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of mushroom soup, undiluted
- 1/4 cup water
- 1/4 cup grated Parmesan cheese

In a large skillet, saute onion and green pepper in butter until tender.

Add tomatoes, mushrooms, olives and oregano, and ground beef, if desired. Simmer, uncovered, for 10 minutes.

Place half of the spaghetti in a greased 9x13 inch pan. Top with half of the vegetable mixture. Sprinkle with 1 cup of cheddar cheese. Repeat layers.

Mix soup and water until smooth. Pour over the casserole and top with Parmesan cheese. Bake, uncovered, at 350 degrees for 30-35 minutes or until thoroughly heated. (Serves 12.)

Serve this with your Baked Spaghetti and a loaf of French bread or with your fancy sandwiches and you will have a great meal.

FLUFFY FRUIT SALAD

- 2 cans (20 ounces each) crushed pineapple
- 2/3 cup sugar
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2 eggs, lightly beaten
- 1/4 cup orange juice
- 3 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 tablespoon vegetable oil
- 2 cans (17 ounces each) fruit cocktail, drained
- 2 cans (11 ounces each) mandarin oranges, drained
- 2 bananas, sliced
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Drain pineapple, reserving 1 cup juice in a small saucepan. Set pineapple aside.

Add sugar, flour, eggs, orange and lemon juice and oil to pineapple juice in saucepan. Bring to a boil, stirring constantly, and boil for 1 minute. Remove from heat and let cool.

In a salad bowl, combine pineapple, fruit cocktail, oranges and bananas. Fold in whipped cream and cooled sauce.

Chill for several hours. (Serves 12-16.)

BLOOD PRESSURE CAN AFFECT VISION

You may not know this, but your blood pressure can affect your vision. Double vision, spots and blurred images may be the first signs of high blood pressure. When an eye examination reveals narrowed, thickened or constricted blood vessels, fluid leakage, hemorrhaging or retinal degeneration, hypertension (another word for high blood pressure) is generally one of our considerations. In fact, doctors can sometimes determine the severity and duration of hypertension through an eye exam.

Hypertension can cause damage to the small vessels inside the retina. When high blood pressure remains uncontrolled, the consequences can include retinal damage and vision loss.

If you are having double vision, spots or blurred images, make an appointment for an eye examination. True, the problem may be strictly a visual one; however, if it is being caused by high blood pressure, it is imperative that you be aware of it.

All Nations Cultural Festival July 8 and 9 in St. Hilaire will feature a number of entertainment groups again this year. Among them will be the Irish Tavern Singers pictured above. The group appears year around in the United States and Canada with a variety of Irish songs and dances.

New group signs up for All Nation's Cultural Festival

One of the new entertainment groups to be featured at the All Nations Cultural Festival to be held July 8 and 9 in St. Hilaire will be the Irish Tavern Singers.

This group is known for being a lot of fun as well as entertaining the audience with music, song and dance. They can get hands clapping and feet stomping with rollicking Irish pub tunes or bring a tear to the eye with their rendition of "Danny Boy."

The Irish Tavern Singers perform year round in Canada and the United States and have delighted audiences at the Expo in Vancouver and Iron World here in the United States.

The All Nations Cultural Festival in 1995 will feature performers from Norway, a French Canadian group, a Caribbean group, a Cajun band, Native American dancers and encampments and the always popular Ukrainian Dancers who have been a crowd favorite at the previous festivals.

Due to a recent cancelation by the German performers who had been scheduled to make a festival appearance this year, a group from Croatia has been contracted to appear in their place.

Also included in the festival will be a petting zoo, clowns for the kids, ethnic foods and arts and crafts.

All Nations Cultural Festival is sponsored by KTRF-KSNR, the City of St. Hilaire and KYCK. For more information contact the city clerk's office in St. Hilaire at 964-5257 or call 681-1973.

LETTERS

To The Editor,

U.S. and Minnesota citizens are clearly dissatisfied with the issue of unrestricted abortion on demand. This became evident when not one pro-life incumbent lost in the U.S. Congressional and Gubernatorial election races against a pro-abortion challenger last November. No, not one, even in the Minnesota House of Representatives.

How can it be that some people are covertly trying to get state funding for abortion into the Minnesota health care reform? Why are our tax dollars already being used to pay for abortions for low income people who receive MinnesotaCare? Was a law passed to allow this? Were we, the people, consulted? No! Yet we are unwillingly being forced to pay for it.

Legislative action is the only way to stop this bureaucratic abuse. You made it clear by your vote that you are against unrestricted abortion funding; now let us make it clear to our legislators that we don't want abortion funding in MinnesotaCare.

Sincerely
Diana J. Morkassel
Warren, MN

Immunization clinic will be on March 7

Marshall County Nursing Service will hold an immunization clinic on Tuesday, March 7 at the Newfolden Community Center from 9 a.m. to 11 a.m.

Infants should be taken to one's family physician for their initial DTP and oral polio immunization. Otherwise, one should present a signed referral from the physician indicating the immunization is to be given by the clinic. Each child's immunization record must be presented each time the child receives a shot. If these procedures are not followed, the child will not be immunized.

The vaccine is provided free of charge by the Minnesota Department of Health. There will be a $4.00 fee for administering the vaccine, but one one will be refused because of an inability to pay. The clinics are open to the public and anyone needing to be immunized is encouraged to attend.

For more information contact Nancy Maurstad, RN, at the Marshall county Nursing Service at 218-745-5154.

Editorial opinion published on this page, whether locally written or re-printed from other sources is intended to stimulate thinking and discussion among our readers. Balance The Budget... But Cut Somewhere Else

Elected representatives of the people in the United States are conscientious, by and large, in wanting and trying to do their best to fulfill the needs and desires of their constituents. But there are certainly times when separating needs from desires is difficult and this is definitely one of those times.

Voters throughout the nation in the last general election sent what many in the media and politics call a "clear message" to hold the line, cut out waste, balance the budget, reduce government size and involvement in personal lives, stay in touch, bite the bullet, trim the fat, use common sense, etc., etc. The problem is that no matter how clear the message, it is tempered by a whole host of "untouchables" in getting the job done.

As the American people have allowed their government to take over what should be their own responsibilities, they have developed a dependency that goes to the core of the nation's financial and social woes. Our mail at The Times and Northern Watch office since last November has been filled with letters, news releases, fact sheets, commentaries and suggested editorials defending favorite turf.

Examples:

Luanne Nyberg, director of the Children's Defense Fund (Minnesota office) states in a letter that "We must stop the rush to balance the budget on the backs of children without adequate debate or analysis of the human consequences."

John Ellenbecker, president of the Coalition of Greater Minnesota Cities, complains that "The Governor is out of touch with the average working family in this state.....Although state revenues are projected to increase by more than $1 billion in the next two years, the Governor is proposing to cut state property tax relief programs, leading to increased property taxes and decreased services like police and fire protection in many Greater Minnesota communities."

"Minnesota schools are tired of taking it on the chin," states an article in the Minnesota Federation of Teachers Action magazine. "The Governor's proposed education budget is a recipe for failure. There is less money for schools than the 1994-95 funding year. If legislators accept the proposed education budget, parents and educators will be trying to fund education with bake sales, soup labels and another round of candy sales. That's why MFT is joining forces with other education groups to sponsor an education rally March 6."

Jack Willis, president and CEO of Twin Cities Public Television, says "Public television is fighting for its life against a concerted campaign in Congress to cut off vital funding.... We don't believe this is what the public wants and is definitely not in the public interest....One way the public can fight back is to immediately call, fax or write your U.S. senators and your national Congressional representative and urge them to stand up for public TV."

These are just four items from the top of the pile. We don't mean to pick on them specifically. Every group, organization or association that has fed from the public trough wants more, not less, and its answer to the suggestion of government financial restraint is not to seek means to cut costs or generate other income but to turn the screws on elected officials and coerce continued funding.

The point is, expending public funds to meet a perceived need or supply a service guarantees that the need will remain and the demand for service will expand. Any suggestion that funds should be cut or other means found to meet the need or supply the service is met with indignation and outrage. That is scarcely the spirit that will see our country out of the mess it has dragged itself into.

If they weren't aware before, elected officials should be especially aware now that their attempts to meet all needs and cure all ills have created a monster that is all too willing to turn on its creator. Now, if ever, statesmanship must come forward in our legislators and congressmen or the eventual fall will be impossible to withstand.

Property Owner Rights Legislation Advances

On both the state and national levels, legislation regarding property owners' rights has been introduced, found a willing and generally sympathetic group of listeners and is moving forward at an acceptable pace. In fact, despite their belief in the justness and necessity of their cause, originators of the reform proposals are somewhat surprised by the reception they and their program have received.

In the Minnesota Legislature, Senate File 475 and House File 709 have been introduced. These are companion property rights bills that provide a framework of compensation for constitutional takings of property.

Also introduced in the State Legislature are Senate File 483 and House File 622, companion bills on wetland reform. These bills call for relaxing of wetland restrictions and providing of compensation to landowners for restrictions placed on their land.

In the U.S. Congress, a floor vote on a property rights bill was expected as early as yesterday (Friday, March 3). Rep. Collin Peterson discussed the pending legislation in a conference telephone call with The Times and Northern Watch and several other area news media representatives.

Peterson said the purpose of the federal bill was to give some power back to property owners and to remove the necessity for private citizens to hire lawyers to defend themselves against their government. He said it was the intent of his group to push for legislation in four areas which involve about 95 per cent of the property rights disputes: The Endangered Species Act, Clean Water Act, Swampbuster and Sodbuster federal programs (which involve wetlands), and water rights in the West.

Organizations which originated and are lobbying for these changes are encouraging interested members of the public to contact their state and federal legislators to encourage support for the legislation.

Gators, Rams win semifinal games

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River and Roseau reached the 1995 Section 8A Sub-Section 4 girls high school basketball tournament finals with identical 21-3 records following nail-biting Tuesday semifinal wins at Northland Community College.

The Gators advanced with a down-to-the-wire 56-54 decision over Warroad, while the Rams used a late flurry to beat Kittson Central 64-56.

Winner in the Sub-Section 4 final will meet the Sub-Section 1 champion, either Park Rapids Area or Cass Lake-Bena, in the 6:30 p.m. Section 8A semifinal doubleheader opener Thursday at the University of Minnesota-Crookston.

Section 8A finals will be played Friday, with the third place game starting at 6:30 p.m. and championship game at 8:15.

Section 8A Sub-Section 4 Girls

■ Semifinals Tuesday, Feb. 28 - Badger/Greenbush-Middle River 56, Warroad 54; Roseau 64, Kittson Central 56

■ Finals Friday, March 3 - (third place) Warroad vs. Kittson Central, 6:10 p.m.; (championship) Badger/Greenbush-Middle River vs. Roseau, 8 p.m.

B/G-Middle River 56
Warroad 54

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River and Krissi Super did it again Saturday. Super hit a field goal with four seconds left as the Gators got by Tri-County 50-48 in the quarterfinals. Tuesday, Super connected with 9.1 seconds remaining to beat Warroad 56-54 in the semifinals.

It was a bitter defeat for Warroad, ahead 49-42 with 5:40 remaining and up 54-50 with 2:33 to play.

Trying to protect that four-point lead, Warroad called a time-out with 1:45 remaining to set up a clock-eating stall. But back-to-back turnovers sabotaged the strategy – leading to a short jumpers by Super with 1:06 left and by Nikki Wahl with 56.1 seconds showing for a 54-54 tie.

A Warroad miss from the field and a Badger/Greenbush-Middle River rebound with 42 seconds to play produced the Gators' game-winning possession.

Warroad did get a time-out call with six seconds remaining, but after running down a long length-of-the-court in-bounds pass, an off-balance final-second toss by Kari Keller was off the mark.

Super finished with 22 points, while Wahl, Ali Hetala and Jessica Borgen had 10 points apiece. Kendra Corneliusen and Tammy Knudson led Warroad with 17 and 16 points, respectively, and Kari Carlson contributed 11.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River led 13-8 at the first quarter break and went into halftime with a 26-25 edge when Borgen hit a short jump shot with 8 seconds left.

The Gators opened the second half with baskets by Borgen and Super to go ahead 30-25, but were out-scored 12-2 over the next three minutes to trail 37-32 on an end-to-end rebound/fast break lay-up by Corneliusen with 3:28 left. Warroad, ahead 43-38 at the end of the third quarter, did not surrender that lead until Super hit her game winner.

"We came out in a zone to start the third quarter to protect Jessica (who had three personal fouls)," explained Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Tom Neibauer. "We went from five up to five down in a hurry. We got out of it (zone) and went with got us here."

The two teams put on a shooting clinic that featured a 66 percent 25-for-38 night from the field by Badger/Greenbush-Middle River and a 55 percent 23-for-42 showing by Warroad. The winners were 4-for-8 at the free throw line; Warroad went 6-for-9.

Because of the high shooting percentages, there weren't many rebounds to be had. Warroad finished with a 19-13 edge on the boards, but also had more turnovers, 12-8. Four of those turnovers occurred in the final five minutes against a new-look Badger/Greenbush-Middle River defense, opening the door for the Gators' comeback.

"We went to a half-court trap for the first time all year," noted Neibauer. "We got a couple of steals off it, and got back in the game. We didn't play that bad a game. Warroad has some good athletes. We were fortunate to win."

Kittson Central 56

Megan Taylor-led Roseau scored seven unanswered points in the final 1:25 to break open a close game as the Rams outlasted Kittson Central 64-56 in the second half of the semifinal doubleheader.

The lead changed hands 11 times and the game was tied on 11 occasions before the winners put together their finishing kick.

Roseau had a 20-13 lead at the end of the first quarter, fell behind 32-30 at halftime and went ahead 46-45 at the end of the third quarter.

A 3-point basket by Tara Sugden of Kittson Central had the Wolfpack within 57-56 with 2:11 remaining, but they didn't pick up another point.

Erin Habstritt made one of two free throws with 1:25 remaining, then Taylor, who finished with 37 points, took over. She sank two free throws with 54.7 seconds left, blocked a shot, grabbed the rebound and scored on a fast break with 38.1 seconds showing, then added two more free throws with 20 seconds to play after picking off an in-bounds pass.

Amanda Anderson and Sarah Lundbohm joined Taylor in double figures with 10 points each. All three are sophomores. A balanced Kittson Central offense included Krista Bowman with 15 points and Sugden, Kelly Sjoblom and Sarah Erickson with 11 each.

Roseau was 23-for-59 from the field (39 percent) and 15-for-17 at the free throw line, where Taylor was a perfect 10-for-10. Kittson Central went 24-for-66 from the floor (36 percent) and 5-for-9 at the line. The Rams had a 36-31 rebound edge and topped the turnover charts 17-16.

Final quarter kick secures MCC win

Marshall County Central out-scored Kittson County North 17-2 in the fourth quarter Thursday to break open a close game and claim a 57-38 win in opening round Section 8A Sub-Section 4 boys high school basketball tournament action at Northland Community College.

The Cougars, who won just once all year, led 16-13 at the end of the first quarter, fell behind 31-22 at halftime, but were back within 40-36 at the end of the third quarter before the Nordics took over.

"They came out and shot the ball well, and we did not respond defensively," explained Marshall County Central coach Ron Ueland. "In the fourth quarter, we extended our zone and got in their faces more. And we stepped it up offensively. We became more aggressive working the ball inside. We were primarily a perimeter team early-on."

Trever Magner scored 17 points, Micah Ranum 14 and Brandon Borg 12 for the Nordics, who advanced to the quarterfinals with a 7-16 record. Josh Whitlock led the Cougars with 19 points, while David Hemmes netted 11.

Fergus Falls girls win North Sub-Section 8AA game 67-50...

Otters end Prowlers' season

Becky Lejcher scored 15 of her game-high 23 points in the first quarter, many off turnover-fed fast breaks, to lead quick-starting Fergus Falls past Thief River Falls 67-50 Tuesday in a first round North Sub-Section 8AA girls high school basketball tournament match-up.

The No. 4-seeded Otters led the No. 5 Prowlers 26-10 at the end of the first quarter. Thief River Falls was out-scored just 41-40 the rest of the way, but couldn't make up that early deficit.

"The first quarter killed us," acknowledged Thief River Falls coach Sally Wiltse. "We turned the ball over, and we had a hard time getting back on defense in time to stop their fast break."

Cara Paulus scored 16 points and Kara Kalbus had 10 to join Lejcher in double figures for the host Otters, who swept the Prowlers 71-47 and 94-55 during the regular season.

■ Championship Saturday, March 4 - St. Cloud Apollo vs. Little Falls

Lone Thief River Falls double figure scorer was Kelly Skeim, who closed out her high school basketball career with a strong 16-point game.

Thief River Falls shot 38 percent from the field (22/58) and went 5-for-13 at the free throw line. Fergus Falls shot 43 percent from the floor (26/61) and made 14 of 23 free throws. The Otters finished with a sizeable 42-27 rebound advantage and topped the turnover charts 16-14.

"I thought we played them even after the first quarter," said Wiltse, "but the rebounds hurt, and we missed some quality shots throughout the game."

Thief River Falls' 1994-95 season ended at 4-19.

RLCC girls lose first post-season contest

Red Lake Falls doubled Red Lake County Central 66-33 Tuesday in opening round Section 8A Sub-Section 3 girls high school basketball tournament play at Crookston.

The Eagles jumped out to a 19-7 first quarter lead, maintained a 31-19 halftime spread, then opened up a 49-23 third quarter spread.

"We committed way too many turnovers," reported Red Lake County Central coach Rick Kuivisto. "Their pressure got to us. We were a little jittery in the first quarter and they got away from us in a hurry."

Shelly Audette led the Eagles with 14 points, while Jenny Byers and Sara Kees both netted 12. Meckenzie Malwitz was the Mustangs' lone double figure scoring, finishing with 10 points.

Red Lake County Central was 14-for-38 from the field (37 percent) and 5-for-11 at the free throw line. Red Lake Falls went 29-for-64 from the floor (45 percent) and made 7 of 12 free throws.

The Mustangs ended the year 8-13.

Mustangs beat Pirates in regular season final

Aaron Chapul scored 27 points, Aaron Rosten 21 and Bryce Huotari 17 as Red Lake County Central closed out a 15-7 regular season with an 87-60 boys high school basketball win over Crookston Tuesday at Plummer.

The Mustangs shot 61 percent from the field (34/56), made 10 of 12 free throws and turned the ball over only 8 times.

"It was a pretty good game on our part," said Red Lake County Central coach Todd Fore. "We shot well, we cut our turnovers down, and we played some defense."

It was a much better showing, said Fore, than the Mustangs had the previous week in a 69-64 Tuesday (Feb. 21) loss at Fosston and an 88-82 Friday (Feb. 24) overtime win against Norman County East at Oklee.

The Mustangs grabbed a 22-12 first quarter lead, maintained a 44-34 halftime spread and opened up a 63-46 third quarter gap.

Chris Fee led Crookston with 15 points, while Cory Vaughn picked up 13, Bobby Shimpa 11, and Brooks Royal 10.

The Pirates were 27-for-56 from the field (48 percent) and 3-for-4 at the free throw line. They had a 25-23 rebound edge, but also wound up with 20 turnovers.

Turnovers cost Huskies in loss to Green Wave

The [illegible] led four statistical categories for Goodridge, but 23 turnovers made the other numbers meaningless as the Huskies lost a 73-63 boys high school basketball game at East Grand Forks Tuesday.

The setback ended a 16-6 regular season for the Huskies.

Goodridge shot 51 percent from the field (23/45) compared to a 30 percent figure for East Grand Forks (19/63), shot 80 percent at the free throw line (12/15) compared to 52 percent for the Green Wave (11/21) and finished with a 30-23 rebound advantage.

But the turnovers negated all that as the Huskies watched a 20-17 first quarter lead turn into a 40-35 halftime deficit. They trailed 56-48 through three quarters.

"We shot the ball really well," noted Goodridge coach John Rahn, "but the tell-tale factor was the turnovers. It was a case of poor execution on our part."

Brady Wiseth of Goodridge led all scorers with 21 points. Mitch Sinsky netted 14 points, while Benji Marquis and Martin Dahl both had 10. A balanced East Grand Forks attack featured Kurt Kotrba with 17 points, Justin Knowlton 16 and Mark Perkins 15.

"It was a good game," said Rahn. "We know we can play with them."

Highway bypass has mixed views

Carlson noted that truck traffic also brings business to the community. He said he conducted a survey of trucks at Highway 1 and 59 and learned that many take the time to stop in Thief River Falls and that if they took a Highway 59 bypass, it would take them five miles out of their way. He said some of the truckers are using Brooks Avenue, and suggested that the route be brought up to a 10 ton route.

Drainage solutions supposedly created by the route would actually be expensive and create other problems, such as preventing further expansion by major industries, Carlson added.

Carlson concluded by asking that the county look at all of the alternatives and put the plan on the shelf until the year 2000 to see what plans these two major industries have for the future.

Mark Larson, president of Digi-Key, said Carlson's comments accurately reflected the discussion with Stordahl, but upon further reflection they felt they had to address the people at the meeting. Larson outlined the phenomenal growth of Digi-Key since it was located in a 20,000 square foot building in 1984. Based upon the historical record of expansion at the plant, Larson said it is possible that Digi-Key could be building again in four years, even though they just completed a 180,000 square-foot addition. For those reasons and others, they have been negotiating for property located west of the current site of the facility, all the way to the proposed site of the route. In his conclusion, Larson said they do favor development of a bypass as presented, but nothing beyond that (a reference to a bridge at County road 61).

Ken Mehrkens, a farmer who owns property near the proposed route, had all kinds of questions about drainage, most of which could not be answered. Until someone is able to definitively tell him where all the water goes, he said, he will not support the proposal.

Henry Moyer, a local resident, suggested that the project be put on hold and that the city improve Brooks to a 10-ton route and then build a bridge at Greenwood.

Ron Lindberg, Thief River Falls engineering services director, explained that truck traffic on Brooks Avenue poses a serious traffic problem especially when Arctco employees leave. He agreed with Mehrkens that there were some problems with the ditch culvert at Highway 32, and noted that a bridge at Greenwood is in the city's plans and could be constructed before the year 2000.

Delton Schulz noted that a bridge at County road 61 has been discussed by the county board, but there were no plans to build a bridge there. He added that if the city builds a bridge at Greenwood, there's no way the county will build a bridge at County road 61.

County Commissioners encouraged residents to attend a hearing on the county's five-year plan 5 p.m. March 14. At the hearing, one of the items on the agenda will be a bridge at County road 61.

A number of merchants, including Dick Bjorkman, Oscar Nyflot and Mike Barry, expressed somewhat of a common concern — that an alternate route or bypass would direct people away from the community where they would stop and buy goods.

Ken Murphy, Don Grabanski, Cecil Anderson, and Ron Nelson expressed their support for the proposal, mostly because of the economic development potential. Cecil Anderson supported the proposal because "if they do it right" it could help economic development, truck drivers, and farmers.

Two county commissioners, Bud Comstock and Don Jensen, expressed support for the proposal.

Bridgeman's to show off plant

tion facilities are strategically located for the Land O'Lakes fluid milk business," Tollefson said.

The new receiving station, which can accommodate two tractor-tanker units or four tandem tankers, replaces an outdoor facility. Completed late last fall, it not only moves the unloading operations inside but improves safety for drivers and guarantees even better products for consumers, according to Myles Olson, plant superintendent.

Before unloading can occur, the computerized station requires drivers to enter their identification number, bill of lading number, route number and the number of pounds of milk in the load. As a further safeguard, none of the modern milk unloading equipment can be started until the load has met lab tests for quality.

"The station has brought all of our receiving inside the building," Olson said. "We don't have to crawl around on trucks outside, which eliminates several problems, especially in the winter when ice and snow increased the possibility of injury. In the summer, it will eliminate getting soaked in the rain. Just from the environmental standpoint, it is quite an improvement."

Olson added that the safety aspects of the station have been noted by everyone using it.

"The catwalk system allows us to go out onto a truck without having to climb those inconvenient ladders on the trucks, and balancing up there while taking samples," he said. "It is a major improvement and the people working in the station are proud to be a part of it, proud of what it looks like, and proud to be a member of our group."

The catwalk system is the first in the Land O'Lakes operation and has become the model for the industry, Olson said.

As a part of the project to build the 40x75-foot receiving station, the five raw milk storage silos at the plant were repositioned. The plant processes more than one million cartons of milk each month in half-pint, third-pint, pint, half gallon and gallon size packaging. Those products are all delivered to the new cooler facilities at the distribution center from where they are routed to stores and other outlets throughout northern Minnesota and eastern North Dakota.

"Our improved efficiencies in milk processing just outgrew the storage space that we used to have in the downtown plant," states Steve Edwards, plant manager, regarding the need to provide the new cooler and freezer facilities at the distribution center. "And with the new receiving bay that was completed late in 1994, we now have some of the finest facilities anywhere."

Construction of the 10,000-square-foot cooler at the distribution center was completed in 1993. It adjoins the 4,000-square-foot freezer that had been completed a year earlier. In addition to the milk products produced in Thief River Falls, the distribution center's inventory includes yogurts, cottage cheeses, juices, ice creams, water and sour creams prepared at other Country Lake Foods locations.

In all, the distribution center has more than 250 different types and sizes of ice cream, yogurt and novelties products in its freezer and more than 350 varieties and sizes of milk, juice, cheese, sour cream and water in the cooler space. From 15 to 20 distribution route trucks are filled daily by loaders, who now use electric-powered pallet jacks. This process of filling orders and loading trucks by pallet jack has reduced much of the physical work that was required only a few years ago.

"Many of these products go out the same day they come in," says Brad Eriksen, distribution manager. "If not the same day, they will be out the next day. We try to turn our milk products daily even though it isn't necessary to guarantee freshness."

The most recent construction at the distribution center was of a 20x70-foot wash bay where tractors and 48-foot trailers can be washed.

"Keeping them clean outside as well as inside has always been a big priority for us," Eriksen said.

"These improvements represent the commitment of Bridgeman and Land O'Lakes to Thief River Falls, to this two-state region and to the dairy industry," Tollefson said.

(Additional background information on the Bridgeman operations in Thief River Falls will be published in the Wednesday, March 8 issue of The Times.)

Hayertz sentenced in district court

George Glenn Hayertz, 45, Thief River Falls, was sentenced recently on a charge of criminal sexual conduct in the second degree. Hayertz was originally charged with fifth degree and first degree criminal sexual conduct, charges which stem from an incident involving a female minor.

Hayertz pled guilty to criminal sexual conduct in the second degree as a result of a plea agreement. He was sentenced by Judge Dennis Murphy to 30 days in jail and given credit for time served. In addition he ordered that Hayertz not have any unsupervised contact with females under the age of 16, no contact with the victim or her family, have a DNA test, be registered as a sex offender, pay a fine of $3,000 plus restitution when determined and pay court costs.

Hayertz was represented in court by Alan Larivee. Assistant County Attorney Alan Rogalla prosecuted the case.

Red Lake Falls — Bricks from the Main Street buildings recently demolished can be bought from the Red Lake Falls Merchant's Committee for $1 each. Many of the bricks were made in Red Lake Falls by the Schmitz Brick Factory, which was established in 1889 by John, Joe, Herman and Henry Schmitz. Citizens are being urged to "buy a bit of 100-year history" by buying a brick. Proceeds will be used to purchase banners for the city and to help plant flowers around town.

Radio station scramble

Fosston — Those who were listening to the radio in Fosston, Bagley and surrounding area at 11 a.m. last Wednesday found their listening rudely interrupted when the radio station stopped broadcasting. A delivery truck driver apparently hooked a broadcasting tower cable with the top of his truck and pulled the tower down, interrupting broadcasting. Station KKCQ of Fosston and Bagley was off the air for only about an hour, since an engineer from Brainerd who was at the station making adjustments for alternate programming was able to divert the power and make the necessary repairs to get the station back on the air.

Bridgemans completes improvements

Completion of improvements at Bridgeman Dairy in Thief River Falls puts the company in a position to take advantage of possible expansion of its market to Canada.

"We're looking at possible expansion into Canada when trade laws permit," said Denny Tollefson, manager of Bridgeman Dairy's Grand Forks division of which Thief River Falls operations are a part. "We certainly have to look at Winnipeg as a market potential," Tollefson said.

If trade laws permit, it would more than double the market potential for Bridgeman Dairy. "The things we're doing today position us for that possibility," Tollefson added.

Ribbon cutting making completion of a number of improvements at Bridgeman Dairy in Thief River Falls took place Wednesday.

The most recent of the improvements include construction of a 4,000-square-foot freezer facility in 1992 and of a 10,000-square-foot cooler in 1993, both at the distribution center. A new 3,000-square-foot milk receiving bay at the processing plant was put into operation late in 1994. The result of the improvements, according to Bridgeman Dairy, is that the Thief River Falls facilities are among the finest and most modern in the industry.

"The capital improvements that have been made over the past years have had multiple objectives in mind. They are: Enhanced customer service, improved product quality, providing a safe work environment, improved operating efficiencies, and providing for market growth. I am very pleased with the outcome of these facilities. The company, our producers and employees, and the Thief River Falls community can be very proud of them," said Tollefson.

That sentiment was echoed by Thief River Falls Mayor Robert Reeve, and Bob Bergan, executive vice president of the Thief River Falls Chamber of Commerce during the ribbon cutting ceremony.

In addition to the ceremony, Tollefson presented an award to Karen Peterson and Gary Jordet, who represented the local employees. The award recognized that the plant and distribution center did not record any lost time due to injury to an employee in 1994. Tollefson complimented the quality of work being done by local employees.

Murl Nord of Blackduck, a District 6 representative and secretary on the Land O'Lakes board of directors, cut the ribbon marking completion of the improvements. Nord and his wife Suzette operate a farm where they milk 145 cows and raise all heifer calves as replacement stock. Nord is also a member and director of the executive committee of the National Milk Producers Federation and a past chairman of the Blackduck Co-op Ag Services board of directors. He has been both chairman and director of the District 6 Land O'Lakes board, chairman of the Blackduck school board and a director of the Red River Valley Dairyman's Association.

The tour following the ribbon cutting ceremony was for the more than 100 area dairy producers and 100 Bridgeman employees in Thief River Falls, and the 10 contract haulers and their spouses and local dignitaries.

Bridgeman Dairy was established in Thief River Falls in 1933 when the company purchased Kiewel's Ice Cream plant on North Main. In 1942, Bridgeman also purchased Hoel Dairy, a processor

St. Hilaire Co-op Elevator annual meeting March 24

Record sales but only a break-even operational year will be reported to members of St. Hilaire Cooperative Elevator Association when the cooperative's annual meeting is held Friday, March 24, at the National Guard Armory in Thief River Falls.

Business meeting will start at 10 a.m. and include financial reports, old and new business and election of one director for a three-year term, with the term of Charles Naplin expiring.

Following the business meeting, there will be a presentation by Del Schmidt of the Harvest States Institute program, entertainment, drawings for door prizes and a dinner served. An early bird drawing for $50 will be held among those present at 10 a.m.

Manager Bob Miller said that 1994 was a "fair" operating year for the elevator with operations being close to the break even point. Bushel volume of grain and oilseeds handled was about 19 million bushels, somewhat short of the cooperative's record.

"Our elevator was number one in sales to Harvest States Cooperative in Minnesota for the year," Miller said.

Total sales of grain and agricultural products did set a new record at $87 million—a sharp increase of about $13 million from a year ago.

The cooperative purchased the Simplot Soil Builders facilities in Thief River Falls during the past year, an acquisition which helped its members with the price of fertilizer increasing substantially this spring.

Miller said that the elevator has been able to secure adequate supplies of quality seed for this year's crop from areas where scab and other plant diseases were no problem. He said that seed prices may be down slightly and that ag chemicals are expected to show little change in cost from a year ago.

St. Hilaire Co-op Elevator operates grain plants in St. Hilaire, Grygla, Hazel and East Grand Forks, two sunflower processing plants in Thief River Falls, an oilseed sunflower processing plant in St. Hilaire and a confectionery sunflower processing plant which operates on order in Mentor.

The Times Home, Sport and Family Show March 25-26

Vendors will display a wide variety of items including campers, boats, tackle, spas, photography, docks, food, model trains, saddles, music, arts and crafts, taxidermy, law and garden tools, sporting goods, lawn furniture, model homes and more. Also, the casino and National Guard will have booths on display.

Overall, there will be over 100 vendors from northwest Minnesota and North Dakota with displays at the show. Come join the fun, the show will be bigger and better than ever.

Two escaped inmates back behind bars

Tracy Zornes, one of two men involved in an escape from the law enforcement center in Thief River Falls, is back in custody.

Law enforcement officials said that they received a tip from an individual and then acting on that tip and with the assistance of a canine unit from Roseau, captured Zornes in a home in the 500 block of South Arnold on March 7 at 1:42 p.m.

Goodridge Co-op Creamery to hold annual meeting

Farmers Cooperative Creamery Association of Goodridge had a sales increase of $113,000 in fiscal 1994 to top the $1.5 million sales figure for the first time but a modest increase of just over $1,000 in gross margins for the year ended September 30, 1994.

Shareholders of the cooperative will meet for its annual meeting on Wednesday, March 15, at 2 p.m. in the Goodridge community center. Business will include presentation of the annual report and election of three directors with the terms of Kevin Tharaldson, Bruce Solberg and LeRoy Johnson expiring.

Also included in the program will be speakers, music and door prizes with lunch to be served following the meeting.

Statement of operations for the cooperative shows that total sales increased from $1,478,500 in fiscal 1993 to $1,591,010 in fiscal 1994. Cost of sales also increased in the same period from $1,403,490 to $1,514,722. Gross margin grew slightly from $75,069 to $76,287.

The association had other income of $6,4554 and patronage refunds received of $12,450 to bring its margin before distribution to $35,144—a drop from $45,403 in 1993.

Goodridge Historical Society honors Elgs

Carl and Gertie Elg were honored recently by the Goodridge Area Historical Society for their long service to the Goodridge community. Presenting the plaque on behalf of the historical society is Lois Swanson (right).

Goodridge Area Historical Society honored Carl and Gertie Elg as its honored couple for community service work over a long period of time at its annual meeting held in the Goodridge senior center.

Presentation of the award plaque was made by Mrs. Lois Swanson who also prepared and read the following background regarding the honored couple.

by Lois Swanson

The couple being honored tonight are life-long members of the community. They attended rural school southeast of Goodridge.

He was the first-born child of his parents. His father was 41 years old and his mother a bit younger. Although he was their first child, he was the 10th child in the family. He had nine half-brothers and sisters. He was born in the NEW house that his Dad had built out of green lumber that was infested with bed bugs. A few years ago we called his birthplace the Mordy Morrison place. Now it is being farmed by Alden Hyland.

Our honored guest was mechanically inclined. At the age of six years he listened to stories that his two brothers told—stories about hauling lumber out of Thief River Falls on a wagon pulled by four horses in 1914 and 1915 to build the first buildings in a new town called Goodridge, built alongside the new railroad. The road was often muddy and wet and they would have to stop when the wagon was stuck in the mud and unload the lumber and later re-load it. Not one of those places of business is still operating, but our guest is with us—a shrewd businessman.

When he was about 10 years old, his Dad bought a one-year-old Model T car from Ted Rustad, who was a rural mail carrier in their community for many years.

Nothing compared to our guest's joy when his Dad bought a brand new Mogel tractor in 1915. He, as an eight-year-old, loved to sit on the tractor seat and dream dreams and help his Dad farm.

1932 was the beginning of hard times in the country. The older siblings were now on their own. The land was mortgaged and lost, so the parents moved away to Bemidji, but our young man stayed on and worked around the community at a variety of jobs.

This was lonesome living over the next five or six years. Saturday night found many of the young people gathered at Andersons for the weekly barn dance. Occasionally there would be Saturday night dances in the new gym built with WPA labor in 1936-37 and early 1938. So the lonesome young man found a blonde, blue-eyed young miss to dance with and now, after 55 years, they are still dancing together.

Following marriage and their wedding dance in October of 1939 the newlyweds moved to Bemidji where he worked on construction and she learned the fine-art of changing diapers and caring for a baby girl. But their love of the home community brought them

Ice age skull found near Lake Bronson

Lake Bronson — While taking a canoe ride on the Two River near Lake Bronson last summer, Bob Schmiedeberg found a bison skull that dates back to the Ice Age. Schmiedeberg said he found the skull on the edge of the river a couple of miles west of Lake Bronson. He speculated the large skull with curved horns had been covered with thousands of years of dirt and that the force of the water from the draining of Lake Bronson over the past three years had washed the dirt away, uncovering the skull. An archeologist from the Minnesota Science Museum in Minneapolis estimated that the skull is 10,000 years old. The archeologist estimated the bison itself had been eight feet long and weighed 1,000 pounds. The horns on the skull measured 27 inches from tip to tip.

Kiwanis contributes to rehabilitation hospital

Kiwanis club of Thief River Falls recently made a contribution of $170 to the Medical Center Rehabilitation Hospital Foundation in Grand Forks, ND. The gift brings to $870 the amount donated by the club toward its $1,200 pledge to the pediatric playground project.

"Our club is very pleased to be a part of this new and innovative indoor playground project at the Rehab," said club president Dan Shafland. "In supporting this project we know we are helping children from this area who are either going to the Rehab now or who may need its expertise in the future."

The project represents a new approach to rehabilitation by interjecting play into the therapy process. Scheduled for completion in September, it is only the second of its kind in the United States.

Nancy Nupdal of Grand Forks, Lieutenant Governor of Division 12 of the Minnesota-Dakotas Kiwanis District, said the 11 clubs in the division have pledged $10,000 in contributions.

"I am very proud of the way in which the Thief River Falls club has responded to this project," she said. "At the same time, I wish to thank the community for its support of the fund-raising projects which this club conducts each year to help make possible positive projects and programs within the community and throughout the surrounding region."

SOUPCON

Sherry LaCourniere

Today's recipes are from a cookbook I received as a gift from the Embassy Community Center in Fosston. I love cookbooks, especially those that are made up of recipes from good cooks from around the community, as it appears this one is. Today we'll have some recipes for Scandinavian goodies from my new cookbook.

This recipe is from Fosston's mayor. He says the soup is a delicious dessert or appetizer and "it is a favorite of most Norwegians and one reason they are known as 'regular' guys."

NORWEGIAN FRUIT SOUP

Arvid Clementson,
Mayor of Fosston

1/2 pound prunes
1 orange, sliced
1 can cherries
4 tablespoons tapioca
1/4 pound dried apricots
3 apples, sliced
1 cup sugar
1 cup raisins
1 lemon, sliced
1 stick cinnamon

Soak dried fruits, tapioca, sugar, cinnamon, orange and lemon in enough water to cover overnight. In the morning, add sliced apples and water. Cook until fruit is soft. Add canned fruit last.

The soup may be served hot or cold.

Heaven knows why our ancestors began eating this stuff — I'm sure there is some practical reason, such as easy to carry or easy to store, but I'm sure glad they did cuz it is good stuff:

FLAT BREAD

Mavis Brekke, Fosston

3 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup yellow cornmeal
2 cups boiling water
1 cup lard

Mix flour, cornmeal, lard and salt together as for pie crust. Add boiling water and stir well and shape.

Cut into pieces and roll out thin with a lefse rolling pin.

Bake on cookie sheet at 400 degrees until brown. Cool on rack. Can be cut in pieces before baking, if desired.

This sounds like a traditional lefse recipe:

LEFSE

Elsie Wiberg, Fosston

8 cups riced potatoes (cooked)
1/2 cup evaporated milk
2/3 cup corn oil
1/4 cup sugar
2 teaspoons salt

Mix well and let cool until cold. Add 2 cups flour.

Roll into balls and let cool in refrigerator. Roll out and bake.

FATTIGMAND
(POOR MAN'S COOKIES)

Verna Sather, Fosston

3 tablespoons cream
1 tablespoon sugar
3 eggs
Vanilla or cardamon
Flour to make soft dough

Mix ingredients and chill.

Roll out on a floured cloth until very thin.

With pastry cutter, make diamond shape with a slit in the center.

Fry in hot fat on both sides. Sprinkle with powdered sugar.

Stumpf says hindsight shows problems with state's wetlands law

"There are plenty of horror stories' about the current wetlands laws," notes Sen. LeRoy Stumpf of Thief River Falls, pointing out that the state Wetland Conservation Act was first passed in 1991 and the Legislature thought the law would protect remaining wetlands from being drained. The slogan became "no net loss of wetlands."

"With good hindsight we can understand what went wrong," Sen. Stumpf said. "The Legislature did not explain the intent of the law clearly enough. The agencies with the authority to implement the law created rules that did not work and the rules were not acceptable to most of northern Minnesota. For these reasons, I have introduced a bill to change the law.

"There are some people who think all wetlands laws should be repealed. There are others who say we should not change anything. The proposed changes noted below have been compiled by the Association of Minnesota Counties, representatives of Pennington, Marshall, Beltrami, Koochiching, Anoka and Lake county boards and myself."

Stumpf said everyone agreed that Type 1 and Type 2 wetlands regulations cause more than 90 per cent of the trouble. These types only need to be wet 14 non-consecutive days of the year. If it rains 14 days of the year, the affected area may be a wetland subject to many restrictions.

The proposed changes would allow a county to be exempt from the current rules if it creates a county wetlands plan. The county would have to use the same process it uses to pass any ordinance—such as notify the public, have a public hearing and respond to any comments. This process would allow individual counties much more flexibility.

The plan is still based on a "no net loss" policy, Sen. Stumpf said, but the counties would have control of how this is achieved. There is greater flexibility to get credit for wetlands created through methods such as water impoundment.

Several of the exemptions in the law are also expanded in this legislation. It allows for more cleaning of old drainage ditches. Public and private infrastructures could be maintained and repaired, as well as updated when necessary to comply with state and federal laws.

"For example," Sen. Stumpf said, "if a septic system improvement required by state law would cause an intrusion into a wetland, the improvement would be allowed."

Stumpf said the legislation also conforms more with federal regulations. This helps in dealing with the numerous state and federal agencies responsible for wetlands regulations.

Liability protection is another provision important to counties. The state would help a county if someone sues it for carrying out a state-mandated law.

"As you can see, there are many possible changes to the current wetland laws," the senator said. "Space will not permit mentioning all of them.

This bill will soon start its walk through legislative committees. It will be a tough road. If you have any personal experiences about how current wetland laws have affected you, please send me a letter so I can use the information as an example for the committees. If you are interested in getting a copy of the proposed legislation, please write: LeRoy Stumpf, G-24 State Capitol, St. Paul, MN 55155 or call 612-296-8660.

Crime May Not Pay.... But We Pay For Crime!

Because of the increase in violent crime across the nation and the seeming total lack of any sensitivity or compassion by criminals toward their victims, there is a comparable increase in public outcry for more prisons, longer prison terms and less probation for criminals. And to a large extent public officials have responded with mandatory sentences, sentencing guidelines and even capital punishment.

As a result, costs of prisons have soared even beyond the crime rate. Many would claim that virtually whatever the cost, it is money well spent to keep violent offenders away from the rest of the public. To be sure, locking up criminals is effective in preventing them from preying on society. Many citizens are not aware, however, of just how much the costs of such imprisonments have climbed—even in our own state.

A recent "It's a Fact!" item in the Session Weekly, published by the Minnesota Legislature, points out the change in graphic fashion as follows:

Gov. Arne Carlson has proposed that the state pay $183.7 million in the next fiscal year for the state's correctional institutions.

That's a far cry from the $3.3 million the state paid in fiscal year 1955.

Back then the state had only five correctional institutions—about half the number that exist today—to support, and they were dramatically different. Further, there were only about 1,200 inmates in 1955—about a quarter of the 4,765 adult and juvenile inmates that are incarcerated today.

Delinquent boys were then sent to the "training school at Red Wing," which had a dairy farm, elementary school and a few high school courses. Training was offered in blacksmithing, meatcutting and pipefitting, among other skills.

When the boys are discharged from the school, "most of them are prepared to live a normal life in society," wrote Joseph Kise in his 1959 book, Minnesota's Government.

Today, only the state's toughest youthful offenders are sent to the Red Wing facility. Before they arrive, each juvenile has committed an average of 13 prior offenses. According to a recent Legislative Auditor's report, up to 75 per cent will re-offend upon release.

In the 1950s, the Home School for Girls at Sauk Centre offered opportunities in "gardening, beauty culture, sewing, business relations and other vocations." There were 196 girls at the school in August 1957. "Only a few of the girls have been sent back after they are released. The officers and employees try to make the place congenial and homelike." Minnesota's Government reported.

And while the crime problem facing the state was not as severe as it is today, the 34-year-old opinion of Kise is echoed today: "These institutions cost the State of Minnesota millions and millions of dollars each year. In addition, much money is spent in local communities for the upkeep of county and city jails. From a strictly economic viewpoint, these facts show that it pays to spend money for preventive measures. The public is learning that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure."

82 Cents On The Dollar Is No Real Bargain

The federal government spends about $18 billion in Minnesota each year, according to the state planning office. Billions come into the state from such federal sources as grants, federal employee salaries, research contracts, farm subsidies and payments to low income individuals.

Proposed federal budget reductions could have a significant impact on Minnesota state and local governments and programs. About half of the state government's share of federal grants is for reimbursements for Minnesota's Medical Assistance, which provides medical coverage to low income people.

Income security programs, such as aid to families with dependent children (AFDC), food stamps and subsidized housing receive about $112 billion in federal funds, which is almost as much as Minnesota's medical assistance program. About 22 per cent of state and four per cent of local government revenues come directly from federal grants.

What is more interesting and of greater concern than the amount of money passing through federal hands into Minnesota is that the state pays more in taxes to the federal government than it gets back in federal funds. In 1993, 35 other states paid less than Minnesota's $4,542 per capita. For every dollar the federal government receives from Minnesota, it spends only 82 cents here. Only four other states receive a lower percentage.

In our estimation, a payback of 82 cents on the dollar is not a very good bargain.

Charcoal drawing class at Agassiz learning center

The public is invited to attend a charcoal drawing class offered by Agassiz Environmental Learning Center. The class will take place from 10 a.m. to noon on Saturday, March 18 at the nature center in the Fertile Sandhills Recreation Area near Fertile. There is a $5 fee per participant for paper, charcoal and instruction.

Greg Bolstad, art instructor, will help participants make and use charcoal, a beautiful, easy to work with drawing material which produces gorgeous dark, light and gray tones. team played that well. But in spite of that, we still had a chance to win until the end."

Sanden finished with 13 points and Josh Hedin had 12 for the Prowlers, who played without starting guard Ryan Swanson, sidelined for the second straight game because of a hip injury. Adam Wiechmann led Bemidji with 13 points, while Gus Sell had 12 and Ben Caron 10.

Bemidji was 17-for-55 from the field (31 percent) and 10-for-16 at the free throw line – a bulk of them coming during a 10-for-14 fourth quarter. Thief River Falls was 4-for-7 at the line. The Lumberjacks had a 35-21 rebound advantage and turned the ball over 17 times.

"The kids worked hard," said Brekke. "We just didn't play that well."

"I can't fault kids' efforts," said Rahn. "They tried. We just didn't do a very good just protecting the basketball."

Mitch Srnsky scored 21 points and Wiseth had 20 for the Huskies, with Martin Dahlen chipping in with 10. Waxvik and Cory Vaughn both scored 15 points for the Pirates, and Shimpa had 13.

It wasn't a great shooting night for the Huskies, who were 20-for-64 from the field (31 percent) and 9-for-19 at the free throw line. The Pirates made 21 of 45 field goal attempts (47 percent) and 14 of 24 free throws.

Goodridge finished with a 33-30 rebound edge. The Huskies turned the ball over 19 times; the Pirates lost it 23 times. Both teams had four overtime turnovers.

"We didn't play our best basketball," acknowledged Rahn. "I think we peaked too early. We played our best ball right after Christmas. Then we had a long lay-off and we just never really got it (momentum) back."

Lumberjacks shut down TRF offense

Thief River Falls turned the ball over 21 times and gave up 19 offensive rebounds Thursday in a 48-36 North Sub-Section 8AA boys high school basketball tournament loss to host Bemidji.

"Those numbers tell the whole story," pointed out Thief River Falls coach Scott Brekke. "That's 40 possessions right there. You can't turn it over like that and give up the offensive boards like that and expect to win."

The outcome put both teams at 13-10 for the year, but the loss ended the 1994-95 season for the No. 5-seeded Prowlers, while the win advanced the No. 4-seeded Lumberjacks into the semifinals against top-seeded Fergus Falls.

It was the lowest offensive output of the year for the Prowlers. The turnovers, rebounds, 37 percent shooting (14/38) and the fact that 6-10 junior center Kyle Sanden ran into early foul trouble all contributed to the problem. Sanden was hit with two quick fouls and had three early in the second half. That meant stretches on the bench for the team's leading scorer.

"We just never got into the flow offensively," noted Brekke. "Give them (Lumberjacks) credit, they never gave us a chance to get our offense going."

Despite the troubles on offense,

North Sub-Section 8AA Boys

■ Semifinals Saturday, March 11 - Bemidji at Fergus Falls; Alexandria at Moorhead.

South Sub-Section 8AA Boys
■ Quarterfinals Thursday, March 9 - Brainerd 64, Little Falls 62 (ot); Rocori 70, Sauk Rapids 36; St. Cloud Tech vs. St. Cloud Apollo.
■ Semifinals Saturday, March 11 - (at St. Cloud State) Elk River vs. Brainerd; Rocori vs. Tech or Apollo.
■ Championship Thursday, March 16 - at St. Cloud State.

Thief River Falls stayed close most of the game. The first quarter ended in a 9-9 draw, Bemidji led 23-17 at halftime and had a 33-28 third quarter edge.

After falling behind 37-28 at the start of the fourth quarter, the Prowlers battled back within 37-34 before Sanden fouled out with 2 1/2 minutes left.

The Lumberjacks took advantage of the situation with an 11-2 game-ending run – scoring their final nine points at the free throw line. The Prowlers turned it over four times in that stretch to complicate matters.

"It wasn't a real pretty game," acknowledged Brekke. "Neither

Kyle Halvorson of Marshall County Central found an opening inside the Grygla-Gatzke defense during this action under the basket during Tuesday's Section 8A Sub-Section 4 boys high school basketball tournament semifinal match-up at Northland Community College. Jamie Lunsetter (15) and Kevin Werna (11) of the Eagles looked on. Grygla-Gatzke wound up wearing the blue uniform tops of the Northland men's team when both teams showed up in their gold jerseys.

B/G-MR girls win Section 8A debut

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River limited Park Rapids Area to just two third quarter points Thursday in pulling away to a 47-27 Section 8A girls high school basketball tournament semifinal win at the University of Minnesota-Crookston.

The victory advanced the 23-3 Gators into the state tournament-qualifying Section 8A finals Friday against Fertile-Beltrami, a 36-32 semifinal winner over Crookston.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River, the Section 8A Sub-Section 4 winner, and Park Rapids Area, the Section 8A Sub-Section 1 champion, played to a 7-7 first quarter tie in the semifinal doubleheader opener at Lysaker Gymnasium, and the Gators led only 21-17 at halftime. But with the Panthers limited to just two third quarter free throws, that four-point game turned into a 34-19 affair after 24 minutes of play.

"We played real good defense," said Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Tom Neibauer, who after six straight close games – the final three regular season starts and three Section 8A Sub-Section 3 nail-biters – finally had an opportunity to use his bench in the fourth quarter.

The game had only two double figure scorers as the Gators' Krissi Super netted 20 points and the Panthers' Megan Reich collected 17 – 11 of those coming in the first half.

It wasn't the Gators' best offensively showing, admitted Neibauer, whose team was 19-for-52 from the field (37 percent) and 8-for-14 at the free throw line.

"We weren't patient enough in the first half," explained Neibauer. "We were forcing things that weren't there. But it got better in the second half."

Park Rapids Area got off just 39 shots, hitting 12 of them for a 31 per cent showing. The 19-6 Panthers were 2-for-4 at the line.

Grygla-Gatzke boys reach title game...

Eagles hold off MCC comeback bid, 64-61

Not this time. Marshall County Central, after rallying from a 15-point fourth quarter deficit to beat Stephen 56-53 in overtime in the Section 8A Sub-Section 4 boys high school basketball tournament quarterfinals Saturday, nearly pulled another rabbit out of the hat in a Tuesday semifinal match-up with Grygla-Gatzke.

This time the Nordics were down 14 in the first minute of the final period before staging another remarkable comeback that took the game down the the final shot. But it didn't happen. The Eagles escaped with a 64-61 win.

"It was almost too much to ask to have it happen two nights in a row," shrugged Marshall County Central coach Ron Ueland. "The kids tried. They played with a lot of heart. I'm real proud of them."

The win advanced Grygla-Gatzke into the Saturday finals for the first time ever.

With an 11-0 response to a 5-0 Marshall County Central start, the run-and-gun Eagles led nearly the entire game. Their fast-paced style of play produced a 20-16 first quarter edge, a 34-26 halftime lead and, thanks to an 11-2 outburst to start the second half, a 51-38 cushion at the end of the third quarter.

A free throw by Scott Hoganson made it 52-38 with 7:25 remaining.

"I was feeling pretty good, but I also saw what they (Nordics) did against Stephen," said Grygla-Gatzke coach Vern Johnson. "I was worried it would happen again."

It almost did. Beginning with a short jumper from the side by Craig Ranum, and fueled with back-to-back 3-pointers by Kent Rokke, a 13-2 scoring run pulled the Comeback Kids within 54-51 with 3:32 still to play.

"They (Eagles) were rattled," confessed Johnson. "They didn't want to admit it, but you could see it in their eyes."

Grygla-Gatzke, however, weathered the storm – at least momentarily – and had a 63-55 lead following a base line drive by Hoganson with 53.4 seconds left.

And the Nordics still faced a seven-point, 64-57 deficit before Shane Borg scored off a rebound, then made two shots on a bonus free throw situation to make it a catchable 64-61 with seven seconds showing.

A time-out call and a Grygla-Gatzke turnover on the in-bounds play gave the never-say-die Nordics a final shot at a tie with 4.2 seconds to play.

The ball went to Borg in the corner. He was guarded closely, but still got off a potential tying 3-pointer with 2.7 seconds remaining that hit the rim and caromed into the arms of Rokke, who quickly took the rebound back outside the 3-point arch and appeared to beat the horn with another trey that would have sent the game into overtime. But like the attempt by Borg, the shot by Rokke went off the rim, ending the excitement.

The Eagles' share-the-wealth offense featured Jeremy Verbout with 14 points, Shaun Verbout and Hoganson with 13 each, and Jamie Lunsetter with 10. Micah Ranum led the Nordics with 23 points. Borg netted 12.

Marshall County Central shot 43 percent from the field (22/51), with eight of them 3-pointers. The Nordics were 9-of-10 at the free throw line and finished with a 28-27 rebound edge. But they also had 20 of the game's 31 turnovers – mostly attributed to the constant Grygla-Gatzke pressure defense that fed the Eagles' fast break offense.

"We couldn't control their break," offered Ueland. "They're a great team. They hustle, hustle all the time. They don't let you catch your breath."

Grygla-Gatzke, 15-for-23 at the free throw line, shot 43 percent from the floor (23/53), with seven of those baskets being the fast break lay-up variety by the small but speedy Eagles.

"Look at our size," said Johnson. "We have to run and we have to press. We have to extend the floor. If we let teams set up, we'll get smoked."

The Eagles, who beat the Nordics 90-60 and 61-51 during the regular season, improved to 17-7. Marshall County Central fell to 8-17.

Wildcats edge Gators 52-50

Coaching is not an exact science. Neither game-opening nor game ending strategy plotted out by Tri-County coach Kent Hanson panned out, but the Wildcats overcame a rocky start and lucked out on a down-to-the-wire finish Tuesday afternoon in a 52-50 Section 8A Sub-Section 4 boys high school basketball tournament semifinal win over Badger/Greenbush-Middle River.

Hanson was second-guessing himself from the start when he watched the Gators open the game with an 8-0 lead on three long jumpers – two of them 3-pointers.

"That scared me," he admitted. "Our game plan was to shut down the inside. We decided if they were going to beat us, it would be on the perimeter. But when they hit those early shots, I thought, this is great strategy..."

However, the early success also had Badger/Greenbush-Middle River coach Eldon Sparby worried.

"I didn't feel good about the start," said Sparby. "I've been in the game long enough to know that when you don't have to work for something, it usually leads to disaster."

Tri-County adjusted its defense and the potential rout was transformed into a nail-biter. "We went with about three different zones to try to keep them off-balance," explained Hanson. "We just wanted to make sure we went out as far as we could to challenge their shooters."

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River led 15-10 at the close of the first quarter and went into halftime ahead 31-30 – on a 3-pointer off the glass by Vance Harren with 2 seconds left.

The Wildcats had a 42-40 edge at the end of the third quarter, but then missed their first 10 shots of the final period while the Gators were going on a 7-0 run that produced a 47-42 advantage following a 3-point play by Matt Kuznia with 4:12 remaining.

Badger/Greenbush-Middle River did not surrender the lead until Tri-County standout Brion Nelson scored on a drive to tie the game 50-50 with 32.8 seconds left.

A miss on a front end of a Badger/Greenbush-Middle River bonus free throw opportunity with 25.4 seconds showing was rebounded by Tri-County, leading to a game-winning bucket by Nelson, who made a move to the inside and banked the ball off the backcourt with 7.2 seconds on the clock.

The Gators got a time-out call with 5.5 seconds to go, but they had to cover the length of the court.

That's when Hanson set up his end-of-the-game strategy in applying full-court pressure on the in-bounds play instead of falling back on defense. "We wanted to make them work for it," he pointed out, "and maybe even get a turnover out of it. I told them if they got by us, to foul and make them try to beat us at the line. They got by us, but we couldn't catch them."

Indeed, the Gators had two chances at a tie in the frantic final moments.

First, Sheldon Ruud found an opening down the middle of the lane and drove to the basket for a lay-up that rolled off the rim. Kuznia then went above the crowd for the rebound, but his shot also fell off the rim as the horn sounded.

"We had our chances," acknowledged Sparby. "We actually had 3-4 opportunities at the end and couldn't cash in. We had the shot and the put-back and didn't get either one."

Nelson, a 6-4 junior, led all scorers with 24 points as he battled the Gators' inside tandem of 6-7 Richard Klein and the 6-5 Kuznia.

"Nelson had a heckuva game," said Sparby.

"He (Nelson) is a good basketball player," confirmed Hanson. "There was nothing surprising about his effort. He's been doing that all year."

Kuznia, along with the rest of the Gators, ran into first half foul problems, but still finished as their only double figure scorer with 16 points.

"Matt getting into early foul trouble certainly didn't help," noted Sparby. "We gave them too many opportunities at the line in the first half. We just had too many key players who didn't show up to play."

Tri-County shot 44 percent from the field (19/43) and made 13 of 18 free throws, including an 11-for-15 first half at the line. Badger/Greenbush-Middle River shot 40 percent from the floor (21/52) and had a quiet 4-for-7 free throw game.

Overtime defeat vs. Pirates ends Huskies season

Goodridge has been down this road before. For the second straight year the Huskies were bounced out of the Section 8A Sub-Section 3 boys high school basketball tournament with a heart breaking quarterfinal round loss in the Warren gym.

Monday, Crookston edged Goodridge 63-61 in overtime to end the Huskies' 1994-95 season at 16-7. A year ago Red Lake Falls did it to the Huskies, 49-47 on a last-second shot.

Crookston led at the quarter stops 13-12, 24-23 and 41-35. Goodridge was down 10 with 1:54 remaining in regulation time, but tied it at 54-54 when Brady Wiseth hit a 3-point basket with six seconds left to force overtime.

The Pirates had the edge in the four-minute extra session when Mark Waxvik hit a pair of 3-point baskets and Bobby Shimpa added two key free throws.

Goodridge had a final-possession opportunity in overtime after controlling a rebound off a missed Crookston free throw with 9 seconds left, but ran into a game-long problem in holding on to the ball and failed to get off the shot.

"We had many opportunities to come back, but we just couldn't do it," noted Goodridge coach John Rahn. "It was a very intense defensive game. Both teams had trouble with turnovers. There were some bad passes, but there was some serious defense being played, too."

The No. 4-seeded Pirates beat the No. 5-seeded Huskies 72-54 in a

Mustangs struggle at end of semifinal loss

Red Lake County Central shot blanks on offense down the stretch Tuesday in a 68-52 Section 8A Sub-Section 3 boys high school basketball tournament semifinal loss to Climax/Fisher at the University of Minnesota-Crookston.

The Mustangs trailed 16-14 at the end of the first quarter, faced a 36-29 halftime deficit and were down 48-36 midway through the third quarter before coming back. They were within 50-45 by the end of the third quarter and chopped the Knights' lead to 53-52 following an Aaron Rosten free throw with 6:34 remaining.

But that was it for Red Lake County Central, whose usually high-scoring offense failed to produce a single point over the final 6 1/2 minutes.

A Climax/Fisher switch from a man-to-man to a zone defense led to the Knights' 15-0 game-ending run.

The Mustangs' late-game collapse included an 0-for-7 showing from 3-point range.

"Nobody stepped up when we needed it at the end," pointed out Red Lake County Central coach Todd Fore. "We should have been more patient. We started to panic. We had the shots from the wings, but they just wouldn't go in. And we didn't go inside like we should have."

Because of point-less finish, it was the Mustangs' lowest scoring game of the 1994-95 season.

"I've never seen anything like it," said Fore.

Alex Peterson led the Knights with 29 points. Teammate Jamie Aanenson had 12. The Mustangs' Aaron Chaput netted 26 points, and Rosten contributed 14.

Red Lake County Central shot 45 percent from the field (21/47) and made 4 of 8 free throws. Climax/Fisher shot 53 percent from the floor (26/49) and went 10-for-14 at the line, hitting six of those free throws during their game-winning fourth quarter run.

The Mustangs, who beat the Knights 60-59 in a regular season match-up, didn't take advantage of a sizeable 30-16 rebound advantage. They also topped the turnover charts, 10-3.

Red Lake County Central headed into the Section 8A Sub-Section 3 third place game with a 16-8 record.

U. V. PROTECTION

You can hardly pick up a paper these days without reading about ultraviolet radiation. Actually, there are two types of UV. One type tans your skin, the other type, which burns your skin, can also burn the retina and cause cataracts.

When we are upright, our eyebrows help protect the eyes from direct exposure to UV, so we need only be concerned about reflected light. Water, sand, and snow can all reflect UV light into our eyes. Since there are no known benefits to UV exposure, it makes good sense to play it safe and protect your eyes. This is especially true for sportsmen, who spend a lot of time outdoors, or on the water. Many authorities also contend that computer operators are at risk from UV radiation.

Your family optometrist can advise you as to the proper protection you need for your particular lifestyle. If you're as concerned about UV radiation as I am, why not ask him to supply the proper lenses, sunglasses, or contacts to block out these rays.

Mock trial team again finishes second in region

For the second year in succession, the Lincoln high school mock trial team lost to Virginia by a single point in the Region 1 championship trial. The event matching east and west sub-region champions took place Tuesday at the Beltrami county courthouse in Bemidji.

Presiding judge Frank Munshower Jr. awarded 85 points to Virginia and 84 points to Lincoln while scoring judge Tim Faver gave 88 points to each team. With the 173-172 victory, Virginia advances to the state competition in St. Cloud March 20-21.

Both judges awarded Lincoln a win on the merits of the case, but this determination does not figure in the scoring. Since the plaintiff side in this case was more difficult to argue, teacher coach Cal Lindberg said, the team was pleased with winning on merit.

Lindberg said that he and lawyer coaches Gayle Borchert and Mike Jorgenson were really proud of this year's team and its record.

"This is the second consecutive year that LHS has placed second in the region," Lindberg said. "Although losing by such small margins is certainly disappointing, this year's team has much to be proud of. Team members learned a great deal about courts and our legal system, gained valuable skills in public speaking and critical thinking and demonstrated good sportsmanship in both winning and losing.

"As always," he added, "our team represented LHS and our community in a positive and professional manner. I consider it a privilege to work with such a bright (combined GPA of 3.961 last quarter), highly motivated and fun-loving group of students.

"With only two seniors—Alyssa Johnson and Kassie Westerman—graduating, the team looks forward to a strong future with the possibility of this year's three juniors and three sophomores trying out for next year's team."

Potential returning team members are Mylynda Olson, Kate Ihle, Jennifer Vad, Christopher Tsukichi, Darren Nelson and Heidi Johnson.

Coach Lindberg also said it was a nice gesture by Warren coach Charlotte Drenckhahn and her team to come to Bemidji for the championship trial and offer their support to the Thief River Falls team. Warren lost to Thief River Falls in the sub-region finals.

Short-handed LHS mock trial team still wins

Forced to change its role playing line up when part of the team was in Washington, DC, for the Close Up program, Lincoln high school's mock trial team gained two victories Thursday at Bemidji to win the west Sub-Section 8 championship.

As winners of the west half, Thief River Falls will meet the east sub-section champion Tuesday, March 7, at 12:30 p.m. in the Beltrami county courthouse in Bemidji. Winner of that trial will advance to state competition.

In the first trial Thursday, Lincoln represented the plaintiff and Cass Lake represented the defendant. Although losing on the merit of the case in the judges' opinion, Lincoln scored a 184-179 win on total points to advance to the next round.

There the local team faced a rematch with Warren, the team they had narrowly defeated in the first trial of the season. Warren had recovered from a fourth and fifth place tie to win a playoff and then defeat the first place team in the other trial held Thursday morning.

Thief River Falls represented the defendant in this trial and gained a 183-179 victory on total points with the judges split on which team won the case on merit.

Lincoln teacher coach Cal Lindberg distributed his praise between his own young team and the Warren team and program.

"I'm very proud of the way our juniors and sophomores stepped up to replace our seniors and worked so hard to prepare and present their cases," he said. "A lot of credit also goes to lawyer coaches Mike Jorgenson and Gayle Borchert for their training and assistance."

Lindberg was especially complimentary to the Warren team for its effort and abilities to work its way from a fourth and fifth place season-ending tie to challenge for the sub-section championship.

"I knew the final would be a tough one against that group," he said, "and it really could have gone either way. I think the sportsmanship shown by the team and coach in a narrow defeat epitomizes the spirit of what high school co-curricular activity should be."

back to the Erie community where they rented the Ed Singer store. He sold merchandise to everyone, be they Swede, Norwegian or Native American, and she cared for their two little girls.

A new business opportunity enticed them to Goodridge where they purchased the Henry Tollefson garage, store and gas pumps. The building was located where the present post office stands. Their living quarters were the apartment on the west side of the garage.

Goodridge did not have running water, but this apartment had a cistern with rain water in it, which was used to do laundry and household chores. Beginning in the '40s and early '50s, our lady guest was busy caring for their five daughters and one son.

She attended PTA meetings and school programs and then there were Sunday School, confirmation, high school graduation and weddings. She attended showers and circle meetings and helped at the rummage sales and bazaars. She always came early to the bazaars to check out the sets of dish towels, choosing the very prettiest set to purchase. Now she is busy embroidering dish towels as well as crocheting beautiful doilies, etc.

The older three girls were drafted by their Dad to pump gas, while their son could help by selling car parts such as belts and spark plugs.

Now that there was a garage to work in, it was more convenient to tinker and invent things such as his "Big Buggy." This was a motorized four-wheel drive vehicle made out of spare parts. There was a man from Thief River Falls who drove a beer truck. He had a great hankering for one of these bog buggies but had no money to pay for it.

Being the shrewd operator that the garageman was, he thought and thought about the matter. Finally he came to a decision. He traded the Bog Buggy for many cases of beer and stored the beer in the house he now lives in. Kenny Thoreson had a car to sell, and the deal was for the car he got $20 cash, $20 credit and two cases of beer! This was the way deals were made and the used car lot was not quite big enough to park all kinds of cars and other vehicles. There always was a turnover of the inventory on a monthly basis.

Our honored guests had one of the first television sets in Goodridge and listened and watched every night until the station went off the air.

After owning and operating the garage for 25 years, they decided to retire, and they moved into the little house to the west. That was 25 years ago, in 1970. Cars are still on the parking lot, being traded frequently.

This couple continues to be active members of the community. He really is going to retire from the city council this year at the age of 86 years.

This couple has traveled to California and last year Carl flew to Alaska to visit his brother. This was his third trip to Alaska.

Let us congratulate Carlie, the shrewdest businessman in Goodridge, and his wife Gertie, who have outlived all the businessmen in Goodridge's history, since the town was built in 1914.

Student skills seminar

On March 20, from 6 p.m. to 7:30 p.m., Kent Mollberg will be offering a student survival skills workshop for all students, parents, and teachers in grades four through college. The workshop will be located at the Goodridge School.

Mr. Mollberg, a junior high teacher from Detroit Lakes, was honored last spring as one of 10 Minnesota teachers to receive the prestigious Ashland Oil Teacher Achievement Awards.

For more information, contact Loren Lusignan or Marilou Anderson at Grygla School.

Denny Tollefson, manager of Bridgeman Dairy's Grand Forks division of which Thief River Falls operations are a part, addressed a group of employees and dignitaries at a ribbon cutting ceremony at Bridgeman Dairy in Thief River Falls. Two escaped inmates back behind bars in TRF

Tracy Alan Zornes from Naiyawash, and Chad Allen Ostlund escaped from the Pennington County Law Enforcement Center in Thief River Falls on March 5 by crawling through a false ceiling, breaking through a separating wall, dropping through the false ceiling and then using a brick to break out a window in a door on the north side of the building, which faces onto First Street. Ostlund was captured in an alley in the 800 block of North Knight after a canine unit tracked the escape prisoners to a house in the 600 block of North Duluth and then to the alley.

A minor story during the break out was a bag left behind by the escaped prisoners, which caused law enforcement officials to treat the bag as if it might contain a bomb. It contained some clothing.

As a result of the break out, Mona Rae Bowles faces a charge of aiding an offender, which is a felony. Chad Ostlund and Tracy Zornes face charges of escape from custody, and criminal damage to property, both felony charges. Other charges are pending in the investigation.

Also a result of the investigation into the break out, the law enforcement center has imposed a lock down situation on all prisoners and revoked all privileges and earned good time and sentence to serve time. The investigation indicates that some assistance was provided the escapees by jail inmates.

Public meeting on Highway projects set

Minnesota Department of Transportation will hold a public meeting for comments on projects which have been recommended for funding by the Northwest Regional Area Transportation Partnership. The meeting will be held Thursday, March 16, from 1 to 2 p.m. in the McIntosh Community Center. Federal transportation funding for these projects will be for state fiscal years 1996 through 1998. The ATP region includes the counties of Beltrami, Clearwater, Lake of the Woods, Roseau, Kittson, Polk, Red Lake, Pennington, Marshall, and Norman. In addition, the communities of Thief River Falls, Bemidji, Crookston and East Grand Forks are also eligible for funding.

and bottler of fluid milk. At this time, all milk was bottled in reusable glass bottles and delivered to customers' homes throughout the territory in refrigerated trucks.

Bridgeman discontinued the use of glass bottles in 1952, going instead to paper cartons. Also at this time, the company went from "no grade" to Grade A milk.

Land O'Lakes purchased Bridgeman Dairy in 1952, continuing operations under the Bridgeman name. In October 1987, Land O'Lakes, Inc. merged three of its dairy businesses — Bridgeman Dairy, Lakeside Dairy, and Norris Dairy — into a publicly held company called Country Lake Foods, Inc.

Live grenade found

Cass Lake — A live hand grenade was found in the back yard of a Cass Lake home by the homeowner and his dog on March 14. Darrell "Louie" Besson and his German shepherd found the grenade as they walked through the yard. "I mowed right there at the end of September, right where it's laying," said Bisson. "You'd think I would have hit it with the lawn mower or stepped on it ... it wasn't there then." The Cass County Sheriff's Department and Cass Lake Police Department were notified and they called in the army bomb disposal unit from Fort McCoy, WI. The demolitions experts removed the grenade to an isolated area and destroyed it with a C-4 plastic explosive. The Bisson family has lived in the home for 10 years and does not know how the grenade got into the yard. The incident is under investigation.

Northland Foundation builds scholarship fund

Beginning Monday, March 27, Northland Community College Foundation will officially open its fund drive to raise $750,000 for scholarships for students attending the two-year college in Thief River Falls.

The Foundation, a tax-exempt corporation that is fiscally and organizationally separate from the college, has as its stated goal "to encourage, enhance, support and recognize Northland Community College's impact on the northwest region of Minnesota; to attract area students by providing scholarships; to support Northland Community College functions."

The campaign to establish a fund of $750,000 specifically for scholarships is intended to make larger scholarships available to top academic students, thereby attracting more students likely to complete the two-year program locally and contributing to increased enrollment.

"What we would like to be able to do in the not too distant future," stated Katy Henke, director of college relations and a member of the Foundation's scholarship committee, "is to make available full tuition scholarships for two years to any students from our market area who graduate in the top 10 per cent of their class academically."

Henke estimated that the interest on a base fund of $750,000 would provide for 30 to 35 of the scholarships the Foundation is considering.

"We would include available aids that students would qualify for in the paid tuition package," Henke said, "so not all of the money would have to come out of the scholarship fund. But we would make the scholarships available to students who would not qualify for aid as well as those who do."

Henke said that local studies have shown that the awarding of the limited number of presently available Swenson Scholarships (from $500 to $1,500 each) has resulted in nearly all recipients remaining at Northland through their second year—a strong indication that attractive scholarships contribute to student retention.

The good news, Henke added, is that although the fund drive has not officially begun, more than half of the amount being sought has already been raised through donations and pledges. That should be an indicator that the goal is realistic and achievable, she said.

In preparing for the campaign, the Foundation has developed several annual and lifetime giving levels, with the annual levels being cumulative on the lifetime schedule.

Annual donation levels are: Bronze Star, $50-$99; Silver Star, $100-$249; Gold Star, $250-$499; and Diamond Star, $500 and up.

Lifetime donation levels are: Director's Club, $1,000-$4,999; President's Club, $5,000-$9,999; Chancellor's Club, $10,000-49,999; and Founders' Club, $50,000 and up.

Persons whose annual contributions accumulate over a period of years to $1,000 or more will be moved into the lifetime categories as those levels are achieved.

Individual donors may have an endowment fund given a specific name when the donation is $35,000 or more. In addition, donors to the Foundation may specify their gifts for scholarships or for other activities of the Foundation.

Among programs and activities which the Foundation supports in addition to scholarships are recognition of outstanding scholarship, leadership and teaching; development of special programs; awards for special achievement; management and investment of funds, sup-

Judy Bogestad of Karlstad on All-State School Board

by Elizabeth Reishus
Times Reporter

For a northwestern Minnesota homemaker and education leader, a walk in the state limelight was a gratifying experience. Judy Bogestad of Karlstad was chosen as a member of the 1995 Minnesota All State School Board. Each year the award goes to six or seven outstanding school board members from across the state.

Each year the Minnesota School Boards Association sends entry forms to local districts and asks that they nominate a member. Karlstad has never nominated a member because they figured a small district could never compete against all the big schools in the Twin Cities area. Judy credits Tri-County superintendent, Dr. Dorothy Suomala for suggesting that Tri-County send a nominee. Judy also credits Dr. Suomala with soliciting letters of endorsement for her. Support for Judy and recognition of her hard work came from everywhere, including someone from a neighboring school district.

The award is well deserved. Judy has been very involved with the school and school board issues for six years, and this is her second year as chair.

One of her first big projects as a board member was as a Sports Pairing Representative. She worked with people from Karlstad and neighboring communities to develop programs for sharing boys and girls track with Greenbush, speech and softball with Newfolden, and golf with Greenbush and Badger.

She was also on the Consolidation Committee which was successful in getting people from Strandquist and Karlstad to work together for a smooth consolidation of their schools in 1991.

Judy is a charter member of the Minnesota Moose Country Interactive Television Project which is a consortium of five schools working together to bring more courses to students through the use of ITV.

One incident that appeared in many of Judy's letters of endorsement was her active involvement on the superintendent recruitment committee. Judy recalls that it was her very first meeting as chair when the former superintendent announced he had received a wonderful job offer and asked to be let out of his contract. He agreed to stay and help out while they searched for a new superintendent.

Everyone at the school helped out during this time. When school started in September, they still had no superintendent at Tri-County so Judy was up at the school everyday to see if things were okay and help where she was needed. "I give a lot of credit to the people there (at the school)," said Judy.

Having school open for a month without a superintendent takes a lot of cooperation. "When there's a need, people show their best side," she said.

Judy is a visionary. She looks to the future and sees the technological and societal changes that will occur. She wants the students at Tri-County to keep up with technology to make learning more exciting and to prepare them for life. She is looking at adding more ITV classes

CONJUNCTIVITIS
Conjunctivitis, a common eye problem, is an inflammation of the lining of the eyelid and the conjunctiva that covers the eye surface. Conjunctivitis may be caused by chemicals, dust, smoke, foreign objects, allergic rhinitis (hay fever), fungi, bacteria, or viruses. Swimming may develop conjunctivitis from the chlorine in the pool (chemical conjunctivitis) or from contaminated water (bacterial conjunctivitis).
A clue that conjunctivitis is caused by airborne irritants such as smoke, smog, and chemical sprays is that both eyes are affected. Allergic conjunctivitis caused by molds or pollens usually develops on warm, windy days. Again, both eyes are affected.
Bacterial conjunctivitis, also called pinkeye, is the most likely diagnosis if a person awakens with one or both eyelids stuck together or there is a discharge. Because pinkeye is an infection of the conjunctiva, a doctor should be consulted.

Editorial opinion published on this page, whether locally written or re-printed from other sources is intended to stimulate thinking and discussion among our readers. Shakespeare Said It Best: "Much Ado About Nothing"

The closed door session Tuesday in Thief River Falls involving Skip Peltier of the Minnesota State High School League and the 10 athletic directors of hockey-playing schools in Section 8A could have been the setting for a Shakespearian drama. The bard even would have had an appropriate title for it: "Much Ado About Nothing."

The meeting with the ADs was reportedly about suspicions of alleged recruiting by the Warroad high school hockey program. The Warriors have enjoyed exceptional success in the past two years, winning the state Class A championship in 1994 and finishing a strong third at the state event this year. Two costly injuries and a fortunate game-winning carom shot from behind the goal, all in the second tourney round against International Falls, probably kept the Warroad team from repeating as state champs.

There is nothing like success by someone else in high school hockey tournaments to bring out the spring flock of boo birds. There are always those who either believe they can improve their position by degrading others or are simply mean-spirited enough to want to diminish the accomplishments of others. That this pettiness and innuendo should require a regional MSHSL meeting is regrettable, except for the result.

"It's our policy not to air our linen in public," Peltier said after the meeting, but he did hang out his own determination of fact. "Did recruiting occur?" he asked. "No it didn't," he answered.

Open enrollment in Minnesota schools—a concept which we support—is an open invitation for students to attend school where they feel it is best for them. That benefit may be academically, artistically, athletically or otherwise motivated. For that matter, through its state-approved magnet arts school, the Thief River Falls school district openly recruits artistic students from throughout the entire Seventh Congressional District to attend classes and participate in co-curricular activities here. Is anyone complaining to the MSHSL about that?

Thief River Falls' hockey program probably has lost the most players to other schools in Section 8A, including transfers to Roseau and Warroad. Other programs in the section may also have had such transfers, although they have not been publicly mentioned and probably are fewer in number. Notable transfers from Thief River Falls have been Steve Sabo, Wyatt Smith, Jason and Chad Furuseth, Kaine and Tanner Martell, Cory Howe, Hunter Boldt and Paul Borchert. All have played hockey for either Warroad or Roseau. In the cases of at least Smith, the Furuseths and Borchert, family relocation for employment was involved.

While these moves took place over the years, not a great deal was made of them except for minor rumblings of curiosity, disappointment or discontent. It took Warroad's tournament success to bring about a MSHSL meeting.

Suggestion following the meeting Tuesday that some schools may not schedule games with Warroad athletic teams would seem to be particularly spiteful. The only possible justification for such a temporary break in scheduling with Warroad would involve East Grand Forks, whose players were involved in a scuffle with Warroad players during post-game handshakes following the Section 8A semi-final game won by Warroad. If that break for a cooling-off period should occur, it would more properly be a mutual decision between the two schools.

Rivalries between high school teams are natural and enjoyable if they are viewed and conducted properly. That includes leaving the rivalry with the players on the court, field or ice while the game is in progress. When persons other than the players and their coaches involve themselves in the rivalry is when problems start to happen. And when they allow more than the game itself to be included in the rivalry is when the problems escalate.

Perhaps Thief River Falls should consider itself fortunate its high school basketball team did not advance in the sub-sectional tournament this year. Prior to this season the Prowlers were acknowledged to be in need of a point guard to complement talented junior center Kyle Sanden. Lo and behold, new assistant elementary principal Dave Hedin has a son, Josh, who filled that role well this year as a junior. Coincidence or recruitment? Only tourney success would have raised the question.

And Shakespeare would have had the same comment for critics of the Prowlers as for critics of the Warriors: "Methinks thou dost protest too much."

Ambitious, Attainable.... Northland Scholarship Fund Seeks $750,000

Northland Community College Foundation is undertaking an ambitious project in its quest to raise $750,000 for its scholarship fund. The idea is to accumulate a substantial fund base so as to provide larger scholarships to academically gifted students from the interest earned.

Even in today's terms, three-quarters of a million dollars is real money. But the Foundation has already surpassed the midway point in its effort and has yet to begin its solicitation efforts. That support would indicate that the goal—ambitious as it is—is definitely attainable.

We like the idea of the Foundation to reward good academic students, regardless of their financial need, with scholarship money that is meaningful in amount. Proposed is full payment of tuition for both years at the two-year college for any student in the college's area graduating in the upper 10 per cent of his or her high school graduating class.

Persons or businesses interested in being a part of creating this fund may contact any member of the foundation's board of directors or Katy Henke, director of college relations, at Northland Community College, phone 218-681-2181 or 1-800-628-9918.

To The Editor:

I am so frustrated with the so-called judicial system in this county I don't even know where to begin.

Recently, my half-brother, Bruce Holmgren, was accused of and charged with a crime I seriously believe he did not commit. The evidence against him was overwhelmingly circumstantial, but needless to say, that didn't matter. The woman who made these accusations has also accused three other men of the same thing! Isn't that just a little strange?

Now I'm sure you think I'm sticking up for him because we are related, but believe me, I'm not. We were never close and did not get along very well, but I can't stress enough the pain I feel when I see what happens to a person simply because of his name.

Of course, the judge and prosecutor saw no reason whatsoever to question jurors on this case because of biased opinions, and of course there was no way of getting a change of venue!

I'm sorry, but when I heard on the scanner that the first person the police (O1) insinuated was responsible for the break-out at the jail was a Holmgren, I couldn't have been more angry! I'm so sick of this! That officer should have been paying more attention to the guys who were escaping.

Regardless of their community standing, what family do you know who wouldn't stand behind one of "their own" when they are being accused of such a crime? I think most families would.

Bruce Holmgren was wrongfully accused and I feel that there is no way that he or any other Holmgren for that matter could ever have a fair trial in Pennington county. Listening to the scanner the night before Bruce was sentenced proved that to me.

Unfortunately an innocent man is sitting in prison over this incident and I guess it's sad to say, but you really are guilty until proven innocent....at least in Pennington county.

Sincerely,
Michelle Qualley

To The Editor:

Often what happens in our nation's capital seems very removed from our daily lives. Recent actions in Washington, D.C. however, will hit our communities "close to home" this summer. The U.S. House of Representatives will vote any day now on a proposal to eliminate the summer jobs program for youth. For more than 20 years, this program has provided needed jobs in this area for low-income, disabled and at-risk youth.

The House Appropriations committee voted recently to eliminate the summer youth employment and training program funded through the Job Training Partnership Act. It provides 615,000 disadvantaged youth nationwide with summer jobs and learning opportunities to help improve basic math and reading skills. Without this funding, our northwest service delivery area will lose 203 jobs this summer.

Eliminating the summer jobs program is very short-sighted. These programs engage youth in positive work experiences, provide needed income, reduce drop-out rates, and help youth make the connection between success in school and success in the workplace.

Furthermore, the employed youth provide services that benefit all of us, from neighborhood and roadway clean-up to recreational services for our children at local parks. In short, the JTPA summer youth program is a minimal investment that yields a high return.

Congressional leaders are calling upon the private sector to pick up the slack where federal support is reduced. In fact, local employers will hire young people where possible. Many already complement our summer program by hiring older youth and youth whose family income is above the federal guidelines. However, the loss of the federal jobs cannot be made up through private efforts. In fact, for 14 and 15-year-olds, the federally supported youth program is often the only option for finding employment.

As vice president of the Northwest Private Industry Council and a special education teacher in our public schools as well as the employability skills program for JTPA, I urge parents, teachers, employers and everyone concerned about creating productive work for our youth to contact our Senators and our Congressional Representatives to express support for the summer jobs program.

Following are names, addresses and phone numbers of federal elected officials representing our area:

Rep. Collin Peterson, 1725 Longworth Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, phone (202) 225-2165; Sen. Paul Wellstone, 123 Hart Senate Office Building, Washington, DC 20512, phone (202) 224-5641; and Sen. Rod Grams, 1713 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, DC 20515, phone (202) 225-2271.

Sincerely,
Dixie Holen, Vice President
Northwest Private Industry Council

Pine to Prairie Hospice becomes Medicare certified

Pine to Prairie Hospice in Karlstad became Medicare certified on March 3 and is fully staffed to serve residents of the northwestern Minnesota area, according to Sandra Peterson, director.

As a result of the certification, many services provided by Pine to Prairie Hospice are covered benefits under Medicare, Medical Assistance, Minnesota Care and many private insurance companies, Peterson said.

Services offered include intermittent nursing: on-call Registered Nurse 24 hours a day, seven days a week; medical social services; physical, occupational and speech therapy; counseling; drugs and medical supplies, short-term inpatient care; continuous at-home care during periods of crisis; home health aides; and assistance by volunteers.

Hospice derives its meaning from a medieval word meaning a place of shelter for travelers on a difficult journey.

"Today," Peterson said, "that traveler is seeking shelter, comfort and support from Hospice on a final journey and the care needed is truly personal."

Pine to Prairie Hospice provides support and care for the terminally ill so they may live their final days as fully and comfortably as possible.

"We believe that death is a natural part of life and seek neither to hasten nor postpone it," Peterson added. "Our trained staff focuses on managing symptoms and controlling pain to enhance the remaining days of life."

For more information about Pine to Prairie Hospice, contact Sandra Peterson at 218-436-2273 or 1-800-494-6081 or write to her at P.O. Box 83, Karlstad, MN 56732. Office hours are 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Ice Reflections show this week

Annual ice skating show presented by the Thief River Falls parks and recreation department recreational skating program will be presented Saturday, March 18 at 7 p.m. and Sunday, March 19 at 2 p.m. in the Huck Olson Memorial Civic Center.

Tickets are available in advance at $3 for adults, $2 for students in grades 6-12 and $1 for students in grades K-5 at Hugo's Supermarket, Ekeren Drug and Kezar Music. Admission at the door will be 50 cents higher in each category. Preschoolers will be admitted free.

Approximately 200 skaters, including eight soloists, five duets or small groups and two precision lines will be featured as the program reviews the first 20 years of ice shows in Thief River Falls.
